

the of Frauenberg near Budeweifs, where the French have a Garrison of 4 or 500 Men, is again invested by the Austrians, and in great Danger of being forced to surrender. The Corps of Hungarians in Upper Silesia daily increases, and they have lately taken a Prussian Lieutenant with 50 Men; and a Party of them has appeared near Neifs. It is written from Prague, that the Emperor was expected there the 28th of this Month, in order to be crown'd a few Days afterwards King of Bohemia: But from Francfort we hear, that his Imperial Majesty is again confin'd to his Bed by the Gout.

Ostend, May 21. On the 19th Instant, arrived here Major General Howard, Brigadier General Pulteney, Colonel Duroure, and Colonel Peers; and the Transports, with the English Regiments on board, came into the Harbour this Afternoon, but too late to land. Billanders are ordered to receive the Men on board To-morrow Morning, and to sail with them directly up to Bruges.

Whitehall, May 15.

His Majesty's Sloop the Hound, commanded by Captain Cooper, being on a Cruize in the Soundings, gave Chace to a Snow on the 29th of last Month, Eleven Leagues to the Westward of Ushant, and came up with her the next Morning, when she hoisted Spanish Colours, and after a short Engagement struck, and Captain Cooper has brought her into Plymouth. She was a Spanish Privateer, called the Nuestra Senora del Pilar, commanded by Maquel del Casal, and had 81 Men, and mounted eight Carriage and 14 Swivel Guns, all which, except five of the Swivels, were thrown over-board during the Chace. She came from Bilboa, and had been but 12 Days off the Stocks, and was intended to cruize in the Channel.

Admiralty Office, April 21, 1742.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleased to direct, That all such disabled Seamen as have been minuted to be received into the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, do make their Appearance at this Office, on Tuesday the First of June next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.

Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty Office, April 17, 1742.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrent Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, as well as to the Widows of those who died since that Time, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st Day of May next; this is to give Notice thereof, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office by the said 31st of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

A Quarterly General Court of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, will be held at their Office in Deans Yard in Westminster, on Monday the Seventh Day of June next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon.
