The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 20. to Saturday December 24. 1743.

HIS Majesty came this Day to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Charles Dalton, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from his Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, his Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act for granting an Aid to his Majesty, by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain, for the Service of the Year 1744.

And to one private Bill.

St. James's, December 21.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled, was presented to the King; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Commonalty of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Throne, with the most sincere Wishes for the Honour and Prosperity of your sacred Person and Government; and with the most hearty Congratulations, upon your Majesty's safe Return to these your British Dominions, after having exposed your Royal Person to so many Dangers, in supporting the Balance of Power, and vindicating the Liberties of Europe.

We beg Leave also to congratulate your Majesty on the safe Delivery of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales of a Prince; and on the Marriage of your Royal Daughter the Princess Louisa to the Prince Royal of Denmark: Happy Events! which tend so greatly to preserve to us our Religion, Laws and Liberties, by adding Strength to your Majesty's illustrious House, and a further Support to the Protestant Religion.

( Price Four-pence. )

May the Almighty continue to crown your Majesty's Arms with Victory, and your Councils with Success. May he protect your Royal Person from all Perils and Dangers, and grant you long to reign over a dutiful, free, and happy People.

St. James's, December 21.

The following Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, beg Leave sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return into your Dominions, and on the many extraordinary Blessings poured down of late upon your sacred Majesty.

The Success of your Majesty's glorious Attempt to frustrate the ambitious Designs of those Powers who had disturbed the Tranquility of Europe; the Addition of new Strength and Vigour to the Protestant Interest by the Marriage of the Princess of Denmark; and the Increase of your illustrious House by the Birth of a Prince, your faithful Subjects cannot but look upon as uncommon Marks of the Divine Favour to your Majesty and your Kingdoms.

And the fresh Proofs your Majesty has given of your Wisdom and Conduct, must for ever satisfy your loyal Subjects, that their Security from the Designs of Foreign Powers, is no less owing to your Majesty's military Virtues, than their domestick Happiness is to your Arts of Peace.

Nor can we ever entertain the least Apprehension of our Rights being in Danger, under a Prince, who at the Hazard of his own Life, has shewn himself the Guardian of the Liberties of Europe.

And

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our being fully convinced, that we can in no way so effectually shew ourselves Friends to the true Interest and Liberties of this Kingdom, as by keeping up in the Youth under our Care, that same inviolable Attachment to the Interest of your Royal House, for which the Protestants of this Nation have ever been so remarkably distinguish'd.

And from a lively Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Administration, we shall ever continue to implore that Almighty Being, who covered your sacred Head in the Day of Battle, to give you Length of Days, that you may long be a Blessing to your own Subjects, and watch over the Interest of the Protestant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe.

St. James's, December 21.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, was presented to the King; who was pleas'd to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon your Majesty's safe Arrival into your British Dominions; at the same Time acknowledging the Goodness of Providence to these Nations, and the whole Protestant Interest, in preserving your sacred Person, and that of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, in the late glorious Battle at Dettingen.

The unwearied Pains your Majesty has taken from Time to Time, ever since your happy Accession to the Throne, to preserve the Religious and Civil Rights of your Subjects, to promote their Trade, and preserve the Balance of Power in Europe, and the wise and prudent Measures your Majesty pursued to prevent a War, were so many Instances of your Royal Goodness, as ought never to be forgot: And when all prudent and pacifick Measures proved fruitless and ineffectual, and the restless Ambition of a false and perfidious Court, whose only Views, for many Ages, have been to inflave, not only its own Subjects, but all Europe, made it necessary to have Recourse to Arms, your Majesty's engaging in so just a War, pursuing it with Vigour, heading your own Armies, and hazarding your Royal Person in the glorious Cause of Liberty, and thereby putting a Stop to the pernicious Designs of the Enemy, are such eminent Proofs of your Majesty's Concern and Regard for the true Interest and Welfare of your People, as fill our Hearts with the utmost Transports of Gratitude.

We likewise beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Birth of the young Prince, and on the Marriage of the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; esteeming every Increase of your Royal Family as an additional Security of our future Happiness; and the Alliance with Denmark a farther Strengthening of the Protestant Interest.

We shall always make it our ardent Prayers, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous on the Throne of these Realms, and in the Hearts of your Subjects (so truly Happy under your auspicious Government) and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Progeny to rule over us, and to defend our Religion, Laws and Liberties, the Possession of which, under God, we owe to the happy Establishment of your illustrious House, on the British Throne.

Given under our Common Seal of the said City of Carlisle, the Fifteenth Day of December 1743.

St. James's, December 23.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Burgesses of the Borough of Totnes, was presented to the King; who was pleas'd to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Burgesses of your Majesty's Antient Borough of Totnes, in the County of Devon.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects most humbly present your Majesty with our unfeigned Duty and Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, begging Leave at the same Time to make our humblest Acknowledgments for your Majesty's unparalleled Conduct and Bravery during the last Campaign, and the happy Consequences to be expected therefrom.

As the Support of the House of Austria was the Voice of the Nation, your Majesty has gloriously exerted yourself therein, and expos'd your sacred Person to Dangers, which could we have been appriz'd of at that Instant, no loyal Subject could have had a Moment's Comfort till he had been assur'd of their being surmounted, and that your Majesty remain'd unhurt in the hottest of the Fire, and your Royal Offspring (emulating so great an Example) had survived a Wound which will ever be his Glory to have received.

Your Majesty's happy Return since to Great Britain, the Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, and the Birth of another Prince of your August House, are all of them Events on which we cannot omit congratulating your Majesty in the most sincere and humble Manner.

Permit us, Sir, at the same Time to declare we will most cheerfully contribute to the supporting your Majesty in those Measures of Vigour which you shall think proper to undertake for the procuring a safe and honourable Peace, or vindicating the Rights of Great Britain against all Invaders.

Nor

Nor shall our most earnest Prayers be ever wanting, that your Majesty may long continue thus to be the Support of the Liberties of Europe, and that in your Majesty and your Posterity, we and our Descendants to latest Ages, may enjoy the Protection of our Religion and Liberties, which no Well-wisher to those invaluable Blessings can be secure of in any other Hands.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 15th Day of December, 1743.

Petersbourg, Nov. 26. On Wednesday last Count Gollowin, High Admiral of Russia, arrived here from Reval. The next Day being the Anniverfary of the Order of St. Katherine, instituted by the Empress Katherine, Mother of her present Imperial Majesty, the Empress dined in Publick with the Princess of Hesse Hombourg, who was invested with that Order by the Foundress; and in the Evening there was a Ball at Court on that Occasion. Yesterday being the Anniverfary of the Empress's Accession to the Crown, her Imperial Majesty received the Compliments of the Foreign Ministers, Nobility, and a great Number of Persons of Distinction, who had the Honour to kiss her Majesty's Hand on that Occasion. The Empress dined in Publick on the Throne, and the Company of Life-Guards, consisting of 360 Men, (who have all the Rank of Lieutenants) had the Honour to dine in the same Room with her Imperial Majesty, who was dress'd in the Uniform, as Captain of that Company. Several Salvos were given by the Cannon of the Fort and Admiralty, the Bells rung in all the Churches, and in the Evening the whole City was illuminated. The Marquis de la Chetardie arrived here from Stockholm Yesterday in the Afternoon. Her Imperial Majesty has deferred her Departure for Moscow to the Beginning of January.
