

St. James's, February 27.

This Day the Merchants of the City of London waited on his Majesty with the following Addrefs.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addrefs of the Merchants of the City of London.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants of your City of London, having obferved, by your Majesty's moft gracious Meffage to your Parliament, that Defigns are carrying on by your Majesty's Enemies, in Favour of a Popifh Pretender, to difturb the Peace and Quiet of thefe your Majesty's Kingdoms; think it our indifpenfable Duty, not to omit this Opportunity of expreffing our juft Refentment and Indignation at fo rafh an Attempt.

We have too lively a Senfe of the Happinefs we enjoy in our Religion and Liberties under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, and of the flourishing Condition of our Trade and Commerce, even in the midft of War, under your paternal Care and Vigilance, not to give your Majesty the ftrongeft Affurances of our higheft Gratitude for fuch invaluable Bleffings; nor can we doubt, but by the Bleffing of God upon your Majesty's Arms, and the unanimous Support of your faithful Subjects, the Attempts of your Enemies will recoil upon themfelves, and end in their own Confufion.

We therefore humbly beg Leave to declare to your Majesty, our unfhaken Refolution, that we will, on this critical Conjuncture, exert our utmoft Endeavours, for the Support of publick Credit, and at all Times hazard our Lives and Fortunes, in Defence of your Majesty's facred Perfon and Government, and for the Security of the Proteftant Succeffion in your Royal Family.
