Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 22. to Saturday June 26. 1742.

AT the Court at Kensington, the Twenty Fourth Day of June, 1742.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable George Wade, Esq; Lieutenant General of the Ordnance, was, by his Majesty's Command, Sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Thomas Clutterbuck, Esq; was, by his Majesty's Command, Sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirteenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act for prohibiting Commerce with Spain." It is among other Things enacted, That from and after the first Day of June 1740, no Wines or Fruits of any Sort, nor Wool, Iron, Drugs or Grocery Wares, Skins, or any other Goods or Commodities whatsoever, of the Growth, Product, or Manufacture of any of the Kingdoms, Dominions, Islands or Territories of the King of Spain, commonly called Old Spain, lying or being in Europe, or of the Islands commonly called the Canary Islands belonging to the said King of Spain, shall, during the present War with Spain, be imported, in any Ship or Vessel whatsoever, into any Port, Haven, Creek, or other Place whatsoever, in the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, or the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, Isle of Man, or Minorca, or the Town or Port of Gibraltar, from any Port or Place whatsoever, either mixed or unmixed, with any Commodities of the Growth or Product of any other Nation, Place or Country whatsoever, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Goods and Commodities, and Treble the Value thereof, and of the Ship or Vessel in which they shall be imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, Ammunition and Apparel, to be prosecuted and divided in the Manner therein mentioned, but subject to such Proviso's and Exceptions as are therein contained: And whereas by the said Act, Power is given to his Majesty, when he shall judge it for the Benefit of his People, to take off the aforesaid Prohibitions and Restrictions, or any Part thereof, from any of the Goods and Commodities aforesaid, by his Royal Proclamation or Proclamations to be issued under the Great Seal of Great Britain, or by his Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, to signify the same, and thereupon such Goods and Commodities as aforesaid, shall and may be imported, being first duly entered and paying the Customs and other Duties due by Law for the same. And whereas his Majesty doth judge it for the Benefit of his People to take off the aforesaid Prohibitions and Restrictions, so far as the same relate to Wool and Barilla of the Growth or Product of any of the Kingdoms, Dominions, Islands or Territories of the King of Spain, commonly called Old Spain, lying or being in Europe, or of the Islands commonly called the Canary Islands, belonging to the King of Spain. It is therefore ordered by the King's most excellent Majesty in Council, that the said Prohibitions and Restrictions shall be, and the same are hereby taken off, so far as they relate to Wool and Barilla of the Growth or Product of any of the Kingdoms, Dominions, Islands, or Territories of the King of Spain, commonly called Old Spain, lying or being in Europe, or of the Islands commonly called the Canary Islands, belonging to the said King of Spain; and that the said Wool and Barilla may from Time to Time be imported, being first duly entered, paying the Customs and other Duties due by Law for the same, and being subject to all such other Restrictions, Regulations, Terms and Conditions, as they would be subject to, in case the said Act had not been made, and no otherwise.

AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the Twenty Fourth Day of June 1742.

The Lords of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Algernon Lord Percy, commonly called Earl of Hartford, to be Governor of the Island of Guernsey, his Lordship this Day in Council took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of that Island.

Rome, June 2. The English Men of War appear often off Civita Vecchia, and along the Roman Coast, and visit all Ships and Barks that they meet.

Naples, June 5, N. S. On the 30th past the Name of the Prince of Asturias was celebrated at Court with great Solemnity, the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, &c. were to pay their Duty on that Occasion to their Majesties, and in the Evening there was a triple Discharge of the Cannon of the Fortresses. The same Day, Notice came here from Messina, that the Ships of War, St. Philip and Partheope were arrived at that Port from Ancona, after having conveyed to the Adriatick, the large Train of Artillery and Military Stores for the Neapolitan and Spanish Armies. A Battalion out of the Corsican Regiment of Foot is ordered to relieve another in Garrison at Gaeta, which is to repair to these Fortresses.
