AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 18th Day of June 1745.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council were this Day pleased to order, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the Twentieth of this Instant June, should be further prorogued to Thursday the Twenty Second Day of August next.

Stockholm, June 4, N. S. On Monday next the 10th Instant, the King of Sweden proposes to set out for Scania, where, after reviewing some Regiments, he will drink the Waters of Helsingborg, so that his Swedish Majesty is not expected back in less than eight or ten Weeks. The Report of the Princess's having had a second Miscarriage, proves a Mistake.

Naples, June 1, N. S. The Number of Horse which the Barons of this Kingdom had respectively furnished to the King, not being thought sufficient, fresh Directions have been sent to the said Barons to supply a greater Number to compleat the King's Cavalry. The Convoy of 52 Transports, many of which have Stables and other Conveniencies on Board to Transport Cavalry, after they had embarked Provisions and other Necessaries at Procida, for the Use of the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops, sailed on the 28th past from that Island Westward, 'tis said for Orbitello or the Coast of Genoa, so that all Embarkations at Naples, both by Sea and Land, are for the present ceased. The Duke Barretta, Agent Victualler of the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops, has hired several Vessels to load, at the different Ports of this Kingdom, Wheat and Barley for the Use of the said Troops.

Rome, June 5, N. S. We have Advice from Mont Alto, that the Train of 30 Field Pieces, and their Utenfils, which M. de Gages left in the Romagna, are arrived there in their Way to Orbitello. A Body of 2000 Men from Naples are shortly expected to enter the Ecclesiastical State, with Directions to join those that are there already, in order to watch the Motions of the Austrians, and to guard the Passages that leads into the Kingdom of Naples.

Florence, June 8, N. S. The Body of Spanish and Neapolitan Troops at Viterbo, consisting of Invalids, and the Troops that escorted them and the Field Artillery, which separated from M. de Gages's Army at Montale, when he took the Resolution to march over the Mountains into the State of Genoa, and to which have since been added many Piquets that were dispersed in the Pope's State, and others from Naples, are now increased to above 6000 Men, and the Spanish Consul has lately been here to demand a Passage for them thro' Tuscany, which this Regency has granted, on Condition that they should march in small Parties, and with an Interval of some Time between each Party. The Spanish Consul not having Authority to accept of those Conditions, was forced to wait for fresh Orders from Naples and from M. de Gages. The Spanish and Neapolitan Troops under the Duke of Modena and M. de Gages, in the Neighbourhood of Genoa, have begun to make some Motions in order to join those of Don Philip. Prince Lobcowitz's Army increases daily, and is now supposed to amount to 25,000 Men; it continues still at Fireuzola, but 'twas expected it would soon move to Cremona for the Conveniency of Forage.

