

and Contracts shall be good, and the Clerks, Apprentices or Servants shall be capable of exercising their Trades or Employments as fully as if the said Duties had been paid within the Times limited by two several Acts of Parliament of the 8th and 9th Years of Queen Anne.

And for the better enforcing the Payment of the said Duties, it is Enacted, That after the 24th of June next, if any Master or Mistress shall neglect to pay the said Duties within the Times limited by the said Acts, they shall for every such Neglect forfeit and pay double the Duties charged and directed to be paid by the said former Acts (over and above all Penalties and Forfeitures thereby inflicted) for all Moneys which shall after the said 24th of June be given, paid, contracted, or agreed for, with or in Relation to every such Clerk, &c. to be paid by the said Masters and Mistresses; and if they shall neglect to pay the said Duties charged by the said former Acts, within the Times therein limited, and any such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant shall in that Case pay the said Duties and the Penalties incurred by this Act, within one Year after the same shall become charged and made payable thereby, (such Master or Mistress not having then paid the same, although required so to do) that then it should be lawful for the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, within three Months after such Payment, to demand of the Master or Mistress, their Executors or Administrators, the Money paid to them in respect of such Clerkship, Apprenticeship or Servitude: And in case the Money shall not be paid, within three Months after such Demand made, it shall be lawful for the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant to sue for the same against the Master or Mistress, their Executors or Administrators; and after Payment of the said Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures, the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant shall be discharged from their Clerkship, Apprenticeship and Service, and from all Actions and Damages for not serving their Time, and shall have the Advantage of the Time they shall have served such Master or Mistress, as they might have done in case of any Assignment or turning over to any new Master or Mistress.

The Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties give this publick Notice, that no Person may incur the Penalties mentioned in the said Clause.

The Governors of the Charity for the Relief of Poor Widows and Children of Clergymen, do hereby give Notice, that they will begin to pay the Widows Pensions on Wednesday in the Whitsun Week, between the Hours of Ten and One of the Clock, at the Corporation house in Salisbury-Court Fleet-street, and continue to pay on Thursday and Friday in the same Week, on every Wednesday for one Month at the same Place, during the same Hours; and afterwards on the first Wednesday in every Month till Michaelmas, at the House of Mr. Thomas Harrison, Treasurer, in Fenchurch street.
