GOD Save the KING.

From the Austrian Head Quarters at Bassignana in Italy, July 26, N. S.

Yesterday, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, we had Advice that the Enemy was in full March towards us. Although they were not far from us, the great Dust prevented us from distinguishing their Number; and though we were persuaded that it was only a Feint, we drew up in order to receive them, in Case they should come to attack us. At Six o'Clock in the Afternoon a Detachment, consisting of about 4000 Horse and Foot, attacked our Hussars, who were on the other Side of the Tanaro, and obliged them to retreat towards the Warasdins, by whom being sustained, they returned to the Charge. The Firing lasted six Hours. The Enemy was obliged to retire, and we pursued them almost to their Army, which our Men saw drawn up in Order of Battle. The Enemy's Loss upon this Occasion is not yet known, for they carried off the greatest Part of their Killed. We made four Officers and 19 Soldiers Prisoners, and took 20 Horses. On our Side one Captain of Hussars was killed, and about 50 Warasdins and Hussars killed and wounded. Since Yesterday the Enemy have not made any Motion. It is thought their Intention is to besiege Tortona. And it is reported that the Duke d'Arcos was killed in the above Engagement.

Journal of the Allied Army upon the Rhine, from the 27th of July, to the 1st of August, N. S.

July 27. THE Army continued in their Camp near Lorsch, and Orders were given for marching the next Day, and

Upon the 28th the March was accordingly made in three Columns towards Weinheim, where the Head Quarters were fixed.

Upon the 29th the Army continued in the said Camp, and

Upon the 30th marched in five Columns as far as Heidelberg, where the Head Quarters were fixed. The Regiments of Hildburghausen and Salm joined the Corps de Reserve, marched with it thro' Heidelberg, and took Post on the other Side to cover the Head Quarters. General Trips's Detachment, with the Van, which consisted chiefly of irregular Troops, marched on towards Hockenheim on this Side of Philipsburg. The Enemy were still in Possession of one Bridge at Dettenheim above Philipsbourg, near which they were throwing up some Works.

July 31. The Army remained in the same Position, and Orders were given for laying some Bridges over the Neckar.

August 1. This Day the Bridges were finish'd, one near Neuheim below Heidelberg, a second near Weibling, and a third above Ladenburg.

August 2. We had Advice that Lieutenant General Baronai, who commands the Hussars posted at Lamvertshiem, had ordered a Party of his Men to pass the Rhine to attack and dislodge an advanced Guard of the Enemy, which they accordingly executed, and brought in some Prisoners.

The 3d and 4th the Army was reinforced with 700 Foot of Carlstadians, 300 Horse, and 2 Battalions, viz. one of Oviary and one of Waldeck. Upon the Arrival of Mercy's, we shall have received all the Reinforcements we expect this Year.

The 5th, two Detachments, the first consisting of 2000 Foot and 800 Horse, under the Command of Lieutenant General de Geisrugge, and Major General de Rott; and the other, consisting of 1000 Foot and 500 Horse, under the Command of Major General Lanoy, were made from the Army, and were to take Post, the first in the Neighbourhood of Graben, where they were to remain till farther Orders, and to be joined in their March by General Trips's Corps of 400 Irregulars and 500 Hussars; the latter were to march towards Lorsch, to receive Orders from Lieutenant General Baronai, who is posted at Lamvertshiem, and to encamp near Stockstadt.

Both these Detachments are provided with every Thing necessary to the 13th Instant.

Journal of the Saxon Auxiliary Army, from the 31st of July to the 2d of August, N. S. dated from their Head Quarters at Johannisberg near Konigingratz.

UPON the 31st of July we had Advice, that the Prussians had the Day before caused seven Squadrons of Hussars, 300 Dragoons, with 400 Grenadiers, and five Pieces of Cannon, to pass the River Metau near Jassenau.

An advanced Post of our Uhlans near the said Village, having, upon their Approach, retired to another Post near the Village of Librzycz; where Rudnicki's and Uhlans Pulks were posted; these two Colonels forthwith marched out in Quest of the Prussians, attacked them, and after having killed a great Number of their Men in a Defile which was in the Road, drove the rest beyond the Bridge, where there was a Body of Infantry posted with some Cannon, in order to facilitate their Retreat. Uhlans Pulk had three Towarzycz and one Pocztowy wounded, and three Horses killed: In Rudnicki's there was but one Horse wounded.

