

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 26. to Tuesday November 29. 1743.

St. James's, November 29:

THIS Day the following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, was presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. Horatio Walpole, Esq; Member of Parliament for Norwich, introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore, Lord of the Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival into these your Dominions; an Event, which must at all Times glad the Heart of every true Englishman, but especially at this Juncture, after your Majesty has undergone the Fatigues of War, and exposed your sacred Person with so much Intrepidity to so great and imminent Dangers; and this, to stem the Torrent of boundless Ambition, and preserve the common Liberties of Europe, must warm their Breasts with the highest Sense of Joy, Gratitude and Duty.

With the most ardent and sincere Wishes for the Prosperity of your Majesty and your Royal Progeny, we beg Leave further to congratulate you on the happy Delivery of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales of a Prince. The Increase of your Royal Family we must ever look upon as a peculiar Blessing of Providence on this Nation, and as the surest Means for the Continuance of our Religion, Rights and Liberties to our latest Posterity.

(Price Two-pence.)

We must beg your Permission likewise, Royal Sir, to express our Joy at the Marriage of your Royal Daughter the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, in which Alliance we can't help observing your Majesty's great Prudence and Care to strengthen and confirm, upon the strongest and surest Basis, the Protestant Interest in general.

We shall ever think ourselves obliged in Gratitude, as well as Duty, to pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; that your Care for the Welfare of your Subjects may be ever return'd with the most dutiful Affection; and that we and our Posterity may ever be blessed by having a Prince descending from you in the Possession of the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal at Norwich, the 25th Day of November 1743.

Stockholm, November 4. The Evening before last arrived here the Marquis de la Chetardie, in his Way to the Court of Petersbourg, where he is to reside as his most Christian Majesty's Ambassador.

Stockholm, Nov. 8. Yesterday the Marquis de la Chetardie left this Place, in order to pursue his Journey to Petersbourg through Finland.

Florence, Nov. 12. Prince Lobcowitz waits for Instructions by the Return of his Adjutant, whom he dispatched to Vienna on the Arrival of Count. Kaunitz from Turin. The Spaniards are at Pesaro and Fano, where, having received the Artillery and Ammunition from Civita Castellana, they are making all possible Dispositions apparently with a Design to wait Prince Lobcowitz's Arrival, and risk coming to an Engagement; though few People can persuade themselves that M. de Gages will keep that Resolution if the Austrians should advance. At the same Time that they are making the above Dispositions, their Hospital has been sent to Recanati, and a great many Peasants are employed in working with the greatest Diligence on the Fortifications of Civita Castellana, where they are laying up very considerable Magazines. On the Notice which M. De Gages received, that the Avant Guard

