Pumb. 8116,

The London Gazette.

Publiched by Anthosity.

From Tuesday May 4. to Saturday May 8. 1742.

Rome, April 28, N.S.

Ardinal Borghefe having accepted the Dignity of Protector of the German Empire, acquainted the Pope therewith in an Audience. The Cardinal del Giudice has ordered to be taken off from the Arms erected before his Palace, the Imperial Eagle, and has kept only the Auftrian Arms and those of the Kingdoms and States polless by the Queen of Hungary, with those of Medicis and Naples, Sicily and Jerusalem. The Pope being informed that the Spaniards had made confiderable Magazines in Ferrara, and guarded them by a Picquet of 50 of their Soldiers, ordered the Cardinal Legate to oblige them to transport forthwith those Provisions fome where else, and to drive the Spaniards out of the Town, for which Purpofe he gave him Leave to fend for a Detachment of the Garrison from Fort Urbain ; he has likewife complained to Cardinal Acquaviva of this Breach of Promife, the Spaniards ha-ving engaged that none of their Troops should come into the Towns of Rome, Civita Vecchia, Loretto, Ancona, Ferrara, or Boulogne. Part of the Duke de Montemar's Army have taken Poffeffion in the Ferrarese of the Estates of Sanmartina and Diamentina, belonging to the Duke of Modena, and have fent Parties to Ponte de Lago Scuro, and the Neighbourhood, to view the most convenient Passages of the Po. The Auftrians on their Side have fent 500 Men and fome Horfe to Revere, where they are fortifying themfelves. On the Side of Boulogne the Spaniards are advanced as far as Castel Bolognese, and it feems to be their Intention to go in a few Days in quest of Count Traun's Army. It is assured that the Duke de Montemar has received the necessary Money to begin the Operations of the Campaign. The Duke of Castropignano has been at Rimini to confer with the Duke de Montemar. There is as yet no Advice of the Montemar. There is as yet no Advice of the Neapolitan Troops being on their Marsh, in order to join the Army of the Spanish General. Genoa, May 2. Two Days ago a Courier from Antibes brought Advice, that Don Phillip arrived there the 20th pass, and that about 400 Spanish Horse had likewise reach'd that Place, the Remainder, to the Number of 5000, with 10000 Infantry, being expected daily. Yesterday came in a Packet from Barcelona, with Advice, that Orders were come from Court for all the Barks that were there, to proceed directly for Antibes, where the Troops that are marching by Land are to embark. They write from Marfeilles, that four Gallies and two Frigates were going for Barbary, to adjust the Differences between the French Court and the Bey of Tunis and Algiers ; that the French Admiral at Toulon had given Liberty to Part of the Seamen to retire to their Families for a few Days, and that the Spaniards were almost refitted, but in great Want of Men, having lost above one Third by Defertion. Private Councils are every Day held here about the Affairs of Corfica, which are faid to be in a bad Situation. The Duke of Miranda, Ambaffador from the King of Naples, is ftill here, waiting to compliment Don Phillip on his Arrival in Italy ; from whence it is conjectured that he may land in fome Port of this Republick. A Veffel is arrived at Leghorn in 48 Hours from Toulon, which brings Advice, that Orders had been given for all the Seamen to return to their refpective Ships.

[Price Two Pence.]

Olmutz, April 29. On the 22d in the E-vening, the Peafants of Mirau and Miglitz brought to our Army at Olfchan, 19 Prufians whom they made Prifoners. The Peafants being informed that our Army was in the Neighbourhood, furrounded this Detachment, and required them to furrender, but they having made fome Opposition, the Peafants killed immediately four upon the Place, and wounded five or fix of them, and had certainly killed them all, if fome of our Huflars had not come in. These Peafants defired to have 100 Huslars, with whom they were fure they could defend the Road of Leutomischel, so as not one Prussian could pass, and offered at the fame time to entertain them at their own Charge. On the 23d we had Intelligence at Olíchan, that the Enemy having been infor-med of the Approach of the Queen's Army, had abandoned the Town of Olmutz in the Night, in great Confusion, and had retired towards Sternberg, whither they were purfued by a Thou-fand of our Huffars, fome Companies of Grenadiers and Carabineers, and a Thouland Croats. The heavy Artillery from Brinn, which was coming hither, was ordered back. Sixty four Pruffian Deferters arrived here in the Afternoon, and in the Evening 80 more came to Olmutz. The 24th, the Huffars who purfued the Enemy, took from them 16 Field Pieces and fome Baggage Waggons, and in the Afternoon they cargage Waggons, and in the Afternoon they car-ried off four heavy Cannon, and 45 Waggons, after having entirely defeated two Battallions that covered the Baggage. Towards Evening his Se-rene Highnels Prince Charles, followed by some Generals, arrived here. It is paft Belief how much the Inhabitants are incenfed against the Prufilans. Moravia is now free of the Enemy; the Barbarities they have committed there are not to be imagined. It is affured that the King of Prufila is at Chiruidim in Bohemia, with a Body of 4000 Men. This Afternoon came in here 75 Prufilan Deferters. The Provisions found in this

this start