St. James's, November 9.

THE following Address of the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Pembroke, having been transmitted by Sir Arthur Owen, Bart. to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Pembroke, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, the 8th Day of October 1745.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and others of the County of Pembroke, in Quarter Sessions assembled, beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy upon your Majesty's safe Return into your British Dominions, at a Time when your Royal Presence was greatly wanted, and most earnestly desired, by all your faithful Subjects.

That our old and inveterate Enemies of France and Rome should again renew their pernicious Attempts upon our Religion, Laws and Liberties, by promoting an unnatural Rebellion in these your Majesty's Dominions, in Favour of a popish Pretender, is what raises our utmost Indignation. But that any of our Fellow Subjects should be so senseless of the valuable Privileges they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gentle Government, as to concur in these destructive Measures; and, in Despite of all their Obligations to the contrary, labour, at the Hazard of their Lives, to compleat the utter Ruin of their Country, is indeed, lamentable and astonishing. We, induced by the strongest Ties of Gratitude and Interest, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government; and of our firm Purposes and Resolutions, to exert to the utmost, every Power that God has put into our Hands, in Defence of the same. And may the Almighty, who has hitherto signally guarded your sacred Person in Dangers, and so often delivered this Nation from Popery and Slavery, bless and prosper your Arms and Undertakings at this critical Juncture, and long preserve your valuable Life in the full Enjoyment of future Peace and Tranquillity.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Argyle, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble and sincere Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air, met at Glasgow, October 1, 1745.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air, humbly beg Leave, upon this first Opportunity of our Meeting together since your Majesty's safe Arrival in these your Dominions, to express the sincere and mighty Joy we felt upon that happy Occasion.

At the same Time it filled our Hearts with the deepest Concern and Regret, that your Majesty should then have found a Part of our Native Country, engaged in a most treasonable Insurrection against your Person and Government.

We

[Price Six Pence.]

We have since that Time beheld with the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence, yet blacker Scenes, a Rebellious Army of bigotted Papists and of insatuated Protestants, the inveterate Enemies of our present happy Constitution, and some of whom no Oaths can bind, and no Favours can gain, headed by a popish Son of a popish Pretender, advance so far as to invade the Capital of this Part of your Dominions, and come so near to our Borders, as to subject this loyal City, wherein we are now assembled, to a grievous Oppression, which they were not able to resist.

But even in this critical Juncture and Situation, when Expressions of loyal Duty to your Majesty's Person and Government may expose us to cruel Resentments, we cannot forbear giving you the most solemn Assurances of our inviolable Fidelity and Allegiance: An Allegiance, which, under God, is inseparably connected with the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties, and which we hope God will give us the Constancy to maintain amidst the utmost Perils.

Tho' an indelible Stain of Disloyalty, and of the vilest Ingratitude must lie upon some Parts of our Country, yet it is with Pleasure we can assure your Majesty, that almost the whole People in these Western Shires wherein we live, still preserve a steady Fidelity and Affection to your Royal Person and Government: So that a very small and inconsiderable Number from these Parts have joined in this daring and wicked Attempt against your Majesty and their Country; and of these few, none of them, so far as we know, are Members of our Presbyterian Communion: All of us being deeply sensible of the great Blessings we have enjoyed under the gracious and mild Administration of your Majesty and of your Royal Father. And that next to the Protection of the Divine Providence, it is to your Majesty, and to the Succession of your Royal Family in the Protestant Line, that we must owe the secure Enjoyment of all that should be valuable and dear to us in this World.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as it has been, it shall be our constant Care to inspire our People with these just Sentiments: And next to that chief Part of our Duty of teaching them the Fear of God, we shall animate them to honour their Protestant King.

