From Saturday April 7. to Tuesday April 10. 1744.

St. James's, April 10.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Worcester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Coventry, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, accompanied by the Lord Bishop of Worcester, and by the Right Hon. the Lord Abergavenny, the Lord Sandys, the Lord Dudley, the Lord Deerhurst, Sir John Rushout, Bart. the Hon. Thomas Winnington, Esq; and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Worcester, assembled at the Assize held for the said County, on the 24th Day of March, 1743.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Worcester, having, from your Majesty's Authority, undoubted Information of the Heir of the Pretender to your Crowns being received into the French Dominions, and that Preparations are made there for an Invasion of these Kingdoms, beg Leave to join the common Voice of your People, in declaring our Resentment and Abhorrence of this high Indignity.

It is a small Thing to assure your Majesty of our Readiness to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in your Defence, as they have so long and happily been preserved by you, and must owe all their future Value to the Security of the Succession in your illustrious House. Not could we reasonably doubt, but the most unanimous and warm Zeal would be excited in the Breasts of all true Britons, by a just Concern for our Religion and Liberties, when we are threatned with the most dreadful Evil in the World to the British Nation, a Popish Pretender, introduced and imposed upon it by the Power of France.

We most humbly and joyfully congratulate your Majesty on the Glory of your Arms hitherto both by Sea and Land: And we trust, that the Almighty, in his Justice, will enable you to go on, till you have exemplarily chastised the Insolence of your faithless Enemies, who openly throw off all Regard to Treaties and Engagements, and violate the most sacred Laws of Nature and of Nations.

The following Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Courtenay, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by Sir Richard Banfield, Bart. William Sydenham, Esq; and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, assembled at the Assizes holden at the Castle of Exon, in and for the said County, on Tuesday the 13th Day of March, 1743.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE insolent Attempts lately made by a neighbouring Power, in order to introduce a popish Pretender to the Throne of these Kingdoms, justly fill the Hearts of all your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects with the greatest Resentment and Indignation.

We therefore, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our unalterable Fidelity, and that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support and defend your Majesty's sacred Person and Royal Family; and will steadily and resolutely oppose any Designs whatsoever, that shall be formed for the Subversion of the present happy Establishment in Church and State.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton, in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. Sir William Yonge, Bart. and Henry Reginald Courtenay, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton, in the County of Devon.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our hearty Detestation of the pernicious Designs of our inveterate Enemies in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender, and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your sacred Person and illustrious Family.

We cannot, without the utmost Horror, reflect on the fatal Calamities which would have befallen us, if the Schemes of our Enemies had prevailed. Instead of our Religion, Liberties, and admirable Constitution of Government, which have flourished in their full Spirit and Extent under your Majesty's auspicious Protection, Popish Tyranny and Arbitrary Power would have been established and exercised with relentless Rigour; and instead of that Power, Dignity, and Independence, which Great Britain hath enjoyed under your Majesty's glorious Administration, Ruin, Infamy, and Subjection to a French Yoke, and all the Miseries to which a conquered and enslaved People are subject, would have succeeded, and been entailed upon us.

We are thoroughly sensible, that the very Being of our Constitution, and Liberties, and every Thing that is dear and valuable to us, do absolutely and inseparably depend on the Stability of the Crown on your Majesty and your Royal House; and we are engaged by every Tie of Gratitude and Duty, and by every Motive of Interest and Affection, heartily to unite in a vigorous Defence and Support of that happy Establishment; and we shall be always ready, with the greatest Ardour, to run the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in so just, important, and glorious a Cause.

The following Address of the Provost, Baillies, Common-Council, and Burgeses of the Borough of Dumbarton, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. Major General Campbell, and Major J. Campbell, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, Common-Council and Burgeses of the Borough of Dumbarton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Provost, Baillies, Common Council, and Burgeses of your ancient and loyal Burgh of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence at this Time, when your Majesty's Dominions are threatned with an Invasion by an arbitrary Power, in favour of a popish Pretender, and to declare our loyal and dutiful Allegiance to your Majesty, and firm Attachment to your Royal Protestant Family.

