By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

For putting the Laws in Execution against Papists and Nonjurors, and for commanding all Papists, and reputed Papists, to depart from the Cities of London and Westminster, and from within Ten Miles of the same; and for confining Papists, and reputed Papists, to their Habitations; and for putting in Execution the Laws against Riots and Rioters.

left at his usual Place of Abode, by any Persons authorized in that Behalf, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the faid two Juffices, he was in and by that Act prohibited to have or keep in his House, or elsewhere, or in the Possession of any other Person to his Use, or at his Disposition, any Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition, other than fuch necessary Weapons as should be allowed to him by Order of the Juftices of the Peace at a General Quarter Seffions, for the Defence of his House or Person; and that any two or more Justices of the Peace, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, by Virtue of that Act, might authorize and impower any Perfon or Perfons in the Day-time, with the Affistance of the Constable, or his Deputy, or the Tythingman, or Headborough, where the Search should be, to search for all Arms, Weapons, Gunpowder, or Ammunition, which should be in the House, Custody, or Posseffion of any such Papist, or reputed Papift, and feize the fame for the Use of their faid late Majefties and their Succeffors. And further, that no Papist, or reputed Papist, so refusing or making Default, should or might have or keep in his own Possession, or in the Possession of any other Person to his Use, or at his Disposition, any Horse or Horses, which should be of the Value of Five Pounds, to be fold; and that any two or more Juffices of the Peace, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, might and fhould authorize any Perfon or Perfons, with fuch Affiftance as aforefaid, where the Search should be, to search for and seize for the Use of their said late Majesties, and their Succeffors, all fuch Horfe and Horfes, which thould be above the Value of Five Pounds to be fold. And whereas by another Act made in the faid First Year of the Reign of their faid late Majefties King William and Queen Mary, intituled, "An Act for the Abrogating of the " Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and ap-" pointing other Oaths," all Persons, who fhould refuse to take the Oaths therein directed to be taken, after the Tenders thereby directed to be made, and should refuse to make and subfcribe the faid Declaration in the faid Act of the Thirtieth Year of the faid late King Charles the Second, should fuffer all Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, and Difabilities, as a Popifh Reculant Convict, 10 all Intents and Purposes whatsoever. And whereas in and by an Act made in the First Year

GEORGE R.,

Ŵ HEREAS the Eldest Son of the Pretender hath presumed, in open Violation of our Laws, to land in the NorthWeft Part of Scotland, and has allembled a confiderable Number of Traiterous and Rebellious Perfons in Arms, who have fet up a Standard in the Name of the Pretender, and, in an audacious Manner, have refifted and attacked forme of our Forces, and are now advancing farther in that Part of our Kingdom of Great Britain; and there is the greateft Reason to apprehend that these wicked Attempts have been encouraged, and may be supported by a Foreign Force: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of the Reign of their late Majefties King William and Queen Mary, intituled, "An Act for the better fecuring the Go-" vernment by difarming Papifts and reputed Pa-" pifts," it was enacted, That it should and might be lawful for any two or more Juffices of the Peace, who should know or suspect any Person to be a Papift, or fhould be informed that any Person was, or was suspected to be a Papist, to tender, and they were thereby authorized and required forthwith to tender, to such Person so known or fuspected to be a Papist, the Declaration fet down and expressed in an Act of Parliament made in the Thirtieth Year of the Reign of the late King Charles the Second, intituled, " An Act for the more effectual preferving the " King's Person and Government, by disabling " Papifts from fitting in either House of Parlia-" ment," to be by him made, repeated, and fubfcribed; and if fuch Person so required, should refuse to make, repeat, and subscribe the faid Declaration, or refuse, or forbear to appear before the faid Juffices, for the making, repeating, and fubscribing thereof, on Notice to him given, or