That the only wise God may direct your Councils, and the Lord of Hosts may go forth with your Armies and Fleets, and particularly crown them with a speedy Success in quelling this bold and dangerous Rebellion amongst us, to the firmer Establishment of your Throne; and that after a long and happy Reign over a loyal and free People, you may inherit an incorruptible Crown; and the Crown of these Kingdoms and the Defence of the Protestant Religion may descend to your Royal Issue, to latest Posterity, are and shall be the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most humble,
most obedient and loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glasgow and Air.
Signed in our Presence, in our Name, and at our Appointment, by James Stirling, Moderator.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Hereford, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Windford, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Hereford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majesty's ancient and ever loyal City of Hereford, beg Leave to take this seasonable Opportunity of declaring our Duty and Loyalty to your Royal Person, and our Attachment to our happy Constitution in Church and State; And that, as your Majesty's regal Authority and the Liberty of your Subjects are so blended together, that it is absolutely necessary for the Security of the one that the other should be supported; we, on our Parts, will do the utmost in our Power to suppress all Attempts that are or may be made by the restless Ambition of our common Enemies, in Favour of arbitrary Power and a popish Pretender; and to defend your Royal Person, under whose Protection and auspicious Government we hope long to enjoy our establish'd Religion, Rights and Privileges.

Given under our common Seal this Sixteenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and forty five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Thetford, has been presented to his Majesty by Charles Fitzroy, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Borough of Thetford, Norfolk and Suffolk. } The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgessees and Commonalty of the said Burgh.

WE the Corporation of the Burgh of Thetford, with all Humility beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to this Kingdom; the Success of your Majesty's Arms in taking Cape Breton; and on the general Affociations and voluntary Subscriptions which appear from all Parts of your Majesty's Dominions, in Support of your Majesty's sacred Person, Family and Government, and the Preservation of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, at this unhappy Conjunction, when the whole is threatned by an horrid and execrable Rebellion in Favour of a popish Pretender, by the Aid and Assistance of foreign Powers, encouraged (as is feared) by some of our Fellow Subjects. In Detestation and utter Abhorrence of which treasonable Practices, we do most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, in Defence of your Royal Person and Government, and of our Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Constitution, most readily venture our Lives and Fortunes, and every thing that is dear to us, as we hope for the Blessing of Almighty God, and the Favour and Protection of your sacred Person, as our rightful and lawful Sovereign.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto set our common Seal this 19th Day of October, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to his Majesty by John Michell, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, Clergy, Gentry, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston, in the County of Lincoln, with Hearts full of Affection and Duty, beg Leave to express our Joy on your Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions, and the happy Success that has attended your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape Breton; a Conquest of the greatest Importance to the Trade, and consequently to the Welfare of this Nation.

We are too deeply sensible of the Happiness we enjoy from your Majesty's Government, in the Protection of our civil and religious Rights, not to look with the highest Indignation on the present Attempts, formed to deprive us of those Blessings in Favour of a popish Pretender, supported by the ever secret, tho' now open Enemy to these Nations.

Permit us, therefore, most Gracious Sovereign, upon this Occasion, to renew the strongest Assurances to your Majesty, of our unfeigned Attachment to the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House; and that we are, and always shall be ready upon this and every other Occasion, to hazard all that is dear and valuable to us, not only in Defence of your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, but also in Support of your glorious Designs for the Liberties of Europe.

We most earnestly hope, and doubt not, but that your Majesty's known Wisdom and Prudence will baffle these pernicious Attempts of your Enemies, and continue to these Nations, in your Royal House, the Blessings we enjoy, to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Comburgesses, Burgessees, Representatives in Parliament, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Soak of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. John Lord Mansfield, and Sir John Cust, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Comburgesses, Burgessees, Representatives in Parliament, Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Soak of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, having the Safety and Welfare of your Royal Person and Family most sincerely at Heart, beg Leave, at this present Juncture, with a most unfeigned and affectionate Loyalty, to acknowledge ourselves sincerely attached to your Preservation and Interest, when our Religion, Laws and Liberties, are not only threatned, but most wickedly invaded by a popish Pretender, and every thing which is dear and valuable to us in Danger ger to fall a Sacrifice to that usurping and tyrannical Power.

As these are Blessings of the utmost Consequence, and which (under God) we are oblig'd to your Majesty's gracious and prudent Protection for, we can't help expressing the greatest Indignation and Abhorrence of the infamous and wicked Attempts, which manifestly tend to the Subversion of these inestimable Benefits, and are ready to resign our Lives and Fortunes, rather than permit ourselves to become Subjects to such a base and illegal Constitution.

Your Majesty's late Success in the West Indies, gives us infinite Joy, as it is of infinite Consequence, and therefore merits the highest Esteem of every faithful Subject.

