St. James's, April 14.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Somerset, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Prowse, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Hon. Vere, Ann, and — Poulet, Esqrs. Sir R. Bamfield, Sir C. Tynte, Sir R. Grosvenor, Sir C. Wyndham, Baronets, and other Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen and Clergy, assembled at the Assizes held at Taunton, for the County of Somerset, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, That we will, upon any Invasion on this Kingdom, in Favour of a popish Pretender, or any other Person or Power, most cheerfully and readily sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, Royal Family and Government.

We beg Leave also to assure your Majesty, that we will most strenuously exert ourselves, in our several Stations, and use our utmost Endeavours to detect all Disaffection and Disloyalty, and to bring all Offenders to Justice that shall attempt to disturb the Peace and Tranquility of this Kingdom.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been presented to his Majesty by Albert Nesbitt, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Huntingdon.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave humbly to return your Majesty our most sincere Acknowledgments for the wise Precautions your Majesty has taken for the Preservation of the Liberties of this Nation, when they were insolently struck at by the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, in a threatened Invasion in Favour of a popish Pretender to the Crown of these Realms.

The Behaviour of France, in pretending to have received Injuries from a Nation they have insulted, and openly attempted to reduce to Ruin and Slavery, fills your Majesty's faithful Subjects with the utmost Indignation ; and we think that the Honour of this Kingdom will greatly suffer, unless that haughty Power is made to repent of its Insolence, which, we doubt not, but that we shall in a short Time see effected, as we have the utmost Confidence in your Majesty's Wisdom, which we are satisfy'd will direct your Majesty to the Prosecution of such Measures as shall be conducive to the Glory and Welfare of your People.

We likewise beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we are highly sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign ; and as we are convinced that the Security of the Protestant Religion, and the Maintenance of the Honour, the Rights, and the Liberties of this Kingdom has been your Majesty's chief and constant Care, we should think ourselves wanting in our Duty, were we to omit throwing ourselves before your Majesty's Throne, most humbly to express our Gratitude for past Benefits ; and to assure your Majesty, that we are ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in your Majesty's Support, and in Defence of the Liberties of this Nation, which we are persuaded can only subsist under the Protection of your Majesty and your Royal Family.

Given under the common Seal of the said Borough, the 2d Day of April, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majesty's happy Reign.

The following Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Cumberland : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to testify our just Indignation for the Affronts offer'd to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, by the Attempts of a foreign Power to invade these Kingdoms in Favour of a popish Pretender ; and at the same Time to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Care and Vigilance, in defeating their dark and ambitious Designs. And since the lawless Ambition of the same restless Enemy to the Liberties of Europe (after finding her private Schemes against your British Dominions, as well as her publick Views of aggrandizing her Power by the Destruction of the House of Austria, frustrated by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and by your personal Courage and Conduct in the Field) has prompted her, in Defiance of the most sacred Treaties, to menace your Majesty with open War, we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, of our most ardent Zeal for promoting your Majesty's Service, as well by our Prayers to the Almighty for the Success of your Arms, as also by all other lawful Means within our Power.

Permit us likewise, most gracious Sovereign, with Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude, to acknowledge the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, in the Protection of our Religion, Liberties and Trade, the grateful Sense whereof, and the Hopes of having them transmitted safe to our remotest Posterity, through the Succession established in your illustrious House, will ever animate us with a suitable Zeal for the Support of your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, against all Invaders of your Crown and Dignity, whether foreign or domestick. We are,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

Whitehaven, March 30, 1744.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, has been presented to his Majesty by John Bance and John Rush, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, and Robert Clucks, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, in the County of Berks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, in Common Council assembled, crave Leave to declare our just Abhorrence of the intended Invasion and Attempts against your Majesty's Person and Kingdoms, by the Common Disturbers of the Peace of Christendom, in Favour of a popish Pretender ; and, with Hearts full of Duty, to acknowledge our most unfeigned Allegiance and Readiness, in supporting, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Throne of these Kingdoms ; being truly sensible, that our Religion, Laws and Liberties (the most sacred and valuable Blessings in this Life) are preserved and secured in the present happy Establishment, under your Majesty's Royal Protection.