An Attempt, formed against your Majesty's Government by the Enemies of Peace and Quiet, must unite and engage all your Subjects in the Defence of your sacred Person and Crown, and the Liberties and Religion we enjoy under your Majesty's Administration, and prevent the fatal Design of our Enemies to enslave our native Country, by the Treachery and Rebellion of your Subjects.

We most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will exert our utmost Endeavours, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend and secure your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, the Liberty, Religion and Independency of our Country, and the Succession of the Crown to your Royal Family.

May the God of Mercy, who has so often miraculously delivered our Church and Nation from popish Tyranny and arbitrary Power, direct and prosper all your Councils and Undertakings for the Security of your Person, Defence of your Kingdoms, and Preservation of the Religion and Liberty of this Nation.

Signed in Presence and by Appointment of Council.

John Campbell, Provost.

The following Address of the Provost, Dean of Guild, Baillies, Treasurer and Commons of the ancient City of St. Andrews, has been presented to his Majesty by the Honourable Thomas Leslie, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Dean of Guild, Baillies, Treasurer and Commons of the ancient City of St. Andrews, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

YOUR Majesty having received undoubted Intelligence of the Preparations which are making in France to invade this Kingdom, in Concert with disaffected Persons in Britain, in Favours

of a popish Pretender, we beg Leave, on this important Occasion, with Hearts full of Zeal and Loyalty to your Majesty's sacred Person and Royal Family, to assure your Majesty of our utter Abhorrence and Detestation of such an insolent and wicked Undertaking.

The bold Designs of the Court of France, whose Ambition seems to be the only Rule of its Conduct, and whose Power is the more formidable, that it is, at all Times, under the absolute and sole Direction of an arbitrary Master, whom no Treaties or publick Faith could ever bind, call loudly, on all your Majesty's Subjects, to exert themselves in the Common Cause of Liberty, and to defend their Civil and Sacred Rights; all which they enjoy, beyond other Nations, under the mildest and best Constitution of Civil Government, which ever any People were blessed with.

Permit us then, Most gracious Sovereign, with all Humility, to express our firm and steady Resolution to stand by your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, and to exert ourselves, in our several Capacities, to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of the Protestant Religion, as by Law established, and in the Defence of those valuable Rights and Privileges, which, at the last glorious Revolution, were settled and ascertained to us by the Claim of Right, and which can only be rendered sure to our Posterity, by a Protestant Succession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, in your Majesty's Royal Family.

That it may please the Divine Majesty to bless your Arms by Sea and Land with Success, and to defeat all Attempts of Enemies to disturb the Peace and Tranquility, which we with thankful Hearts enjoy, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most Faithful and Dutiful,
Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Signed by Appointment of the Council at St. Andrews, the 14th of March 1744, by Will. Douglas, Provost.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, has been presented to his Majesty by John Mackye, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Town of Linlithgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, the Residence of your Majesty's Royal Ancestors the Kings of Scotland, do take this Opportunity, when the Kingdom is threatened with a Foreign Invasion, to assure your Majesty of the Loyalty of our Hearts, of our sincere Regard to your Majesty's sacred Person, and our constant Adherence to the present happy Establishment in your Royal Family, upon the Preservation of which the Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties does depend.

Your Majesty's known Care and Diligence in every Thing that concerns the Happiness of your People, give us the best Hopes of seeing the wicked Councils of your Enemies defeated; but if they yet should be so foolish as to attempt an Invasion, in Favours of a Popish Pretender, allow us to assure your Majesty of our utmost Endeavours to defeat so desperate a Design, and defend your Majesty's sacred Person, and your undoubted Right to the Crown of these Realms.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council,

John Bucknay, Provost.

Linlithgow,

March 20, 1743-4.

The following Address of the Baillies and Council of the Borough of Anstruther-Easter, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Marquis of Tweeddale, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for North-Britain: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Baillies and Council of the Borough of Anstruther-Easter.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects, the Baillies and Council of Anstruther-Easter, in Council assembled, beg Leave to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of a Design to invade your Dominions; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, Support, Maintain and Defend your sacred Person and Government, and the Succession in the Royal Family, against a popish Pretender, or any who shall endeavour to invade your Realms.

