St. James's, April 24.

THE following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, of the County of Sligo, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and others, at the Assizes holden for the County of Sligo, the 22d Day of March, 1743.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, having always been unalterably attached to the House of Hanover, both before and since its Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms, beg Leave to express our great Abhorrence of the insolent and black Design of the Enemies of your Majesty's Person and Government, to invade these Kingdoms, and introduce a foreign Power, by endeavouring to place a popish Pretender upon your Throne.

Though we are not surprized that a haughty and perfidious Nation, who have been long aiming at Universal Monarchy, and consequently must be natural Enemies to your Majesty and Kingdoms, who holds the Balance, and are the chief Support of the Liberties of Europe, should form Schemes destructive of your Majesty's Person, Family, Religion, Liberties and Properties of all your loyal Protestant Subjects.

And being convinced they must have Encouragement from some of our secret Enemies at Home, otherwise they would not presume to make so daring an Attempt,

We can't say whether we more detest the Wickedness, or pity the Folly of those, who, tired with your Majesty's powerful, yet gentle Government, prefer Slavery to Freedom, a Pretender, bred up in the Idolatry and Superstition of Rome, to a Prince, who more than once ventured his Life in supporting Liberty, in Opposition to popish Tyranny and Slavery.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that at this critical Conjunction, we will exert ourselves in our several Stations, to defeat the Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, and venture our Lives and Fortunes, and all that is dear to us, in Support of your Majesty's sacred Person, and for the Security of the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and others, of the County of Denbigh, has been presented to his Majesty by John Myddelton, of Chirk Castle, Esq; (in the Absence of Edward Jones, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County, who was indisposed) being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty's was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and others, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, held at Denbigh, for the County of Denbigh, on Tuesday the Third Day of April, 1744.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN this critical Conjunction, when your Majesty's Dominions have been insolently threatened with an Invasion from France, when the idle Pretensions of an abjured Popish Bigot are revived by that perfidious Power, in Defiance of the most solemn Treaties, and, in Consequence of these Insults, actual War is denounced by the French King, we your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, fully sensible of the great Blessing we enjoy under a Free and Protestant Government, humbly beg leave to assure your Majesty, that we will exert our utmost Endeavours, and cheerfully sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes, to support your Majesty's just and undoubted Title to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and to secure the Succession in your Royal House, and preserve our happy Constitution, tion, as established by Law, in Opposition to all your Enemies Foreign and Domestick.

The following Address of the Tinnors of the County of Cornwall, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Pitt, Esq; Lord Warden of the Stanaries, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Tinnors of the County of Cornwall, now met at our Quarterly Coynage, take this first Opportunity to acknowledge the invaluable Blessings we enjoy, both in our Civil and Religious Rights, under your Majesty's Government, the Sense of which moves us with the utmost Indignation and Resentment at the late insolent and daring Attempts of the ever perfidious Enemy of this Kingdom, and now followed with a Declaration of War against your Majesty.

We therefore most humbly presume, with hearty Zeal for the Prosperity of our present happy Establishment in your illustrious House, to approach your Majesty, by our Lord Warden, to make tender of our best Services for supporting and defending your Royal Person and Family in the Throne of these Kingdoms, against the Attempts of all Enemies whatever; and to assure your Majesty, that in such a Cause, we are ready to risque our Lives and Fortunes, not doubting but to give Proofs, on all Occasions, that the ancient Cornish Loyalty and Valour, still animates the Hearts of Cornish Men.

Lady-Day Coynage, 1744.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Capital Burgesses and Freemen of the Burrough of Camelford, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Inchiquin, and Charles Montagu, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Capital Burgesses and Freemen of the Burrough of Camelford, in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, in a due Sense of all the Blessings of Liberty and Religion, of our happy Constitution in Church and State, being secure under your Majesty's auspicious Government, desire Leave, in the strongest Terms we can, to declare to your Majesty our Indignation at any Attempt, the Success of which may end in depriving us of those Blessings. And as we are sensible the Loss of all that is dear to us as Britons and Protestants would immediately follow, should the Pretender have succeeded in his late Attempt, and the Invasion projected by France and Spain have taken place, we beg Leave to express our just Abhorrence at so wicked, but at the same Time so ill contrived an Attempt, the Shame of which has fallen upon its Authors and Contrivers.

As God has often almost miraculously appeared for us in many signal Deliverances of this Nation from Popery and Tyranny, from that Slavery of our Souls and Bodies, which formerly Spain, since that France, have endeavoured to impose upon us, so now France and Spain join together in this wicked Design, we hope still for the same divine Protection, that God will defend your sacred Person as he has done already more than once in the Day of Battle, and that by preserving your Person and Government, he will also preserve to us that Protestant Faith of which you are the Royal and Zealous Defender, and will enable you effectually to assert those civil Rights and Liberties, which under your Majesty we so fully enjoy.

