Petersbourg, July 25.

N the 22d Instant the new-born Princels was baptized by the Name of Catherine. Her Grandfather the Duke of Mecklenbourg was her Godfather, represented by the Great Chancellor Prince Czirkashi; her Godmother was the Princes Elizabeth, who upon that Oc-casion presented the Great Dutchess with a Gold Cup and Plate fer with very fine Saphires and Brilliants, and to the young Princess a Pair of very fine Diamond Earnings and Drops; the Value of which Presents amounts to 25000 Roubles. The beginning of last Week Count Lynar, in the King of Poland's Name, presented the Czar and the Prince Generalissimo with the Order of the White Eagle. Upon this Occasion, the 23d being the Festival of the Order of the White Eagle, the Generalissimo celebrated it at Court; when his Brother Prince Lewis, and the other Knights, being the Prince of Hesse Hombourg, the Felt-Marshal Lacy, young Count Munich, and the President Mengden, had the Honour to dine with him, as Count Lynar The Felt-Marshal Munich, who is a Knight also of the same Order, tho' in Town, but very much indisposed, was not there on that Account: However Count Lynar, had some few Days before, by the King of Poland's Command, made him a Present of one of those Orders set with Brilliants. The said Count Lynar received last Night from the great Dutches, in the Czar's Name, the Order of St. Andrew; for which he was at Court this Morning to return his Majesty and her Highness Thanks. Within these sew Days this Court has received certain Advice, that the Swedish Troops which are in Finland had Orders to draw together, and begin the Operations of War. Whereupon General Keith has been hastened away to the Frontiers of Finland, to make proper Difpositions for taking the Field.
