Florence, Dec. 1, N. S. The Pope having caused fresh Remonstrances to be made to the General Gages about evacuating the Ecclesiastical State according to his Promise; He answer'd, That the Austrians having intercepted the Courier that was bringing him the Orders of his Court touching the Winter Quarters, he was under a Necessity of waiting for the Return of the Express that he had sent to Madrid for fresh Instructions; that the Situation in which he found himself, since the Entry into Tuscany had been barred against him, would in all Probability oblige him to separate his Army, and that the Cavalry might take up their Winter Quarters among the Ferrarois, and the Infantry in Romania, for the Convenience of Forage and Provision. The Pope has held many Congregations of Cardinals in his Presence touching this Answer of the Spanish General: He has shewn to their Eminencies the Copies of the Letters wrote by him to the King of Spain, with the Original Answers of the aforesaid Monarch; wherein he assures the Pope that he had order'd his Troops to evacuate the Ecclesiastical State without Delay: But they are come to no Resolution, and M. de Gages will act as he pleases. His Army has been considerably diminished by frequent Desertions, and Sickness. But according to Letters from Boulogne, it always keeps up its Number, because he is continually receiving small Reinforcements, which it is believed are secretly sent him from the Abruzzo; though it is difficult to know this certainly, because at Foligno, where his Hospitals are, and throughout all the Ecclesiastical State, he takes Care to enlist as many Men as he can find;

find; which Recruits, joined to the Sick of his Army who recover, take the Route of Boulogne. The Regency of Tuscany hath sent Orders torezzo to have Carriages made for twelve Pieces of Cannon, which lay upon the Ground there in the Citadel, and to have Beds prepared at Borgò del Sepolcro. for a Detachment of an 100 Soldiers, which is intended to be sent into Garrison there.

Chambery, Dec. 7. Our Armies are still encamped, and in the same Situation, to the great Detriment of them both; our Men fall sick a-pace, and we lose no small Number by Desertion, for which we have no other Comfort, but that our Enemies suffer three Times as much as we do in both these Ways. We have just received Advice, that M. de Glimes was recalled by the Court of Spain, and that the Marquis de la Mina, formerly Ambassador at the Court of France, arrived the Day before Yesterday at the Spanish Camp under Barreaux, with Letters and Authority from their Catholick Majesties to take the Command of the Army. We do not apprehend that he will attempt to attack us in our present Camp, which he would find both a difficult and dangerous Piece of Work; it is rather probable that he will go into Winter Quarters, as the only Means of preserving the Remains of his Army against next Spring.

Genoa, Dec. 8. The Armies in Lombardy are now retiring into Winter Quarters; the Austrians along the Penaro into the Modenesè, and the Spaniards into the Roman State, about Ancona and Rimini. The Spanish Army under the Command of Count de Glymes, has been reinforced with 6000 Men from Catalonia. Positive Orders have been sent him to force his Passage into Italy in one Way or other. It is reported he is likely to be as much in Disgrace as M. de Montemar, for not giving the Savoyard Battle. There are Preparations making at Barcelona for the Embarkation of Troops, and private Orders are said to be come to the Spanish Minister here, to send down Vessels for Transports. The Generals Montemar and Castellar are gone from hence to Finale in their Way to Spain. This Republick has almost adjusted the Differences that have so long subsisted between them and the Islanders of Corsica, having granted them the Liberty of keeping their Arms, and complied in a great Measure with their Demands. Four Days ago arrived his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Winchelsea, Capt. Holcombe, in Eight Days, from Hieres, where he left Vice-Admiral Matthews, with the major Part of his Fleet in a very good Condition. The Spanish Fleet at Toulon were all refitted, except one Ship; but they wanted above one Third of their Complement of Men.

Vienna, Dec. 8; N. S. This Day, the Birthday of the Great Duke of Tuscany, Sir Thomas Robinson received the Honour of Knighthood, and was invested by his Royal Highness with the Order of the Bath. Marshal Konigseg. return'd hither last Night; when he left the Army, Prince Charles was battering Braunau, and we hear that the Bombs thrown into that Town, had already set great Part of it on Fire. There is a Garrison of 3000 Men, and it is very doubtful, whether the Austrians may be able to make themselves Masters of that Place in this terrible Season. We have begun to recruit here and in Moravia with Success. It is confirm'd from Bohemia, that Leuthmeritz was the Magazine intended for M. Maillebois, if he could have succeeded in his Junction, with Broglio, or otherwise, to supply Prague; it is assured here that it was valued at a Million; and it is certain, that the Loss of it has produced some Want in Prague, particularly of Salt and Powder; Meat and Wood are already very scarce, and the French are obliged to burn the Stools, which serve in the Churches, for Firing; and some say they have marked a great Number of Houses to be pulled down for that Purpose likewise.

Dresden, Dec. 11. N. S. This Court has issued Orders, throughout the whole Saxon Army, that, in each Regiment of Infantry, the First Battalion, and, in each of Cavalry, the First Squadron, be in Readiness to march at an Hour's Warning. Upwards of 2000 Men are said to have already died of the Garrison of Prague, during the present Blockade of that Capital, and they continue to bury there, partly Inhabitants and partly Soldiers, near 200 a Day.

Paris, Dec. 22. N. S. Though the Cardinal de Fleury is much better in Health at present, than he has been lately, his Eminency still continues at Issy, where he sees only the French Ministers. This Court is making Preparations for carrying on the War with Vigour the next Spring: Besides the Augmentation, lately design'd, of 50,000 Men, of which there are to be 300 Companies of Horse and Dragoons, they think of raising seven Battalions of German Foot, and 36 Companies of Hussars. The printed Ordonnances for these Levies, are published this Morning.

St. James's, Dec. 17.

This Day Count Flemming, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Poland, had his first private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence: He was introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Carteret, one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, December 18.

The King has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Sir Charles Wager, Knight, the Office or Place of Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in the room of Thomas Clutterbuck, Esq; deceased.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleased to direct, that such Lieutenants of the Navy as are unemployed, do transmit hither an Account of their Places of Abode, in order to their being sent for, when his Majesty's Service may require their Attendance.

Tho. Corbett;

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks; This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, as the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.

Note also, That if such Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Postage of such Letters to London must also be paid on putting the same into such Office.

By Command of the Post Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post-Office, London, Sept. 29, 1742.
POST CHAISES between London and Bath.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the several Post-masters on the Road between London and Bath, are ready to furnish any Gentlemen, or others, with Post Chaises, safe, easy, and well secured from the Weather, with a Lamp to give sufficient Light in dark Nights, upon as short Warning as for Post Horses, any Hour either in the Day or Night. And farther Notice is hereby given, that whereas the Distance between Marlborough and Bath, has never yet been considered as Post Road, it will be computed at Thirty four Miles, according to Tompion's Measurement between those two Places; Gentlemen who have Occasion to go Post on the Bath Roads, are desired to apply to Mr. Miller, Post-master, at the White Bear in Piccadilly.

N. B. A Post Chaise may be had at any of the Stages on the Bath Road, to go Part or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for those who do not chuse to travel in the Night. By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