May the same Success attend all your Undertakings, and render us to latest Posterity the happy Subjects of your illustrious House.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, has been presented to his Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Barrymore, and Sir Roger Bradshaigh, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaster, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in the entire Conquest of the Island of Cape Breton, which must in its Consequences be of the utmost Advantage in extending the Trade and Commerce of your Majesty's Subjects.

The Elevation of the Grand Duke of Tuscany to the Imperial Throne (which hath been chiefly owing to your Majesty's great Wisdom and powerful Assistance) is an Event which demands our most grateful Acknowledgements, as we are sensible it will be an effectual Means of curbing the dangerous and ambitious Schemes of those who are always aiming at destroying the Balance of Power in Europe.

Permit us, Sir, to declare our utter Abhorrence of that unnatural Rebellion lately broke out in Scotland; a Rebellion raised by some of your traitorous Subjects, fomented and supported by your Majesty's declared Enemies, the Grand Disturbers of Europe, in Favour of a popish Pretender.

And we do hereby assure your Majesty, that we shall, upon this and all other Occasions, exert ourselves to the utmost of our Powers in Defence of your Majesty, against all your open and secret Enemies.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the common Seal of the said Borough to be hereto affixed, this 12th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Free Burgesses of the Borough of Truro, has been presented to his Majesty by Charles Hamilton, Esq; and the Hon. Edward Boscawen, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Truro, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

AT the same Time we congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your Kingdoms, we beg Leave to express our Abhorrence of those Persons, who, during your Absence, have disturbed the Peace of them, by an unnatural Rebellion in Favour of an abjur'd Papist.

We are not ignorant, that as this wicked Attempt was formed, so it is carried on under the Influence of our most inveterate foreign Enemy, who, disappointed in his Views by your Majesty's Councils, and distressed in his Colonies and Trade by your Arms, now makes Use of the Pretender and his Adherents, vainly hoping by such Instruments to propagate the erroneous Doctrines of Popery, and establish slavish and arbitrary Principles of Government among us. But we are desirous to assure your Majesty on our Parts, that a true Sense of our Duty, a just Esteem and Love for your sacred Person and Family, and a hearty Zeal and Affection for our Religion and Liberties, will excite us to oppose at all Times every Attack upon our present, free, and legal Government: In this critical Juncture in particular, your Majesty may command our Services, whatever Hazard, either in our Lives or Fortunes, we may undergo in the Performance of them.

Given under the common Seal of the said Borough, this 9th Day of October, 1745;

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, in the County

County of Cornwall, has been presented to his Majesty by Jonathan Rashleigh and William Wardour, Esqrs, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Free Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Fowey, in the County of Cornwall.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's safe Return to your British Dominions, and the Reduction of Cape Breton by your Majesty's Forces, are Events on which we most humbly beg Leave to offer your Majesty our sincerest Congratulations. May the Preservation of your Majesty's sacred Person, and the Retention of that most important, most invaluable Place, be no less the Objects of your Majesty's Care, than of your People's Wishes!

The daring and open Attempts of your Majesty's professed and inveterate Enemies, in Favour of the Pretender to your Majesty's Crown, have so manifest and fatal a Tendency to the Subversion of our happy Constitution both in Church and State, as must fill every loyal Breast with Horror and Detestation, and rouse in every Englishman a true Spirit of Duty and Zeal for the Security of your Majesty's Royal Person, as the Defender of our Faith, and of your Majesty's Government, as the Protection of our Liberties and Properties.

Thus sensible of our Duty and Interest, and animated with this Spirit, we implore your Majesty's Acceptance of a Tendency of our utmost Services in the Support of your Majesty's Person and Government, the Maintenance of our Religion and Laws, and the transmitting them and our Liberties, with the Crown of this Realm, to your Majesty's latest Progeny.

The following Address of the Provost, Burgesses, Clergymen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Strabane, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Burgesses, Clergymen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Strabane.

WE the Provost, Burgesses, Clergymen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Borough of Strabane, beg Leave at this Time to approach your Majesty with Hearts full of the warmest Zeal, Duty and Gratitude.