We fully hope, that the Almighty Power, which preserved your Royal Person in the late glorious Victory of Dettingen, will defeat the open and secret Machinations of the Pretender and his Adherents, the determined Enemies to our excellent Constitution ; heartily praying, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and prosperous Reign, and that there never may be wanting one of your Royal Lineage to reign over us.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the seventeenth Day of March, in the seventeenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Steward, and all the Inhabitants of the Borough of Stockbridge, has been presented to his Majesty by Matthew Lamb and Charles Churchill, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, who were introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff, Steward, and all the Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Stockbridge, in the County of Southampton.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude titude for the Happiness and Liberty we possess under your Majesty's most mild and gentle Administration; and to declare our Abhorrence of the insolent Endeavours of France to interrupt that Happiness, and to intrude on us a popish Pretender, not only a pretended Prince, but on this Occasion a pretended Protestant also, born in a popish Country, and bred up in all the blind Superstition of the Court and Church of Rome.

It is our determined Resolution, with our utmost Vigour, and to the Hazard of all that is dear to us in the World, to stand by and support your Majesty, and to oppose those Endeavours, and all other Pretenders whatsoever.

And it is our earnest Prayer, that the same good Providence, which was so propitious to your Majesty in the Day of Battle, may always attend your Majesty and your Royal-House, that your Majesty's and the Kingdom's Enemies may always be clothed with Shame and Disappointment, and that the Scepter of these Kingdoms may never depart from your Majesty's Royal Family.

Done and signed at your Majesty's Court held for the said Borough, this 28th Day of March, 1744.

The following Address of the Lieutenant Governour, Bailif, Jurates of the Royal Court, and other principal Inhabitants of the Island of Guernsey, having been transmitted to the Right Hon. the Earl of Hartford, Governour of the said Island, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant Governour, Bailif, Jurates of the Royal Court, and other principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Island of Guernsey.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE humbly beg Leave to assure your most sacred Majesty of our utmost Horror and Detestation at the Attempt lately formed of invading your Majesty's Dominions, and of our inviolable Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Protestant Succession in the most illustrious House of Hanover, whereby so many invaluable Blessings were derived upon, and are still continued to your Majesty's Subjects.

That a popish Pretender should presume to form the Design of attacking your Majesty, in the midst of Subjects who continually feel the kind Influences of your Majesty's mild Government, and are firmly secured in the Enjoyment of all that is valuable in Life; and that he should be supported in so desperate and inconsiderate an Undertaking, by a Prince with whom your Majesty is in Friendship and Amity, argues the rashest Stupidity in the one, and utmost Perfidiousness in the other; but to our inexpressible Joy, their Demerit and Arrogance have been in Part chastised, since the Alacrity which your Majesty's loyal Subjects struggled with to be foremost in making these bold and insolent Disturbers of the publick Peace, feel the Weight of their just Resentment and Indignation at the Indignity offered to the Nation as well as to your Majesty's sacred Person: And the intervening Hand of Providence (which by scattering their Numbers, has dissipated the least Shadow of Fear in us) must needs have convinc'd them, that so injurious an Attempt was no less displeasing to God, than shocking to the Body of the People, and also assured them of being shamefully defeated whenever they shall presume to offer the like Insult.

May the Divine Protection, who cover'd your Royal Person from Danger in the Day of Battle, and defeated since the perfidious Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, continue to preserve your Majesty from the Malice of secret as well as open Foes; and may the Divine Goodness shed his Blessings upon your People, by granting your Majesty a long and happy Reign over them, and continue the Imperial Crown of these Realms in your Royal Issue to the latest Posterity. These are the sincerest Vows and Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

Guernsey, March 22, 1743.

The following Address of the People call'd Quakers, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To George the Second, King of Great Britain; and the Dominions thereunto belonging.

