

The Regiments of Foot of Margrave Charles, Margrave Henry, M. de Munchow, his Royal Highness the Prince of Prussia, General Kleist, and of Prince Ferdinand of Wolfenbuttel, are to leave the Field in order to go into Garrison. All the Boats are still detained, and there are above 200 here loaded with Corn, that are to be transported to Silesia along the Oder.

Journal of the Proceedings of the Allied Army in Flanders, from the 13th to the 21st of May.

THE 12th and 13th were employed in examining into the State of the Regiments, in establishing the Hospitals, and in dispatching Trumpets to the French Camp, to enquire after the State of the Wounded, and to complain of the Treatment they received contrary to the Rules of War.

The 14th a Detachment of 600 Foot, 100 Horse, and 100 Hussars, all of the Right Wing, commanded by Brigadier Skelton, was sent to post themselves at Leuse, to prevent the French Pandours and the Grassins from infesting the Edges of the Camp.

The 15th the Quarter-Masters were sent out to mark a Camp, with Lessines on the Right and Rebay on the Left, a small League from Aeth.

The 16th we march'd and took Possession of the new Camp, and a new Corps de Reserve was formed under the Command of Lieutenant General Molk, consisting of the Highland Battalion, a Squadron of the King's Dragoons, one of Stairs, and two Austrian Squadrons, two of Hop's Horse, and two of Marfau's Dragoons, Dutch.

The 17th Skelton's Command returned to the Camp late at Night. The Marshal came to his Quarters at Lessines, not having been able to march with the Army because of his Gout.

The 18th Lord Harry Beauclerk's Battalion relieved Fleming's at Oudenarde, who came to Camp.

The 19th Colonel Ligonier march'd with the Battalions of Duroure, Welch Fusileers, and the Scotch Fusileers, to relieve the King's Regiment in Ghesit, that late Ponsonby's in Bruges, and Colonel Ligonier's at Ostend.

The 20th two Detachments of the Right Wing, each composed of 300 Foot, 100 Horse, and 30 Hussars, one commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Powell, the other by Lieutenant Colonel Lord Robert Manners, march'd from the Camp, the former to be posted at Everbeck, the other at Scoris, to secure the Convoys from Oudenarde.

The 21st the King's Regiment march'd into the Camp from Ghent. A very advantageous Piece of Ground was pitched upon in the Front of the Camp for forming the Army in Battle, in case the Enemy should think fit to attack us.

Hague, May 25, N. S. The Criminal Prosecutions of certain Dutch Officers, on Account of their Behaviour in the late Action near Tournay, are commenced, and the Sentences are to be without Appeal.

Hague, May 29, N. S. Two Days since arrived here an Express, with the News that the Governor of Tournay had, upon the 22d Instant, delivered up one of the Gates of that City to the French, and retired with his whole Garrison into the Citadel.

Hague, June 1, N. S. His Highness the Prince of Orange has been at Leyden, to compliment Professor Albinus, and returned Yesterday in perfect Health to Lieuwarden, where the Provincial Dyet is about to assemble. Lord Harrington arrived here in the Night between Saturday and Sunday last, and set forwards on his Way to Hanover Yesterday at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon. With the Packet Boat of last Friday are arrived Messieurs Wasner, Carvalho, Flemming, and Hop, Ministers of Hungary, Portugal, Poland, and this Republick, who are all to follow his Majesty to Hanover immediately.

Admiralty-Office, May 25.

On Wednesday the 15th Instant, Captain Beavor, in his Majesty's Ship the Fox, about four Leagues off Flamborough Head, seeing a Sail in the Offing gave Chace to her: She proved to be a French Privateer, which, upon seeing the Fox, tack'd and stood off: Between Nine and Ten the next Morning, the Fox came within Musket-Shot of her, and the Privateer, in springing her Luff, in order to give the Fox her Broadside, carried away all her Top-Masts, on which she immediately struck: She came out of Dunkirk five Days before, but had taken nothing; she mounts 14 Guns 9 Pounds, and 16 Swivels 2 Pounds, and has 145 Men; she is called le Bon Ame Louis.

Admiralty-Office, April 30, 1745.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and War-rant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Shearness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Charles Fearn, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Sea Officers Widows, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Sums as the Funds of the said Charity shall produce for a Year ending the 31st Day of May next, as soon as the Pay-books can be made up, and the Money shall be issued into the Pay Master's Hands for that Purpose; This is to give Notice, that any Widows who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, by the 31st of next Month, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.

General-Post-Office, October 19, 1744.

Publick Notice is hereby given, to all whom it may concern, That the Mail for Flanders, which used to go out from this Office upon Monday Night, will not go out till the Tuesday Night of every Week for the Time to come, or till Orders shall be given to the contrary.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
