Naples, December 18.

WE have Advice from Tunis by Way of Messina, that the Peace between France and that Government was actually signed, and all Hostilities ceased; and that a Treaty of Peace and Commerce was negotiating, and in a Manner concluded between Tunis and Naples, upon the same Foot with that of France, and as had been done some Time ago at Tripoli, from whence an Envoy has been sent to this Court, who had this Morning his publick Audience of his Sicilian Majesty.

Naples, Jan. 8. A few Days ago anchored in this Port an English Man of War, the Commander of which had a Conference with the Secretary of State. The King has appointed M. de Littala, Inspector General of his Army, and Governor of the Castle dell'Occo, in the Room of M. Espinosa, deceased.

Florence, Jan. 15. On the 9th M. de Braitwitz, attended, by M. du Chatelet, &c. set out hence on a Tour to reconnoitre the Passages on the Confines of the Bolognese, as well as those towards the Pistoiense, in order to make the necessary Dispositions for the Security of this State. The Body of Tuscan Troops continue at Prato, as does a large Detachment of a Militia Regiment at Pistoia. There are no Motions in the Army in Lombardy: The Spaniards continue in their Winter Quarters in the Bolognese, and the Austrians and Sardinians in their Posts near the Borders of the Panaro. The Spaniards are very much harrassed by the Hussars, who often carry off small Booties.

Turin, Jan. 3. His Majesty our Sovereign returned hither this Evening from Montmelian.

Geneva, Jan. 18, N. S. Since the King of Sardinia retired into the Piedmont with his Army, the Prince Don Philip has taken up his Residence at Chamberry, and has distributed his Army into different Quarters. There are an hundred Horse at St. Julian's, (a Town two Leagues from hence) eight hundred and fifty at Annecy, four hundred at Thoune, two hundred at Faverge, and two hundred at Mura, four Companies of Foot at Bernen and Confignon, four at Viry, twenty at Annecy, forty four in the Genevois. These together make seventy-two Companies of Infantry, which are within but a small Distance of this Town. It is reported also, that a fresh Supply is coming to the Spaniards. They have prohibited the Exportation of Corn out of Savoy, which has greatly raised the Price of it in this Town. A few Days since the Council sent M. Turretin, formerly Sindick, to Chamberry, in order to obtain Permission for the Importation of Corn into Geneva, and to regulate some Affairs relating to the Lands of the Republick, which lye in Savoy.

Dresden, Jan. 22. It is written from Frankfurt, that Marshal Belleisle's Army is to return to be recruited in France; and from Prague, that Prince Lobcowitz leaves that Capital to-day with his Troops, for the Upper Palatinate. General Fektetitz is to blockade Egra, where the Mortality continues.