The humble Address of his Protestant Subjects, the People called Quakers, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

WE thy dutiful and peaceable Subjects, with Hearts truly sensible of the many Blessings and Privileges we enjoy under thy paternal Care and Protection, beg Leave, at this critical Conjunction, (when thy Dominions are threatned with an Invasion, in Favour of a popish Pretender,) to express our sincere and hearty Abhorrence of all Plots and Conspiracies against thy Person and Government.

Duty, Gratitude and Interest unite to engage us in a firm Attachment to thy Royal Person and the Protestant Succession in thy illustrious House, and we are determined, by Divine Assistance, to continue unshaken in these Sentiments, ments, and, conformable to our known Principles, to do the utmost in our Power for promoting the Peace and Welfare of this Nation.

The kind Indulgence granted us by the Legislature in our Religious Scruples, the free Access we have had to the several chief Governors of this Kingdom since thy Accession to the Throne, and the Readiness shewn for our Relief, whereof we retain the most grateful and lively Sense, lay us under additional Obligations of Duty and Fidelity.

May the same Divine Providence that defeated the Attempts of the Enemies of our Constitution, in the Rebellion against thy Royal Father, and which hath lately protected thee in imminent Danger, preserve thee and thy Royal Family from the wicked Designs of all your Enemies, whether Foreign or Domestic: May the Almighty guide thy Counsels by his Wisdom, and render them effectual for the Re-establishment of Peace and Tranquility, and grant thee a long and prosperous Reign over us: May the British Throne be always filled with one of thy Royal Off-spring, to transmit the Blessings we enjoy to future Ages.

Sign'd in Behalf of the said People.

Dublin the 31st of the 1st Month, called March, 1744.

The following Address of the Provost, Burgeses, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, in the County of Cork, and Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Burgeses, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, in the County of Cork, and Kingdom of Ireland. Sealed with our Seal the 23d Day of March, 1743.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Burgeses, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of your truly Protestant Borough of Bandon Bridge, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late happy Discovery of the horrid Invasion designed and attempted against your Majesty's Dominions in Favour of a popish Pretender, supported from Abroad by a most arbitrary, tyrannical Power, and encouraged (we fear) by some desperate Traitors at Home.

We are truly sensible of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and most auspicious Government; and therefore, with Hearts full of Gratitude, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, That we are most resolutely determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to support and defend your Majesty, and your just and undoubted Right to the Crown of these Kingdoms, against all Attempts whatsoever.

We further beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy on the Accounts we have received of the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms; and we rest assured, that the same good Providence, which preserved your Majesty's sacred Person in the Day of Battle, will, by the great Example of your Majesty's Valour, Wisdom and Virtue, animate and inspire all your Majesty's Protestant Subjects, with Power, Courage and Loyalty, sufficient to oppose, detect, and bring to condign Punishment, all your Majesty's open and secret Enemies, being the fervent and constant Prayers of,

Your Majesty's most faithful and obedient Subjects.

The following Address of the Sovereign, Burgeses, Commonalty, and other the Protestant Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgeses, Commonalty, and other the Protestant Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeses, Commonalty, and other the Protestant Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as your Majesty's Dominions are threatened with an Invasion, in Favour of a popish Pretender, to which we have the greatest Abhorrence, we will, to the utmost of our Power, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, support and defend your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and the Succession of your illustrious Family, under which we have enjoyed so many invaluable Blessings.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Kilkenny, assembled at the Assizes held for the said County, on Thursday the Twenty-second Day of March, One thousand seven hundred forty and three, having heard that Attempts have been forming, in Favour of a popish Pretender, to disturb the Peace of these your Majesty's Kingdoms, by the Aid of a Foreign Power, the common Disturbers of the Peace and Tranquility of Europe, and to interrupt the Happiness we so amply enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, for the Support of which, and the general Cause of Europe, your Majesty so lately exposed your Royal Person,

Humbly beg Leave to take this our earliest Opportunity of expressing our great Concern for, and Abhorrence of the Indignity intended to your Royal Person and Government, and against the Tranquility of your Majesty's Kingdoms, as well as the Rashness of so insolent an Undertaking.

