St. James's, November 29:

THIS Day the following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, was presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. Horatio Walpole, Esq; Member of Parliament for Norwich, introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, Lord of the Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival into these your Dominions; an Event, which must at all Times glad the Heart of every true Englishman, but especially at this juncture, after your Majesty has undergone the Fatigues of War, and exposed your sacred Person with so much Intrepidity to so great and imminent Dangers; and this, to stem the Torrent of boundless Ambition, and preserve the common Liberties of Europe, must warm their Breasts with the highest Sense of Joy, Gratitude and Duty.

With the most ardent and sincere Wishes for the Prosperity of your Majesty and your Royal Progeny, we beg Leave further to congratulate you on the happy Delivery of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales of a Prince. The Increase of your Royal Family we must ever look upon as a peculiar Blessing of Providence on this Nation, and as the surest Means for the Continuance of our Religion, Rights and Liberties to our latest Posterity.

(Price Two-pence.)

We must beg your Permission likewise, Royal Sir, to express our Joy at the Marriage of your Royal Daughter the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, in which Alliance we can't help observing your Majesty's great Prudence and Care to strengthen and confirm, upon the strongest and surest Basis, the Protestant Interest in general.

We shall ever think ourselves obliged in Gratitude, as well as Duty, to pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; that your Care for the Welfare of your Subjects may be ever returned with the most dutiful Affection; and that we and our Posterity may ever be blessed by having a Prince descending from you in the Possession of the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal at Norwich, the 25th Day of November 1743.

Stockholm, November 4. The Evening before last arrived here the Marquis de la Chetardie, in his Way to the Court of Petersbourg, where he is to reside as his most Christian Majesty's Ambassador.

Stockholm, Nov. 8. Yesterday the Marquis de la Chetardie left this Place, in order to pursue his Journey to Petersbourg through Finland.

Florence, Nov. 12. Prince Lobcowitz waits for Instructions by the Return of his Adjutant, whom he dispatched to Vienna on the Arrival of Count. Kaunitz from Turin. The Spaniards are at Pesaro and Fano, where, having received the Artillery and Ammunition from Civita Castellana, they are making all possible Dispositions apparently with a Design to wait Prince Lobcowitz's Arrival, and risk coming to an Engagement; though few People can persuade themselves that M. de Gages will keep that Resolution if the Austrians should advance. At the same Time that they are making the above Dispositions, their Hospital has been sent to Recanati, and a great many Peasants are employed in working with the greatest Diligence on the Fortifications of Civita Castellana, where they are laying up very considerable Magazines. On the Notice which M. De Gages received, that the Avant Guard Guard of the Austrian Army, consisting of about 3000 Hussars and Sclavonians, was advanced from the Cattolica to a little River called Conca, he and the Duke of Modena, at the Head of the whole Army, set out from Fano and Pesaro in the Night, and marched in three Columns in order to surprize them; but, by extreme heavy Rains and stormy Weather, not being able to advance above Four Miles in Six Hours, they were obliged to return back, extremely fatigued, on which Account the Spanish General ordered double Pay to his Soldiers. As soon as Prince Lobcowitz had Notice of the above Design, he ordered his Troops from Forli and Cesena, with the Artillery, to join the Army at Rimini and the Cattolica. On the 3d Instant a small Skirmish happened between the Austrian Hussars and the Spanish Michesets, near Pesaro, in which many of the latter were killed. M. de Gages has caused a particular Account of his Retreat to be distributed in several Parts, in which he lays great Blame on M. Mac Donnell, a Lieutenant General, for not having obeyed the Orders he had given him, and to which M. de Gages attributes the Disorder, and the great Desertion that ensued.

Vienna, November 23, N. S. On Tuesday Morning the 19th Instant, being the Name-Day of the Empress Dowager Elizabeth, after Divine Service had been performed in the Chapel of the Court, her Majesty the Queen repaired with great Retinue from her own Apartment, to that of the said Empress her Mother, from whence his Excellency Count Sigismund Rudolph de Sinzendorff, Great Master of the Queen's Household, came forth, and gave public Notice, that on the 30th of December next ensuing, would be celebrated the Espousals between the most serene Archduchess Mary Anne her Majesty's Sister, and his most serene Highness Prince Charles of Lorraine, and the Marriage on the 7th of January following.

Hague, Dec. 3, N. S. We have Advice here, that the Bishop of Liege was seized on Saturday last with an Apoplectic Fit, which left him speechless and senseless for some Time; and that though he came a little to himself again, upon the Application of proper Remedies, he continued in so desperate a Way, that he had had all the Sacraments administered to him. The last German Post has brought nothing material. The Elector Palatin is fallen ill of the Small Pox; but he is said to be in no Manner of Danger. The Queen of Poland continues ill, but with a good Prospect of Recovery.

Hambourg, Dec. 3. Major General Reichel, who had been many Years a State Prisoner at Kiel, was set at Liberty the 28th past, N. S.

Liege, Dec. 5. The Bishop of this See died this Morning at Four o'Clock. The Authority of the Privy Council is now at an End. The Chapter is Sovereign, ad interim. All the Posts of the Government devolve upon them. They have taken Possession of the Citadel, and are now employed in sealing up the Apartments of the Palace. We hear that the late Bishop after some moderate Legacies to his Relations, has left the rest of his Estate to the Poor of this City. He is to be buried To-morrow.

Whitehall, November 26, 1743.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that John Stewart, of Castle Stewart in the County of Gallo way in North Britain, Esq; was, in the Night, between the 18th and 19th Instant, robbed, in his Bed-Chamber, of his Portmanteau, in which was contain'd the Sum of Two hundred eighty five Pounds and nine Shillings, sealed up in a yellow Canvas Bag, as also other Goods, by a Person or Persons unknown, at the House of Solomon Harris, being the Crown Inn, at Fakenham, in the County of Norfolk; which said Portmanteau, and all the Goods therein contained, except the said Sum of Money, have been since found. His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, the Person or Persons who committed the said Robbery, is pleas'd to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of the Persons concerned therein, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

CARTERET.

And the said John Stewart does promise a Reward of Thirty Pounds, to be paid by Col. James Stuart, of his Majesty's Third Regiment of Foot Guards, to any Person who shall make a Discovery of the said Robbery, so as one or more of the Persons who committed the same shall be lawfully convicted thereof.

James Stuart.

And as a further Encouragement, the said Solomon Harris does likewise promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall make such Discovery in Manner aforesaid, upon such Conviction.

Solomon Harris:

And as a still further Encouragement, the Inhabitants of the said Town of Fakenham do promise a Reward of Thirty Guineas, to be paid by either Mess. David and John Jones, Joseph Harrison, Joseph Peckover, on James Jones, all Inhabitants of the said Town, to the Person who shall discover any Person or Persons, his Accomplice, or their Accomplices, in the Robbery of the said John Stewart, upon such Conviction as aforesaid.
