Petersburg, Dec. 28.

THE Swedish Deputies are arrived here, namely, Count Böhde, Baron Hamilton, and Baron Sheffer; but they have not yet had an Audience of the Czarina, or the Great Duke.

Oporto, Dec. 31. Captain Löfing of His Majesty's Sloop the Wolf, has put about 30 Hands on Board the Spanish Privateer Schooner, which he lately took at Marin, in the Entrance of the River of Porto Vedro, and has made her a Cruizer, whereby she will be very serviceable for the Protection of the Trade here, as she goes well, and will be able to keep as close in with the Shore as any of the Privateers. The Fly is come from Lisbon, and is now off this Bar, and a small Sloop of Eight Guns and Forty Men, having a Letter of Marque, hath been fitted out here by some Members of the Factory, and is also cruizing upon the Coast, so that the Trade to this Port is sufficiently secured from being annoyed by the Privateers out of Galicia.

Prague, Jan. 9, N. S. We are here taking an Inventory of all the Effects left by the French, and yielded by Capitulation to her Majesty; among which we have found a great Number of Cannon, and seven hundred thousand Cartouches charged. All the Queen's Troops, excepting this Garrison, are already upon their March towards the Upper Palatinate. We hear from Egra, that the French have left only one thousand Men to garrison that Place.

Vienna, Jan. 19, N. S. By the breaking up of the Ice in the Danube upon the late Thaw, the great Bridge call'd the Bridge of Tabor was carried away, and we hear that the Bridge at Grims was likewise destroy'd. Sir Everhard Fawkenor, his Britannick Majesty's Ambassador to the Porte, arrived here the 16th instant from Constantinople in his Way to England.

Naples, Jan. 8. Last Week Mustafa, Bey of Berno, had his first Audience of the King, to compliment him on the Part of the Bey of Tripoli, and presented to his Majesty 15 Barbary Horses, two white Dromadaries, a Lyon, two Tygers, &c. which that Bey sends to the King.

Turin, Jan. 12. The King of Sardinia's Army, after having left the Camp at our Lady of Mians, and retired to Montmeillan, continued its Retreat in two Columns in good Order, by two different Roads. The Rear Guard of both was attacked and harrassed, during the March, by Detachments of Miquelets and Spanish Grenadiers; but they were briskly received, and were neither able to do us much Harm, or to disorder us in our Retreat. The utmost of our Loss amounts to about fifty Men killed, and between three and four Score wounded; amongst which only three Officers. The Loss of the Spaniards exceeds three Times that Number, and our Army, Artillery, Stores and Provisions are all now on this Side of the Alps.

Rome, Jan. 12. On the 27th past a Party of Sbirri went into the Jurisdiction of Spain, to take up a Person without the usual Permission; whereupon the Porters of the respective Palaces in that Neighbourhood fell upon them, killed three of them, and mortally wounded five more. On the 29th an Express arrived from Milan, with Notice, that on the 23d died Cardinal Stampa, Archbishop of that City; and Cardinal Cibor, the last Male Heir of the House of Massa, is since dead here. Cardinal Fini has renounced to the Pope all the Abbies and Ecclesiastical Benefices possessed by him, having, out of them, reserved to himself a yearly Pension of 1500 Crowns. The Pope has hitherto taken no Determination concerning the Request made to him by the Court of Naples, &c. to diminish the Festival Days of the Year.

Florence, Jan. 15. N. S. M. de Gages has lately been attacked with a very severe Fit of Illness; there is likewise an Epidemical Fever among his Troops, of which many have died. By the last Letters from Lombardy, we are informed, that Marshal Traun, on Notice of M. de Gages's Designs to set Fire to the Magazines of Provisions, Ammunition, &c. of the Austrians, at Revere, on the 28th past, invited M. de Apremont to a Conference at Carpi, in order to prevent that and any other Surprize the Spaniards should attempt in the Modanese; in Consequence of which, Directions were sent to the Sardinian Troops, distributed in Winter Quarters in the Parmigiano, Piacentino and Pavese, to hold themselves in Readiness to march.

