

Highness the Princess of Wales of a Prince; which gives us a farther Prospect of Happiness, in having our Religion and Liberties continued down to us in your Royal Family to the latest Posterity.

Give us Leave, great Sir, likewise to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; an Event which cannot fail of strengthening the Protestant Interest in Europe.

With Hearts full of Gratitude, we shall ever pray, that all your Subjects may make suitable Returns for the many great and valuable Blessings they enjoy under your auspicious Reign, in Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, to the Support of which we shall always contribute to the utmost of our Power.

Given under our Common Seal at Rochester, the Fifth Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, December 8.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled, was presented to the King by the Hon. Edward Walpole, Esq; and the Hon. Colonel Townshend, their Representatives in Parliament; who were introduced by the Right Hon. Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, in Common Council assembled.

Dread Sir,

WE beg Leave to present to your Majesty our sincere and hearty Congratulations upon your safe Return to this Kingdom: And to express our Joy and Satisfaction on the Success of the Arms of your Majesty and the allied Forces, animated by your personal Bravery in the Support of the Liberties of Europe.

Permit us most gracious Sovereign, also to congratulate your Majesty on the Increase of your illustrious Family, by the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; and on the Marriage of the Princess Louisa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

We beseech Almighty God to bless and preserve your Majesty with long Life, Health, Honour, and all worldly Happiness; and to grant, that by a timely Improvement of the present Advantages, there may be procured a lasting Foundation of Security to your British Dominions, and a firm Support for the Liberty of Europe. We heartily pray, that all Divisions amongst your Majesty's Subjects might cease, and no Contention remain, but who should most promote, and Establish the publick Welfare.

Given under our common Seal at Great Yarmouth aforesaid, this Sixth Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, December 10.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, was presented to the King by Sir John Tyrwhit, Bart. and Charles Monson, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; who were introduced by the Right Honourable Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, amidst the universal Acclamations of your People, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to this your Kingdom, after the imminent Dangers to which your Majesty has exposed your sacred Person for the Good of the Common Cause, and in Defence of the Liberties of Europe.

Permit us more particularly to express our Congratulations on the Success which has attended your Majesty's Arms, animated by your Royal Presence and Intrepidity, and conducted by your Majesty's Wisdom; whereby the ambitious Views of the Enemies of the Queen of Hungary have been frustrated, and their Forces obliged to quit the Empire.

We likewise most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of your Royal Daughter the Princess Louisa with the Prince of Denmark, whereby your Majesty has given a convincing Proof how much you have at Heart the Welfare of these Kingdoms, and of the Protestant Interest in Europe.

Permit us to express our Joy on the Birth of the young Prince, which we look on as a further Security, that Princes descended from your Royal House, may to latest Posterity fill the Throne of this Kingdom.

We ardently pray that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous; and that the Moderation, Wisdom, and Equity of your Majesty's Government, may excite the most dutiful Return from all your Subjects.

Given under our common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City of Lincoln, this Seventh Day of December, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Copenhagen, Dec. 7, M. S. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Denmark is now in the Neighbourhood of this City (God be praised) in perfect Health. The Prince, who left Sleswick a Day or two before the Princess, and arrived here the 3d Instant, returned again on the 5th to meet her Royal Highness at Roskilde; from thence they came Yesterday, both in the same Coach, and alighted between Four and Five in the Afternoon at the Palace of Fridericksberg, where the Princess is to rest herself till Wednesday.