And as our very Being, as a Church and Nation, as a free People, and a Protestant Church, depends upon the Protestant Succession being settled and continued in your Royal Family, we shall, in our several Capacities, oppose any Attempt that shall be made to subvert or weaken an Establishment, that is so necessary to the Peace and Welfare of every British Subject.

Given under our Common Seal, this Fourteenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and forty four.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to his Majesty by William Mitchell, and Coulson Fellowes, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by several of the Clergy and Gentry of the said County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, and one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and other Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon.

Most

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Acknowledgments for the Possession of our Civil and Religious Liberties, which we so fully enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government; and we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that Gratitude, as well as Duty, will always engage us to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Royal Person and Family; especially at this Time, when we see, with Indignation and Contempt, that a Prince, remarkable for Perfidiousness in the Violation of the most solemn Treaties (whose Subjects groan under the most abject Slavery) not only attempts to impose a popish Pretender upon a brave and free People; but also endeavours, by an unjust Declaration of War, to disturb the Peace, Welfare, and Trade of your Majesty's Kingdoms.

May the same Success your Majesty was blessed with in the glorious Victory of Dettingen, (so peculiarly owing to your Personal Bravery and Conduct) attend your Majesty in all your Undertakings against France, and against all other Supporters of the Pretender and his Adherents! May your Majesty's Reign be long and prosperous; and may your Royal House, which has lately received an additional Strength, by the Marriage of the Princess Louisa to the Prince Royal of Denmark, and by the Birth of another Prince to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, continue the Blessings we now enjoy to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Clothiers of Bradford, Trowbridge, and Melksham, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Robert Long, Bart. one of the Representatives for the County of Wilts, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Clothiers of Bradford, Trowbridge, and Melksham, in the County of Wilts.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Clothiers of Bradford, Trowbridge, and Melksham, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our most humble and hearty Thanks, for the many Blessings we have long enjoyed under your Majesty's most mild, gentle, auspicious and happy Government; and to express the grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's great Care for the Welfare of your People, the Good of their Trade in general, as well as for the paternal Regard your Majesty has shewn for our Security, and the Good of our Manufacture in particular.

And at the same Time we express the strong Sense we have of the Felicity, Freedom, and Security we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we assure you (Royal Sir) that we find our Bosoms swell with all the Heat of Indignation, and Asperity of Resentment, when we reflect, that there could exist such Insolence in your Majesty's Enemies Abroad, in Concert with such diabolical Venom and Ingratitude in any of your Majesty's Subjects at Home; that they should dare to think of invading and conquering us, and imposing on us an abjured Pretender to your Majesty's Crown and Dominions: A detested Bigot, bred up in the Principles of Civil and Religious Tyranny, from whom we can expect nothing but to see our pure and holy Religion sunk into Idolatry, our Liberties trampled upon, and our Constitution overturned; our selves and Posterity become Slaves to an arbitrary Usurper; our Country a Province to France, and a Tributary to Rome; our Commerce destroyed, and our Trade lost.

What Valour must not such Apprehensions inspire! What Abhorrence and Detestation must not such Indignities and Affronts excite in the Heart of every true Briton! Nothing could have fired the one to greater Fury, nor raised the other to greater Odium, than the finding the dark and clandestine Machinations of our Foreign and Domestick Enemies, succeeded by the French King's Declaration of War against your Majesty, couched in Terms injurious to your Majesty's Honour, and affrontive to the British Nation; full of false Accusations, groundless Suggestions, scandalous Assertions; frivolous Pretences, and unjust Insinuations, preceded by a Conduct treacherous and deceitful, in direct Violation of the most solemn Treaties and Religious Engagements, Royally pledged, and Perfidiously broken.

Thus fired with Indignation, excited with Abhorrence, prompted by Duty, animated by Affection, engaged by Interest, and compelled by Gratitude, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that to preserve your Rights, and our own invaluable Privileges and Happiness, under your Royal Protection and paternal Administration, and to revenge the Affronts and Indignities offered, and Injustice done us, we are ready, at all Times, to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes.

We should be wanting in Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty, and to our own Interest, should we refuse to follow the illustrious Example of your Majesty, and your Royal Son, who boldly traversed the Field of Death, in Defence of our Rights, the Balance of Power, and the Liberties of Europe, at the ever memorable Battle of Dettingen; where you triumphed over the French King's Household Troops, who fled before your Arms with Precipitation and Confusion; a happy Omen of future Conquests, and a just Chastisement by the Aid of that all-seeing Power, who avenges broken Faith! And as Heaven sent its Angel to shield your Royal Head in the Day of Battle, so it sent its Winds to confound the late Attempts of our Enemies; for he blew, and they were scattered; and instead of enjoying an hostile Triumph on our Shoars, they saw Wrecks, Destruction and Death on their own; to us pleasing Prognosticks of Divine Favour and Protection.

