

ceived the necessary Passports, have actually passed through the Austrian Army in their Way to Venice. The Princesses are retired to the Convent of St. Francis de Sales, and the Hereditary Prince, with the Princess his Consort, are gone to Carrara, the King of Sardinia having sent the Baron de Carpenels to Safluolo, to assure the Duke that his Majesty would never permit the least Injury to be done to the Ducal Family of Modena. In the mean time every thing was prepared for the Siege of the Citadel of Modena, and the Trenches were to be opened before that Fortrefs on the 9th.

Parma, June 9, N. S. The Prince Royal of Savoy is arrived in the Territories of this State with a Body of Piedmontese and Swiss Troops, in order to join the King his Father. They write from Mantua, that 3000 Croats are arrived there from Germany, and that they immediately expect 600 Rascians, all of them cloathed in the Turkish Manner.

Florence, June 17. The Spanish and Neapolitan Armies remain in their Encampments: There is a strong Probability however, that they will soon either attempt an Action, or remove into the Ferrarese, as they cannot longer subsist in the Bolognese for Want of Forage. On the 10th a Picket of Spanish Dragoons deserted when on Duty at their Bridge over the River Reno. A few Days ago a Train of 16 large Cannon from Ancona arrived at the Spanish Camp along the River Muzza.

Vienna, June 13, N. S. The Queen will appear in Publick, for the first Time, after her lying in, on Sunday or Monday next, and will set out a few Days afterwards for the Castle of Schonbrunn.

Vienna, June 20. By Letters which came in this Day at Noon, and dated at Pilsnetz in Bohemia, there is Advice that the main Army is between Pilsen and Beraun, about 10 Leagues from Prague, that the French who first entered Prague, were in such haste as to shut the Gates upon those of their own Body who lag'd, and that they have passed cross the Town to this Side of the Mulda.

Dresden, June 26. Prince Charles is said to be arrived with his whole Army within half a German Mile of Prague.

Breslaw, June 25. We hear that the Peace between the King of Prussia and Queen of Hungary, was proclaimed at his Prussian Majesty's Head Quarters by Sound of Trumpet and Kettle-Drums, in Presence of all the General and Field Officers assembled for that Purpose; and that as soon as the King of Prussia received the Queen of Hungary's Ratification of the Preliminary Articles, his Majesty ordered his Army to hold themselves in Readiness to march in three Bodies, one towards Silesia, another towards Brandenburg through Luface, he having previously asked Leave of the King of Poland, and the third Body towards Westphalia, and that they are already all three upon their March. The King of Prussia will be here on the 4th of next Month, he stays but four Days, from hence he goes to Glogaw, where he stays two Days, and from thence streight to Berlin.

The King has been pleased to nominate the Right Honourable John Earl of Hyndford, his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of Prussia, to be one of the Knights Brethren of the most ancient and most noble Order of the Thistle.

The King has been pleased to nominate Thomas Robinson, Esq; his Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the Queen of Hungary and Bemia, to be one of the Knights Companions of the most honourable Order of the Bath.
