Kensington, September 3:

THE following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Bishop of the Diocese, High Sheriff, the Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Worcester, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Deerhurst to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Bishop of the Diocese, High Sheriff, the Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Worcester, met at the General Assize holden for the said County the 19th Day of August 1745.

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Bishop of the Diocese, High Sheriff, the Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen and Clergy of the said County of Worcester, being justly filled with the highest Indignation at the daring Attempt of France to load this Free and Protestant Country with that severest Evil a Popish Pretender, as the fittest Tool for the perfidious Ambition of our most inveterate and most dangerous Enemy, who is desirous, by this Means, at once to deprive us and our Posterity of our Commerce, our Liberties and our Religion, could not satisfy our Minds after receiving such Intelligence, without embracing the first Opportunity of assuring your Majesty of our utmost Zeal and Resolution in Support of your Majesty's Government, on which, under Providence, depends the Preservation of every Thing that is valuable to English-men and Protestants.

THE Trenches were open'd the 8th at Night before Tortona: M. de Barol, after a continual Fire upon the 10th, made a Sally, by which all the Enemy's Works were destroy'd.

Upon the 11th the Enemy formed an Attack on the Side of the Capuchins, and below it, extending a parallel Line down towards the Town: This Attack was opposed by small Arms only, the Governor not thinking proper to place the Artillery upon the Ramparts of the Town. But the Enemy having attempted to approach to the cover'd Way, they were repulsed; and their Deserters assure us, that they lost great Numbers of Men in these two Attacks. They also shorten'd their first Parallel considerably on the Side of the Fort; and upon the 12th they had only four Pieces of Battering Cannon on the Side of the Lower Town.

Upon the 13th and 14th the Enemy batter'd in Breach the Courtain of the Lower Town, and made an Attempt to get down the Ditch; but they were repulsed by the Fire of our Small Arms only. However, the Governor perceiving that the Courtain of the Town was broke, and having no Intention to keep the Town longer, he order'd all the Troops to enter into the Fort, and sent the Keys of the Town to the Consuls, who carried them upon the 14th at Night to M. Gages, who had got his great Artillery together at Novi, which, it is said, consists of 80 Pieces of Cannon and 18 Mortars; notwithstanding which, and all the Haste they may make to use them, we hope that the Cittadel will still hold out a Month. The Army under the Infant and M. Maillebois is in the same Position. It has been reinforced by four Battalions from M. de Mirepoix's Corps; which, it is reported, is going to join it, in Proportion as M. de Lautrec shall advance to occupy the Posts which were guarded by him. According to the Reports of Deserters, the Army under the Infant will supply that under
