Brifash, October 23.

ORDERS having been given the 20th Instant to the Quarter-Masters and Fourriers to take the Lead towards Fribourg, in order to mark out a Camp there, his most Serene Highness Prince Charles of Lorraine, and the Marshal Count Khevenhuller, followed them thither the next Day with the whole Army, which is to pursue its March from thence in four Columns to the Winter-Quarters. After the Prince's Departure, Prince Waldeck is to remain in his most Serene Highness's Quarters at Hochstatt, where he will command the Body to be left behind for forming the Cantonments, which is to consist of nine Battalions, and as many Companies of Grenadiers, from the Regiments of Prince Maximilian of Hesse, Neuberg, Waldeck, Daun, Broune, Mercy, Baireuth, Marchall, and Grune; as also of Bathiani's Regiment of Dragoons, and the three Regiments of Hussars, of Trips, Kalnocky, and Ghyjany, 200 Croats, and Trenck's Pandours; with this Body of Troops Prince Waldeck will continue for some Days at the Camp above-mentioned, and afterwards distribute it into the Cantonments. His Most Serene Highness the Prince of Gotha is posted with another Corps at Bregenz, which consists of the Regiments of Khevenhuller, Hohenzoller, Francis, and Charles Lorraine. General Count Plaz, with the Serjeants General Count Starhenberg and Baton Gelhay, have their Quarters at Rheinsfelden, with 10 Battalions, and as many Companies of Grenadiers, viz. Old Königsek, Hildburgshausen, Botta, Pallavicini, Giulay, Starhenberg, Kollowrath, Young Königsek, Moll, Harrach, and Oilone's Regiment of Dragoons, and 2000 Croats.

Whitehall, November 12.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Stephen Penny, Esq; the Office of Comptroller of the Duties of Excise in Scotland.

Whitehall, November 8, 1743.

Whereas the Inhabitants of the City of Rochester, in the County of Kent, of the Precincts of the Cathedral Church there, and of Chatham, Strood, and Brompton, thereunto adjoining, have humbly represented unto their Excellencies the Lords Justices, That within the said City of Rochester, and other Places above-mentioned, several Houses have lately been broke open in the Night-time, and considerable Quantities of Plate, and other Things of Value, taken out of the same, and that notwithstanding the utmost Endeavours have been used for the apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Burglaries, yet the same have hitherto proved ineffectual: In order therefore to the discovering and bringing to Punishment the Persons who have been guilty of the said Crimes, their Excellencies the Lords Justices are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any Person concerned therein, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

E. WESTON.

And as a further Encouragement for such Discovery, Mr. William Gates, of the said City of Rochester, doth hereby promise to pay to any Person or Persons making Discovery as aforesaid, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, the Sum of Fifty Pounds (contributed by the Inhabitants of the said City and Places for that Purpose) to be paid within the Month after such Conviction, over and above the Reward they will be intitled to by Act of Parliament.

William Gates

Excise Office, London, Nov. 9, 1743.

Whereas Thomas Skinner, of Little Peckham, was on the 17th of October last arrested upon a Capture by John Rugg, Supervisor of Rochester, and with him the said Rugg, with two other Persons his Assistants being carrying the said Skinner to Maidstone, were assaulted at Barming, about two or three Miles from Maidstone, by Five Horsemen, armed with Blunderbusses, and Pistols, who rescued the said Skinner: The Commissioners of Excise do hereby give Notice, that if any Person will make Discovery of the Persons concerned in the said Assault, so as they, or any of them, may be brought to Justice, such Person shall, upon the apprehending and convicting of any of the Offenders, receive the Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to be paid at this Office in the Old Jewry. And in Case any of the Persons concerned will make Discovery of his Accomplices, so as they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted of the said Assault, he shall receive the Reward as aforesaid.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Bendall Martyn, Secretary

General Post-Office, London, Oct. 24, 1743.