Upon Advice sent to General Nadasti, that the Prussians were laying Bridges over the Elbe at Czernoschitz, he sent a Patrole to reconnoitre them, by whom he was informed, that one Bridge was finish'd, having been built upon Piles, that the Peasants thereabouts had been obliged to build it, and that the Prussians had posted some Infantry with Cannon there to guard it.

A Post of our Hussars observed, upon an Eminency a Quarter of a Mile on this Side Schmirschitz, a great Number of Carriages going from the Army to Jaromirz, escorted by a Detachment of Horse and Foot.

The Croats, who were posted upon the Mountain near the Town of Konigingratz, were order'd to join Nadafti's Corps, and were replaced by five Battalions under Lieutenant General Kolowrath, who had been encamped very near that Place ever since they passed the Adler.

Prince Charles went to reconnoitre the Camp on the Left on the Side of Schmirschitz.

The Second Line of the Left Wing of the Prussians marched this Morning towards the Elbe, and extended their Camp along this River beyond the Town of Jaromirz.

We had Advice, that the King had order'd 6000 Men to advance on the Side of Nachod, for the greater Security of the Convoys going to and coming from Glatz.

Upon the 1st of August we had Advice, that the Prussians had then three Bridges over the Elbe at Czernoschitz, and that the King had detached between 4 and 5000 Men from his two Lines of the Left Wing, to reinforce the Corps which is on the other Side the Metau near Wesselitz. One Regiment of Dragoons and four Battalions are posted at Schmirschitz, one whereof is lodged in the Cattle.

Upon the 2d, by the Reports of Deserters, the Prussians were to have laid 12 Bridges over the Metau. All the Cavalry of the Right Wing of their Second Line has been detached towards the Elbe; and there is no Horse in their Camp, but the five Regiments of the Right Wing of the First Line.

Dantzick, August 4. Dagenæer the Swede being forced to leave the Port of Pillau, put 25 of his Men on board the Dispatch, whereof James Moody was formerly Master, on which Ship he had mounted 24 Guns, and commanded her himself; he divided the rest of his Men in the other three Ships. All four Ships being carried the 30th past out of Pillau Harbour, by Prussian Pilots, into Pillau Road, Dagenæer stood with his Ship out to Sea, expecting that the other three would follow him. But one James Lamb, Master of the Hope, George Dougal, Master of the Jannet, and some Masters and Sailors of British Ships lying in Pillau, having mann'd Boats, row'd off to the Road to observe Dagenæer's Motions; and seeing him at some Distance from the other Ships, Capt. Lamb row'd towards his Ship the Hope, which the Swedes on board of her seeing, abandon'd the Ship, took to the Boat, and row'd aboard the other two Ships; so that on Capt. Lamb's coming on board his Ship, and finding no body on board of her, he cut the Cable, hoisted the English Flag, and set Sail directly. Capt. Dougal seeing Capt. Lamb's Success, made what Haste he could towards his Ship, and the third Boat with English Masters and Sailors row'd at the same Time towards the third Ship the Prevention, which the Swedes so soon as they were aware of, abandon'd both Ships, took to their Boat and row'd ashore. Capt. Dougal took Possession of his Ship, and the Masters and Sailors of the Prevention; both set Sail directly, and following Capt. Lamb, all the three Ships arrived here in our Road the 31st past. Yesterday we had a Report in Town, that Dagenæer's Men having forced him to come to Anchor on the Pomeran Coast with the Dispatch the fourth Ship, which he commands, they had all left him, except four Men, so that we hope the next News will be that he has abandon'd his Ship likewise.

AS there have been some scandalous Aspersions with Regard to the Behaviour of the Marines in General belonging to his Majesty's Ship the Lyon under my Command: These are to certify, that Lieutenant Walter Graham, of Colonel Fraser's Marines on board the said Ship, behaved in the late Action with a French Man of War, becoming a Man of Honour, and was of very great Service in assisting in Pointing the Great Guns, and encouraging the Men at their Quarters; and the Behaviour of several of the Marines is much to be commended. Given under my Hand on Board his Majesty's Ship the Lyon at Plymouth, this 26th Day of July 1745.
