

Flint, Robert Davies of Gwyfanney, Esq;
Merioneth, William Lewis Amvyl of Botallog, Esq;
Montgomery, Thomas Foulkes of Penthryn, Esq;

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of New Sarum, was presented to the King by Sir Jacob Bouverie, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

YOUR Majesty's most loyal and obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Deputy Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of New Sarum, desire to present this congratulatory Address on your Majesty's safe Arrival to your lawful and rightful Throne of this Kingdom.

The Intrepidity with which your Majesty, regardless of Death in all its Terrors, led on your Troops, and the gallant Behaviour of his Royal Highness the Duke, were, under God, the Cause of the glorious and never-to-be-forgotten Victory at Dettingen; a Victory the more important, as the Liberties of Europe were so nearly concerned in it, and a convincing Proof, that Courage and Bravery are the innate Principles of your august House.

This, Sir, is a Truth universally confessed, and will add more Lustre to your Royal Character in the Annals of Posterity, than the most servile Flattery, however set off and adorned with a pompous Sound of Words.

We beg Leave at the same Time to congratulate you on the Birth of another Prince, and the happy Marriage of her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa to the Prince Royal of Denmark.

May the Success of your Majesty's Arms be equal to the Justice of your Cause, till the haughty and dangerous Views of your Enemies are defeated, and Trade and Commerce settled on a lasting and prosperous Foundation. Given under the Seal of Office of Mayoralty at the Council Chamber of the said City, this Thirty-first Day of December, One thousand seven hundred forty three.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, was presented to the King by Thomas Watson, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, who was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in waiting; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, after the Fatigue of a Campaign for the Preservation of the Liberties of Europe. Our Joy on this Occasion was proportionate to the real Concern we were under for the Safety of your Majesty's Person, expos'd to the precarious Event of a Battle, where the indiscriminate Ball might have determined the Fate of Europe, and expos'd an headless Army to fall a Prey to their merciless Enemies: But we with Pleasure reflect on the Success of the ally'd Arms, owing, under God, to your Majesty's Presence and Conduct.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Increase of your Royal Family by the safe Delivery of the Princess of Wales of a Prince, whereby Providence has afforded us an additional Security for all that is dear to us.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to applaud your Wisdom and Prudence in your Choice of a Husband for the Princess Louisa; a Marriage with the Prince Royal of Denmark must lay a Foundation for a lasting Friendship with your and that Royal Family; it must strengthen the Protestant Interest, and give that Power an additional Weight in the North, where your Majesty's trading Subjects have no inconsiderable Concern.

We pray that your Majesty may long live to be a Patron of Liberty, a Protector of the Privileges and Commerce of your trading Subjects, and a bright Example of every Virtue to your Successors.

St. James's, January 3.

This Day the following Address of the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Burrough of Scarborough, was presented to the King; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the KING.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Burrough of Scarborough, in the County of York.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and obedient Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Burrough of Scarborough, beg Leave to present our humble and respectful Duty to your Majesty