

or into Voigland, but turned on a sudden with a Design to surprize Count Töring at Phoring situated upon the Danube between Ratisbon and Ingolstadt; that the Bavarian General had just Time to save himself under the Cannon of the latter, but that the Austrians had seiz'd at the said Phoring, Kelheim, Nieuftadt and Vörburg, all lying upon the Danube between Ratisbon and Ingolstadt, several considerable Magazines of all Sorts; that Colonel Menzel had passed the Danube at the same Time at Hoelstadt with 1500 Horse; had found and dispersed several Undertakers and Contractors of Provisions of all Sorts, at and about Nordlingen, and that these two Bodies were to join afterwards at Weissenberg, and to be followed by Marshal Khevenhuller with the Army, amounting to above 24000 Men. In the mean while his Quarters are said to be full of Deputies and Agents from the several Princes, States and Cities of Suabia, and even of Franconia, to offer their respective Neutralities. The 200,000 Florins exacted of the Dutchy of Neuburg are paid, but deposited by Count Khevenhuller, in order to be restored upon the Elector Palatine's exact Observation of the Neutrality.

Kelheim, March 28. On Easter-Day we marched towards Ingolstadt, to look for the Enemy, who had all drawn together there, and we followed them upon their Heels to attack them. Field Marshal Baron Berencloew went up close to the Fortrefs to reconnoitre it, whereupon the Enemy, to about 100 Men, sallied, but our Hussars, who were at Hand, especially 40 of the Regiment of Adel, immediately marched forth, and, notwithstanding the superior Number of the Enemy, and the Cannon of the Fortrefs, attacked them so briskly, Sabre in Hand, that they did not look for the same Way they came out, but went directly over the Palisadoes, leaving some dead behind. We had above 100 Cannon Shot fired at us, but not one Man was hurt. The Place is now blocked up by Major General Count Luchesi, who has delivered the Enemy's sick and disabled, amounting to 1500 Men, to General Santini, by whom they have been distributed into the Convents. That Gentleman, as well as the French Commandant General de Villemure, have requested some Provisions might be granted them for their own Table. Field Marshal Count Töring, with the Remains of the Bavarian Troops he could gather, particularly Cavalry, hastened from Ingolstadt, and posted himself between Donawerth and Rain. The Enemy made another Sally from Ingolstadt last Night, but were repulsed by our Hussars. We have taken 50 Vessels on the Rivers.

Kelheim, March 29. Two Companies of Grenadiers of the Enemy have deserted, and are come over to us. Field Marshal Count Khevenhuller intended to remove his Head Quarters yesterday to Mosburg, in order to be nearer to the Enemy, from whence he is to remove them farther to Pfaffenhofen. Provisions, especially Flower, are very scarce in Ingolstadt, which gives us hopes of being soon able to reduce it.

Copenhagen, April 3, N. S. On the 29th past a new built Vessel of Forty Guns, called the Crown Yacht, was launched here in Presence of the Court. The 31st was the Anniversary of the Prince's Birth-day, when his Royal Highness entered upon the 20th Year of his Age; but it passed without any extraordinary Celebration. Several Promotions had been expected, but none were made; only Mademoiselle Beleywitz, the first Lady of the Queen's Court, was then invested with the Order of the Convent of Wallöe. The Caroufel not having been in Readiness to be perform'd on the Occasion abovementioned, is deferred till next Saturday.

Dresden, April 4, N. S. People here appear at present very uneasy at having no News from their Army in Moravia, concluding that their Couriers must have been intercepted, and having certain Information that a Party of Austrian Hussars met with a Squadron of their Horse, of Rheichenberg's Regiment, in a narrow Defile, and made the Lieutenant Colonel Fluch, who commanded it, as well as every Officer and private Man, Prisoners of War. His Polish Majesty intends to be at Fraustadt by the 12th of May, in order to hold a Senatus Consultum. His Majesty's Absence from hence will scarce exceed 10 Days. The Day that Colonel Neubour set out for Piseck for the settling of a Cartel with the Austrians for the Exchange of Prisoners, his Polish Majesty was pleased, on Account of his singular Merit, to appoint him Quarter Master General to the Army, with the Title of Major General, and with a considerable additional Pay.

Hambourg, April 6, N. S. Count Sparre who had for some Days discontinued to enlist Sailors for the Swedish Fleet, has again hoisted his Flag for that Purpose. And we hear that the Russian Army in Finland will speedily receive a Reinforcement of Troops draughted from those which are at present in Garrison at Petersburg; that Hostilities will recommence forthwith; and that, in all Appearance, the War between those Northern Crowns will be prosecuted on both Sides with the utmost Vigour.