And as we are most truly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and prudent Administration, humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, of our inviolable Zeal and sincerest Attachment to your sacred Person and Government.

And that we will, to the utmost of our Power, as well on this as all other Occasions, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, exert ourselves in Defence of your Royal Person and Government, and illustrious Family, under whom alone our Religion, Laws and Liberties, can be safe. And we doubt not, but that by your Majesty's great Wisdom and Vigilance, and the Blessing of God on your Arms, these Attempts of our Enemies will be entirely frustrated, and tend only more firmly to unite the Hearts and Affections of your Majesty's loyal Protestant Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeses and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeses and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express our hearty Abhorrence of the Designs in Agitation of invading your Majesty's Kingdoms in Favour of a popish Pretender.

The uninterrupted Enjoyment of all our Rights, civil and religious, since the Accession of your Majesty's illustrious House to the Crown of these Realms, and the many Instances we have had of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Welfare of your People, will be ever had in most grateful Remembrance by us. And we persuade ourselves, that Obligations of this Sort have so united all your Majesty's Subjects, that every Attempt to deprive us of that Happiness will be rendered vain and ineffectual, it being impossible to shake a Throne that is strengthened by the Justice of a King, and guarded by the Affections of his People.

We further beg Leave to assure our most gracious Sovereign, that we will not only at this critical Juncture, but on every other Occasion, exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, and think our Lives and Fortunes only valuable, as they can assist in preserving to us the Blessings of your Majesty's Government, and in supporting the Succession of the Crown in your Royal Line, upon which our Happiness and that of our Posterity depends.

Given under our common Seal this 28th Day of March, 1744.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Antrim, and Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the County of Antrim, and Kingdom of Ireland, at an Assizes and General Goal Delivery held at Carrickfergus, the Seventeenth Day of March 1743.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Freeholders of the County of Antrim, think it incumbent on us, upon this Occasion, to express our grateful Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and excellent Government, our great Zeal, Loyalty and Affection for your Majesty and your most illustrious Family, and our Detestation and Abhorrence of the wicked and insolent Schemes of your Enemies, who have the Impudence to attempt to introduce and support a popish Pretender to the Crown of these Realms.

This County had the Honour first to receive the Great King William the Third, of immortal Memory; and as we have a just Sense of the Blessings first so gloriously conveyed to us thro' him, and since continued to us in so ample a Manner by your Majesty, and your most illustrious House, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, with the sincerest Hearts, full of that Loyalty and Affection due to so good a Prince, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, support your Majesty against the Pretender and all his Adherents; and will oppose, with the last Drop of our Blood, the ambitious and perfidious Designs of France, or any other Power who shall dare to disturb the Felicity and Tranquility we now enjoy.

We do farther assure your Majesty, that, should any Persons among us, (which God forbid) be so desperate in their Circumstances, or abandoned in their Principles, as to support so iniquitous a Cause, we will be as active and vigilant as possible to detect them, and strictly rigorous in punishing them with all the Severity that so enormous and infamous a Crime most justly deserves.

The Wisdom and Conduct of our most excellent Governor, at this Time so conspicuous, joined with the Unanimity and Spirit of your Majesty's most zealous Protestant Subjects, leave us no Room to doubt, but that, in this Kingdom, we shall be able to defeat the Designs of those who would oppress and enslave us; and we pray to God Almighty, that your Majesty may be victorious in all other Parts of the World, triumphing over your Enemies, and chastising the Arrogance and Impudence of those who presume to attack you.

The following Address of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Freeholders of the County of Tyrone, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other the Freeholders of the County of Tyrone, at an Assizes held at Omagh in the said County, the Seventeenth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and forty three.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to express to your Majesty, our just Abhorrence and Detesta-tion of the late insolent and perfidious Attempt to invade your Majesty's Dominions, in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Majesty's Crown.