That your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign to support our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and that your Royal Progeny may continue the Succession to latest Posterity, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most faithful Subjects.

Sign'd in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council,
Thomas Whyte, Bailie.
Anstruther-Easter,
March 26, 1744.

The following Address of the Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Anstruther-Wester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Marquis of Tweeddale, his

his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for North-Britain: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, and Town-Council of the Borough of Anstruther-Wester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town-Council of Anstruther-Wester, in Council assembled, beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty, with Hearts full of Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, that we cannot sufficiently express our Surprize and Concern at the audacious Attempts of a popish Pretender to your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms, threatening, by an Invasion, the Subversion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and to make our native Country a Scene of Blood.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, to declare our loyal and sincere Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, under which we enjoy such valuable Blessings and Privileges; and shall therefore, with stedfast and loyal Resolutions, to the utmost of our Power, assert your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Throne of these Realms, against all who shall dare pretend to oppose it.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects.

Signed in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council.

Anstruther-Wester,
March 26, 1744.

Alex. Rob,
Chief Magistrate.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Forreſs, in the County of Elgin and Forreſs, has been presented to his Majesty by Alexander Brodie, Esq; Provost of the said Borough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough of Forreſs, in the County of Elgin and Forreſs.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Town of Forreſs, assembled in Council, understanding by your Majesty's Message to Parliament, that you have undoubted Intelligence of the French King's attempting to make an Invasion on your Majesty's Dominions, in Favour of a popish Pretender, in order to subvert our Religion, Laws and Liberties, the dearest Blessings of a free People, we cannot, without Horror and Resentment, look on the daring Insolence of the French Fleet, in hovering on our Coasts, and their Hopes of finding disaffected Persons to join them in effectuating their bad Purposes: We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we abhor all such wicked Designs, and shall be ready, on all Occasions, to testify our Loyalty and Zeal for your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, with our Lives and Fortunes; that your Majesty may live long to Reign over these your Dominions, and to maintain the Laws, Liberties and Religion thereof, in Opposition to all your Majesty's Enemies either Abroad or at Home, is the hearty Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most obedient, most dutiful, and most loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of the Burgh of Forreſs in Council assembled.

Sign'd at our Desire, by our Preſes, the 17th Day of March 1744, and ordered by Act of Council to be presented to your Majesty by Alexander Brodie, of Brodie, Esq; our Provost, serving his Country in Parliament.

Alex. Tullock.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Kilrinnie, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Marquess of Tweeddale, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for North-Britain: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates and Council of the Borough of Kilrinnie.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Council of Kilrinnie, in Council assembled, beg Leave, with profound Regard, to approach your Throne, to declare our Abhorrence at a wicked and daring Design, form'd by the restless Enemies of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, in attempting to invade these your Majesty's Dominions, prompted thereto, and supported therein, by the tyrannical Power of France, the common Disturber of the Peace and Tranquility of Europe. And as we think it our Duty, as well as Honour and Interest, to defend, at the Hazard of All that is dear to us, your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, as the firmest Bulwark of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, we therefore, with most sincere Resolution, do engage, that we shall, with our Lives and Fortunes, oppose all the detestable Efforts

Efforts of a popish Pretender to your Throne, and every Attempt made to disturb the Protestant Succession in your Royal Line, which we pray, may flourish to perpetuity.

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most faithful Subjects.

Sign'd in Presence, and by Appointment of the Council, Ja. Ward, Chief Magistrate.
Kilrinnie, March 26, 1744.

The following Address of the Archbishop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of York, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Archbishop of York, attended by the Lord Bishop of Bangor, one of the Prebends, and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting; Which Address his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbishop, and Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of York, beg Leave to express our hearty Concurrence with those general Testimonies of a sincere and warm Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, which have proceeded from every Part of your Kingdom.

