Naples, May 18.

TH E Vessels which have been so long loaded and lain in this Port, with Artillery, Ammunition, &c. are at last suddenly sailed, to the Number of 19 or 20, at different Times within this Week, and there are about seven or eight more remaining in this Mole, which it is expected will soon follow. Some say they are design'd for Orbetello, and the Garrisons on the Coast of Tuscany.

Genoa, May 23, N. S. The Duke of Modena and M. de Gages, with Part of the Army, are at Nervi, a Village about five Miles from this City, and the Remainder at Chiaveri, Lavagna, and Rapallo. Two Palaces are preparing in San Pierre d'Arena for the Reception of those Generals, where it is expected they will fix their Head Quarters. The Design of their sudden March into this State begins to be discovered, warm Representations having been made to this Republick to accede to the Alliance with France and Spain, and to join them with their Troops; but the Republick hitherto continues fixed in her Resolution of keeping up to the Neutrality she has professed. The Spanish Agent has requested the Republick to lend them 12 Pieces of Cannon, and was answered, that they had barely enough to defend the City. The Army does not consist of above 15000 fighting Men, badly cloathed, and in general discontented, on finding themselves deceived in the Hopes they had been flatter'd with, of the Republick's declaring openly in their Favour. Their March into this State has cost them upwards of 5000 Men, and they now find themselves penned up without Cannon, and unable to undertake any Operation. His Sardinian Majesty and Prince Lobowitz have prohibited the bringing into this State any Sort of Cattle or Provisions, under Pain of Death, by which Means the City is reduced to no small Inconveniences for Meat. Yesterday arrived a small Catalan Vessel with six Pieces of Field Cannon that had been brought from Nice to Oneglia; they will be brought forward if it be found possible; with the Train prepared at Barcelona, which is already arrived at Nice and Monaco; the Cannon are to be put into small Boats, to coast along the Shore; and the same Method will be used to get what has been prepared at Naples, hoping by this Means to get a Quantity sufficient to enable them to take the Field. The Army under Don Philip is drawing together at Albenga and la Pietra; and it is expected he will set out from Nice the latter End of this Month to take the Command of it. M. Maillebois is arrived at Nice with 19 Battalions of Infantry and three Regiments of Cavalry; but all Advices agree, it is only to occupy the Posts that may be quitted by the Spaniards, and to keep open the Communication. Some Advices from Ceva say, that 21 Battalions of his Sardinian Majesty's Troops are marching towards that Place, and it is expected they will attack the Spaniards at Oneglia or Albenga.

Stockholm, May 17, O. S. The Prince and Princess Royal continue at Dronningholm, and his Swedish Majesty and most of the Senators are preparing to go and spend the Whitsun-holidays in the Country.

Copenhagen, May 29, N. S. The Review of this Garrison began the 24th with the Regiment of Grenadiers, Colonel Kattenborn; and the Regiment of Fuhnen, Colonel Viereg. On the 25th appeared the Regiment of Foot Guards, Colonel Castagna; and the Regiment of Laland, Major General Dornbroich. The Whole concluded the 26th with the Regiment of Zealand, Prince Bevern; the Regiment of Holstein, Count Hohenloe; and four Companies of Artillery. All these performed their usual Exercise, with Firing, upon the Place of Amalienburg, and then passed in Review before the King and Queen, who seemed very well pleased with their Appearance and Address. The Prince Royal assisted only the first Day. This Affair being over, their Danish Majesties, together with the Hereditary Princess, returned Yesterday after Dinner to Fridericksburg; but before they went they made a Visit to the Princess Royal, (who arrived here in the Forenoon) at her new Residence called the Palace.

Copenhagen,

( Price Four-Pence. )

Copenhagen, June 5. The King and Queen of Denmark, with the two Danish Princesses, return'd hither on Wednesday the 2d Instant, proposing to remain in Town till the Princess Royal is brought to Bed, which is now look'd for every Day.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army.