It is with the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence, that we have heard of an impious and unnatural Rebellion, stirred up in North Britain against your sacred Majesty, in Favour of an abjur'd popish Pretender. And it is with extream Grief we are informed that it hath spread over a great Part of that Kingdom, and found therein too many ungrateful perjur'd Abettors.

As we have long enjoyed all the Sweets of Liberty under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and are fully convinced, that all that can be valuable to a free People, our Religion, our Liberties and Properties, do depend, under God, upon the Establishment of your Majesty in the Throne of these Kingdoms, and of your Royal and Illustrious Family in the Succession; we do, from Hearts overflowing with filial Piety and Thankfulness, solemnly vow to Almighty God, to your Majesty, and to our Free-born Fellow Subjects, that we will stand by and support your most sacred Majesty with our utmost Force and Power; and count the most desirable Enjoyments of Life, and even Life itself, but as a small Thing to expose in Defence of your Majesty, and the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under you.

And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that there are, within a few Miles around this Borough, many Thousand Protestants, all good Men and true, who have the same Principles and hearty Affections to your Majesty.

As we have an entire Dependence upon the Vigilance and Activity of his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, whom your Majesty in great Wisdom and Goodness towards Ireland, hath been pleased to appoint Lord Lieutenant over us, we comfort ourselves with the Hope of being seasonably supplied with sufficient Quantities of Arms and Ammunition, which at this Juncture we stand in great Need of. And we do faithfully promise, that we will, with all possible Cheerfulness, use them wherever your Majesty shall call us, in Defence of your sacred Majesty, and in avenging you on your Enemies.

Given under the publick Seal of the Borough of Strabane, and signed with our Hands this 4th Day of October, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Galway, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Sheriffs, Free Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and County of the Town of Galway.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AT this Time, when a wicked and unnatural Rebellion is carried on in North Britain against your Majesty, by a Set of desperate and ungrateful People, we think it a Duty incumbent upon us, humbly to present these our repeated Assurances of our unshaken Fidelity and most ardent Zeal towards your sacred Person and Government.

When we look back upon the many cruel Attempts heretofore made by the Champions of Rome, to extirpate the Protestant Religion out of this Kingdom ; more particularly when we reflect on the many Miseries which our Fathers underwent during the short tyrannical Power of a late bigotted popish Prince here, the Memory of these tragical Events, which can never be forgotten by any true Irish Protestant, cannot but greatly endear to us the invaluable Blessings of Peace, Liberty, and Prosperity, which we have so long enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government ; and at the same Time fill us with a just Concern and Horror, at the present wicked Attempt, to obtrude upon us a Person nursed in the Bosom of Popery, and trained up in all her cruel Maxims of civil and religious Tyranny.

And if our just Abhorrence of such an Attempt can admit of any Addition, it must be from this Reflection, that it is made at a Time, when your Majesty is gloriously struggling, not for our Liberties alone, but for the Liberties of Europe ; in which glorious Cause we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, as Occasion shall require, support your Majesty and your Royal House, on which alone, under God, our Happiness depends.

Given under our Hands, and Seal of our Corporation, this Seventeenth Day of October, 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, and the Lord Bishop of Ossory, and Clergy residing therein, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, in the Kingdom of Ireland, and the Lord Bishop of Ossory, and Clergy residing therein.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Kilkenny, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, and the Lord Bishop of Ossory, and Clergy residing therein, cannot hear without the utmost Indignation and Abhorrence, of a most unnatural Rebellion broke out in Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and the audacious and insolent Designs of your Majesty's Enemies, to place a bigotted popish Pretender on the Throne of these Realms, which we hope will never be filled but by one of your Majesty's most illustrious House.

Your Majesty may depend on our Sincerity, when we assure your Majesty, we are ready to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your sacred Person and Government ; for it is to your Majesty's mild and gracious Administration we owe all the Blessings that can be dear to Mankind.

The following Address of the Burgo Master, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commoners of the Corporation of Maryborough, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Burgo Master, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commoners of the Corporation of Maryborough, in the Queen's County and Kingdom of Ireland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Burgo Master, Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commoners of Maryborough, being now met together in an Assembly of our Corporation, cannot allow ourselves to separate without declaring to your Majesty, and the World, the Indignation and Abhorrence which we have conceived at the most wicked and daring Attempt which is begun and carried on in Scotland, by some of your Majesty's traitorous Subjects, jects, supported and encouraged by the common Enemies of Europe, to deprive your Majesty of your Crown, to subvert our Religion and Liberties, to advance a popish Pretender to the Throne of these Realms; and in Consequence of that, to entail the two greatest Plagues that can befall Mankind, Superstition and Slavery, upon us and our Posterity.

