St. James's, October 29.

THE following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of St. Asaph, being introduced by the Right Hon: the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Bishop of St. Asaph, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of St. Asaph, the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church, and the Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, humbly beg Leave to testify our dutiful Adherence to your Person and Government, at this dangerous Juncture, when your Majesty's Kingdoms are invaded by a popish Pretender to that Crown, which your Majesty wears with so much true Glory, and which receives a new Lustre from the Royal Virtues of your Majesty who wears it.

Both Justice and Gratitude oblige us to acknowledge, that your Majesty has made the Laws the sacred and inviolable Rule of your Government ever since your happy Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms; and that your Majesty's Justice and paternal Care of your People is felt by all your Subjects, who live in undiminished and secure Enjoyment of all those Rights and Privileges which so happily distinguish these Nations from all their Neighbours. And as no Violence, no Tyranny, no lawless Oppression of Men in their civil or religious Rights, has ever been attempted, or so much as complained of, under your Majesty's just and gentle Administration, so it is with equal Astonishment and Indignation we see Men under such a prodigious Infatuation as to rebel against your Majesty, with the certain Prospect, if their Madness should succeed, of fixing upon the Necks of themselves, and all their Posterity, the intolerable Yoke of popish Idolatry and French Tyranny, instead of the pure Doctrine of the Gospel, and the Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom. We cannot therefore but profess our utmost Abhorrence of their Wickedness and Impiety: And we do with great Sincerity declare, that we consider your Majesty as, under God, the great Defender of our Holy Religion, and Guardian of our Laws, to whom alone our Allegiance is due, as invested in the Government of these Nations by all Laws divine and human, and exercising it with Uprightness and Moderation and Mercy.

We do therefore, with true and sincere Hearts, assure your Majesty, that we will, with unshaken Loyalty, adhere to your Majesty in all Difficulties and Dangers, and with the Hazard of all that is dear to us, defend and maintain your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Throne of these Kingdoms, against all your Enemies: And we will constantly inculcate upon our People their Obligations to Obedience and Loyalty to your sacred Majesty, and a manful Defence of your Majesty's Person and Rights, by all the Tyes of Conscience and Interest, which the Considerations of the Preservation of their Religion, of themselves, and their Posterity, can suggest.

And may the Great God, who in his Mercy has seated your Majesty in the Throne of these Kingdoms, establish and protect you in it with his own Right Hand; give you the Hearts of all your Subjects, and the Necks of all your Enemies; that by your Majesty and your Royal Family, the Religion and Liberties, the Church and Laws of this Kingdom, may be preserv'd inviolate to all Generations.

The following Address and Association of the County and City of Worcester, have been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Coventry, Lord Lieutenant of the said

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts inspired by unfeigned Loyalty, and the utmost Gratitude for your Majesty's constant and affectionate Regard to the Happiness of your People, your dutiful Subjects of the County and City of Worcester, animated with a sincere Concern for the Welfare of our Country, humbly beg Leave to offer this faithful Association for your Royal Acceptance and Approbation.

An Association for the County and City of Worcester, entered into at the Town Hall of the City of Worcester, October 4. 1745.

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Bishop of the Diocese, Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Magistrates, Freeholders and others, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, for the necessary Security of our Religion as Protestants, and the Preservation of our Rights and Liberties as Englishmen, and in just Detestation of the unnatural Rebellion now impudently raised in the Kingdom, to spread Bloodshed, Confusion and Misery, by the most violent and rapacious Hands, over our native Country, in Favour of an abjured popish Pretender, and in Assistance of the ambitious and bloody House of Bourbon, with whom the Nation is now at War; do hereby, in the most solemn and unreserved Manner, mutually engage and promise; that we will cordially and resolutely assist and support each other in preserving the Peace of this County, and in Defence of our present happy Constitution, and his Majesty King George's Title to the Crown, in Opposition to all Enemies both foreign and domestick.

In seasonable Consideration of this our necessary Resolution, we do promise to pay the several Sums to which our Names are respectively affixed, in order to raise and support a Body of Forces for maintaining the publick Tranquillity, and in Defence of the publick Safety; if his Majesty shall please to approve and authorize the further Proceeding herein.

