On the 22d Instant Colonel Franklin, Aid du Camp to the Queen of Hungary, went with the Vanguard of the Corps under General Nadaſti, to dislodge the Prussians at Reich-Hennersdorff, and pursued them to Landshut; where they were so strongly reinforced, that General Nadaſti, who followed, thought it prudent to retreat. The Austrians lost upon this Occasion about 200 Men, including the Wounded; and the Prussians about the same Number. Prince Charles was on the 23d at Jaromitz, and intended to be at Kostelitz on the 26th. The Duke of Weissenfeldts went the Admiralty-Office, May 29.

His Majesty's Ships the Captain and Monmouth being on a Cruize in the Channel, on Sunday the 26th, in the Morning, they saw two Sail in the S. E. Quarter; to which they immediately gave Chase, the Captain to the largest, and the Monmouth to the other. At Five o'Clock in the Evening the Captain came up with the Chase, and gave her a Broadside; upon which she immediately struck, being then between Portland and the Gasketts. She proves to be the Grand Turk of St. Malo, with 32 Guns and 240 Men, but had only 24 Guns mounted, having thrown eight over Board.

The Captain left the Monmouth in Chase of the other Vessel, at Half past Ten in the Morning, and heard them fire at one another until Half past Twelve, and then it ceased; so they conclude that the Chase then struck; but the Weather being hazy, they could not see them. The Name of the Chase is the Vestale, of 18 Guns and 160 Men, and is commanded by Capt. Du Fraine Marion.

His Majesty's Ship the Sapphire, commanded by Capt. Keppel, fell in on the 20th Instant, with a Spanish Privateer, between Cape Clear and the Old Head of Kinsale, and after some Hours Chase took her, and carried her into Kinsale. She proves to be the Superbe of Bilbao, of about 150 Tons, with 16 Guns and 130 Men, and is a prime Sailor.
