fon of the Year is fo far advanced, that I am perfuaded you are all very defirous of a Receis.

I acquainted you at the Beginning of the Seffion, with my Endeavours to bring about an Accommodation between those Princes, whose Union was most necessary in this critical Con-juncture. The Treaty lately concluded between the Queen of Hungary and the King of Pruffia, under my Mediation, and fo highly to the Honour of Great Britain, must undoubtedly produce the best Consequences to the Common Cause.

The Succeffes which have attended the Auftrian Arms in Germany; the Conjunction of the King of Sardinia's Forces with those of the Queen of Hungary in Italy; the prefent fa-vourable Difposition of the States General, and of other great Powers, are, under God, chiefly owing to the generous Affiftance, afforded by this Nation, to its ancient and natural Allies.

These happy Events cannot fail to give Encouragement to our Friends; and to establish the Reputation of our Strength, and our just Influence Abroad.

. If, for the further Support and Defence of the Queen of Hungary, and to reftore and fecure the Balance of Power, fo particularly recommended to me by my Parliament, it fhould become neceflary for me to contract new Engagements, or to enter into further Meafures, I rely upon your Zeal and Perseverance in so just a Cause, to enable me to make them good.

In the Midst of these extensive Transactions, I have been, and thall continue to be, attentive to the Profecution of the War against Spain with the utmost Vigour ; which is of the greatest Importance to the Trade and Navigation of my Subjects ; the Encouragement and Protection whereof, shall be one of my principal Cares.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The Zeal, Unanimity, and Difpatch, with which you have given fuch large Supplies for the Service of the current Year, demand my particular Thanks; and are fresh Proofs of your Duty to me, and of your Concern for the true Interest of your Country. The Success, with which these Supplies have been raised, must convince all the World of the eftablished Credit of this Nation.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

•I have the justeft Confidence in the Affections of my People, which I shall not fail to cultivate by a constant Care of their Rights and Liberties; and by promoting their Prosperity and Happi neís. Let it be your Endeavour, in your respective Countries, to make thefe my good Intentions rightly underfood; to calm and heal all Animofities and Divisions; to support my Authority and Government; and to preferve the Peace and good Order of the Kingdom.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majefty's Command, said,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

day the Sixteenth Day of September next, to be then here held, and this Parliament is accordingly prorogaed to Thursday the Sixteenth Day of September next.

A^T the Court at Kensington the 13th Day of July, 1742.

PRESENT,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable John Lord Gower, was, by his Majefty's Command, fworn of his Majefty's most Honourable Privy Council, as likewife Keeper of the Privy Seal, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Allen Lord Bathurft, and also the Right Honourable William Finch, Efq; Vice-Chamberlain of his Majefty's Houshold, were, by his Majesty's Command, fworn of his Majefty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Twelfth VV of King Charles the Second, and divers other Acts, the Exportation and Loading on any Horfe or Carriages or Veflels in order to Export out of Great Britain, Ireland, Jersey, Guernfey, Sark and Aldernéy to Foreign Parts, of any Sheep, Wool, Woolfells, Mortlings, Shortlings, Wool, Yarn, Wool Flocks, Fullers Earth, or Fulling Clay, or of Wool flightly manufactured, fo as to be reducible to Wool again (except in the particular Cafes therein mentioned) is ftrictly prohibited, under the Penalties of forfeiting the Goods, Twenty Shillings for every Sheep, Three Shillings for every Pound Weight of fuch Goods, and of the Ship and Tackle, and of all the Goods and Chattels of the Mafter and Mariners affifting, and Three Months Imprifonment, and the Penalties to be equally divided between the Crown and the Profecutor. And by an Act of the Fourth of his Majefty King George the First, the Offender is to be transported for Seven Years, if he don't pay the Penalty after Conviction, and Three Months lying in Prifon; and in Cale of Return before the Seven Years, he is lyable to be punished with Death as a Felon. And by an Act of the First of King William and Queen Mary, Wool to be fent Coastwife is prohibited to be loaded or carried by Land within Five Miles of the Port from whence it is to be fent Coaftwife, unlefs it is first entered at fuch Port, with its Weights, Marks and Num-bers, under the Penalty of forseiting the Goods, with the Horfes and Carriages, and the Perfons concerned in carrying them, are fubject to the fame Penalties as for Exportation. But this is not to hinder the Conveyance of Wool from the Place of Shearing to the Owner's Dwellinghouse, or Outhouse, though within Five Miles of the Sea. Provided, that within Ten Days af-I T is His Majefty's Royal Will and Pleafure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thurf-to the Officers of the next Port the Number of Fleeces,