The following Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeses and Inhabitants of Wokingham in the Counties of Berks and Wilts, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Berks: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Corporation and Town of Wokingham in the Counties of Berks and Wilts.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Burgeses and Inhabitants of your ancient Corporation and Town of Wokingham, beg Leave to join in the joyful Congratulations of your faithful People, on your safe Return to these your Kingdoms, after having contributed, by your powerful Influence abroad, so much towards the establishing the Peace and Quiet of Europe, as the fixing the Great Duke on the Imperial Throne of Germany most undoubtedly has done.

We desire your Royal Acceptance of our further Congratulations on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in the West Indies, by which the Hands of the very worst of our Enemies are not only greatly weakened, but the naval and natural Strength of these Nations proportionably increased.

And now, Dread Sir, give us Leave, with Hearts truly sensible of the many Miseries that must necessarily ensue, should the barbarous Promoters of Confusion and Disorder succeed in their unnatural and traitorous Attempts, to express out utter Abhorrence of the present Rebellion; a Rebellion stirred up and carried on in the Northern Parts of your Kingdom in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender.

We beg Leave likewise to assure your Majesty, with all humble Submission, that in this Time of Danger and Trouble we will not be wanting in our several Stations to exert ourselves, like Men and Protestants, in Support of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; in Support of the Protestant Succession, as by Law established, in your illustrious House; in Support of ourselves, our Religion, Liberties and Laws; as well knowing that these, and whatever other National Blessings can be dear and valuable to a free People, depend, under God, for their Continuance and Support, upon King George, our only lawful and rightful Sovereign.

The following Association of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been presented to his Majesty by John Gulston, Gulston, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeffes, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, most humbly beg Leave to approach your most sacred Majesty with the following Association, as our indispensable Duty to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government in Church and State.

At the Guildhall of the Town and County of Poole, the 7th Day of October, 1745.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeffes, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the said Town and County of Poole, being duly sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild and just Administration of his present Majesty King George, and having the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of the present most unnatural Rebellion begun in Scotland, encouraged and supported by the most inveterate Enemies of our Trade and Navigation, and of all our Rights both Ecclesiastical and Civil, in Favour of a popish Pretender, educated and trained up in all the Bigotry and Superstition of the idolatrous Religion of the Church of Rome, and in the Politicks of the Courts of France and Spain, do hereby, before God and Man, solemnly, sincerely, and heartily associate, and, with one Mind and Heart, unite and firmly bind ourselves one to the other, jointly and severally, hereby publicly declaring, that we will, with all our Power, and at the Expence of all that is dear and valuable to us in this World, now in this dangerous Conjunction, and at all Times, stand by, defend and support his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in his most illustrious House, against all Pretenders whatsoever, and against all his Majesty's Enemies foreign or domestick; and we will, according to the solemn Oath many of us are under to his Majesty, use our utmost Endeavours, without any Fear, Favour, or Hopes of Reward, of or from any Persons whomsoever, to discover and bring to condign Punishment, all Persons who openly or secretly shall be concerned in carrying on any treasonable or other Practices destructive to his Majesty, or our most excellent Constitution in Church and State.

And we do mutually promise and bind ourselves one to the other, that we will cheerfully, at all Times, meet and join together in such Measures as shall be for the Honour and Safety of his Majesty's Person and Government, and for the Welfare and Preservation of this Nation to which we belong.

The following Address of the Commander in Chief and Captains of the Royal Navy assembled at Plymouth, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sandwich, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Commander in Chief and the Captains of your Majesty's Royal Navy at Plymouth.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Commander in Chief and Captains in your Royal Navy now assembled at Plymouth, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the strongest Assurances of Zeal and Fidelity in the present Conjunction, when with the utmost Indignation, we see your British Dominions invaded, and one Part of them seduced to Rebellion by a popish and abjured Pretender to your Crown and Dignity. We are truly sensible, Sir, of the Happiness we enjoy under your just and equal Government, and how closely interwoven with the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Protestant Establishment, are our Laws, Religion, Liberties, and every Thing that is dear to Englishmen; and we are determined, as becomes our Station, to defend all these valuable Considerations with the last Drop of our Blood. We farther beg Leave to make a Tender to your Majesty of our free and voluntary Service, and earnestly request, that while the rest of your faithful Subjects are arming in their several Districts and Provinces, at their own well-placed Expence, we may be permitted to discover a Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government, no less disinterested than theirs, and may have the Honour and Happiness of serving your Majesty and our Country, with no other Reward than the Consciousness of doing our Duty, and the Glory of our Cause.