We farther beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we feel our own Breasts warmed with Loyalty and Affection, we shall always make it our Endeavour to confirm the great Numbers employed by us in our Manufacture, in the same Sentiments.

That your Majesty may long enjoy Life and Happiness; that you may continue the Darling of your People, and the Terror of your Enemies; and that a Branch of your Royal and illustrious House may never be wanting to fill the Throne of these Kingdoms, to the latest Generations, is the ardent Prayer of, (may it please your Majesty) your Majesty's

Most Humble, Loyal and Dutiful
Subjects and Servants.

Naples, March 31, N. S. M. de Gages, at his Arrival on the Borders of the Abruzzo, caused his Troops, consisting of about 13000 Horse and Foot, to enter into the Kingdom of Naples: They were joined by 25 Battalions and 15 Squadrons of the King of Naples's Forces, and are advantageously distributed in three Divisions, drawing a Line from the River Tronto to the Garigliano, so as to be nigh at Hand to observe and oppose any Attempt the Austrians should make to enter into the Kingdom of Naples. On the 25th their Majesties and the young Princesses, after having been complimented by the City in a Body, the Foreign Ministers, Nobility, and the two Cardinals Spinelli and Orfini, and saluted by a triple Discharge of the Cannon of the Fortresses and Gallies, set out hence, attended by their respective Courts, and escorted by the Horse Regiment Royal Bourbon, the Life-Guards, and the two Regiments of Italian and Swiss Foot Guards, conducting the Military Cash, 'tis said, with about Two Millions and three hundred thousand Ducats in Specie. On the 26th their Majesties separated at Capoa, the Queen and young Princesses proceeded to Gaeta, and the King towards Abruzzo: He stopped on the 28th at Venafro, to ease the March of the Troops that followed him, as he had received Notice from M. de Gages, that the Austrians remained still at Fermo, &c. On the 31st he arrived at Rocca del Raso, and on the 6th Instant it was expected he would arrive at Chieti at the Head of his Army. The two Battalions Militia, one of Salerno, the other of the County of Molis, declining to march, mutinied against their Officers, and out of the first above 300 Men have deserted; they are now without Arms at Capoa, many of them are under a close Confinement, against whom a rigorous Process is forming.

Florence, April 7. We are informed from Bologna, that Reinforcements continue to pass daily through that City from Germany to the Austrian Army. Prince Lobkowitz, 'tis said, has settled an Allowance of 90,000 Crowns per Month from the Provinces of Marca, Umbria, and Urbino, towards the Supply of Forrages, and other Necessaries for his Troops: His Army continues at Fermo and Macerata, in Expectation of Orders from the Court of Vienna, as to their Proceedings.

Admiralty

Admiralty Office, Feb. 25, 1743.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are pleased to direct, that such disabled or worn out Seamen who have been minuted to be received into the Royal Hospital at Greenwich, do make their Appearance at this Office on Tuesday the 1st of May next, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning.

Tho. Corbett.

Admiralty-Office, April 5, 1744.

Notice is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer, and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas, within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Thursday the 26th of this Instant April, at Justice Hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

Tho. Corbett.

War-Office, April 18, 1744.

The following Orders and Instructions having been given to the Colonels and Recruiting Officers of his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, are published for the Information of the Commissioners and others authorized to put in Execution an Act of this Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the speedy and effectual Recruiting his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines

Complaints having been made by the Commissioners appointed by the Act now in Force, for the speedy and effectual Recruiting his Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, that the Officers appointed for the Receiving of the pressed Men and Volunteers, have not duly attended their Meetings, I am commanded to acquaint you, it is his Majesty's express Will and Pleasure, that you do take Care that the Officers of your Regiment do attend the next and all other Meetings in the Counties and Places to which your Regiment is appointed.

And as other Regiments are allotted to the same Counties with your Regiment, the Officers you shall appoint for this Service, upon their Arrival in those Counties, are to settle and agree with the Officers of the other Regiments, how to disperse and divide themselves, so that the Commissioners be every where attended, in order to the Receiving from them such Men as shall be by them delivered over from Time to Time.

I am farther to acquaint you, that all the Recruits that shall be so delivered by the Commissioners, be received by your Officers, although such Recruits should exceed the Number wanting for your Regiment, such Supernumeraries being afterwards to be disposed of for his Majesty's Service, for whom the Officers shall be fully reimbursed the Charge they shall be at thereby.

And for as much as Certificates are by the said Act required to be, by the said Commissioners, transmitted to this Office, of the Persons by them levied, and to whom delivered, it is his Majesty's Pleasure, that you give it as an Instruction to the Officers you employ on this Service, that they take Care to procure Duplicates thereof, which are to be lodged in the Hands of the Agent of the Regiment, to be at all Times forthcoming on any Occasion that may happen.

