A T the Court at Kensington, the Seventeenth Day of May, 1742.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland was, by his Majesty's Command, introduced into the Privy Council by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, Lord Pre-fident; where his Royal Highness took his Place at the upper End of the Board on his Majesty's Lest Hand.

Whitehall, May 17.
On Friday the 14th Instant, arrived at St. Helens his Majesty's Ship the Prince Frederick, Captain Boscawen, in nine Weeks from Jamaica, who brings Advice, that his Majesty's Squadron, under the Command of Vice-Admiral Vernon, together with the Land Forces on board the Transports, under the Command of Major General Wentworth, were all under Sail from Jamaica, upon a new Expedition against the Spaniards, the 9th of March last, and that Captain Boscawen had left them together at Sea on the 11th of the same Month.

By Letters from Rear-Admiral Leftock, dated May 1, on board the Neptune, off Antibes, there is Advice, that Vice-Admiral Haddock having, upon Account of the Continuance of his Indisposition, been obliged to charge him the said Mr. Lestock, with the Command of his Maiesty's Mediterranean Squadron, he had set Sail therewith from Port Mahon the 12th of April, in order to the Execution of his Majesty's Instructions, which he had received from Mr. Haddock, having first appointed Cruizers in proper Stations for procuring Intelligence, and annoying the Enemy, and that they had already had the good Fortune to take and destroy several Vessels, laden with Provisions for the Use of the Spanish Forces, and prepar'd with proper Accommodation for transporting their Horse to Italy. The same Letters also mention, that on the 4th Instant, some Days before the Departure of the Fleet from Port Mahon, the Victuallers, with Six Months Provisions for the Squadron, arrived there under the Convoy of Captain Norris, fo that the whole Squadron had thereby compleated their Victualling before they fail'd from thence.

[Price Two Pence.]

Whitehall, May 15.

On the 6th Instant the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and chose for their Moderator Mr. Thomas Tulledeph. His Majesty's Commission to the Right Honourable the Earl of Leven was read, as was likewise his Majesty's most gracious Letter to the Assembly. His Majesty's High Commissioner made a Speech to the Assembly, which was anfwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Answer to his Majesty's most gracious Letter, which being reported, was unanimously approved; and having been transmitted by the High Commissioner to the most Honourable the Marquess of Tweeddale, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously. It is as follows.

May it please your Majesty,

WE acknowledge with the greatest Thank-fulness, the Honour of your Majesty's gracious Letter to us, and your Royal Favour, in continuing to countenance our Assemblies.

The many Assurances of your Majesty's Refolution to maintain inviolable, the Rights and Privileges of the Church of Scotland, as by Law established, and the Confidence your Majesty is pleased to repose in the Wisdom and Prudence of our Conduct, in promoting the true Interests of Religion, encourage us to persevere in our invio-lable Loyalty, and most sincere Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to continue our most strenuous Endeavours to propagate the true Reformed Religion, to promote Virtue, to suppress Vice and Immorality, and to prevent the Growth of Popery in this Part of your Majesty's Dominions.

As we are fensible of the Importance of Harmony and Union among ourselves, to the Success of our Councils and Resolutions, we are determined, through the gracious Affistance of Almighty God, to observe that Candour, Moderation and brotherly Love, in all our Reasonings and Deliberations, which becomes us as Ministers of the Gospel, and which may further recommend this Church to your Majesty's Royal

The Continuance of your Majesty's Bounty, for the Reformation of the Highlands and Islands, we accept of with all Thankfulness, as a fresh Instance of your pious Intentions to promote the Knowledge of true Religion in these Parts; and it shall be our Care so to dispose of this charitable Fund, as may best answer the excellent Purposes for which it is defigned.

The Choice your Majesty hath again been pleased to make of the Earl of Leven, to represent your Royal Person in this Assembly, is most agreeable to us, his known Abilities for discharging the high Trust reposed in him, his great Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, his firm Attachment to the true Interests of this Church, and his prudent Conduct in the last As fembly, lay us under the strongest Obligations to concur with him in bringing this Meeting to a happy Conclusion.