We crave Leave to subscribe, with the firmest Attachment,

October 14,
1745.

Your Majesty's
Most dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgeffes and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lostwithiel

Loftwithiel in the County of Cornwall, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir John Crosse, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Loftwithiel in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Loftwithiel, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and on the Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Conquest of Cape Breton, so important to the Trade and Commerce of your Majesty's Subjects.

We are filled with the greatest Abhorrence to find, that there are any Persons in these Kingdoms, so unworthy of the many and great Blessings we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, as to join with the avowed Enemies of our Religion and Liberties, in Favour of a popish and abjured Pretender to your Majesty's Throne.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, we are fully determin'd, with our Lives and Fortunes, to defend your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of these Realms, as well against the Pretender and his Family, as against all other Invaders and Disturbers of the Peace of these Kingdoms.

May your Majesty's Reign be long, glorious, and prosperous over a free, affectionate, and happy People, and continued in your Royal House to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Newbury in the County of Berks, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, Lord Lieutenant of the said County: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of your Borough of Newbury in the County of Berks, do joyfully and thankfully acknowledge the watchful Care of Divine Providence, in conducting your Majesty safe to this Kingdom, at so critical a Conjunction, to rescue us from the most imminent Dangers of Popery and arbitrary Power, and their inseparable Attendants, Persecution and Oppression. We take this for a happy Omen, that the same Divine Hand will be graciously pleased to complete our Preservation, by crowning your Majesty's Arms with Success, against the desperate Invaders of our Country, and all their wicked Supporters and Abettors. Your Majesty's Return to your British Dominions, upon the first Notice of our Danger, is a most affecting Instance of your paternal and tender Concern for the Peace and Security of your British Subjects. And as we consider every Attempt against your sacred Person and Government, to be a direct Invasion of all our Religious and Civil Rights, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our constant and unshaken Resolution, upon this and every other Occasion, to engage our Lives and Fortunes in the just Defence and Support of both, and of the Protestant Succession of the Crown in your Royal House, against all popish Pretenders whatsoever.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 11th Day of October 1745.

The following Address of the Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Boroughs of Aldborough and Borroughbridge in the County of York, has been presented to his Majesty by William Murray, Esq; Solicitor General, and Nathan Newnham, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs and Burgeses of your Majesty's most ancient Boroughs of Aldborough and Borroughbridge in the County of York.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, having a due Sense of the Happiness we enjoy under your Majesty, and a just Terror of the Miseries and Calamities which must befall us and our Posterity under a popish Government, feel in ourselves the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of the wicked and execrable Designs of those, who have stirred up a Rebellion in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Crown.

We should be guilty of the highest Ingratitude, and an unaccountable Neglect of our Duty and Interest, if we did not, upon such an Occasion, approve ourselves faithful and loyal Subjects.

We crave Leave therefore to declare our unalterable Fidelity and Allegiance to your Majesty, and and to assure your Majesty we will use our utmost Endeavours to defend our Religion and Liberties, and your Majesty's undoubted Right and Title to the Government of these Realms, and will oppose with Heart and Hand the abjured Pretender, and all his exiled Race, and do all we can to bring to condign Punishment every Traytor to the present happy Establishment.

May the Great God permit your Majesty long to reign over us, and, for a Blessing upon our Posterity, may there ever be a constant Succession of Protestant Princes in your illustrious House of Hanover to govern these Realms to future Generations.

