THE following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, Professors and Masters of the University of Glasgow, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Montrose, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viscount Harcourt, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the University of Glasgow.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, Professors and Masters of the University of Glasgow, joyfully embrace every Occasion of expressing our unfeigned Attachment to your sacred Person, Family and Government; and particularly beg Leave, in this critical Conjunction, tho' exposed to the Rage of our Enemies, to testify our Indignation, that upon your Majesty's safe and happy Return to your British Dominions, agreeably to the ardent Wishes of all your faithful Subjects, you found this Part of the Kingdom inflamed with an unnatural and arrogant Rebellion, in Support of the groundless Claims of a Popish Pretender; Claims plainly everfive of all Law and Liberty, as well as of our holy Protestant Religion.

The deep Sense we have of the many invaluable Blessings all your Subjects have enjoyed under a Succession of Protestant Princes, and particularly under your Majesty's just and merciful Government, by which all the Rights of your People, Civil and Religious, are secured, and even your professed Enemies connived at, tho' liable to the Penalties of Laws, together with the lively Impressions we have of the Miseries our Ancestors endured under Popish Princes, raise in us the utmost Abhorrence of the abandon'd Wickedness and vile Ingratitude, or the miserable Delusion of those of our Fellow-Subjects, who would again surrender every Thing dear to us as Men or Christians, to arbitrary Power and a perfidious merciless Superstition. But we trust that the same benign Providence, which by the glorious Revolution under King William, of immortal Memory, so surprizingly delivered these Nations from those Plagues, and opened a Way for your illustrious House to the Throne of these Realms, will defeat the Designs of our Enemies at Home and Abroad, continue to us the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, and transmit the same to latest Posterity, under Protestant Princes of your Royal Blood.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as our undisguised Principles lead us to all Fidelity to your Majesty, it shall always be our zealous Care to instil the same into the Youth committed to our Instruction.

We are, May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most devoted Subjects.

The following Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Bangor, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Bangor, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, the Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Church and Diocese of Bangor.

May it please your Majesty,
TO allow us, with the rest of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, to express our utter Detestation of a most unnatural unnatural Rebellion raised in these Kingdoms against your sacred Person and Government.

That the open and declared Enemies of this Country should endeavour to interrupt your Royal Care for the Prosperity of it, and for the general Liberties of Europe, is no more than what in Time of War must be expected: That bigotted Papists, under the Influence of the Courts of France and Spain, should desire to bereave us of the free Exercise of our Religion, is no more than agreeable to the corrupted Principles of the Church of Rome: But that any Protestants, any Subjects of Great Britain, who have so many Years been blessed with the free Enjoyment of their Religion, their Liberty and Estates, under the mild and just Administration of Government in the Hands of your Majesty and your Royal Father, should again think of lifting up their Arms in Favour of a popish, abjur'd Pretender, is what nothing, but the highest Degree of Infatuation or Perfidy can account for; an Undertaking, which none but the most Profligate can Espouse, and the most abandon'd Encourage or Foment. We disdain their Principles, and abhor their Practice. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our warmest Zeal for your Service, and that we shall be ready, in the most effectual Ways, to exert our utmost Powers in Defence of our happy Constitution in Church and State, the Security of which we look upon as inseparable from the Continuance of the Crown in your Royal Family.

May the great God of Heaven ward off the Blow now levell'd against it! May he grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign over a Protestant and Free People; and raise up Princes of your Royal House to be the Blessings of these Kingdoms to our latest Posterity!

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Ludlow, in the County of Salop, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. Richard Herbert, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Harcourt, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses and Commonalty of the Borough of Ludlow, in the County of Salop, do most sincerely congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions.

We beg Leave to declare our just Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion in the North, begun and carried on with an avow'd Intention of fixing upon your Majesty's Throne a popish Pretender, whom we have solemnly abjured.

The Insurrection of a Body of desperate Highlanders, would not have spread this universal Alarm, were it not undoubtedly the Step taken to introduce the Execution of the general Plan, form'd by the united Councils of France and Spain, for the Destruction of the People of England: And for this plain Reason, that the People of England, truly sensible of the invaluable Blessings of Liberty, have long been the Guardians and Assertors of the Liberties of Europe, against the ambitious Views of those Crowns.

In Times so full of Danger, when we are expos'd to the Calamities of a Foreign War, disturb'd with Rebellious Insurrections at Home, and threaten'd with powerful Invasions from Abroad; Assurances however sincere, and mere Words, are inadequate to the dreadful Mischiefs we have to fear: We have therefore most solemnly engaged and bound ourselves (together with those your Majesty's faithful Subjects of this County, who have associated themselves) in the Band of one firm and loyal Society, to stand by and assist each other, in the Support and Defence of your Majesty's Person, Government and Family; on the Preservation of which depend our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

May the Almighty Hand of Providence defend and keep your Majesty, and give you the Victory over all your Enemies.

Given under our Hands, and the common Seal of the said Borough, on Monday the Twenty-eighth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty five.

The following Address of the Portreve, Bailiff, Officers, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Edward Turner, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreve, Bailiff, Officers, and principal Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Great Bedwin, in the County of Wilts, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe and seasonable Arrival in this Kingdom, and to assure your Majesty of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty and your Government vernment against all Invaders whatsoever, to the utmost of our Power.

We are much concern'd to find such a dangerous Rebellion stirred up, which we hope in God will soon be defeated, and as soon as that happy Time shall come, we trust that your Majesty in your great Wisdom, with the Advice of your Parliament, will take such Measures as may secure our happy Constitution, and transmit those Liberties we still enjoy to our latest Posterity.