It was natural to expect, from the Experience the Nation has had of the Wisdom, and Prosperity, and Indulgence of your Majesty's Government, that any Attempt upon the Tranquility of it should be received, as it has been, with the highest Indignation by all your Subjects; and, as it has pleas'd God so disappoint, for the present, the bold and ill-concerted Designs of our perfidious and insatuated Enemies, we humbly accept the Event from his good Providence, as an Omen, that every future Effort of their Counsels and their Arms, will perpetuate the Stability of that Government which they vainly and foolishly attempt to shake, and demonstrate to all Europe, that what-ever Home-Divisions are stirring among the British People, there is, at all Junctures, a real, and warm, and insatiate Union in their Hearts, which never fails to exert itself against the Power of France, and the Machinations of Popery.

It is Wisdom to be alarmed at Danger, and make Provision against impending Mischief, and this Prudence has been seasonably put in Practice, but unmix'd with any Fear of those Enemies, which we have so often humbled. Our Safety and Repose, under Divine Providence, is in the Goodness, and Wisdom, and Valour of your Majesty; and we have only to beg of God, that at this critical Juncture, more especially, he would watch over your sacred Person, and preserve to us the invaluable Life of a Prince, whom we honour, and revere, and obey, as our dread Sovereign, and love, as our common Patent. Given under our common Seal, this Second Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and forty-four.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the East Riding of the County of York, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Irwin, accompanied by Sir William St. Quintin, Bart. Sir James Pennington, Bart. and several other Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the East Riding of the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot delay, in this critical Juncture, to assure your Majesty of our firm Allegiance, and that the Dangers with which our Religion, our Liberty and Properties are threatened, make us more sensible of the full Enjoyment of them, by which we are blest'd under your Majesty's mild and just Government.

We congratulate your Majesty, that this perfidious Attempt will endear you to every Breast in Europe that loves her Liberty: France confess'd you the Bulwark of it at Dettingen, when her devoted Squadrons aim'd at your illustrious Head; and we trust, that Providence, which crown'd you with Victory on that glorious Day, will enable you to protect your Realms from Insults, and to penetrate the dark Treason by which this faithless Power now seeks to undermine your Throne.

As the Discovery of the Design to invade this Nation has made Loyalty to your Majesty the Voice of the People, and silenc'd all Distinctions among us, but of Friends to France or Friends to Britain, we hope, that neither those deluded Subjects, of your Majesty, who have sold themselves to France to assist her to ravage and enslave their Country, nor France, upon their Encouragements, will dare to erect a hostile Standard here; But in all Events we promise religiously to defend your sacred Person and the Protestant Succession, in Defiance of Danger, and to the utmost of our Power; to be vigilant in our Stations to maintain the publick Peace; and to contribute willingly to support your Majesty in the Engagements and Measures which your Majesty in Parliament shall think proper.

That

That your avow'd and secret Enemies may ever fall before you; that your Reign may be long and happy; and that your Descendants, copying your great Example, may bless our latest Posterity, is the constant Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Principal Traders, and Freemen of the City of Coventry, has been presented to his Majesty by William Grove, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Principal Traders, and Freemen of the City of Coventry,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Principal Traders, and Freemen of this City, beg Leave, with the rest of your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, humbly to assure your Majesty, of our Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Person, Family and Government, upon this important Occasion.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we have the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the vain, insolent and presumptuous Attempts of the common Enemy of this Kingdom, in Favour of a popish Pretender, as well as all his Adherents both at Home and Abroad.

We are highly sensible of the many and invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign; and we assure your Majesty, that we will, upon the present, and upon all future Occasions, stand by and support your Majesty, and the Succession in your illustrious House, at the Expence and Hazard of all that is valuable and dear to us.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgessees, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Burrough of Pembroke, in the County of Pembroke, has been presented to his Majesty by William Owen, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgessees, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Burrough of Pembroke, in the County of Pembroke.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgessees, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Burrough of Pembroke, beg Leave to present this our most humble Address to your Majesty upon the present Situation of Affairs, which we are unfeignedly desirous may be expressive of the greatest Loyalty, and the strictest Attachment to your sacred Person and Government, in which Particular, we would not come behind the most forward of our Fellow Subjects.

It is therefore, with the utmost Indignation, we find our Religion, Laws and Liberties, struck at by the pernicious Designs of our Enemies to invade your Majesty's Dominions in favour of a Popish Pretender; but we trust, that by the unanimous Concurrence of all your faithful Subjects, and by your Majesty's paternal Care and Vigilance, under the Guidance and Protection of Heaven, all their Efforts will prove abortive, and their dark Contrivances and Machinations will be totally frustrated.