The following Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Steward, Bridge-Master and Burgeses of the Corporation of Maidenhead in the County of Berks, has been presented to his Majesty by Peniston Powney, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, High Steward, Steward, Bridge-Masters and Burgeses of the Corporation of Maidenhead in the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, High Steward, Steward, Bridge-Masters and Burgeses of your ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, beg Leave, in this Time of Danger, to renew our Assurances of Duty and Affection to your Majesty, your Royal Family, and Government, and to express our Abhorrence of all Attempts to disturb the Peace of these Kingdoms, in Favour of a popish Pretender.

An unnatural Rebellion already raised, and powerful Invasions threatened, by the restless and inveterate Enemies of the Trade and Prosperity of this Nation, are sufficient to alarm every thinking Person, and to engage every Lover of his Country in a zealous Defence of the most valuable Blessings we enjoy as Englishmen and Protestants, our Religious and Civil Rights; which we hope will be transmitted to our latest Posterity, under the Protection of your Majesty and your illustrious House.

Given under our Common Seal this 10th Day of October 1745:

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Corporation of Evesham, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir John Rushout, Bart. one of their Representtatives in Parliament, being introduced by the the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Corporation of Evesham, in the County of Worcester.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of Evesham, in the County of Worcester, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Return to these your British Dominions; and to express our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the unnatural Rebellion which is broke out in the North Part of your Majesty's Dominions in Favour of a popish Pretender. But as we enjoy our Religion and Liberties, and every Thing that is dear and valuable to us, under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we think ourselves obliged, both in Duty and Interest, to support and defend your Majesty, to the utmost of our Power, against all your Enemies whatsoever.

Given under our common Seal this 20th of September, in the Year of our Lord God 1745.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace of the County of Middlesex, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, and one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, in General Sessions assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, being deeply sensible of the many great and invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, and of your tender Regard to our civil and religious Rights, are greatly surprized to find, that several of your Majesty's Subjects, forgetting the Allegiance they owe to your Majesty, as well as the natural Love they ought to bear to their Country, should enter into a wicked Conspiracy, in Concert (as it is too much to be feared) with foreign Powers, for raising a Rebellion in this Kingdom, in Favour of a popish Pretender, with a traiterous Design to overthrow our excellent Constitution in Church and State, and to subject a Protestant Free People to all the Miseries of Tyranny and Superstition, at a Time when your Majesty is engaged in a just War for the Support of the Honour and Commerce of Great Britain, and for the General Liberty of Europe.

We beg Leave on our Part to assure your Majesty of our Loyalty and Fidelity to your sacred Person and Government, and of our Zeal in exerting all the Authority we are entrusted with, in such a Manner, as may most effectually tend to promote the Safety and Honour of your Majesty's Reign, and to preserve the publick Peace and Tranquillity.

To these our hearty Professions of Duty and Fidelity, give us Leave to add our most ardent Wishes, that your Majesty may long live and reign over us; that you may receive from all your Subjects the Returns which Duty and Gratitude can inspire; and that your Royal Issue may be established, for the Welfare and Happiness of your People, upon the Throne of these Kingdoms, to all future Generations.

At the General Session of the Peace of our Sovereign Lord the King, holden for the County of Middlesex, at Hick's Hall in St. John-street, in the County aforesaid, by Adjournment, on Friday the Twentieth Day of September, in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, King of Great Britain, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c, before Thomas Lane, Esq; Sir Thomas de Veil, Knt. John Milner, James Clitherow, Henry Norris, Samuel Tyssen, Thomas Burdus, John Elliott, William Morris, John Awfiter, Philip Dyot, Merry Teshmaker, Richard Ricards, Samuel Tatem, Nathaniel Chandler, Peter Elers, Robert Paul, Francis Hole, Henry Broadhead, Thomas Moore, Charles Egerton, Elijah Impy, Ebenezer Muffell, George Ernington, Thomas Jones, William Pickering, Honorat Smith, Thomas Lediard, William Jones, John Tall, Boulton Mainwaring, John Poulson, Thomas Ellys, John Lawton, Esquires, and other their Fellows Justices of our said Lord the King, assigned to keep the Peace in the County aforesaid; and also to hear and determine divers Felonies, Trespases, and other Misdeeds committed in the same County.

By the Court,

P. Walter, Clerk of the Peace of Middlesex.

The following Address of the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's, Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland.