THE 22d of May the Duke of Saxe Weissenfels set out from Dresden towards the Evening to join the Army in Bohemia. His Serene Highness lay at Zehist, and continued his Journey

The 23d to Leimeritz. His Highness has received Advice from the Chevalier de Saxe, that General Count Nadaſti, with a Detachment of 4000 Hussars, Pandours and Croates, had, upon the 22d, attacked a Body of Prussians near Hennenſdorf, in the Neighbourhood of Landshut, but that the Prussians, having received a Reinforcement, with Artillery, the Superiority of their Forces had obliged them to retire to Schimberg, after a Skirmish of several Hours, in which they reckon the Loss to be equal on both Sides.

The 24th the Duke passed the Night at Jettentitz,

The 25th at Koenighof, and his Serene Highness arrived

The 26th in the Morning at Trautenau, near which Place the whole Saxon Army is encamped. The Chevalier de Saxe, who had been at the Head Quarters of Prince Charles at Jonsdorff, a Village situated at a little Distance from the Frontiers of Silesia, sent Advice to the Duke, that the Queen's Army would stay the next Day in their Camp, and then enter into Silesia, the Passages and Avenues of which were reconnoitring.

The 27th our Troops were ordered to halt about Trautenau. Prince Charles dined that Day at the Head Quarters, and the two Chiefs concerted at that Meeting the Motions which would be proper to be made. In Consequence whereof, the Queen's Army decamped

The 28th from Jonsdorff, and advanced as far as Schimberg in Silesia.

All our Infantry, with the Chevalier de Saxe at their Head, quitted the Camp of Trautenau, and posted themselves near Koenighshayn, on the Frontiers of Silesia.

At the same Time Major General Schligting was commanded to cover the March of the Auxiliary Troops with the Regiment of Rutowski Light-Horse and five Pulcks of Tartars, and to observe the Motions of the Prussians.

The same Evening Orders were given for our Cavalry to keep in Readiness to follow the Army the next Morning towards Landshut, which Place the Prussians have abandoned.

Landshut, May 30.

The Saxon Auxiliary Army having joined the Austrians Yesterday near this Place, entred Silesia the same Day according to the Plan concerted.

The Saxon Train of Artillery follows Tomorrow, and some Austrian Battalions and Squadrons are left in the County of Glatz, as well to cover the Magazines and Baggage, which are to follow the Army, as to observe the Motions the Enemy may make in our Rear.

In order to know the just Position of the Prussian Army, General Nadaſti, with his Corps, is again detached, and we expect his Report, in order to form the March of the combined Army. We have received the agreeable News that M. Buccow, Aid de Camp to the Duke of Lorrain, with his Detachment of Pandours and some free Companies, had surpris'd the Fortress of Kosel: The taking of this Place is of the more Importance, as we gain thereby a Passage over the Oder.

The Combined Army has passed the River Bober, which falls into the Oder at Crossen, and separates the Territories of Saxony and Silesia.

Dresden, May 26, N. S. Some Days ago arrived here from Berlin M. Cagnoni, in order to succeed M. Beese, as his Prussian Majesty's Minister at this Court. On Friday last their Polish Majesties, and their Royal Highnesses the Electoral Prince and Prince Xaver, returned from the Fair of Leipzig to this Residence. The next Day Count Perron arrived here from Turin, who is to succeed Baron Blonay in the Character of his Sardinian Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, and he has already had his Audiences, his Predecessor having had his of Leave. The Elector of Bavaria has sent hither M. Bonichow, his Aid de Camp and Chambellan, to communicate in Form to the King of Poland the Preliminaries signed at Fuesſen the 22d past.

Dresden, June 5, N. S. By Letters from Landshut of the 1st Instant, the Combined Army was still there, but would in a few Days March up to the Prussians, who were encamped near Schweidnitz. The Allies had then taken Freyburg, a Town situated in the Plain, not a German Mile from the Enemy; and there are other Letters which give an Account, that his Prussian Majesty has abandon'd Schweidnitz. If this be true, it will give the Allies a free Passage into the open Country. The Combined Army is divided equally into two Columns. The King of Poland has assured her Hungarian Majesty by Letter, that Orders shall be immediately dispatched to Francfort, to have all the Quarters that formerly belong'd to the Bohemian Embassy, restor'd to her Ministers.