We, on our part, conformable to our Duty and Allegiance, out of a due Sense of the many and valuable Blessings we possess under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, heartily declare, that we will venture our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of the same, and towards supporting our present happy Constitution, against any Pretender or Invader whatsoever, that should be so bold as to attempt its Subversion.

We add our sincerest Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and prosperous, and that there may be never wanting, one descended from your Majesty, to sit upon the Throne of these Realms; that so our present Blessings, in Church and State, may be transmitted down to latest Posterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this
Twenty Second Day of March,
One Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty Three.

The following Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Carnarvon, has been presented to his Majesty by William Bodwell, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, and Sir Thomas Wynn, Bart. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Carnarvon, assembled at the Great Session held for that County, on Tuesday the 27th Day of March,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave to tender tender our most sincere Acknowledgments of the unbounded Blessings we enjoy under your most auspicious and happy Reign, and at the same Time to give this publick Testimony of the grateful and loyal Sentiments which inspire our Breasts upon this Survey and Remembrance of our Happiness.

The Returns of Duty which we owe for the Enjoyment of so great a Felicity, call upon us, at this critical Juncture, (which threatens us and these Kingdoms with a foreign Invasion) to give your Majesty the utmost Assurance of our hearty Zeal and stedfast Attachment to your Person and Government; that we will cheerfully contribute all that is dear to, us towards the Support of your Royal Person and illustrious House, and at the same Time ready to support the one with our Fortunes, protect the other with our Lives, and sacrifice every thing that is valuable to us in the Defence of them, our Religion and Liberties, against all Invaders whatsoever; and we trust your Majesty will more easily credit these our Protestations of Affection and Fidelity, when we crave Leave to assure your Majesty (which may be something uncommon with our Fellow Subjects) that there is not one Nonjuror, or profess'd Papist in the whole County.

Upon this alarming Occasion we also think it our Duty, to these Assurances to add our fervent and frequent Prayers, that the Divine Providence may always defend your Royal Person and Family from all Dangers, and enable you to confound the Malice, as well as disappoint the Designs of your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, and preserve to us and these Kingdoms, a Prince and a Protestant of the Brunswick Line upon the Throne to Ages still unborn,

The following Address of the Mayor, the Right Hon. the Recorder, the Deputy Recorder, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeses, Clergy, Gentry, and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. George Compton, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, the Right Hon. the Recorder, the Deputy Recorder, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeses, Clergy, Gentry, and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Since we are under all the Obligations of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty, under whom, next to Heaven, we are blessed in the full Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberty and Properties, and have the happy Prospect of their being continued to our Posterity by your Royal Issue, we cannot, without the greatest Disdain and Abhorrence, reflect on the Perfidy of the common Enemy, the French King, whose Insolence has encouraged him to form a Design of invading these Realms, and whose little Regard to the most solemn Treaties, has induced him to declare War against your Majesty; we most humbly and heartily congratulate the Unanimity that appears in the Wishes and Resolutions of your People, in their several Stations, to resent this high Indignity and Injustice; from hence we are perswaded, Great Sir, that your Subjects do still inherit a Jealousy of the English Honour, equal to that of their Ancestors, the Effects of whose Courage France has often heretofore, at it has also very lately, felt.