We should think ourselves unworthy of the Blessings which we enjoy under our free Constitution, and your Majesty's just and mild Administration, if we did not, upon this Occasion, find ourselves animated with the warmest Zeal, and most undaunted Spirit, to assert and defend your Majesty's undoubted Rights; to support and strengthen your Government; to preserve the Succession to the Crown in your illustrious House; to disappoint and defeat the Enemies of your Majesty and your Kingdoms, and to secure the Religion, Liberty and Welfare of our Country. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, with the utmost Sincerity, that nothing in our Power shall be ever wanting that can contribute to these Purposes.

The following Address of the Provost, Burgesses, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Burgesses, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Bandon Bridge, in the County of Corke and Kingdom of Ireland, sealed with our Corporation Seal the Third Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and forty five.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Burgesses, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Freemen and Inhabitants of your remarkable Protestant Borough of Bandon Bridge, humbly beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy on account of your Majesty's safe and happy Arrival into your British Dominions; and to assure your Majesty of the just Abhorrence we have of the evil and wicked Machinations of the Enemies of your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, in fomenting Divisions amongst your Subjects, and exciting them to rebel against so good, so just, so mild and merciful a Sovereign, in Favour of a popish, bigotted, and long abjur'd Pretender, from whom nothing can be reasonably expected but Cruelty and Tyranny, accompanied with many such-like dismal and necessary Attendants of arbitrary Power. We think ourselves in a particular Manner obliged to return Thanks to the great Disposer of all Things, that there has not as yet appeared any Thing like a Spirit of Discord or Sedition, influencing the Minds of your Subjects in this Kingdom; and we trust in his Divine Providence, for the uniting all your Majesty's Subjects in the strict Bands of Loyalty and Allegiance, not doubting, but that the same Almighty Power will soon frustrate and defeat all the wicked Devices of your Majesty's foreign and domestick Enemies.

We farther beg Leave to repeat our late Assurances given your Majesty of our most inviolable Attachments to the present happy Establishment in Church and State; and that we are resolutely determined, at the Hazard of every Thing that is near and dear to us, to support and defend your Majesty and the Protestant Succession in your most illustrious House, against all Pretenders and Attempts whatsoever.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The following Address of the Provost and Burgesses of the Corporation of Newtown Lemavady, in the Kingdom of Ireland, together with the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjoining, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To his most Excellent Majesty King George the Second.

The humble Address of the Provost and Burgesses of the Corporation of Newtown Lemavady, in the Kingdom of Ireland, together with the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjoining.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost and Burgesses of the Corporation of Newtown Lemavady, together with the Gentlemen and Clergy of the Town and Country adjacent, do beg Leave to express our Joy upon your Majesty's safe Return to your Dominions, after your glorious Endeavours upon the Continent, to restore the Liberties of Europe.

We have heard with Surprise and Indignation of an unnatural Rebellion in your Majesty's Kingdom of Scotland, in Favour of a popish Pretender, nursed up at Rome, a Tool of France and Spain: And we most zealously assure your Majesty, that we look upon the Attempt with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence, being firmly resolved to support your Majesty and your Royal Family, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, against him and all his Adherents.

Besides the Duty and Allegiance we owe to your sacred Majesty, we know there is no possible Security for our Religion, Liberty and Property, but under the Protection of your Majesty and the Succession of your Family. We are thoroughly sensible that no People upon Earth ever enjoyed more fully the Advantages of a just, equitable and mild Government, than all the Subjects of these Nations have done under your Majesty's Royal Father; and we trust they will continue to do the same under your Descendants till Time shall be no more.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Community, Clergy and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Community, Clergy and Citizens of the City of Londonderry, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival into your British Dominions, and on the late Success of your Majesty's Arms in America, by taking the important Fortress of Cape Breton.