Vienna, June 2, N. S. We hear from Silesia, that Colonel Buccow, Lieutenant Colonel de Dolne, and Baron St. Ivary, having resolved to attack the Town of Kosel, march'd upon the 26th past from Schonbrun towards that Place, where the Troops under their Command arrived at Two o'Clock in the Morning. Twelve Pandours presently after leap'd into the Ditches before the Town, which were 50 Feet broad, waded through them with the Water up to their Middle, and were immediately follow'd by 200 Pandours more, and some other Troops. The Centinel thereupon fired his Piece, and the Picquet and the Round, who were passing by, came up, but they could not prevent the Pandours from assisting each other in their Attempts to mount the Ramparts, which were encompassed with Trees. Soon after they made themselves Masters of a Battery of five Pieces of Cannon, Cannon, one of which they turn'd, and discharged against the Town. The Enemy made a furious Fire from a neighbouring Battery, but a Lieutenant of Pandours having slipped into the inward Works with a few Men, and having attack'd the Enemy in Flank, and the rest of the Troops also advancing Sword in Hand, they were obliged to retire into the Town. In the mean while Colonel de Dolne having caused a Party of his Men to get upon the Redoubt without, they cut down the Gates with Hatchets, and forced their Way into the Town, whereupon the Garrison was obliged to surrender Prisoners at Discretion. This Action, from Beginning to End, lasted only an Hour and Half. We had ten Men - killed, and but very few wounded; amongst the last are Colonel St. Ivary, and the Captain - Lieutenant Trenk. But the Enemy had above 60 killed, amongst whom were the Commandant, a Colonel, and a Captain, besides several other Officers, and a great Number of private Men wounded. Amongst the Prisoners are 49 Officers and 400 common Soldiers. We found 27 Pieces of Cannon upon the Ramparts, 10 of which were Brass, and quite new; the greatest Part of them are twelve Pounders. We also took above 100 Carriages laden with Ammunition, and a considerable Magazin. The whole Combined Army of Austrians and Saxons were to rendezvous on the 30th past at Landshut. The Defiles to be passed, might, it is thought here, have been defended by 15000 Men against any Force whatever; and this Court, as well as Prince Charles, had been in great Pain for some Days for the Success of the Enterprize, especially as Count Nadasti, with the most advanced Guard, had been obliged to retire with the Loss of 200 Men a few Days before. But this was the first and last Effort made by the Prussians for preventing the Entry into Silesia. From Landshut there are Descents but not difficult, which lead either to Sweidnitz or Jauer. The Prussians were still at Sweidnitz, but would, it was supposed, retire to Lignitz, to which last Place there is not above one March from Jauer.

Mentz, June 3. M. de la Farre, who commands the French Troops in the Absence of the Prince de Conti, detached seven Battalions and some Cavalry towards Heidelberg upon the 31st of May, and upon the 1st Instant 13 Battalions and 12 Squadrons repassed the Rhine at Oppenheim. He remains with the rest of his Corps near Floersheim. The Grand Duke's Equipages left Vienna on the 22d, and we expect that his Royal Highness will soon put himself at the Head of the Queen's Army in the Empire. P. S. We have just received Advice from Wurtzburg, that Marshal Bathiani was taken ill of the Gout there, which prevents his going forward; but in the mean time the Duke of Aremberg writes Word, that he is advancing with the Army. The French Troops which repassed the Rhine at Oppenheim on the 1st Instant, are filed off by the Valley of Leiningen. We have also an Account, that General Lowendahl, with a Corps of Troops, will immediately march to reinforce the French Army upon the Neckar.

Four Days ago the French Army, that was then encamped near Wimpfen, having received a considerable Reinforcement, sent two Regiments of Hussars over the Neckar; and it was reported, the whole Army was going to follow. General Trips, who commands our Vanguard, being ordered to advance towards that Side, soon forced the said Regiments over the River again, and took eight Officers and five and forty Hussars of them Prisoners. The Enemy decamped the Day before Yesterday from Wimpfen, and marched towards Heidelberg; and the same Day we took twenty large Boats at Gundelsheim, laden with Meal and Plank, that were going down the Neckar, having killed and taken Part of the Grenadiers that guarded them. We have certain Advices, that the Enemy are sending their Baggage over the Rhine.

