Whitehall, January 8.

Letter from Captain Hervey, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Superbe, dated in Kinfale Harbour, into which he had been driven by contrary Winds, gives the following Account : That in his Passage from the West Indies, in the Latitude of 33. 20. Longitude 65. Weft, he had taken a Spanish Ship called the Constante, of 24 Guns, and 64 Men, between 3 and 400 Tons, who came from the Carraccas, bound for the Canaries, laden with Cocoa; and that there failed from La Guerra with her two more Ships, the St. Anna of 54 Guns, and the St. Jago of 34 Guns, both bound for St. Sebastians. Advice is likewife brought by the Superbe, That Captain Brodrick, in the Shoreham, had, in his Cruize off Carthagena, taken a Champana, laden partly with Bale Goods that were of the Cargo of the Galleons, going for Mempos, and partly Money, which together are computed at near 80000 Pieces of Eight Value, and that the Shoreham was fince stationed at Cape Francois, to cruize on the Spanish Privateers, for the Security of the Trade from the Northern Colonies. Alfo, that the Augusta had chased a Spanish Privateer into Port Francois, and retaken a Prize from her; and had likewife taken and fent into Jamaica, a Spanish Caraccas Ship of 300 Tons and 53 Men, which came from the Havanna the 5th of August, N. S. bound to the Coast of Caraccas, but losing her Mast in her Passage, was going to Port Francois to refit; but the Governor of the Havanna, straitened for Money, had taken out of her 80000 Pieces of Eight for the Urgencies of the publick Service. There are likewife Letters by the Superbe, which mention the Death of Don Blas de Lezo at Carthagena, and give the following Account of what had happened fome Time before at the Havannay viz. That Don Radrigo de Torres, the Spanish Admiral, failed from Carthagena in the Santa Anna, but that Ship was run a-ground on the Rocks in their going into the Havanna, and had beat off half her Keel, for which they had been obliged to careen her: That the Admiral had then holfted his Flag on board the Invincible, a new Ship built at the Havanna, and never at Sea, which was foon after blown up by Lightning, and in her four Millions of Pieces of Eight ; that the Ship having lain within Piftol Shot of the Walls, the Town was deferted by every body whilft fhe was burning; that two Churches had been extremely damaged by the Blaft, and the Dome of the principal one must be taken down to repair it; that Don Rodrigo de Torres had himfelf narrowly escaped in his Boat, and that the next Ship in which he hollted his Flag, had her Mainmast carried away in a Thunder Storm in two Days after his coming aboard. Some Letters from Jamaica mention, that they had heard there from Carthagena, that Admiral Spinola in the Europa, who went from the Havanna for La Vera Cruz, to fetch Money from thence, was loft in his Paflage.

Vienna, Jan. 3, N. S. On the 1ft In-ftant this Court received an Account, that as Count Khevenhuller advanced from Wayer towards Steyr, the Enemy retired, and at the fame Time deferted Ens: The Retreat of the Enemy was very much diffurbed by our Troops, who, purfued General Minuzzi with the Body of 800 Men under his Command. Count Khevenhuller is marched towards Welfs to cut off the Communication with Lintz, and to be ready to turn towards Efferdingen, or to purfue his March to Lambach. The Marshal Broglio is in and about Pifeck. The Auftrian Troops had attacked a Detachment under the Command of the Marquis de Mirepoix near Vodnian, and had cut to pieces four Compadies of Grenadiers. Prince Lobcowitz's Body of of Troops in Bohemia has had a Skirmish, and to our Advantage, but the Particulars are not yet known. The Pruffian Troops are disperfed at Olmitz, and in the Circle of Prerow.

Drefden; Jan. 7, N. S. Prince Lobcowitz having in his Difpolition at Teutch Brod taken all the Advantages of the Situation of the Place, the Chevalier de Saxe thought it impossible to force him, and therefore endeavoured to draw him from it, by advancing his Army a little on the Left towards Polna, imagining that fuch a Motion might make the Auftrians be-lieve, that he intended to intercept their Com+ munication with their Magazines at Iglaw, or that he defign'd to purfue his March towards them, and that either Supposition might deter-mine them to abandon Teutch-Brod, which they accordingly did the 4th Inftant, having convey'd their Magazines from thence feven or eight Days before, and leaving only a Captain, with near 200 Men in it, who were made Prifoners of War. The Auftrians however are thought only to be removed to Pilgram, and remain, with their main Force, Masters of Budeweis, Tabor and Neuhaus; and Prince Lobcowitz is supposed to have removed his Corps nearer the Great Duke's, in order to fuffain him against Marshal Broglio, who had taken Possellion of Pifeck, and repulied a Detachment of the Great Duke's Army, who had attempted to force that Place. A Party of the Prullians demanded of the Town of Chrudim 40,000 Florins, with Menaces to burn it if the faid Sum was not immediately forth coming; as another of those Troops did, in the fame Manner, at Olmitz, of 200,000.