Whenever your Majesty's great Wisdom shall call upon us, we will, besides the daily Tribute of our Prayers for your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us, be ready to contribute, to the utmost of our Abilities, to your Majesty's Honour and Safety, who for us have exposed your sacred Person to the utmost Dangers, whose Interest is inseparable from that of your Subjects, and whose peculiar Prerogative it is to have no other Aim but to procure the Welfare of your People, and by their Assistance to influence the Happiness of Europe.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Gage, and John Martin, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Deerhurst, General Read, and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly sensible that the Security of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, does, under God, depend upon our having a Protestant Prince upon the Throne, and upon the Succession to these Kingdoms being so happily established in your Royal Family, cannot omit this Opportunity of joining with the rest of your faithful Subjects, in declaring our Detestation and Abhorrence of the Attempt that hath been form'd by the French Power to invade these your Kingdoms, in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Throne. And we do, with the greatest Sincerity, assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready on this and all other Occasions, to assist your your Majesty, to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of your sacred Person and Government. And as we hope the Unanimity of your faithful Subjects, which hath so remarkably appeared at this Juncture, will ever deter the Enemies of our Church and Nation from so bold and daring an Attempt, we beg Leave further to assure your Majesty, that we shall, on our Part, with the warmest Zeal, continue to maintain those Principles of Loyalty and Affection which will most effectually preserve that Unanimity, discourage your Enemies, and best conduce to make your Majesty's Reign, and that of your Successors, easy, happy, and glorious.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affix'd our Common Seal this 31st Day of March 1744.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Rye, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir John Norris, Knt. and Philips Gybbon, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of your ancient Town of Rye, beg Leave to join our Fellow Subjects in a publick Acknowledgment of the Happiness we enjoy under a Prince whose Government is by the Liberty of his People founded in their Hearts.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Discovery of the Perfidy of France, in attempting an Invasion of your Dominions in Time of Peace, and on the Success your Majesty hath already met with in rendering that Attempt abortive.

In this Part of your Dominions these Invaders were lately convinced of the Rashness of their Undertaking, and deserted their unfinished Enterprise, terrify'd by the Approach of your Royal Navy, under Apprehension of receiving the Chastisement due to their Insolence, from which only Night and Tempest gave them Opportunity to escape. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, of our Resolution to unite, with our Fellow Subjects, in defending your sacred Person and Family, from all future Attempts that may be made against you, with a Firmness becoming the Inhabitants of a free Nation.

Given, under the Common Seal of the said Town of Rye, the 4th Day of April 1744.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bridge-Masters and Burgesses of the Corporation of Maidenhead, has been presented to his Majesty by Peniston Powney, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Berks, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bridge-Masters and Burgesses of the Corporation of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bridge-Masters and Burgesses of your ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of the Invasion intended in Favour of a popish Pretender, by a perfidious Nation, who finding their deluded Hopes and succesless Endeavours frustrated by the concurrent Testimonies of the unanimous Affections of your faithful People, still persist in their Intentions to disturb the Tranquility of Europe, by declaring War against your Majesty; but we doubt not they will find you so supported by the Zeal of your Subjects at Home, and so assisted by your Alliances Abroad, that, through the Protection of the Almighty in so just a Cause, your Arms will be crowned with an uninterrupted Series of Victories, till the Triumphs of War are succeeded by the Blessings of Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the Second Day of April, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty Four.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newbury, has been presented to his Majesty by Peniston Powney, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Berks, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Newbury, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, looking on every Attempt against your sacred Person and Government, as the most dangerous Attack of both our Religious and Civil Rights, cannot but express our utmost Scorn and Detestation of the daring Insolence of a People, whose Consciences, as well as Persons, being long since sunk into a State of the most abject Slavery, could be wrought upon, either by the Blindness of Superstition, or by an impotent Envy of our happier Condition, to invade a Brave and Free Nation, animated with the true Spirit of Liberty; and to hope, that any amongst us, whilst in the full Enjoyment of that inestimable Blessing, under your most auspicious Government, could be so insensible of their present Happiness, Happiness, as in any Manner to second or countenance their desperate and infamous Attempts, to reduce and debase us to their own wretched Circumstances.

In the Defence of your sacred Person and Government, and of the Protestant Succession of the Crown in your Royal House, against these and all other the like wicked Enterprizes, we beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our constant Readiness to appear amongst the Foremost of our Fellow Subjects, being firmly persuaded, that on the Continuance of these Blessings, doth, under God, depend our only Security for the Enjoyment of our holy Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties, and transmitting the same to our Posterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough of Newbury, the Seventeenth Day of March, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Regim, and in the Year of our Lord 1743.