It is with the greatest Astonishment and Indignation, that we hear of the Landing in Scotland of the Son of the Pretender to your Majesty's Crown: We cannot comprehend by what Encouragement from any of your Majesty's Subjects, he could be prevailed upon to engage in so desperate and insolent an Enterprize, nor how he could expect to find Adherents sufficient to disturb the internal Repose of your Kingdoms, amongst a People abounding with all the Blessings which true Religion and Liberty can bestow.

From the Knowledge we have of your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, we build the strongest Hopes, that your loyal Subjects of Great Britain will (before this reaches your Royal Presence) have made him and his Accomplices feel the Effects of their Rathsness and Treason. We could not however refrain from giving you this Testimony of our Fidelity and Zeal; and we most humbly assure your Majesty, that if (contrary to our present present Apprehensions) the Danger should spread and become more general, your loyal City of Londonderry, ever mindful of the Happiness they enjoy, and firm in their Attachment to your Majesty, as they were to your Royal Ancestor King William the Third, of glorious Memory, are ready to sacrifice in your Service their Fortunes and their Lives, and with their last Breath will pray for your Majesty's Welfare and Success against that perfidious Nation France, and all other your Enemies.

Sealed with our Seal of Office, the 17th Day of September, 1745.

By the King,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N

For a General F A S T.

G E O R G E R.

WE taking into our most serious Consideration the just and necessary Wars, in which we are engaged with the Crown of Spain and the French King, and the unnatural Rebellion begun in one Part of this our Kingdom; and putting our Trust in Almighty God that he will vouchsafe a special Blessing on our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Wednesday the Eighteenth Day of December next; that so both we and our People may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon for our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments, which our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved; and imploring his Blessing and Assistance on our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity to us, and our Kingdoms. And we do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all our loving Subjects in England, our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment, as we may justly inflict on all such as contern and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, we have given Directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worship; and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Diocesses.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Seventh Day of November, 1745, in the Nineteenth Year of our Reign.

Whitehall, November 5.

By Letters of the 3d Instant from Berwick, there are Accounts, that upon the 27th past, a Party of the Rebels had been at Glasgow to demand the old Subsidy for the Tobacco brought in seven Ships, and just then landed at Greenock, which amounted to 10,000 Pounds Sterling: That they had also demanded three Years Excise upon the Small Beer, which likewise amounts to 10,000 Pounds Sterling: That upon the 31st past, 200 small Carts, in which were six Field Pieces, Ammunition, Small Arms, &c. lately landed at Montrose, and which came over the Firth at Hagen's Nook, passed by on the West Side of Edinburgh, and went to Dalkeith, attended by two considerable Bodies of the Rebels: That the Pretender's Son left Edinburgh about Six that Evening, and came the Length of Pinkie, about four Miles to the East of that City, with those of the Rebels called the Life-Guards, and lay there that Night: That all their Baggage, six Pieces of Six-pounders, and one Field Piece, was to be sent off that Night or the next Day to Dalkeith, and their whole Army to follow at the same Time; That about One o'Clock upon the 1st Instant, the Pretender's Son proceeded to Dalkeith, from which Place a considerable Body of the Highlanders, who called themselves the advanced Guard, marched that Evening to Pennycook, and another to Loan Head, both which Places are at a small Distance from Dalkeith, upon the Road leading Westward to Peebles, Moffat, Carlisle, &c. Those advanced Parties gave out, that their whole Army was to follow them the next Day: That the Pretender's Son was to set out from Dalkeith upon the 3d, and that they were to march through Annandale to Carlisle: That the better to disguise their Motions, Billets for Quarters had been sent to Musselburgh, Fisheraw, Inverask, Prestonpans, Tranent, Haddington and other Villages upon the East Road to Berwick, whilst considerable Numbers were to march by Night to the Westward: That they had along with them above 150 Carts and Waggons full of Baggage, besides great Numbers of Baggage Horses, and that they gave out that their Intention was to proceed directly into England, to endeavour to slip by the Troops under Marshal Wade, and to get into Lancashire.

Whitehall, November 8.

