

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 17. to Saturday July 21. 1744.

AT the Court at Kensington, the 19th Day of July 1744.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the Second Day of August next, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Twentieth Day of September next.

Moscow, June 14, O. S. The Empress returned hither from Troitza the 12th Instant in the Night.

Stockholm, June 26, O. S. General Keith is taking his Leave, and hopes to embark on board his Gallies, with all the Troops under his Command, towards the latter End of this Week. They go at first to Hongoud in Finland, and from thence propose to stretch over to Revel, Riga, &c.

Stockholm, June 29, O. S. The Russian Troops here are every where in Motion, but General Keith does not leave this Place till next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Stockholm, July 3, O. S. General Keith, Lieutenant General Soltikoff, and Major General Lapuchin, left this Place this Afternoon for Ramansu, nine Swedish Miles off, where is the General Rendezvous of the Muscovite Troops in this Kingdom; the Regiments quartered in the Inland Towns, who are on their March, will encamp there, till their Gallies, amounting in all to 30 whole Gallies, and 44 half Gallies, with the Remainder of the Troops, arrive at the above-mentioned Place, from whence they will proceed altogether on their Voyage to Livonia. His Swedish Majesty is expected back from his Progress to Gottenbourg some Time next Week.

Rome, July 4, N. S. Upon the 24th and 26th of last Month, ten or twelve Feluccas from Naples had the good Fortune to get into the Mouth of the little River Baudino, above Terracina, and to land some Provisions, of which the Neapolitan and Spanish Armies stood in great Need. It was not the Duke Atrisco, as was reported, but General de la Vieuville, who was detached upon the 24th of last Month with four or five thousand Men: He marched into Abruzzo to join Colonel Vargas, in order to stop Count Soto's Progress on that Side. It is certain that the Austrian Army does not advance, and Count Gages keeps firm and in good Order at Velletri. He is making great Works at Sermeneta, a Castle naturally strong, in the great Road to Naples, which commands the Defiles of Sezze and Fondi, and is not above two Posts from Velletri. To this Place it is thought he will retire, if he cannot maintain himself at Velletri for want of Provisions.

Turin, July 11, N. S. Admiral Matthews having received his new Supply of Cattle from hence, is actually under Sail towards the Coast of Provence with all the Ships. The said Admiral has detached Capt. Long, with three Fifty Gun Ships more, and the three Bomb Ketches, towards the Roman and Neapolitan Coast: Affairs on this Side seem to be drawing to a Crisis, the French having already appeared on Mount Genevre, and a Van-guard of nine or ten Battalions being come down and advanced to Sezano and Oula, while other Troops are marching thither, and Preparations making to bring over their Artillery, in order, as is not doubted, to besiege Exiles, which the Advices from Dauphiné leave no room to question is their Intention.

Copenhagen, July 11, N. S. The three Frigats, which were lately fitted out here, set sail for the Baltick about the Beginning of this Week, in order to make a Proof of their Working, and to exercise the Cadets; but there is no Appearance of any farther Equipment. There is a Reduction making of the extraordinary Augmentation, which took Place upon the late Prospect of War, both of Horse and Foot, the Men taken from the national Regiments, are restored to their former Corps, and the Horses are put up to Sale.

Berlin, July 14, N. S. The Duke and Dutchess of Brunswick-Wolfenbuttle, and the Margravine of Onesbach, are arrived here, to assist at the Ceremony of the Marriage of the Princess Ulrick, which is to be performed on Friday next the 17th Instant; and on the 25th her Royal Highness sets out with the Ambassador and his whole Train for Stralsund, where they are to embark for Stockholm. Count Rosenberg sets out this Evening or Tomorrow Morning for Moscow; And General Lubras, the Russian Minister to the Court of Sweden, went from hence two Days ago for Hambourg and Copenhagen, in his Way to Stockholm.