St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Adrefs of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of New Sarum, was preſented to the King by Sir Jacob Bouverie, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting; which Adrefs his Majesty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's moſt loyal and obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of New Sarum, deſire to preſent this congratulatory Adrefs on your Majesty's ſafe Arrival to your lawful and rightful Throne of this Kingdom.

The Intrepidity with which your Majesty, regardless of Death in all its Terrors, led on your Troops, and the gallant Behaviour of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, were, under God, the Cauſe of the glorious and never-to-be-forgotten Victory at Dettingen; a Victory the more important, as the Liberties of Europe were ſo nearly concerned in it, and a convincing Proof, that Courage and Bravery are the innate Principles of your auguſt Houſe.

This, Sir, is a Truth univerſally confeſſed, and will add more Luſtre to your Royal Character in the Annals of Poſterity, than the moſt ſervile Flattery, however ſet off and adorned with a pompous Sound of Words.

We beg Leave at the ſame Time to congratulate you on the Birth of another Prince, and the happy Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

May the Succeſs of your Majesty's Arms be equal to the Juſtice of your Cauſe, till the haughty and dangerous Views of your Enemies are defeated, and Trade and Commerce ſettled on a laſting and prosperous Foundation. Given under the Seal of Office of Mayoralty at the Council Chamber of the ſaid City, this Thirty-ſiſt Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred forty three.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Adrefs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled, was preſented to the King by Thomas Watſon, Eſq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in waiting; which Adrefs his Majesty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adrefs of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, after the Fatigue of a Campaign for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe. Our Joy on this Occaſion was proportionate to the real Concern we were under for the Safety of your Majesty's Perſon, expoſ'd to the precarious Event of a Battle, where the indifcriminate Ball might have determined the Fate of Europe, and expoſ'd an headleſs Army to fall a Prey to their mercileſs Enemies: But we with Pleaſure reflect on the Succeſs of the ally'd Arms, owing, under God, to your Majesty's Preſence and Conduct.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Increate of your Royal Family by the ſafe Delivery of the Princeſs of Wales of a Prince, whereby Providence has afforded us an additional Security for all that is dear to us.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to applaud your Wiſdom and Prudence in your Choice of a Huſband for the Princeſs Louiſa; a Marriage with the Prince Royal of Denmark muſt lay a Foundation for a laſting Friendſhip with your and that Royal Family; it muſt ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and give that Power an additional Weight in the North, where your Majesty's trading Subjects have no inconfiderable Concern.

We pray that your Majesty may long live to be a Patron of Liberty, a Proteſtor of the Privileges and Commerce of your trading Subjects, and a bright Example of every Virtue to your Succeſſors.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Adrefs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of Scarbrough, was preſented to the King; who was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the KING.

The humble Adrefs of the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of Scarbrough, in the County of York.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and obedient Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of Scarbrough, beg Leave to preſent our humble and reſpectful Duty to your Majesty jefty on your happy Return to your Kingdoms.

We cannot fufficiently exprefs our Joy on this happy Occafion, when we confider the great and imminent Danger your facred Life hath been expofed to in the Field, and the Succefs which hath attended your victorious Arms: But we beg Leave, Great Sir, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to testify that high Senfe we have of your Majefty's Magnamity and unwearied Cares and Concern for the Liberties of Europe, and the Intereft and Safety of thefe Realms.

We likewise with great Humility congratulate your Majefty on the Marriage of your Royal Daughter to the Prince of Denmark; and on the Encrease of your Majefty's illuftrious Family by the Birth of another Prince.

We pray to God that your Majefty's Reign over us may be long, happy and glorious; that a Prince of your Royal Houfe may never be wanting to fit upon the Throne of this Kingdom. Given under our Common Seal at Scarborough the Twenty Sixth Day of December 1743.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Addrefs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgefles of the Borough of Saltafh, was prefented to the King by Thomas Corbet and Stamp Brooksbank, Efqs. their Representatives in Parliament, who were introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majefty's Bedchamber in waiting; which Addrefs his Majefty was pleafed to receive very gracioufly.