That God may eminently bless your Majesty, and plentifully reward your many and great Favours to this Church; that he may long preserve you for the Happiness of all your Majesty's Subjects, and bless your Majesty's Arms in the just and necessary War, in which your Majesty is now engaged, for vindicating the Honour of your Crown, and redressing the Injuries done to your Subjects; and that he may prosper all your Endeavours for restoring the Peace, and preserving the Liberties of Europe; that he may abundantly bless the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke, the Princesses, the Issue of the Prince and Princess of Wales, and all the Branches of your Royal Family; and that after a long and happy Reign on Earth over an obedient and affectionate People, your Majesty may inherit an immortal Crown of Glory, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedidient, and most loyal Subjects, The Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland. Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Thomas Tulledeph, -Edinburgh, May 8, 1742. Moderator.

Stockholm, April 27. This Day was published here a Manifesto signed by the King, in Aniwer to that lately published at Moscow, in relation to the Dutchy of Finland.

N.B. A Translation of the Swedish Manifesto above-mentioned, will be inserted in the next Gazette, it being of too great Length to be prepared for To-day. Vienna, May 9. G General Stench, whom Count Khevenhuller had left to command in Munich, having abandoned that Capital, and retired to Tyrol with the Garrison, without Orders, General Berenclau went immediately, by Count Khevenhuller's Direction, to retake Poffession of it, which he accordingly did, but lost a Captain and 40 Grenadiers in the Attack. Queen has ordered M. Stench to be judged by a Council of War. The last Advices from Prague fay, that the Sickness has increased to such a Degree amongst the French and Bavarians in Garrifon there, that they have thought fit to encamp without the Town. This Morning two Companies on Horseback, and two Companies on Foot, of a new Sort of Hungarian Militia, from the Frontiers of Servia, upon the Borders of the Danube, passed through this Town in their Way to Bohemia. They profess the Greek Religion, and are of a very warlike Temper. They are as disciplin'd as any old regular Troops, and made the finest Appearance imaginable. are to be followed by feveral other Companies, and it is not doubted but that they will prove very useful even in a ranged Battle. By the Letters from Ketchkemet there is Advice, that 6000 Transylvanians, Foot and Horse, had passed there in their Way towards Scalitich or Jablunka, and were to be followed by 3000 more.

Rendsburg, May 17. Yesterday in the Forenoon the Court arrived here, and after Dinner his Danish Majesty reviewed the only Regiment of Dragoons, with the elder Margrave's Regiment of Foot, and faw the latter perform their Exercise. To Day the Regiment of Dombroich, and that of the Prince of Glucksburg, both Infantry, are to take their Turn; and the four Companies of Artillery, which constantly reside here, are to spring a Mine, and play off a Firework. To-morrow the Court play off a Firework. removes to Dragoe, in order to spend three or four Days there; after which, it seems to be not absolutely determined which Way they will proceed, though most probably it will be to Denmark.

Berlin, May 20. According to the Account given by the Count of Wartensleben, dispatch'd hither two Hours after the Battle of Czailaw, the Prussian Army did not amount to above 20000 Men, and that of the Austrians to 30000. That on the Prussian Side the Generals Werdyck and Wedel, the Colonels Schwerin and Bifmarck, and the Colonel of the Regiment of the Prince of Holstein, were killed; the Generals Waldo and Rottenburg, Colonel Succow, and a great Number of Field Officers morally wounded. Besides the Regiment of Prince William, Brother to the Kings the Regiments of Horse whose Commanders were wounded, have suffered extreamly, as likewise among the Infantry, those of Prince Leopold of Dessau, Holstein, de la Motte, and Moulin. That the other Corps of Infantry had but little Share in the Action. On the Side of the Austrians one General was killed; General Pallant wounded and taken Prifoner; and that Prince Charles, feeing he could not succeed in his Design, retreated.

Hague, May 24, N.S. The Prussian Minister here has received Advice by Express, that on the 17th Instant, N. S. there had been a general Action in the Neighbourhood of Czaslaw, near Chrudim in Bohemia, between the Prussian and Austrian Armies, the former commanded by the King of Prussia, and the latter by Prince Charles of Lorrain, which lasted several Hours, and ended in the Defeat of the Queen of Hungary's Forces, who had 6000 Men killed upon the Spot; that the Prussians had only lost 2000, and remained Masters of the Field of Battle, from whence the Courier was dispatch'd the same Day.