Petersbourg, March 17. We hear from Moscow, that her Imperial Majesty went on the 3d Instant to visit the Convent of Troitza, and several others in the Country, and was expected back again on the 10th. The young Princess of Zerbst had been ill of a Fev'erish Disorder, and the Physicians were at first apprehensive of the Small Pox; but in two or three Days all Symptoms of that Kind went off, and her Highness was much better. Lord Tyrawley, his Britannick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary to the Imperial Court of Russia, proceeded from Konigsberg, the 8th Instant, on his Journey hither, and it is supposed he is arrived by this Time in Riga, where Preparations are made, by her Imperial Majesty's Order, for the Reception of his Excellency, with all Distinction suitable to the Dignity of his Character.

Vienna, April 8. General Colo'edo arrived Yesterday from Prince Lobcowitz, with Advice, that the Spaniards had taken Possession of Pescara in the Kingdom of Naples. The French are said to be making great Magazines at Gap and Embrun, whither they are transporting likewise their great Artillery of 54 Pieces from Tarascon.

Ostend, April 18, N. S. Last Night a Smack from Dantzick, bound for Dunkirk, with 206 Polish Recruits for the French Service, was taken by the Dover and Sapphire Men of War, who came over hither as Convoy with the last Transports. The Soldiers were immediately distributed on board each Ship of War, and they are now under Sail for the Downs.

Brussels, April 15, N. S. Last Friday arrived here Feldt Marshal Wade, Commander in Chief of the British Forces in the Netherlands. Great Preparations are making for the Ceremonial of the Inauguration of the Archdutchess, and Prince Charles of Lorrain, our new Governors.

Hague, April 17. They write from Paris, that the Prince of Conti had passed the Var without any Opposition, and taken the Castle of Apremont. Other Letters mention the Magistrates of Nice having sent the Keys of their Town to Don Philip, and that the first Post the King of Sardinia seem'd to intend to maintain against the French and Spaniards, was Montalbo. Letters from Rome of the 24th past bring Advice of their Sicilian Majesties having left Naples, the Queen being retired to Gaëta, and the King gone to put himself at the Head of his Troops, which, according to other Advices, did actually join those of M. de Gages at Chietti, behind the Pescara, upon the 24th past.

Whitehall, April 10.

A Messenger arrived last Night with Dispatches from Admiral Matthews, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, of the 17th past from Mahon Harbour, giving an Account, that the Damages sustained by his Majesty's Fleet under his Command, as well in the late Engagement with the French and Spaniards, as in the subsequent Storms, being repaired, and the Ships fitted for the Sea, he propos'd to sail again from thence the Day following.

Those Letters likewise bring Advice, that the Admiral had thought himself oblig'd to suspend Vice-Admiral Lestock, in Regard to his Conduct in the late Action, from all farther Authority in his Majesty's Fleet, till the King's Pleasure should be known, and that he had order'd the said Vice-Admiral to return Home immediately on board his Majesty's Ship the Salisbury.

Navy Office, March 30, 1744.

As the Passing the Accounts of the Right Hon. Arthur Onslow, Esq; late Treasurer of the Navy, and the subsequent Treasurers, are carrying on at this Office, with all the Expedition that may be, it is recommended to such Persons as have had Bills assigned upon him by the Navy Board, and have not received their Money for the said Bills, forthwith to call for the same: And all Persons, who have any Imprests standing out against them, and have not any Bills or Accounts in this Office to clear the said Imprests, are desired forthwith to bring in their Bills or Accounts to discharge them; that so the said Imprests may not be brought to Account, and returned into the Exchequer, as otherwise they will be: And such Persons as have passed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Imprests, are required to carry their perfect Bills to the late Treasurer's Office, and to take up their Imprests.

London, March 20, 1743.

The Commissioners appointed for Distributing the Moiety of the Prizes taken from the Spaniards hereby give Notice, that they will meet on Friday the 30th Instant, and every Friday following, in the Forenoon, at their Office in Aldermay Church-yard in Bow-Lane, to enter the Claims of those who suffered by Spanish Gurrda Costa's or other Ships, between the 2d of June 1721, and the 10th of July 1739, and who are intitled to a Share in the Distribution to be made pursuant to the said Commission; whereby it is provided, That with Respect to Losses before the Treaty of Seville, bearing Date the 9th of November 1729, no Persons are intitled to any Share, whose Claims were not entered, and Proofs exhibited: And with Respect to Losses subsequent to the said Treaty, no Persons are intitled to any Share, whose Losses were not represented on or before the 30th of June 1743, in such Manner as the said Commission directs. And that daily Attendance at the said Office will be given to receive the said Claims.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Jo. Sedgwick.

