By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Twelfth Day of May next: We do for that End publish this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Twelfth Day of May next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet our People, and have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all our loving Subjects, our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, That, with the Advice of our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to issue out Writs in due Form for calling a new Parliament, which Writs are to bear Teste on Tuesday the Twenty-eighth Day of this Instant April, and to be returnable on Thursday the Twenty-fifth Day of June next.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the the Twenty-seventh Day of April, 1741, in the Fourteenth Year of Our Reign.

God Save the King.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

In Order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have in Council thought fit to declare our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Great Britain on Thursday the Twenty fifth Day of June next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the Advice of our Privy Council, issue forth this our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet in the Room where our Court of Exchequer is held at Edinburgh, on Saturday the Thirteenth Day of June next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and chuse the Sixteen Peers, so sit and Vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election, and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, such Proxies being Peers and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law. And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and return such Certificate into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we do by this our Proclamation strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof during the Time of the said Election, and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders and Violence whatsoever. And we strictly charge and command, that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Our Self at Westminster, the Twenty Seventh Day of April, 1741, and in the Fourteenth Year of our Reign.

God save the King.

AT the Court at St. James's the 27th Day of April, 1741.

The King's most Excellent Majesty, in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the respective Convocations of Canterbury and York should be forthwith dissolved; and that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain should issue Writs for Electing New Members for the said Convocations; which Writs are to bear Teste the Eighth of May next, and to be returnable on the Third of July following.

This Day the Right Honourable Thomas Warrington, Esq; Cofferer of his Majesty's Household was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Witness Our Self at Westminster, the 21st Day of April, 1741.

His Majesty having granted a Commission to several Knights Companions of the most noble noble Order of the Garter, empowering them, or any two or more of them, to install the Dukes of St. Albans, Marlborough, Kingston, and Portland, and to perform all the Solemnities and Ceremonies required by the Statutes and Ordinances in such Cases :

Eight of these Companions of the said Order named in the Commission, all of them robed in the compleat Habits, met in the great Chamber in the Dean's Lodgings, to which Place the four Knights Elect came in their Under Habits, carrying in their Hands their Caps and Feathers, and Hern-tops fixed there-to,

The Poor Knights and Prebends in their Mantles attended in the Cloyster, and the Officers of Arms in the Dean's Hall, till the Procession for the Installation began to the Chapter House in the following Manher.

Poor Knights two and two; Prebends two and two; Officers of Arms two and two. The Dukes of Portland and Kingston in breast; the Dukes of Marlborough and St. Albans in like Manner. Then the Officers of the Order, the Register having on his Right Hand Garter King of Arms, and on his Left the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, wearing their Mantles and Jewels of the Order; then the eight Commissioners, the Juniors first.

Earl of Essex.

Duke of Devonshire.

Duke of Richmond.

Duke of Bolton.

Duke of Newcastle. Duke of Grafton.

Duke of Dorset. Duke of Montagu.

Having thus entred into the North Isle of the Chapel, the Alms Knights, Prebends, and Officers of Arms, made a stand in their proper Distances beyond the Door of the Chapter House, and the four Knights elect retired to Chairs placed for them in the Passage behind the Altar, while the Officers of the Order went into the Chapter House, where the eight Knights Commissioners seated themselves according to their Seniority and Form of Stalls in the Chapel.

Then Garter with Reverence presented the Commission to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, the senior Companion and Commissioner present, who gave it to the Register; which being read by him and presented to the Lords Commissioners, they re delivered it again to him to be entred.

Garter was then commanded to conduct the Duke of St. Albans to the Chapter House Door, where he was received by the two junior Commissioners, and brought between them to that Part of the Table where his Ensigns were placed; and his Grace was invested with the Surcoat of the Order by the two senior Commissioners, the Register reading the Admonition; and then the Hangers and Sword were buckled on.

Garter was then commanded to conduct the Duke of Marlborough to the Chapter House Door, where being received by the same two Commissioners, was brought in and invested in like manner as the Duke of St. Albans had been before.

After which the Duke of Kingston, and lastly the Duke of Portland, were introduced and invested in like manner.

The Knights elect remained in the Chapter House while a Procession was made into the Chapel to offer the Hatchments of the Duke of Kent, the Earl of Strafford, the Duke of Roxburgh, the Earl of Scarbrough, the Lord

Viscount Townshend, and the Earl of Waldegrave, the late deceased Knights, in the following Manner.

The Poor Knights entred the Chapel two and two, and being come into the Middle of the Choir, made their Reverences all together, first to the Altar, and then to the Sovereign's Stall, and proceeded up near to the Rails of the Altar, where they placed themselves on either Side of it.