Dresden, June 16, N. S. A Courier is arrived from the Duke of Weissenfels; with an Account, that his Highness was on the 11th Instant at Schurtz, and intended to march the next Day from thence to Joromitze, and Prince Charles at Neustadt, between which Places their Armies were to encamp. They seem to have nothing to fear, and only wait for their Reinforcements to recommence their Operations. 'Tis said the Queen of Hungary will send ten Battalions and 8000 Croats, and the Duke of Weissenfels will will have 1200 Horse, and his whole Army recruited in three Weeks at farthest. The Saxons lost 27 Pieces of Cannon in the late Action near Strigau; to supply which, 20 are to be sent To-day, and the rest will follow in about a Fort-night. Some Accounts say, that the Prussians lost near 12000 Men in the said Action; that their main Body was in the Neighbourhood of Glatz, and a Detachment had entered Bohemia. The following Particulars of the late Action have been received from the Army. The 2d of June, the Army marched from Landshut to Bolkenhain, where we joined that of Prince Charles, which extended on our Right towards Reichenau, where the Prince had his Head Quarters. The Duke took up his in the City of Bolkenhain. The next Day, the 3d, all the Combined Army continued its March towards Strigau, and in the Position it was that Day, the Right Wing was supported by Quolsdorff, and the Left extended towards Schweinhausen. Our Head Quarters were at Rohnstock, a Castle belonging to Count Hohberg, and those of Prince Charles at Froiberg in the Diocese of the City of Schweidnitz. We learn'd at Night, that a Body of Prussians, reckoned to be compos'd of 12 or 15000 Men, under the Command of Lieutenant General du Moulin, was advancing towards us; we judged that it might be the advanc'd Guard of the Prussians, though notwithstanding the advanc'd Patroles of Tartars, we had no News of the Motions of the Gros of the Army. Our Troops formed themselves between Hohen-Friedberg and Eisdorff, in Order of Battle, as they came up, and we continued all Night under Arms. The City of Strigau was in our Front. The 4th, by Break of Day, the King of Prussia appeared on a sudden at the Head of his whole Army, which he had caused to march the Evening before, and all Night, as we have learn'd since. He offered us Battle, and made his principal Efforts against the Left Wing of the Combined Army, which was compos'd of our Troops. By Three o'Clock in the Morning the Duke was there, and the Cannoning began on both Sides. The Battle followed soon after, and the Right Wing of the Prussians was at first repulsed. Our Grenadiers had got upon an Eminence in our Flank; but the Prussian great Artillery obliged them to retire from thence, and this Post was afterwards made use for erecting Batteries against us. Our Horse, notwithstanding their Fire, attacked several Times, and disputed the Ground with great Obstinacy for a long while; but as upon account of our Position our great Artillery could not come up to support the Grenadiers who covered the Left Wing, they were compelled to fall into the same Line with the Infantry, and the Action, which thereupon became general, lasted five Hours. The Prussians had the Advantage from the superior Number of their Troops, of a larger Front; however, we prevented the Execution of their Design to take us in Flank, and the Left Wing of our two Lines of Foot very opportunely obey'd the Orders given them for that Purpose; but as the whole Right Wing of the Combined Army was very soon after obliged to give Ground, and we thereupon ran the Risk of being surrounded on all Sides, we were under a Necessity of retiring. The Retreat was made in good Order, and without any Disturbance. We halted at Halbendorff three Hours, and proceeded from thence to Reichenau. We lost 2000 Men, exclusive of 700 wounded; amongst the latter are the Lieutenant Generals Birckholtz, Polentz, Renard; the Major Generals Durfeld, Schlichting, and the Prince of Schwartzburg-Sonderhausen. Lieutenant General Jasmund had two Horses killed under him, and his Sword was struck out of his Hand by a Cannon-Ball. The Colonels Conspruck, of Foot, Bestenbostel and Gersdorff, of Cuirassiers, are killed, as also the Lieutenant Colonels Vitzthum d'Obyrn, and Chmielinsky of Saxe Gotha. The Prince of Saxe Coburg, Major General Schlichting, the Colonels Shoemberg and Munchow, and Lieutenant Colonel Gersdorff, are missing. We believe that they are taken Prisoners, together with the four Companies of Grenadiers who had the Misfortune to be cut off from the Army during the Action. Besides the Generals and Officers before-mentioned, there are many Subalterns wounded, of whom we were ignorant, whether they are killed or made Prisoners. The Lieutenant Colonels Count Friesen, Palen and Gersdorff, who with Colonel Schomberg commanded the four Battalions of our Grenadiers, distinguished themselves, and kept their Posts with the greatest Resolution and Bravery till the last Moment. In general, we have great Reason to be satisfied with the good Conduct of the Officers, and the Ardour and good Countenance shewn by the Soldiers, as well in the Action as the Retreat. The Ditches and Marshes which we had to pass thro', obliged us to abandon several Pieces of Cannon, the Carriages of which were broken, and the Men and Horses belonging to them either killed or dispersed. We ought not to forget, that besides the Advantage of Ground which the Prussians had over us, the Sun shone so strong in the Eyes of our Soldiers, and the Wind blew the Smoke so thick upon us, that we could not discern the different Motions and Dispositions which the Enemy made during the Attack. According to the Reports of Deserters, their Loss is more considerable than ours. Their Gendarmes are said to be entirely defeated, as well as eight Regiments of Horse, and the best Regiments of Foot, such as that of the King, of the Prince of Anhalt Dessau, and others, have suffered greatly. Prince Maurice of Dessau, General Boddendorff, and General Truches, are counted amongst the Dead of Distinction. They have likewise assured us, that their principal Attack had been formed against our Left Wing, which appears true, in as much as the Action, which begun there, was continued to the End of the Battle with the greatest Briskness.