It fills us with inexpressible Amazement, that any of your Majesty's Subjects, happy in the uninterrupted Enjoyment of Civil and Religious Liberty, should traiterously encourage a Design to destroy the Protestant Succession, so happily established in your Majesty's most illustrious House, the only Security, under Heaven, for the Continuance of those inestimable Blessings to us and our Posterity.

Your Majesty's glorious Example cannot fail to animate those who can distinguish between Liberty and Slavery, between pure Religion and the most detestable Superstition: And the same Divine Providence which so signally protected your Majesty's sacred Person in the late important Day of Battle, will, we trust, prosper your Majesty's Councils, and the zealous Endeavours of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, against all the rash and impotent Attempts of an abjured Pretender, his Descendants, and all other his secret, or avowed Abettors.

We beg Leave, on our Parts, to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and of our determined Resolution, on all Occasions, to maintain and defend, at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of these Realms.

And we beg Leave to return your Majesty our humblest Thanks, for continuing to entrust the Care of this Kingdom, on this important Occasion, with your Majesty's Lord Lieutenant his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, whose known Attachment to your Majesty's Family, will be the greatest Encouragement to your loyal Subjects to use their best and sincerest Endeavours to render his Grace's Administration easy to him, and honourable and beneficial to your Majesty.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Surry, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Onslow, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, accompanied by several principal Gentlemen of the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderness, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Surry.

Dread Sovereign,

THAT the Wisdom of your Majesty, and the Prudence of your Councils, have frustrated the insolent Efforts of an ambitious Power, in Favour of a popish Pretender to the Throne of these Realms, must fill each loyal Heart with the greatest Joy, at the same Time that it excites a just Indignation, and most sincere Abhorrence of so desperate and infamous an Attempt; — an Attempt, formed, not only against your known Right to the Crown, but against the Liberty and Property of all your faithful Subjects.

The many and valuable Blessings we receive under your most auspicious and gentle Government, and the true and pleasing Sense we have of the free and full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights, under so just and glorious a Prince, who rules us with the strictest Regard to our Laws and Liberties, cannot but inspire a most active Ardour in every grateful and loyal Breast, to support, to the utmost, your Royal Person and Family, in your just and undoubted Title to the Crown of these Reaims.

We therefore beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we All are ready on this, and every Occasion, at the Hazard of whatever is most dear to us, to unite and exert ourselves in the common Cause of our Country; and that we cannot be influenced or misled by the Artifices and delusive Pretences of France, always our natural, but now our declared Enemy; but will ever persevere in acknowledging, with the greatest Gratitude, that on the Stability of your Majesty's Throne, not only the Happiness of these Kingdoms in Particular, but the Liberty of Europe in General, depends.

The following Address of the High Sheriff of the County of Haddingtoun, and of the Justices of the Peace of the said County, and of others the Noblemen, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the said County, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Charles Hay, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Holderness, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff of the County of Haddingtoun, and of the Justices of the Peace of the said County, assembled at the Adjournment of their Quarter Sessions, and of others the Noblemen, and Gentlemen Freeholders of the said County.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IT was with equal Surprize and Indignation, we heard the French were preparing to invade your Majesty's Kingdoms in Favour of a popish Pretender, and in Concert with disaffected Persons at Home.

We cannot express how sensible we are, that the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Country, can only be secured by the Continuance of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family.

Permit us, amongst the many of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, that have shewn such Spirit and Eagerness to punish the Fraud and Presumption of France, to declare to your Majesty, it is our firm and fixed Resolution, to exert ourselves, in this critical Juncture, in supporting and defending your Majesty, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in this just and necessary War against France and Spain, and all other of your Enemies at Home or Abroad.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, we will take the greatest Care to maintain and preserve the Peace and Quiet of this County in particular, by a due Execution of the Powers vested in us by Law.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen of the County of Brecon, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. Thomas Morgan, Esq; Lord Lieutenant of the said County, accompanied by the Hon. John Jeffreys, Esq; Representative for the County, and the Hon. John Talbot, Esq; Member for the Town of Brecon, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderness, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Gentlemen, assembled at the Grand Sessions held at Brecon, for the County of Brecon, the 30th Day of March, 1744.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, take this first Opportunity, most humbly to approach your Majesty, to declare our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the insolent and daring Attempt, form'd by the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe, in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Throne.