Most gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when the Enemies to your Government, and to the Peace and Happiness of these Kingdoms, have kindled the Flames of War in your Dominions, in Favour of a popish Pretender to your Crown; permit us, amongst your other faithful Subjects, to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of this unnatural Rebellion, and at the same Time to renew our most sincere and affectionate Professions of inviolable Duty and Loyalty to your Majesty.

We look upon this wicked and insolent Attempt of your Enemies, as having a direct Tendency to deprive us of every Thing that can render Life valuable to free-born Subjects and Protestants. And as it is under a Protestant King alone, that we can expect to live free and happy, we shall, with a Spirit becoming Men who have a just Taste and Relish for Civil and Religious Liberty, at all Times cheerfully hazard every Thing that is dear to us in this World, in the Defence and Support of your Majesty's undoubted Title to the Crown of these Realms, and of the Succession to it so happily established in your Royal House.

It is with the highest Satisfaction that we reflect upon the brave and successful Stand made by our Ancestors in this Kingdom, during the Reign of our late glorious Deliverer King William, against Popery and arbitrary Power, at a Time when our Liberties were in the utmost Danger from a popish Prince, at the Head of a popish Army, openly abetted and supported by that Power, which has so long and so frequently troubled the Repose of Europe: And we can, with the greatest Pleasure and Confidence, assure your Majesty, that you will find the Posterity of those Men, the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland, animated with an equal Zeal for publick Liberty, whenever the Circumstances of the Nation shall make it necessary to call upon them to take up Arms in Defence of your Majesty and their Country.

We beg Leave also, on this Occasion, to express our unfeigned Joy upon your Majesty's safe Return, from attending the important Affairs of Europe, to your British Dominions, which fills our Minds with the pleasing Hope, that by the Wisdom of your Councils, and your continued Vigilance, for the Safety and Happiness of your Subjects, the Attempts of your restless Enemies, whether at Home or Abroad, will be speedily speedily defeated, and end in the firmer Establishment of your Government, which, under God, is the best and strongest Security these Nations can have for publick Happiness and Prosperity.

Signed in the Name and by the Appointment of the Protestant Dissenters of Ireland, by Charles Moore, Chairman.

The following Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of your City of Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in your British Dominions; and at the same Time to express our Abhorrence and just Indignation at the insolent and unnatural Rebellion broke out in North Britain, against your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government.

When we reflect on the immediate Dependence all that has ever been due to Protestants and Britons hath on the present happy Settlement of the Crown in your illustrious House, and on the Tranquillity and Happiness we have enjoyed under your Majesty's most mild and gracious Government; our Interest concurs with our Duty, in the Resolution we have taken, to oppose, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, all Attempts in Favour of a popish Pretender, so often and so solemnly abjured. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, at this particular Juncture, exert our utmost Endeavours in Support of the publick Credit.

We are sensible, that as this rash Enterprize must be the Object of your Majesty's Contempt, so it can serve no other End, but to unite all your true Protestant Subjects in the Common Cause, and to establish that Throne it would vainly attempt to shake.

May that good Providence, which has so often and so signally interposed in Behalf of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of these Kingdoms, crown your Majesty's Arms with Success; make the important Acquisition of Cape Breton an happy Prefage of future Victories; and long preserve your Majesty the Guardian and Protector of an affectionate and free People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeses and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Burgeses and Commons of the County of the Town of Drogheda.

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects beg Leave, upon this Occasion, to declare our hearty Detestation of the present wicked and vain Attempts against your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms, in Favour of a popish Pretender.

Our Sufferings and Depression in the Reign of the late King James; our Revival and happy Deliverance by the Hand of the Great King William; and the Accession of your illustrious House to the Crown of these Realms, have for ever armed us against Popery and arbitrary Power: And the innumerable Blessings derived to us from your Majesty's mild and just Administration, firmly convince us, that when we are most vigilant for your Majesty's Safety, we provide most effectually for our own.

Permit us, Royal Sir, animated with these Principles, to tender the warmest Efforts, for the Defence of your Majesty's sacred Person, that true Loyalty and Affection can inspire, and to assure our most gracious Sovereign, that we shall think our Lives and Fortunes only valuable, as they can assist in preserving to us the Happiness of your Majesty's Government, and the Succession of it in your Royal Line, upon which the Welfare of us and our Posterity depends.