The Prebends entred in the same Manner, stood all of them below the Poor Knights, excepting two, who were conducted to the Altar to receive the Hatchments to be offered.

The Officers of Arms entred in like Manner, and stood below the Prebends on both Sides.

The Officers of the Order entred in like Manner, and stood before their Seats.

Then the eight Knights Commissioners.

The Earl of Essex entred singly and made his Reverence, first to the Altar, and then to the Sovereign's Stall, and stood in the Area under his Banner, as did likewise the Dukes of Devonshire, Richmond, and Bolton.

The Duke of Grafton, having on his Right Hand the Duke of Newcastle, they being Companions, entred together, made their Reverences, and stood under their Banners.

Then the Duke of Montagu, having on his Right Hand the Duke of Dorset, they being Companions, entred and retired under their Banners in like manner, and then the Banners, Swords and Helmets of the six deceased Knights, were offered with the usual Ceremonies by these Companions.

The Banner of the late Duke of Kent by the Dukes of Dorset and Montagu, the Sword by the Dukes of Newcastle and Grafton, the Helmet and Crest by the Dukes of Bolton and Richmond. The Banner of the late Earl of Strafford by the Duke of Devonshire and Earl of Essex, the Sword by the Dukes of Dorset and Montagu, the Helmet and Crest by the Dukes of Newcastle and Grafton, &c. which being performed, the Commissioners retired under their Banners, and after their due Reverences made, the Return to the Chapter House was in the Order above specified, and from thence a Procession was made into the Choir in the same Manner, save that Garter being in the Middle between the Register and Black Rod, carried on a Crimson Velvet Cushion, with Fringe and Tassels of Gold, the Mantle, Hood, Great Collar and George, and the Book of Statutes, to the Seat before the twelfth Stall on the Sovereigns Side, assigned for the Duke of St. Albans: Then the Commissioners, those who wanted their Companions single, the Duke of St. Albans between the Dukes of Dorset and Montagu, (the Senior Commissioners) habited in his Surcoat, and carrying his Cap in his Hand.

The six junior Commissioners retired under their Banners, and the two Seniors conducted the Knight Elect into the Seat where the Cushion with the Ensigns of the Order was placed; there the Knight Elect laying his Hand on the New Testament, took the Oath for the Observation of the Statutes.

Which being done there, two Commissioners conducted him into his Stall, where he was by them invested with the Mantle, Hood, great Collar and George, the Register reading the accustomed Admonitions, and the Commissioners delivering to him the Book of Statutes, placed the Cap on his Head, and seated seated him in his Stall, who presently rising and making his Reverence to the Altar and the Sovereign's Stall, the Commissioners embraced and congratulated him, and leaving him in his Stall, descended into the Area, and stood under their Banners.

Then the Poor Knights, Prebends, and Officers of Arms returned towards the Chapter-house, and the Officers of the Order and the Commissioners entred into it, from whence the Duke of Marlborough was conducted in like Manner, and installed in the twelfth Stall on the Prince's Side by the two Senior Commissioners.

In like Manner the Duke of Kingston was installed in the thirteenth Stall on the Sovereign's Side, and the Duke of Portland in the last Stall by the said two Senior Commissioners.

These Installations being finished, and all the Companions in their Stalls, and the Officers of the Order being returned to their Seats, Divine Service was begun, and the Offertory Sentence being read, the Poor Knights made their Reverences, and ranged themselves on both Sides as near as they could to the Rails of the Altar; the Officers of Arms did the same; and Garter rising from his Seat, made his Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and summoned the Dukes of Portland and Kingston, who having made their Reverences in their Stalls, descended together into the Choir, where meeting and repeating the same, retired under their Banners. Then all the other Knights being summoned, descended and retired in like Manner. All the Knights thus standing under their Banners, the two Provincial Kings of Arms repaired to the two Senior Commissioners, who made their Reverences first upon their moving from under their Banners, and again at the first Step of the Altar, and being come to the Rails of the Altar, made their Reverences to the Altar only, and kneeling down offered Gold and Silver, and rising up and making their Reverences went into their respective Stalls and sat down; the like was performed by the other Commissioners and new installed Knights, those who wanted their Companions offering single.

The Knights being all in their Stalls, continued therein till Divine Service was ended, and were then summoned to descend into the Area under their respective Banners, and a Procession was made out of the Choir down to the West Gate of the Chappel, and up through the South Isle, and out at the South Door to the Lodgings, preceded by the Drums and Trumpets.

The Knights had a Grand Entertainment in the Guard Chamber, and when the second Course was bringing in, the Stiles of the new installed Knights were proclaimed as usual.
