

Copenhagen, July 6, N. S. The Queen of Denmark continues still in a very precarious unsettled State of Health, and is often obliged to keep her Chamber. Yesterday the Prince Royal took his Seat, for the first Time, in the Privy Council. The Report of the Rus's being landed in Sweden is not confirmed. 'Tis said here that the Dalicarians, who are in the Neighbourhood of Stockholm, commit no Excesses, but appear to be very orderly and tractable. The Squadron first appointed, consisting of 12 Ships of the Line and six Frigates, (four of which are already gone to Sea) is now preparing to sail for the Baltick, and will weigh Anchor Tomorrow or next Day, under the Command of Admiral Kraag, who hoisted his Flag last Thursday on board the Christianus Sextus. Another Squadron of six or eight Ships, and five Frigates, will soon be ready to follow if there be Occasion.