By Advices from the North, of the 5th Instant, there are Accounts, that the Rebels were marching Southwards towards Langton and Carlisle, as was supposed, in three different Columns, the Westernmost of which was thought to be their main Body by the Pretender's Son, being with them, who was to take his Quarters at Broughton near Peebles, being the House of Murray his Secretary. The middle Column marched by Lauder, Selkirk, and Hawick, and the Easternmost Column by Kelso. Marshal Wade was at Newcastle upon the 5th, and upon Advice of the March of the Rebels Southwards, had countermanded the March of the Army under him to Berwick. Several Companies of Foot, as also the Baggage of several Regiments landed at Berwick, had Orders to march to Newcastle and to join their Corps. Lord Killmarnock, who styles himself Colonel of a Regiment of Horse, had sent a Summons upon the 3d Instant to the Provost of Kello, for furnishing Quarters and Provisions for 4000 Foot and 1000 Horse of the Rebels, requiring him also to send the same Orders to the Magistrates of Woolter. That on Saturday the 2d, General Guest had made a Sally from the Castle of Edinburgh, and seized about 2000 Loaves, which had been provided for, and were to be sent after the Rebels, who had with them, as it was said, only four Days Provisions when they marched. The two Regiments of Dragoons of Hamilton and Ligonier were posted at Woolter, Whittingham, &c. to observe their Motions; They are under the Command of Colonel Ligonier. The Marshal had ordered the Regiments, who had been quartered in Newcastle since their Landing, to join and encamp with the other Forces upon the 6th. The Horse and Dragoons continued at Durham. The Left Column of the Rebels marched upon the 3d Instant from Dalkeith and Newbottle to Lauder. The Number of the Rebels who were at Peebles upon the same Day amounted to between Four and Five Thousand, with 150 Cart Loads of Baggage and some Artillery. Other Letters mention, that the French Arms, Ammunition and Baggage, &c. landed some Time since at Montrose, had been brought to Perth, from whence Horses had been press'd to carry it to Allowa on the 27th past, under Pain of Military Execution; that Part of the said Baggage had been ferried over that Night, which was continued the Monday and Tuesday after; but that General Blakeney having had Notice, that the Rear of the Men who conducted it, was to pass over on the Wednesday Morning, had dispatch'd Captain Abercrombie with some Soldiers and Countrymen to attack them; which they accordingly did, wounded some, took several Prisoners, some Cows, Horses, and a great deal of Baggage, Arms, &c. with some Money, and great Quantities of Letters; That all these were brought into Stirling Castle between Seven and Eight that Night: That it was reported that there were 24 French Engineers along with the said Baggage, &c. and that Glengyle, with 150 Men and seven Pieces of Cannon that had been mounted on the Highlanders Battery at Allowa, was gone to take Possession of the Castle of Down, five Miles beyond Stirling, and that General Blakeney was preparing to attack them there.

Whitehall, November 9.

By an Express just arrived from the North there is an Account, that a Quarter-master from the Rebel Army was come the 5th Instant to Moffat, to demand Quarters to be ready that Evening for 2000 Foot and 600 Horse.

Dublin, October 31.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Birth-Day, the Great Guns were fired at his Majesty's Park the Phoenix, and answer'd by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, who were drawn out upon Oxmantown Green:

At Noon there was a numerous Concourse of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes, who appear'd in great Splendour to compliment his Excellency the Lord-Lieutenant, before whom an Ode, set to Musick, was performed. In the Evening a Play was given by his Excellency to the Ladies: At Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of Joy, throughout the City; and at the Castle the Ball and the several Entertainments were extremely regular and magnificent; and the Decorations of the Ball and Supper-Rooms in a new and elegant Taste; But what added greatly to the Satisfaction of the Company was, that the Dress of her Excellency the Countess of Chesterfield, which was particularly rich and beautiful, was entirely of the Manufacture of this Kingdom.

Notice is hereby given to the Petty Officers and Seamen who were on board his Majesty's Ship Solebay, at the Time of the Capture of the Spanish Register Ship the Concordia, that they may receive their respective Shares of the second Payment of the said Prize (being for their Share of the register'd Money) at Mrs. Richard Bowery's House in Chequer-Yard without Aldgate, on Wednesday the 20th of November Instant, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon; and that thence forward, the Shares that shall not then have been paid, may be received at the same Place, the second Wednesday in every succeeding Month; and that proper Notice will be given in this Paper of the Time when the next Payment will be made.
