The foremost of the Dutch Troops lately ordered by the States General to march hither from the Side of Breda, are got to Aloft, and it is expected that they will join us soon. The Enemy by the best Accounts are filing off towards Lisle, and it is thought will plant themselves behind their Garrisons, they having sent their battering Train that Way. Brussels, July 22, N. S. Two Days ago arrived here two Squadrons of Dutch Horse. Yesterday arrived a Regiment of Dragoons and the Regiment of Foot of Utrecht; and this Day three Squadrons of Linden's Horse are arrived, all in very good Order and well mounted. Within this Week six Regiments of Foot have marched hence to join the Army, which is making Dispositions to pass the Schelde.
