Genoa, May 8.

THEY write from Parma, that Prince Lobcowitz's Army having been reinforced to the Number of 18000 Men, he had divided the same into three Corps, one of which had been sent to L'Aulla and Pontremoli; the other two were to march the 15th Instant, or sooner if the Exigencies of Affairs required. Yesterday arrived an Estafette from that Prince to the Queen of Hungary's Agent, with Orders to him to acquaint the Republick, that the Situation of Affairs would probably oblige her Hungarian Majesty's Troops to enter this State very soon, and to require that the Republick would give the necessary Orders, that they may be provided with Provisions of all Kinds, and Forage, which will be paid for in ready Money, and the Troops observe a strict Discipline. M. de Gages's Army is arrived between Lucca and Sarzana, and has exacted large Contributions from the State, but it is with Difficulty that they find Subsistence. A few Days ago all the Flower and Bread in Town was bought up to be sent to his Camp, and was upon the Road, but a Body of Hussars, who were waiting for another Convoy that was going to the Army, coming down from the Mountains of Cento Croce to Verese, the Mulateers getting Intelligence of their being on the Road, they deposited the Provisions at Chiaveri. Don Philip's Army is moving forward; the Cavalry was expected to arrive at Nice two Days ago, and was to continue their Route to Albenga, where the Infantry and the whole Army are to joyn. Letters from San Remo advise, that Convoys of Mules from Nice pass through that Town Day and Night, with Flower, Bread, Barley, and other Provisions, for the Army, his Britannick Majesty's Ships on this Coast having prevented their receiving any Supply by Sea. His Sardinian Majesty has published an Edict, to oblige all the Inhabitants in the Alexandria and Tortonese States to carry their Arms to the respective Governors of the Towns, under Penalty of a Confiscation of Goods and Estates. This Republick continue their military Preparations with the utmost Vigour, as well in raising new Troops, as in fortifying this City and their other Garrison Towns. They have sent a Reinforcement of a thousand Men into the Castle of Gavi, and the like Number to Porto Specia. Just now arrived his Britannick Majesty's Ships the Guernsey, Roebuck, and Chatham, the two first from Lisbon, and the last from Vice Admiral Rowley's Fleet, who he left eleven Days ago cruising off Carthagen, having taken and destroyed several Vessels belonging to the French and Spaniards.

Mentz, May 20. The Duke of Aremberg has broke up his Camp, and retired with his Army behind the Wied, and accordingly 4000 Horse were ordered to repass the Rhine on the 16th and 17th Instant, and march down the River to a Place opposite to Neuwied, where the Bridge at Vallender, which was taken down, is since ordered to be rebuilt; and on the 17th, at Break of Day, the whole Army began to file off towards Neuwied, by the Plain of Roemmersdorff. Upon the first News of these Motions, the French retook Possession of Nider Lahnstein in the Night between the 16th and 17th, and began to throw a Bridge over the Lahne. They have since demanded 90,000 Rations from the Elector of Treves; and it was expected at Coblentz, that the Prince of Conti would march with his Army and take Possession of the Camp which the Allies have quitted.

Copenhagen, May 22. The King and Queen of Denmark are expected in Town this Evening, being to spend all the next Week here on Account of the Reviews. In a Day or two the Prince and Princess Royal come hither to take Possession of a Palace newly fitted up for them, which was the Residence of his Majesty when Prince, where they propose to continue till after her Royal Highness has lain-in. The Princess, upon her going into the Country while the North-Easterly Winds blew very fresh, had the Misfortune to get a Cold, accompanied with a Fever, the Violence whereof was such at first, as gave great Apprehensions of some fatal Accident, but her Royal Highness is now out of all Danger, and pretty well recovered. The affectionate Care and Concern of the Queen appeared on this Occasion. Her Majesty, it is said, attended the Princess two Days and a Night, and would not leave her as long as any ill Symptom remained.

Berlin, May 22, N. S. The Quarter-masters of the Regiments which are to form the Camp near Magdebourg are still here, but the Officers are getting themselves ready to go thither; and the Prince of Darmstadt, who is come back from Silesia, set out for that Place Yesterday Morning. All that we hear from Silesia is, that the King of Prussia is still at Kamentz; that the Army continues still in its Quarters of Cantonment, without making any Motions to incamp, and that M. de Valory is at Neiss.

Leipsig, May 22. Their Polish Majesties set out Yesterday for Dresden.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1745.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearne, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Sea Officers Widows, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Sums as the Funds of the said Charity shall produce for a Year ending the 31st Day of May next, as soon as the Pay-books can be made up, and the Money shall be issued into the Pay Master's Hands for that Purpose; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

General-Post-Office, October 19, 1744.

Publick Notice is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, That the Mail for Flanders, which used to go out from this Office upon Monday Night, will not go out till the Tuesday Night of every Week for the Time to come, or till Orders shall be given to the contrary.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

Stamp-Office, Lincoln's Inn, May 17, 1745.

Whereas by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, (amongst other Things) An Act for giving farther Time for the Payment of the Duties omitted to be paid for the Indentures or Contracts of Clerks and Apprentices, and for the further enforcing the Payment of the said Duties, it is Enacted, That on Payment of the said Duties (which have been so omitted to be paid) on or before the first Day of August next, and upon tendring to be stampd such Indentures and Contracts at the same Time, or at any Time before the 29th of September next, that the said Indentures and Contracts shall be good, and the Clerks, Apprentices or Servants shall be capable of exercising their Trades or Employments as fully as if the said Duties had been paid within the Times limited by two several Acts of Parliament of the 8th and 9th Years of Queen Anne.

And for the better enforcing the Payment of the said Duties, it is Enacted, That after the 24th of June next, if any Master or Mistress shall neglect to pay the said Duties within the Times limited by the said Acts, they shall for every such Neglect forfeit and pay double the Duties charged and directed to be paid by the said former Acts (over and above all Penalties and Forfeitures thereby inflicted) for all Moneys which shall after the said 24th of June be given, paid, contracted, or agreed for, with or in Relation to every such Clerk, &c. to be paid by the said Masters and Mistresses; and if they shall neglect to pay the said Duties charged by the said former Acts, within the Times therein limited, and any such Clerk, Apprentice or Servant shall in that Case pay the said Duties and the Penalties incurred by this Act, within one Year after the same shall become charged and made payable thereby, (such Master or Mistress not having then paid the same, although required so to do) that then it should be lawful for the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant, within three Months after such Payment, to demand of the Master or Mistress, their Executors or Administrators, the Money paid to them in respect of such Clerkship, Apprenticeship or Servitude: And in case the Money shall not be paid, within three Months after such Demand made, it shall be lawful for the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant to sue for the same against the Master or Mistress, their Executors or Administrators; and after Payment of the said Duties, Penalties and Forfeitures, the Clerk, Apprentice or Servant shall be discharged from their Clerkship, Apprenticeship and Service, and from all Actions and Damages for not serving their Time, and shall have the Advantage of the Time they shall have served such Master or Mistress, as they might have done in case of any Assignment or turning over to any new Master or Mistress.

The Commissioners for managing his Majesty's Stamp Duties give this publick Notice, that no Person may incur the Penalties mentioned in the said Clause.

A Quarterly General Court of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, for the Augmentation of the Maintenance of the Poor Clergy, will be held at their Office in Dean Yard in Westminster, on Monday the 3d of June next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.