As we are truly sensible of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most gracious Government, both in Church and State, and that the Preservation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, do, (under God) entirely depend on the Continuance of your Majesty and your illustrious House upon the Throne of these Realms,

We beg Leave to give your Majesty our most firm and hearty Assurance, that we will, at all Times, with the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, support and defend your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, against France, our declared Enemy, or any other Power that shall presume to disturb the Peace of these Kingdoms.

The following Address of the High Steward, Alderman, Recorder, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Corporation of Wokingham, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Berks: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Steward, Alderman, Recorder, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Town and Corporation of Wokingham, within the Counties of Berks and Wilts, and within your Majesty's Forest of Windsor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, should think ourselves guilty of the greatest Ingratitude to the best of Kings, if we did not lay hold on this, and all Opportunities, of testifying to the World, the thorough Sense we have of the many Blessings we derive from your Majesty's Government, and of the many Miseries which must inevitably fall upon us, should the wicked Enviars of our present Happiness, be able to succeed in their unnatural Attempts.

It is a Truth, clear and incontestable, that in the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, the Preservation of all our civil and religious Rights intirely depend. If any are so blind as not to see it, (and if any such there are, we do proclaim aloud our utter Detestation of them) their Darknes must arise from Romish Bigottry and Superstition, improved by the false and lying Artifices of popish Emissaries.

But permit us, Great Sir, whose Hearts are full of the Conviction of it, most humbly to approach your Royal Presence, most humbly to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty and Zeal; and that we are, and ever shall be, most ready and willing, to devote ourselves, our Lives and Fortunes, in the Defence of your Majesty's Person, and of the Protestant Succession happily established in your illustrious Family.

Petersbourg, March 20. The Festivals, which the Empress intends to celebrate at Moscow, on Account of the Peace with Sweden, are to begin the 5th of next Month, and to continue till the 25th, the Anniversary of her Imperial Majesty's Coronation; and it is generally believed, that in the Beginning of May, her Majesty will go to Kioffi. General Lubras, who was some Time ago appointed, by her Imperial Majesty, her Minister to the Court of Sweden, remains still at Cronstadt.

Stockholm, March 27, O. S. The Day before Yesterday arrived here from Copenhagen Count Tessin. Two Days before a Courier, dispatched by his Excellency, brought hither the Danish Ratification of the last Convention between the two Crowns. This Gentleman, as is said, will soon set out for Berlin, with another Senator, in order to bring over Princess Louisa Ulrica. The Ceremony of the Nuptials between her Royal Highness and the Prince Successor to this Crown, being to be celebrated about the latter End of May or Beginning of June.

Turin, April 4, N. S. This Court received two Days ago a Courier from the Marquis de Suze, with Advice, that the French and Spanish Armies were passing the Var, and in full March for attacking the County of Nice. His Sardinian Majesty's advanced Posts on the Borders of the River, after spending a few Shot on the first Troops that appeared, retired, according to their Orders, towards the Intrenchments; and by an Estafette arrived from Nice last Night, it is to be presumed the Enemy is march'd into the Town, which being incapable of making any Defence, must have opened its Gates. We shall now see, whether they proceed to the Attack of Montalban only, or will not rather endeavour to go round about by the upper Part of the Mountains, and try to possess themselves of some of the Posts in the Rear with one Part of their Troops, while the other takes the Intrenchments in the Front. Prince Lobcowitz was on the 25th past at Fermo, in Expectation of Orders from Vienna. The last Courier from Rome has brought an Account, that his Sicilian Majesty was actually at the Head of his Troops, and would immediately join M. de Gages. Count Richecourt, who is appointed to succeed Count Kaunitz, as Minister from the Queen of Hungary to this Court, arrived here on Wednesday last.