London, Feb. 16, 1743.

The Commissioners appointed by His Majesty for distributing to the Sufferers by Spanish Depredations, the Moiety of the neat Produce of Effects taken from the King of Spain and his Subjects, do hereby give Notice, pursuant to Directions in the said Commission, That all Sufferers entituled to a Share in the Distribution of the said Moiety, are required by the said Commission to enter their respective Claims, in Writing, on or before the Fourth Day of August next, and that they are to prove their Claims and Losses on or before the Fourth Day of May 1745, before the said Commissioners; and that all who shall fail to make such Entry and Proof within the said respective Times, are by the Commission excluded any Share in the said Moiety.

Notice is hereby given, that the yearly General Meeting of the Proprietors in the Intention for raising Water out of Mines, &c. by Fire, will be held pursuant to their Articles on Thursday the 17th Day of May next, at Apothecaries Hall, in Blackfryers, at Nine in the Morning.

East India House, March 29, 1744.

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give Notice, pursuant to a Resolution of the General Court holden this Day, that towards raising the Million that is to be paid by this Company to the Government, such of the present Proprietors as think fit, shall be at Liberty to pay into the Company's Treasury, Twenty Pounds per Cent on their Capital Stock in the Manner following, that is to say,

Two Pounds per Cent on or before the 27th Day of April next.

Eight Pounds per Cent more on or before the 18th Day of May following.

And the remaining Ten per Cent on or before the 20th Day of September next.

And that all such Proprietors who shall not make their first Payment on or before the said 27th Day of April next, shall be excluded from the Benefit of paying in the said 20 per Cent upon their Stock; or having made such first Payment, shall afterwards make Default in their subsequent Payments, or either of them, shall forfeit such first Payment for the Use of the Company.

That the said Proprietors upon making their first Payment shall have a Receipt for the Money so paid, which Receipt shall be assignable by Endorsement, and the Nominee or Assignee shall be allowed Interest after the Rate of 3l. per Cent per Annum till the 30th Day of September next, upon each Payment, from the Time of making the same respectively; and upon all the Payments being made, the Nominees in such Receipts, or their Assigns, shall be intitled to one or more Bonds of the Company, of the same Form as the Company's present Bonds, for the Sum so paid, carrying Interest after after the Rate of 3 l. per Cent per Annum from the said 30th Day of September next.

That such Proprietors as think fit, shall be at Liberty to pay in their whole Money at any Time before any of the before-mentioned Days of Payment, and upon making such Payment shall be allowed Interest after the Rate of 3 l. per Cent per Annum for the Money so paid, from the Time or Times of the Payment thereof, unto the said 30th Day of September next; and upon completing their said whole Payment, shall immediately have one or more of the Company's Bonds made out for the Money so paid, carrying Interest after the Rate of 3 l. per Cent per Annum from the said 30th Day of September next.

And to prevent the Inconveniency that would attend the Company's issuing Bonds for any other Sums than 50 l. or 100 l. that no Person who is at present possessed of a less Quantity of Stock than 250 l. shall be entitled to pay in any Money in respect of such Stock; and such Proprietors who are now possessed of 250 l. Stock or upwards, and less than 500 l. Stock, shall be at Liberty to pay in 20 l. per Cent upon 250 l. of such Stock only; and such Proprietors who are now possessed of 500 l. Stock or upwards, and less than 750 l. Stock, shall be at Liberty to pay in upon 500 l. of such Stock only, and in the same Manner for any greater Quantity of Stock, so that all the Bonds to be issued to the Proprietors may be for 50 or 100 l. and for no other Sums.

That the present Proprietors as they now stand on the Ballance of the Books, or their legal Representatives, and such who have Stock in Trust, or in joint Names, and the Attornies or Persons at present empowered to receive the Dividends on their Stock, shall be entitled for and on the Behalf of such Proprietors to pay this Subscription, and have the Receipts delivered to them.