To the King's moft Excellent Majefty,

The humble Addrefs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgefles of the Borough of Saltafh in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majefty's moft dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Free Burgefles of the Borough of Saltafh, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty upon your Majefty's safe and happy Arrival in this Kingdom, after the Fatigues and Dangers of a glorious Campaign, in which your Majefty's Conduft and Magnanimity fo confpicuoufly contributed to the repelling the common Enemy, and driving them out of Germany.

We alfo beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty upon the gallant Behaviour of the Duke, who fo well followed the great Example of your Majefty in the Day of Battle, and fupported the Dignity of the Royal Blood from which he isprung.

The Marriage of her Royal Highnefs the Princefs Louifa with the Prince Royal of Denmark, and the Birth of another Prince to his Royal Highnefs the Prince of Wales, are Events which muft give great Pleafure to all the Well-wifhers to your Majefty's Royal Family, and the Happinefs of thefe Kingdoms; we do therefore, with Hearts full of Joy, beg your Majefty's favourable Acceptance of our Congratulations thereupon, and of our fincereft Wifhes, that thefe Kingdoms may never want a Defcendant from your Majefty to fill the Throne. Given under our common Seal at our Guildhall, this 27th Day of December, 1743.

St. James's, January 4.

This Day the following Addrefs of the Proteftant Diffenting Minifters in and about the Cities of London and Weftminfter, was prefented to the King by the Reverend Obadiah Hughes, D. D. attended by feveral of his Brethren; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcaftle, one of his Majefty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the King's moft Excellent Majefty,

The humble Addrefs of the Proteftant Diffenting Minifters in and about the Cities of London and Weftminfter.

May it please your Majefty,

WE humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majefty upon the happy Concurrence of many favourable Providences, which have lately attended your Royal Perfon and Family; in whofe Profperity we are greatly interefted, and feel a moft fenfible Pleafure.

Your Majefty's safe Return to thefe your Britifh Dominions rejoiced the Hearts of all your good Subjects.—This Joy was much increafed, by reflecting on the extreme Dangers, to which, in Defence of the Liberties of Europe, you generoufly expofed your Life in the Fields of Dettingen, and acquired immortal Honour; where, under the Influence of Heaven, and animated by your Prefence and Valour, the confederate Army gain'd an important Victory over the common Enemy.

This, with the Recovery of the Duke from the honourable Wound he receiv'd in the Battle; the Marriage of the Princefs Louifa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; and the Birth of another Son to his Royal Highnefs the Prince of Wales, is fuch a Series of Events, as greatly encourages our Hopes, that the Goodnefs of God will perpetuate the Bleffings, which we perfuade ourfelves his Providence defigned in placing your Majefty's Family upon the Throne of thefe Kingdoms: Under which we have enjoy'd fo many Years of Peace and Profperity.

We gladly embrace this Opportunity, to af-fure your Majefty, that we are deeply fenfible of our Share in the publick Happinefs under your aufpicious Government; and that we fhall, from Principles both of Gratitude and of Confcience, continue our Endeavours to impreff the Minds, of thofe to whom we minifter, with fuch such Sentiments, as tend to confirm them in Loyalty and Affection to so excellent a Prince.

Nor shall we cease to offer up our most fervent Prayers to the King of Kings, that Wisdom from above may always direct your Majesty's Counsels, and such further Success attend your Arms, as may produce that lasting Security of the Liberties of Europe, and those Blessings to these Kingdoms, which your Majesty has in View:—That your Majesty's most precious Life may continue to be the special Care of the Almighty, who cover'd your Head in the Day of Battle:—That after a long and prosperous Reign, you may inherit a Crown of Immortality in the World to come:—And that there never may be wanting a Successor in your Royal Line, who, after your Majesty's great Example, shall be the Guardian of the Liberties of these Kingdoms, till Time shall be no more. Dated Jan. 4, 1743-4.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this dutiful Address; you may always depend upon the Continuance of my Protection.