And as the Commissioners are, by the said Act, directed to use their best Judgment and Endeavours, that the Soldiers by them levied shall be such able bodied Men as are fit to serve his Majesty; you are to give it as a farther Instruction to your said Officers, that where they shall find a reasonable Cause to object to any Man on Account of his Age, or being lame, burst, under six'd, or any other Ways unfit for his Majesty's Service, that then, in Case they shall be obliged by the Commissioners to receive such Man, they be careful to make their Objections openly upon the Place, and endorse such their Objections on the Back of the Duplicates they are to send up, attested, if it may be, by two Witnesses. They are likewise to be careful not to receive any Irishmen or known Papists.

By his Majesty's Command,
WILLIAM YONGE.

War-Office, April 18, 1744.

It is his Majesty's Pleasure, that all the Recruiting-Officers now in England, or who shall come to England, belonging to the Irish Regiments, do repair to the Counties of Westmoreland, Lancaster, Chester, Sal p, Hereford, Nottingham, Stafford, Gloucester, Worcester, North and South Wales; and that they do act in Conformity to the Instructions for the Recruiting Officers, published in the Gazette, and other Papers, by his Majesty's Command.

By his Majesty's Command,
Will. Yonge.

This is likewise to give Notice, that where the Commissioners shall have levied any Number of Volunteers and Press'd Men, and no Officers shall appear to receive them, the said Commissioners are desired to return to the Secretary of War, a List of their Names, distinguishing the Volunteers and Press'd Men: In which Case Orders will be immediately sent to the Officers of the neighbouring Regiments to receive them.

Will. Yonge.

London, April 21, 1744.

As the Regiments in Gibraltar, Minorca, and the West-Indies, as well as several of the Regiments of Marines, have not a sufficient Number of Non-commissioned Officers or private Men in England, to receive and secure the Volunteers and Press'd Men in the several Places where they are directed to attend the Commissioners; My Lord Stair orders, That on Application from any Officer belonging to those Regiments that is employed on the Recruiting Service, the Officer commanding in any Quarter or Cantonment shall furnish the Recruiting Officer with one Sergeant or Corporal, and such a Number of Men as shall be necessary to assist him in receiving and conveying his Volunteers and Press'd Men to the nearest Place where such Recruits can properly be secured, Provided, there is not then one Non-commissioned Officer, and a Party already detach'd from each Company on that particular Service.

This Order is to extend to the Dutch, as well as the British Troops.

C. Ellison, Dep. Adj. General.

London, March 20, 1743.

The Commissioners appointed for Distributing the Moiety of the Prizes taken from the Spaniards hereby give Notice, that they will meet on Friday the 30th Instant, and every Friday following, in the Forenoon, at their Office in Aldermary Church-yard in Bow-Lane, to enter the Claims of those who suffered by Spanish Guardà Costa's or other Ships, between the 2d of June 1721, and the 10th of July 1739, and who are intitled to a Share in the Distribution to be made pursuant to the said Commission; whereby it is provided, That with Respect to Losses before the Treaty of Seville, bearing Date the 9th of November 1729, no Persons are intitled to any Share, whose Claims were not entered, and Proofs exhibited: And with Respect to Losses subsequent to the said Treaty, no Persons are intitled to any Share, whose Losses were not represented on or before the 30th of June 1743, in such Manner as the said Commission directs. And that daily Attendance at the said Office will be given to receive the said Claims.

of

By Order of the Commissioners,
Jo. Sedgwick.

Pay-Office, Horse-Guards, April 24, 1744.
Notice is hereby given, That upon Thursday next, the 26th Instant, will be issued Six Months half Pay to the Reduced Officers of His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, to the 24th of December, 1743: And that Attendance will be given at the abovesaid Office for Payment of the same accordingly.

Cha. Monson.

River Medway.

This is to give Notice, That at a Meeting of the Committee of the Company of Proprietors of the Navigation of the River Medway, held at Tunbridge, on Friday the 30th Day of March 1744, a Call of Five per Cent. (being the Seventh Call) was made on the Subscription-Money; And the Money, so called for, was ordered to be paid into the Hands of James Colebrook, Esq; and Co. Bankers, in London.

It was once my Design never more to have appeared in Print, with Respect to treating upon Distempers incident to Horses; but the Multiplicity of small Books lately published upon the Subject, and designed as it were for the Pocket; all which contain such out-of-the-way Reasoning, that no Man of Sense can read any of them, without being surprized that such Nonsense should be vendible; I say, this Consideration, together with strong Sollicitations from several Gentlemen,
has obliged me to set my Hand to the present Undertaking;
and, I doubt not, if the Precepts laid down therein be duly attended to, I shall have the Thanks of many, whom as yet I am unacquainted with.