From the Head Quarters of the Saxon Army at Westetz, June 16. Upon the 13th of June, the Combined Army remained in their Camp between Jaromitz and Neustadt, the River of Metau being in the Front of the Right Wing, the Communication of which with our Wing on the Left of the Elbe, was preserved by Bridges thrown over that River in several Places. The Prussians, who continue to march towards us, have pushed their advanced Guards since Yesterday as far as the Environs of Nachod and Slany, upon the Frontiers of Glatz. The main Body of their Army is posted between Nachod and Starchstadt.

By a Trumpet which the Duke of Weissenfels sent to Prince Leopold of Anhalt Dessau after the Battle, we have received the List of our Officers who were taken Prisoners, at the Head of whom are Major General Schlichting and Colonel Munchow. Lieutenant Colonel Chmielinski, whom we had reckoned amongst the Dead, is also amongst the Prisoners, but dangerously wounded.

With respect to the Prince of Saxe-Coburg, Colonel Schoemberg, and Lieutenant Colonel de Gersdorff, we cannot any longer reckon them in the Number of the Living, and it is very probable at present, that they were left upon the Field of Battle.

The Loss in the Corps of 28 Squadrons and 11 Battalions of Austrians, who since the Junction of the two Armies have been under the Duke's Command, amounts in all to 1300 Men, besides 200 Horses.

The Loss of the Prussians, by the Accounts of Deserters who are daily coming in, amounts, some say, to 8000, others to 12000.

Upon the 14th, the Combined Army continued in Camp, our Advices concerning the Prussians agreeing, that they remained in the Neighbourhood of Nachod.

Upon the 15th, the heavy Baggage of the Army was sent to Stoeffer, and the Troops had Orders to hold themselves in Readiness to march the next Day.

Upon the 16th, the Combined Army having taken Post on the Left of the Elbe, which is at present in Front, and the Troops being encamped upon the rising Grounds, from whence they are able to discern the Motions of the Prussians, if they think proper to advance, the Duke fixed his Quarters at Westetz, and Prince Charles his at Semoniz. Some Troops were left at Jaromitz and at Neustadt, and the advanced Guard of the Austrians is posted behind the Metau. This Day the Prussians detached a Corps of Hussars, some Horse and Foot, with Cannon, towards Neustadt, where they attacked the advanced Posts, but they were repulsed with Loss, and their Project of taking Possession of that Ground thereby disconcerted.

Dresden, June 20, N. S. The King of Poland has been pleased to promote Major General Durrfeld to the Rank of Lieutenant General of Horse, and the Prince of Axthausen to that of Lieutenant General of Foot. The Colonels Bonichau, Maffe, Milckau, and de Buchner, are made Major Generals. M. Vitzthum d' Echstedt, Colonel of Count Rutowski's Regiment of Dragoons, has Maffe's Regiment of Cuirassiers, and the Lieutenant Colonels Croufaz and Dyhern are made Colonels, the first of Foot, and the last of Horse. Count Khevenhuller is appointed one of her Hungarian Majesty's Ambassadors to the Election at Francfort.

Dresden, June, 20, N. S. By Letters from the Allied Army in Bohemia of the 16th we have Advice, that a large Corps of Prussians had been detached from their main Army to attack our advanced Posts near Neustadt, against which they fired some Cannon; but our Men keeping their Ground, and returning the Fire very briskly, they thought proper to retire. By Information from Deserters, the King of Prussia advanced upon the 17th to Jaromitz. Prince Charles has already received a Reinforcement of 4000 Men, and all the Artillery he wanted. Colonel Rex will reach the Army in less than a Fortnight with 1100 Horse, as will 2400 Recruits from the Saxon Militia in a short Time, when their Army will be again compleat. It is thought that his Prussian Majesty must attack them soon or retreat, as he is now forced to have his Subsistence from his Magazines in Silesia, principally from that of Schweidnitz. The Militia of this Country are to be augmented, and upwards of 60 Field Pieces to be cast without Loss of Time.