Geneva, Jan. 25. N. S. The Resolution of demanding a Body of 800 Men from the Cantons of Zurich and Bern, for the Security of this City, having been taken by the General Council, those Troops are now expected here every Day. Notwithstanding the fair Promises of the Marquis de Eusebada, first Minister of the Infant Don Philip, the Spaniards have quarter'd Troops upon our Estates of St. Victor and Chapter, who commit divers Excesses there. The Spaniards in the Dutchy of Savoy, are entirely ruining the whole Country. They plunder the Boors of all their Seed and Forage, so that in a little Time they will be forced to kill their Beasts for Want of wherewithal to feed them. This affords a very bad Prospect for us as well as for the Savoyards. It is impossible that any Place can be in a more miserable Condition than Chambery now is; it is no longer a rich Town, for the Inhabitants are obliged to provide every Thing necessary towards furnishing the Hospitals for the Lodging of 4000 Men, and the whole Court of the Infant; and if the most trifling Thing be wanting, the Sindicks have immediately fifty Soldiers quartered upon them, who live at Discretion. All the other little Towns of Savoy are used in the same Manner. Don Blaize, Envoy Extraordinary from Spain to the Helvetic Body, has sent his Secretary to Zurich, to present his Credential Letters. In them the King of Spain styles himself Duke of Milan. These Letters have been read in a Grand Council at Zurich, and they have been communicated to the other Cantons, whose Sentiments upon the Matter are expected, that a proper Answer may be given to Don Blaize. The Title of Duke of Milan will greatly embarrass some of the Cantons, upon Account of their Agreement with the House of Austria concerning the Milanese.

Hague, Feb. 1. N. S. We hear that the Corps of Marshal Belleisle, and the Detachment from that of Marshal Broglio that has joined it upon its March, are expected to reach Spire before the 10th Instant.

Hague, Feb. 2. The Question concerning the sending a Body of Troops to the Assistance of the Queen of Hungary, which has been so long depending before the States of Holland, was this Day resolved in the Affirmative.

Dublin, January 20. This being the Birthday of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired at the Barracks, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green. At Noon the Lords Justices received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, who appeared at the Castle upon this Occasion. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies, for the Entertainment of the Ladies. And at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations and other Demonstrations of Joy.

Whitehall, January 29.

The King has been pleased to grant the Dignity of an Earl of the Kingdom of Ireland, unto the Right Hon. Ralph Viscount Fermanagh in that Kingdom, by the Name, Stile and Title of Earl of Verney in his Majesty's Province of Leinster.

Whitehall, Jan. 28, 1742-3.

Whereas in the Night, between the 10th and 11th Instant, The Lodge of Benjamin Annist, one of the Page Keepers in his Majesty's Forest of Whittlewood, in the County of Northampton, was consumed by Fire; and whereas there is great Reason to believe, that the said

Lodge was maliciously set on Fire by Persons unknown, Five Persons having been tracked from the Place, soon after the Burning of the said Lodge; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons, who committed the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice, or Accomplices, so as he, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and also a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to such Person or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid, payable upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement for making such Discovery, his Grace the Duke of Grafton does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender, or Offenders.

GRAFTON.

War Office, Jan. 22, 1742.

Whereas the Regiment of Foot under the Command of the Honourable Brigadier General Howard, is under Orders to embark forthwith for foreign Service. And whereas many Men have enlisted themselves in the said Regiment, and have since deserted the same; His Majesty is graciously pleased to promise his Pardon to all such Deserters as shall return to their Duty in the said Regiment before it embarks, provided they have not enlisted themselves since their said Desertion, and are not now doing Duty in other Corps. And whereas there may be many others at this present Time in the said Regiment, who have deserted from several other Regiments; His Majesty is likewise pleased to declare, That it is his Royal Intention, that all such Deserters shall continue in the said Regiment as belonging to the same, without being molested or claimed by the Officers of the respective Corps to which they did formerly belong.

By His Majesty's Command.

Will. Yonge.

General Post-Office, London, Jan. 15, 1742.
POST CHAISES between London and Harwich.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the several Post-masters on the Road between London and Harwich, are ready to furnish any Gentlemen, or others, with Post Chaises, safe, easy, and well secured from the Weather, with a Lamp to give sufficient Light in dark Nights, upon as short Warning as for Post Horses, at any Hour, either in the Day or Night. Gentlemen who have Occasion to go Post on the Essex Roads, are desired to apply to Mr. Roberts, Post-master, at the Black Bull in White Chapel.

N. B. A Post Chaise may be had at any of the Stages on the Harwich Road, to go Part or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for those that do not chuse to travel in the Night.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,

Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Persons, thro' Ignorance or Carelessness, frequently put Letters into the General Post Offices, and the Receiving Houses both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and so Foreign Parts, without paying at the same Time the Postage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the said Offices with Money and Rings inclosed, and in Fraud of his Majesty's Revenue, divers Persons presume to send Letters with false and counterfeit Franks.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumstances aforesaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Usage of this Office paid the Foreign Postage, and are required by the Act of Parliament so to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the same are first put in.

Note also, That if such Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Postage of such Letters to London must also be paid on putting the same into such Office.

By Command of the Post Master General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Assurance-Office, Serjeants Inn, Jan. 29, 1742.

A General Quarterly Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance-Office, will be held at their House in Serjeants-Inn, Fleet-street, on Wednesday the 2d of February next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon.