Turin, April 6, N. S. We hear from Villa Franca, that Admiral Matthews, with the British Fleet under his Command, was every Hour expected there; that the Antelope and Nonsuch were just arrived; and that the former, with the Dartmouth, had been immediately sent down to St. Tropez, where three British Men of War were actually blockading a Convoy of 14 Transports and three French Gallies laden with Troops, and designed for St. Auspice, on the other Side of the Castle of Villa Franca, and from whence both that Fort and our Intrenchments might have been taken in the Rear.

Liege, April 13, N. S. The first Division of the Hanoverian Troops, which are returning from the Electorate of Cologne to the Austrian Netherlands, will pass the Maeze and enter upon this Principality on the 17th Instant, N. S. Count Crivelli, Archbishop of Cesarea, the Pope's late Nuncio at Cologne, arrived here two Days ago, to pay his Compliments to the present Bishop, and set out this Morning for his Nunciature at Brussels, to which he has lately been appointed.

Liege, April 17. This Morning Mr. Burrish had his first private Audience of our Bishop and Prince, as Resident from his Britannick Majesty, and was received with great Distinction.

Roermunde,

Roermunde, April 17. This Day two Squadrons of the Hanoverian Regiment of Life-Guards passed the Maeze at this Place, in their Way to Flanders, and will be immediately followed by two other Squadrons of Schées Regiment.

Amsterdam, April 21. Mess. Tralman, Schryer, and Rynst, are promoted to the three vacant Flags belonging to the Department of the College of Admiralty of this Place.

Hague, April 21, N. S. In Consequence of Mr. Trevor's Memorial of the 14th Instant, four Provinces have already consented to grant a Succour of twenty Men of War to his Britannick Majesty, in pursuance of the Treaties; and the final Conclusion of that Affair is only postponed for a Day or two, in Expectation of the Consent of the remaining Provinces. Count Nassau, Commander in Chief of the Dutch Forces in the Netherlands, set out Yesterday upon his Journey thither. M. Fenelon, the French Minister, is hourly expected here. By Letters from Dunkirk, of the 14th Instant, we have Advice, that the Embargo having been taken off there upon the Sunday Morning before, the Vessels of all Nations were released, except those belonging to the English.

Admiralty Office, April 14.

His Majesty's Ship the Fox, being upon a Cruize on the Coast of Portugal, fell in, on the 14th of last Month, about 20 Leagues to the Westward of the Burlings, with the famous Privateer Schooner belonging to Bayonne, which is said to out-sail every Privateer in Galicia, and, after a Chace of five Hours, took her. She mounted six Carriage Guns, six large Brass Swivel Guns of three Pounders, and 12 Iron Pattereroes, and carried 80 Men.

His Majesty's Ship the Sapphire, commanded by Captain Saunders, took off of Ostend, on the 7th Instant, a Galliot Hoy from Dantzick, bound to Dunkirk, having on board 193 Officers and Soldiers, and about 60 Arms, for the Service of the French King. The Officers and Men were raised for the Service of Count Lowendahl's Regiment at Dunkirk.

By the Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

Devonshire.

Whereas his Majesty hath been pleased to issue his Declaration of War against the French King, in the Words following.

[Here is inserted his Majesty's Declaration of War.]

And whereas his Majesty, by Order in Council, dated the twenty-ninth of March, One thousand seven hundred and forty-four, hath signified his Royal Will and Pleasure, That the said Declaration be in like Manner published, in his Majesty's Name, within his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland; We the Lord Lieutenant, in Obedience to his Majesty's said Commands, do hereby publish his Majesty's said Royal Declaration accordingly, strictly charging and commanding all his Majesty's loving Subjects to take Notice thereof, and to conform themselves according to the Tenor of the said Declaration.