Given under our Common Seal this Thirtieth Day of September 1745.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Down, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him him been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Down.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg your Royal Permission, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and to express the sincere Joy which we feel at the signal Successes of your Majesty's Navy, both in protecting the Commerce of these Kingdoms, and in distressing that of our Enemies, and in the invaluable Acquisition of Cape Breton.

We cannot but with the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation take Notice of the daring Attempts of the Enemies, and Pretender to your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland. And we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that there are at least Twenty Thousand loyal Protestants in this County, ready with their Lives and Fortunes, to defend and support your sacred Person, Royal Family and Government, against all traiterous and rebellious Insurrections and foreign Invasions, in Favour of Popery and French Power.

It is our earnest and constant Prayer, that the Divine Providence may guard and protect your sacred Majesty against the restless and malicious Designs of the Enemies of our happy Constitution, and long continue to us the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild, just and prudent Administration.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Saltash in Cornwall, has been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, Free Burgesses and Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient and loyal Borough of Saltash in Cornwall, at the Guildhall there assembled, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to congratulate your safe and seasonable Return to your British Dominions ; and at the same Time to offer (which we cheerfully do) our Mite, the Substance of our Fortunes, with all that is dear and valuable to us, to your Majesty's Disposal and Commands ; and we dare affirm, that though we have not been so early in addressing your Majesty as a Number of your Subjects have been, yet none of them can be more faithfully so than we are. We will continually pray and hope, that in Case the most audacious and abandoned Attempters to disturb your sacred Majesty in the Enjoyment of your undoubted Right to your Crown and Dominions, and us in that of your paternal Care and Protection, should, by any Infatuation or Instigation, encrease their Numbers, they may only tend to encrease their Shame, and advance your Glory. And to that End we are now taking Measures (to the utmost of our Abilities, equal with the most forward of your Majesty's Subjects) in making a Stand against, and rendring abortive all such Attempts.

We have always shewn our Loyalty to your Royal and Illustrious House, ever since we have been blessed with their Presence among us ; and have always sent Members to represent us in Parliament, strictly attach'd to our happy Constitution ; and are determin'd to continue so to do, and on all Occasions to shew ourselves to be,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

From the Head Quarters of the Saxons at Salnay, Oct. 23.

The 20th Instant we received Advice, that the Enemy had marched the Day before towards Landshut, having entirely evacuated Bohemia ; and according to the last Accounts they were actually encamped between Lieban and Landshut with the main Body of the Army, the whole consisting at most in 10 or 12,000 Men, the rest being already detached in order to form a Chain from Lieban towards Tropau. The 21st Major General de Kalckreuth marched with two Regiments, Preysing's Cavalry and Wettes's Infantry, to Hoenmauth ; so that if the Enemy should undertake any Thing towards Moravia, they would be at Hand to go to its Assistance, it being certain, that the Inhabitants there are in the greatest Anxiety on this Account, Estafettes coming daily to the Prince from adjacent Places. Lieutenant Colonel Gastheim set out Yesterday Night on his Return from Francfort, and To-day Orders were given, that the Quarter-Masters of the Army should reassemble themselves To-morrow, in order to mark out a Camp ; but it is not known at present on which Side the Army will march, but it is supposed that it will be towards Gitschin. The Regiments of Cavalry, Hohenembs, Philibert, and Serbelloni, as also those of Infantry, Max. Hesse, Baden, and Andlau, are not to send their Quarter-Masters ; which makes it believed that those Regiments are destined for another Expedition, which is at present sent also unknown. The Prince has ordered Colonel Trenck to return to the Army with his Body of Light Troops, to give an Account of the Contributions which he has received in Silesia; as also with regard to many Complaints which the Officers of his Regiment have made against him; for which Purpose a Court Martial is appointed to enquire into them.