Hambourg, June 5, N. S. Our Merchants, who are just returned from the Fair of Leipzig, (which has proved a good one) represent strongly the vigorous Measures which are taking throughout the Dominions of the Elector of Saxony, for prosecuting with Efficacy the ensuing Campaign. The Princess Royal of Denmark has appeared again in publick since her late Indisposition; and the Physicians give all imaginable Hopes of her Royal Highness's safe and easy Deliverance. The Talk of a Progress of the Danish Court into Holstein this Summer is now resumed, and it is thought it will take Place in the Month of August. The Vacancy in this Magistracy, occasioned by the Death of M. Jenisk (who died lately at Ritzebuttle, of which Baillage he had the Administration) is filled by the Nomination of M. Beckhoff. The Apprehensions which have been occasioned by the Death of ten or twelve Head of Cattle, just without one of the Gates of this City, still subsist; all possible Precautions are used to prevent the spreading of this Distemper, which has manifested itself so near us, lest it should prove as mischievous as that which has raged and still rages in most Parts of Holstein. The Magistrates flatter themselves however that this is not the same Sickness; and the publick Executioner, who by their Order has dissected one of the Carcasses, gives it in likewise as his Opinion.

Hague, June 8, N. S. By Letters from the Allied Army in the Netherlands we hear, that the Dutch Council of War had broke with Infamy Colonel Appius, and the Major Sickinga, of the Regiment of Hesse Homburg, and some Subalterns in the Regiment of Ginkel, being convicted of Cowardice in the late Action of Fontenoy. The Regiments of Price and Mordaunt, and the Recruits from England for the Foot Guards, arrived at the Army in very good Order, on the 4th Instant, N. S. M. Alt, Minister of Hesse Cassel, set out for Hanover last Saturday. Marshal Traun was on the 31st past, N. S. advanced to Thierwangen on the Borders of Franconia.

Berlin,

Berlin, June 5, N. S. It is reported here, that the Army of Prince Charles of Lorraine does not consist of above 26000 Men, and is so surrounded by the Prussians, that it cannot even retire towards the Defiles by which it entered into Silesia. What is certain is, that the two Armies are not above two or three Leagues Distance from each other. Three Companies of Grenadiers are shortly expected here from Silesia in their Way to Magdebourg, and Bredow's Regiment of Foot, which is in Garrison here, has received Orders to be in Readiness to march thither likewise. In the mean while Count Haacke our Governor has obliged the Burghers to do Duty.

Hague, June 11, N. S. By Advices just received from Silesia, we have an Account, that on the 4th Instant the Prussians had attacked the Combined Army near Schweidnitz, wherein the Prussians had gain'd a considerable Advantage.

Hague, June 11, N. S. M. Carvalho, and M. Hop, are both set out for Hanover. The Flemish Letters of To-day have brought no News. The Citadel of Tournay continues to defend itself, and has made, we hear, some Sallies with good Success. The French King has not forced the Dutch Governor to receive the Women and Wounded into the Citadel.

Hanover, May 27, O. S. The King arrived at Herrenhausen on Wednesday the 15th Instant, in perfect Health, God be praised, and on Saturday last arrived here the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State.

— Josselin, Esq; to be Major to the Regiment of Foot commanded by Philip Bragg, Esq; Major General of his Majesty's Forces. And — Carpenter, Esq; to be Lieutenant Governor of the Island of Monserrat in America.

His Majesty's Ships the Captain and Princess Louisa being on a Cruize in the Channel, on the 30th past at Seven in the Morning saw two Sail to the S. W. of them, to which they immediately gave Chace. One of the Ships, which was an English Privateer, stood towards the Captain, and told them the other Ship they were in Chace of was a Privateer of St. Malo. The Captain and Princess Louisa continued the Chace, and at Eight in the Evening came up with the Ship, which struck without firing a Gun. She proves to be the Achilles Privateer of St. Malo, of 22 Guns and 148 Men, and is sent into Plymouth.
