To which His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you very heartily for this dutiful and affectionate Address. This seasonable Mark of Zeal and Attachment to my Person and Government, from so considerable a Body of my Trading Subjects, cannot but be most agreeable to me, and must, at this Time, greatly conduce to support the publick Credit, which I shall always use my utmost Endeavours to preserve and maintain.

They were very graciously received, and all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

Hague, March 1, N. S. Yesterday the following Memorial was presented to the States General by Mr. Trevor, his Britannick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary, demanding the Succour of 6000 Men, stipulated by the Treaties, to be immediately sent over into Great Britain. The States General, notwithstanding their having been before assembled in the Morning of that Day, were pleased to appoint an extraordinary Meeting at Seven in the Evening, in order to receive the said Application from Mr.
 Trevor, and immediately, upon the Receipt of it, sent their Agent to his House to acquaint him, that their High Mightinesses had unanimously consented to his Majesty's Requisition of the Six Thousand Men, and had directed Orders to be forthwith sent to their Admiralties to accelerate the Manning of such Ships of War as were in a Condition of being the soonest put to Sea; adding the strongest and most cordial Professions of their High Mightinesses unalterable Attachments to his Majesty's Person and Government.

High and Mighty Lords,

THE common Interests, and solemn Engagements, so often renewed, which constitute between your High Mightinesses and the King of Great Britain an Union, more natural and intimate, than any now subsisting between any other allied Powers in Europe, do not leave his Majesty any Room to doubt, but that your High Mightinesses will answer the Demand, which I have now the Honour to make in his Name, with an Heartiness and Zeal, proportioned to the Dissatisfaction and Concern, with which you must have heard of the Proceedings that occasion it. Your High Mightinesses are already informed of the Indignity offered to his Majesty and the whole English Nation by France, in receiving into her Dominions, and concealing in a mysterious Manner for above the Space of a Month, the-Elder