Leghorne, October 11, N. S. On the 27th past in the Evening, Admiral Rowley with Part of His Majesty's Squadron attempted to bombard the City of Genoa, and after throwing Forty two Shells, the next Morning he steered with the Fleet to the Westward, not having done, or received any Damage. On the 29th the Fleet anchored off Final, and bombarded that Place all that Day and Part of the next Night with little Success. The Masters of several Vessels arrived from thence say, that only two Houses, and Part of an Oratory had been beaten down. On the 30th the Fleet steered to the Westward, and have since anchored off the Town of St. Remo, which they reduced to a Heap of Rubbish. Two Vessels laden with Corn and Oil were taken by his Majesty's Ships, and another sunk. The last Letters from Genoa mention, that Vessels arrive there Weekly laden with Provisions and Warlike Stores. The Republick continue fortifying the City and Coast, and in the Castle of St. Maria, at Porto Spetia, they have placed 60 Pieces of Cannon, and erected two Batteries of 18 and 12 Guns, at the Entrance of the Harbour. They have also built a regular Fort at Lerici, and planted 12 Pieces of Cannon, which will annoy the Vessels at Anchor in the Harbour of Spetia. Letters from the Camp of the Austrians at Castel Monferato of the 4th Instant, advise, that the Austrian and Sardinian Troops were joined again. These last suffered in the surprize of the 27th, but not so considerably as was at first reported. The Army is at present advantageously encamped, having the Hills on the Right, the Po on their Left, and the Town at their Backs. On the 30th, the Enemy invested Valentia, and on the 1st Instant, the Austrians sent away all their heavy Baggage and unnecessary People out of their Camp. Upon the 2d, they finished their Bridges over the Po, and detached a strong Corps of Cavalry and Sclavonians under the Command of General Count di Gros for the Lomelline, the Enemy having sent a strong Detachment the same Way in the Morning over the Bridges which they took at Bessignano. Letters from Mantua of the 1st Instant, mention the Arrival there of Prince Lichtenstein, who is to command the Austrian Army in Italy in Chief, which it is reported is soon to be reinforced. In this Port are his Majesty's Ships Roebuck, Liverpool, Nazareth Fire-Ship, and a Xebec, who are to sail To-morrow in Quest of Admiral Rowley.

Whitehall, October 28.

By a Messenger arrived Yesterday, who left Marshal Wade, with the Forces under his Command, at Darlington on the 26th Instant, we have an Account, that all the Troops from Flanders were arrived at Newcastle, Berwick, and Holy-Island, except five Companies of Colonel Ligonier's, and three of Brigadier Price's, the Baggage of the Whole, and one Ship with Horses, which were still missing.

Whitehall, October 29.

By Letters from Inverness of the 11th and 12th, every Thing was very quiet in that Part of the Country. The Earl of Loudon arrived there on the 11th, in order to take upon him the Command of the Troops in those Parts, and of the twenty new Independent Companies raising there, under the Direction of the Lord President of the Session, which were in great Forwardness, and would, in all probability, soon be compleated.

Letters from Berwick of the 25th advise, that the last Accounts they had of the Rebels, were, that they still gave out they intended to march Southward; but that in the mean Time they had marked out a strong Camp, West of Dalkeith, about four Miles South from Edinburgh, with Dalkeith on their Left, Newbattle Water in their Front, and Melvill Rivulet in their Rear; but so as to be open on their Right towards Polton. These two Rivulets join below Dalkeith at a Place called Smeaton, and fall into the Sea at Musselburgh. They have got one Du Boyer with them whom they call a French Ambassador.

Other Letters mention, that the Pretender's Eldest Son had his Quarters at the Duke of Buccleugh's House: That the Rebels were 8000 effective Men, exclusive of what was called his Guards: That they had brought all their Baggage out of Edinburgh to that Camp; and that they rob and destroy all round them. There was likewise a Report of a French Ship being arrived at Aberbrothock, with Bombs, Mortars, and heavy Cannon, with Cannoniers and Bombardiers.

By Advices from Berwick of the 25th instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Night, there is an Account of four Companies of Brigadier Price's having got into Holy Island; and that the same Evening there were two Transports more anchor'd off Berwick, in one of which there were three Companies more of Brigadier Price's, and in the other, five of Colonel Ligonier's Regiment.
