Petersboung, February 22.

N the 19th Inflant arrived a Courier from London, with his Britannick Majesty's Ratifications of the Treaty of de ensive Alliance, lately concluded here between the Courts of Great Britain and Rushi, which Ratifications are to be exchanged here with those of her Imperial Majesty, On Sunday last the Russian Ministers received a Courier from Persia, with the agreeable News, that her Imperial Majesty's Resident at the Court of Persia had lately been sent for to an Audience by Schach Nudyr, in which the Sophi told the Russian Minister, he had been informed of the Reports which had been spread, of his having a Defign of attacking the Russian Dominions, but that they were entirely groundless, and could only have been raifed by their mutual Enemies; that on the contrary, he defined to live in a perfect good Intelligence with Russia, and advised the Russian Resident to dispatch a Courier forthwith to his Court, to give her Imperial Majesty the strongest Assurances, that he had entertained no Thoughts of invading any Part of her Dominions, or committing any Sort of Hostilities, but was firmly disposed and defirous to preserve the Peace and good Understanding which subsist b tween the two Empires. At the same Time the Sopli made the Russian Minister a very landsome Present. The Sincerity of these Assurances from Sch. ch Nadyr is confirmed by his having withdrawn his Forces from the Russian Fronters; so that there is not the least Appearance of a Rup ure on that Side.

Genoa, Ma ch 7. They write from Bologna, that the Spaniards were preparing to withdraw from thence to Imola, Faenza and Foglino, but it is thought they will not remain there very long, left the Austrians should follow and attack them again; and that therefore their Design may be to retire into the Presidii of Tuscany. From Milan, that 5000 Men, Part of the Reinsforcement that is expected from Germany, were arrived at Mantua. Count de la Torre passed by here a sew Days ago in his Way to Spain, with the Trophies of Victory which the Spaniards pretend to have gain'd over the Austrians and Savoyards. This Republick is greatly embroil'd about Corsica, the Rebels being greatly increased.

Florence, March 9. The Austrian Hussars have already appeared in the Romagna, having carried off between Imola and Faenza some Baggages, and between Faenza and Forli made Prisoners an Officer and Spanish Engineer, whom they conducted to Ravenna, and from thence into the Ferrarois. M. de Gages causes to be enlisted, at any Price, as many Men, as it is possible to get for Money, to fill up the great Number of Vacancies which the frequent Defertions, and Deaths of the wounded Men fince the Battle of Campo Santo, have caused in his Turin, March 10. We have received the unwelcome News of the Death of Count d'Apremont, occasioned by the Wounds he received in the late Battle: His Loss is universally lamented, and particularly by the King of Sardinia. The Accounts we received at the same Time, that the Spanish Army under M. de Gages was retiting to Castle San Pietro, was premature; and we have been informed by other Advices fince, that it was only the r fick and wounded, and t eir Baggage, that had been fent thither. The allied Army continues in its former Cantonment, though with Orders to be ready at an Hour's Warning. The last Letters from Camberry have brought an Account, that Don Philip had given a grand Entertainment there to the Ladies and principal Gentlemen of that Capital on Shrove-Tuesday; and that about thirty Hours after, a Fire broke out in the Night in the Castle, which was so violent, that if he had not been awakened by a little Dog that lay in his Room, he must have been smothered in his Bed. It was with much ado he escaped in his Shirt, without the least Possibility of saving any thing, having been obliged to leave his Cheft with his Money and Jewels, which were in great Number, to the Flames, which have confumed the greatest and best Part of the Castle, and particularly the King of Sardinia's whole Appartment.

Ratisben, Marth 14. Velt Marshal Khevenhuller returned from Vienna on the 10th Instant, sooner than was expected, to the Head Quarters of the Austrian Army, which was then cantoned in a Line from the Upper Palatinate to Passau, and from thence to Saltzburgh; and its observed that the Posts, which before his Arrival were guarded only by an hundred Men, are reinforced to double the Number. Besides the Bridge of Boats upon the Danube at Weix, the French have formed another about a League below that Place, and are raising Redoubts to guard the Approaches to those Bridges on each side the River. Marshal Maillebois has deserted his Departure for France to the 20th Instant.

Antwerp, Marth 19. The two Battallions of his Britannick Majesty's Hanoverian Guards, which have been quartered here some Months, marched this Day for Louvain, and they will be sollowed To-morrow by the Regiment of Montoy. The Hanoverian Artillery will also march on Sunday the 24th, and the whole will pass through the Principality of Liege to Roermunde, where they will cross the Maeze, and join the rest of the Army in the Dutchy of Juliers.

Hambourg,

Hambourg, March 22, N.S. We learn by Letters of the 15th Instant, which are come in this Evening from Stockholm, that by an Order of the Secret Committee, two Clerks of the Chancery had been taken into Arrest, and their Papers seized, among which, some Circumstances of Importance are brought to Light, and such as may prove of ill Consequence to some other Persons who are engaged in the same Affair; and that Major General Diedron was likewise under Arrest, which had been fignified to him from the grand Council of War, and on the Part of the Commission appointed to examine into the Conduct of the Generals Lowenhaupt and Buddenbrock in the late Campaign of Finland.

Hague, March 26. We have just received Advice here, that upon the 20th or 21st of this Month, at Night, the Elector of Mentz died of a Paralitick Disorder. The Deputies of Zealand, who, in Conjunction with the States of Holland elected a Greffier for the High Court of Justice, returned home Yesterday. M. Reischach, the Queen of Hungary's Minister, having been taxed in feveral Papers with having declared here, that his Mistress would never consent to any Peace, without feeing the Great Duke of Tuscany, her Husband, chosen King of the Romans, has thought fit to contradict this. Aftertion by a formal Disavowal, published by his Order in all the Gazettes of this Country.
