

thereupon took Possession of it, whilst others, together with some Austrian Hussars pursued the Rear of the Prussians as far as Podelébe. These last were to arrive either Yesterday or this Day at Beutmitz, from whence, according to some Advices they are to direct their March by Turnau, Trausenau and Braunau towards Silesia. By some Accounts they amount to 7000 Men, but others assure, that their Number is nothing near so considerable. Of the Sick and Wounded, who were at Prague at the Time of the Retreat of the Prussians, only those were taken with them, who were least ill, the others being left behind in that Town.

Brussels, Dec. 9, N. S. A Courier arrived here Yesterday from Prince Charles, who says, that he passed through Prague the 2d Instant, where 2000 Prussians were made Prisoners a Day or two before; that the remaining Part of that Garrison, amounting to about 8000 Men, were fled towards Leuthmaritz, without Order, Provisions or Ammunition, having first nailed up both the Austrian and Prussian Artillery, and plundered about 200 of the principal Inhabitants of that City, and that several irregular Troops had been detached after them.

By the Principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy.

These are to give Notice, that on Tuesday the 18th of next Month, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, will be exposed to Sale at this Office, in Pursuance of Orders on that Behalf, The Hulls of his Majesty's Ships: the Scarborough Hospital Ship at Deptford, and Diamond at Portsmouth, with some Particulars, that are to be sold with them. The Ships to be viewed at the Places where they now lie, between this and the Day of Sale, by such Persons as are inclinable to attend the said Sale, and bid for them.