Dresden, June 21, N. S. The Prussian Army is encamped within Sight of the Allies on the other Side of the River Metau, and have endeavoured by several Motions to make the Allies retreat, or change their Position. On the 17th his Prussian Majesty marched with his whole Army almost within Cannon Shot of their Camp, but seeing they kept their Ground, and were ready to receive him, returned to his. It is said here, that Prince Lobcowitz and General Brown are ordered to the Army in Bohemia.

Hambourg, June 23, N. S. The Saxon Troops, which are assembled under the Command of General Bose, in the Neighbourhood hood of Leipfick, confift of 20 Squadrons, 8 Troops of Uhlans, 18 Battalions, and their Artillery of 26 Field Pieces, 6 Cannon, and 2 Pieces of Ordnance called Haubitzen. The Pruffians are encamped on a Plain at a small Distance from Halle, and their Troops can be eafily defcried from a little Eminence contiguous to the Saxon Camp. The Sicknefs among the Cattle ftill continues, and is in the Suburbs of this City.

Berlin, June 23, N. S. By the laft Letters from our Army in Silefia they were fo near the Allies, that we are in hourly Expectation of another Battle. M. Schmettau has been recalled from his Banifhment at Brandenbourg, but it is not yet faid that he has had any Command conferr'd upon him.

From the Camp of M. Bathiani at Wechtersbach, June 25. The firft Column of Marshal Traun's Army, confifting of three Regiments of Horfe, 13 Battalions, 2 Companies of Grenadiers, and 1000 Conftadians, joined us the Day before Yefterday, under the Command of the Prince of Birkenfeldt. The fecond under that of M. Bernklau, confifting of two Regiments of Horfe, 14 Battalions, and nine Companies of Grenadiers is come up To-day. The third, with the Marshal, confifts of four Regiments of Horfe, 15 Battalions, 12 Companies of Grenadiers, and 2000 Croats, and is to arrive after To-morrow. The Corps of General Tripps confifts in three Regiments of Huffars, and 2000 Croats, and has Orders to ftay on the other Side the Mayn about Millenberg, to amufe and harrafs the Enemy until the entire Junction is perfected. The Marshal has befides 2000 Foot on their Way from Ingoldftadt, who ought not to be above five Days March off. By Letters from the Mayn, Prince Conti was ftill encamped with the main Body of his Army between Seligenftadt and Diepurg, whilft M. de la Fare and de la Motte were pofted with two other feparate Bodies higher up that River. His whole Army was reckoned to be near 50,000 ftiong.

Venice, June 11, N. S. The Austrian Army in Italy was to decamp from Fiorenzula the 9th Inftant, to advance nearer to the King of Sardinia, keeping Tortona on their Right. They have lately received feveral Reinforcements, and are computed to be 25000 effective Men. M. Schulemberg will reach the Army on Monday next, the 14th Inftant, when Prince Lobkowitz will refign the Command to him. The King of Sardinia's chief Camp is between Tortona and Serravalle; the reft of his Troops are canton'd fo as to form a Cordon that guards the Paffes of the Mountains. Marshal Maillebois arrived at Nice the 25th of laft Month, and immediately a Council was held, at which Don Philip was prefent. The next Day eight Squadrons began their March, and the reft of the Cavalry was to follow fucceffively by like Detachments. Don Philip left Nice the 1ft Inftant, and was to proceed along the Riviera by flow Journeys. M. de Gages continues ftill in the Neighbourhood of the City of Genoa, where they have fuffered much from a Scarcity of Provifions, but they have been lately relieved by the Arrival of fome Veffels laden with Corn from Civita Vecchia. There are alfo arrived three Veffels of the Imbarkation from Naples, with Artillery and Ammunition. It is faid they will not be able to open the Campaign before the End of this Month. General Pallavicini paffed by here on Tuefday laft in his Way to Milan.