They were receiv'd very graciously, and had all the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, January 6.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Magistrates, Common Council, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth in the County of Devon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe and happy Return to your British Dominions, after your glorious Actions Abroad, in Behalf of the Liberties of Europe, and the Balance of Power, against the Enemies of both, so much to the Honour of the British Name: And we cannot but express our sincere and hearty Thanks to Heaven, for preserving your sacred Person amidst all the Dangers and Fatigues of a hazardous Campaign.

We likewise congratulate your Majesty on the auspicious Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa with the Prince Royal of Denmark; an Alliance most grateful to your Subjects, as it evidently tends to the Supporting, Uniting, and Strengthening of the Protestant Interest.

Nor can we pass by the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government; the Consideration of which, and the Prospect of their being delivered down to our latest Posterity, by the Addition of another Son of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, cannot but fill our Hearts with Joy and Gladness, and the most sincere and fervent Prayers and Wishes for the Prosperity of your Majesty, and all your Royal Descendants.

May Heaven continue to guard and protect your Majesty, and to grant you Success in all your Undertakings for the Publick Good of these Nations, and for the Liberties, Welfare, and Peace of all Europe in general.

Constantinople, November 20.

The following is a Translation of the Gajme, lately arrived at the Sublime Porte from the Governour of Mussul, Abdilzzelil Oglou Hussein Paschia.

ON the 25th of last Moon of Cezzep, being Sabbath Day, Nadir Sâhh, with a numerous Army, being arrived at Mussul, pitched his Tents in the Neighbourhood of the Place, near what is called the Village of the Prophet Jonas; where after having made a Stay of some Days, on the 2d of last Month of Saban, he himself rose up, and in Person took a turn round the whole Place to observe its Situation, and having raised Batteries, and made Entrenchments to form the Siege of the said Place, he approached it with his Troops, and on the 4th of the same Moon, began to batter it in twelve Parts with great Cannon: And on the 8th, which was a Friday, at Ten o'Clock, he threw an infinite Number of Bombs from twelve Batteries against it, continuing Night and Day, when the Besieged had great difficulty to save the advanced Works from the Execution of the Bombs, persisting with incredible Courage in the Defence, by firing continually against the Assaultants, which Fire on both Sides lasted eight Days and eight Nights, and the Bombs thrown against the Place were counted upwards of Seventy thousand, besides the continual firing of Muskets. After this he caused the River Tigris to be cut off in the Neighbourhood of a Place called Cara Sarai, and to be turned into the other Channel; he pressed the Besieged continually with Numbers of his Troops, who not in the least abating in their Courage, both I, and the Governour of Aleppo, his Excellency Hussein Huffein Pascià, with a military Example, incessantly animated the Garrison, and closely attended the repairing of those Parts that had been ruined by the Cannon of the Enemy, who having formed Mines, and in eight Days Time provided all Sorts of Instruments, especially 1700 Ladders, which he made his Soldiers carry upon their Shoulders for the Assault; and having passed the Tigris with all his Troops to apply the said Scales to the Walls, in the mean time he set Fire to the Mines, two of which by mere Providence turning backwards, buried a great Number of their Men, and the rest of the Mines remained without the least Operation; notwithstanding which, he forced his Troops to the Assault, and to apply the Ladders. But the Besieged were as active in repelling them with Granadoes, Bombs, and Fire-arms, making a continual Slaughter of the impertinent Enemies: the Fight between the two Parties lasting seven Hours, it being Friday, after which, at about The 8th Hour, our Troops had the Success, by the particular Providence of the just God, to get the better, and to remain Conquerors, having cut off 5400 Enemies, and the Remainder of their Troops not being any longer able to withstand the heroick Courage of our victorious Soldiers, were forced to fly and retire to their Camp; whilst we had but 40 in all of our Men killed during the whole Time of this Siege and Action. In short, all the Projects contrived from the Beginning by the perfidious Enemy proved but vain Attempts, so that growing at last desperate, with the greatest Confusion and Dispersion of his Troops, not being able any longer to subsist in these Parts, he in haste repass'd the River Dizzlò, and retired to his own Country. Which being to be ascribed to God's special Favour, and to the august Fortune of our invincible Monarch, we are obliged to continual Prayers that the Divine Majesty may be pleased to perpetuate his Imperial Triumphs.