Given under our Hands the first Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Clergy, Gentlemen, and others of the Borough of Tregoney, in the County of Cornwall, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Falmouth, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, Clergy, Gentlemen, and others of the Borough of Tregoney, in the County of Cornwall.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to express our Zeal for your Majesty, and our Indignation against your Enemies, when an unnatural Rebellion is actually carried on by a desperate Body of traitorous Persons in Arms, headed by the Son of an abjured Roman Catholick Pretender, and supported by an ambitious Tyrant, ruling a Nation impoverish'd by his despotick Power.

We think it our Duty to assure your Majesty of our utmost Abhorrence of their Persons and Actions; and that we look on our Interests, both Spiritual and Temporal, as necessarily connected with those of your Majesty, and the Settlement and Succession of the Crown of these Realms in your illustrious House; and that we are resolved to defend, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty and your Family, against all Treasons and seditious Attempts, which are, or shall be formed against your Person, and our establish'd Laws; and to support the Limitation and Succession of the Crown in your Protestant Line; and sincerely and vigorously to endeavour to extinguish all Hopes of the aforesaid Pretender, and all other Pretenders, and all their Adherents.

May the great God of Hosts that placed the Crown on your Head guide and direct your Troops! May the Protestant Faith be their Shield! And our ardent and constant Prayers shall be, That Heaven may long continue you to reign over a generous and free People.

We are, may it please your most Gracious Majesty,
Your most affectionate and loyal Subjects.

The following Address and Association of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Salop, having been transmitted by the Right Hon. the Lord Herbert, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address and Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Salop, who have associated ourselves in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in these your British Dominions, where your most gracious Preference was so ardently wish'd, and so highly acceptable, at a Juncture when a horrid and unnatural Rebellion had been raised, and is still carried on in Scotland, against your Majesty's sacred Person and Government, in Favour of a popish Pretender.

Our Duty to God, your Majesty and our Country, calls upon us to express our utmost Abhorrence of this rash and detestable Attempt, to deprive us at once of our Religion, Laws and Liberty; and to assure your Majesty, that we will, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, maintain and defend your Majesty's Royal Person, the Succession of the Crown in your illustrious House, and our present happy Constitution, which has so remarkably flourish'd under your Majesty and your Royal Father. We beg your Majesty will graciously be pleased to accept of this our humble Address, together with the Association hereunto annexed, as a Testimony of our Zeal and Affection for your Majesty's Person, Government and Family.

May the same Providence, which has so signally appeared on many Occasions in Favour of this Nation, still continue to protect your Majesty, and strengthen your Arm in the Defence of a Free and Protestant People.

Signed (by Order of the Associators)
R. Baldwyn, Clerk of the Peace.

The Association.

WHEREAS there is now an horrid and unnatural Rebellion formed and carried on in Scotland, by Papists and other wicked and traitorous Persons, countenanced and supported by the old and inveterate Enemies of our Country, and the Religion, Laws and Liberties thereof, (the Crowns of France and Spain) in order to dethrone his present Majesty King George (the only rightful and lawful King of these Realms) and after having subverted our Religion, Laws and Liberties (which God forbid) to set upon the Throne a popish Pretender, a Dependant and Slave to those tyrannous and corrupted Courts; We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, and every of us, being of Opinion, that in Times so full of Danger and treasonable Practices as these are, an Union of our Hearts and Forces will be most conducing to his Majesty's Safety, and the publick Good of our Country, do voluntarily and willingly bind ourselves, every one of us to the other, jointly and severally, in the Band of one firm and loyal Society; and we and every one of us will stand by and assist each other in the Support and Defence of his Majesty's sacred Person and Government, and will withstand, offend and pursue, as well by Force of Arms as by all other Means, the said popish Pretender and Traytors, and also all Manner of Persons, of what State soever they be, and their Abettors, that shall attempt, act, council or consent to any Thing that shall tend to the Harm of his Majesty King George, or of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, or any of their Issue, or to the Subversion of his Majesty's Government: And we do by this Instrument declare, that no one of us shall, for any Respect of Persons or Causes, or for Fear or Reward, separate ourselves from this Association, or fail in the Prosecution thereof during the said Rebellion. Dated at Shrewsbury the 8th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord 1745, and in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The following Associations of the City and County of Gloucester, and of the County of Gloucester, have been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Richmond, Master of the Horse to his Majesty: Which Associations his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The Association of the City and County of Gloucesters

WHEREAS many wicked and traitorous Persons, headed by the eldest Son of the Pre-tender, and encouraged and supported by the ancient and declared Enemies of this Country, have entred into an horrid and unnatural Rebellion against his Majesty King George, with Intent to subvert our Laws, Religion, and Liberties, and to subject us to a popish Pretender, the Tool of France and Rome: We whose Names are hereunto subscribed, being convinced that a firm Union of Hearts and Forces will most contribute to the Safety of his Majesty's Person and Government, and to the Preservation of the Trade, Freedom and Independency of this Kingdom, do voluntarily and firmly bind ourselves, every one of us the one to the other, jointly and severally, in the Bond of one loyal Society; and do hereby solemnly promise, that with our Lives and Estates, we and every of us will stand by and assist each other in Defence of his Majesty and his Government, and will, as well by Force of Arms, as by all other effectual Means, oppose the said Pretender and his Adherents, and all Persons and their Abettors, who shall attempt, act, council or consent, to any Thing tending to the Harm of his Majesty King George, or any of his Royal Family: And for that Purpose, that we will assemble ourselves as often as Occasion shall require, upon the shortest Notice from the Lord Lieutenant; and in the mean time, will make use of our utmost Endeavours, every one of us in our several Stations, to preserve and promote the Peace, Quiet and Loyalty of this City and County. All which we declare before God and the World we will faithfully and chearfully perform.

Journal from the Court Quarters at Turnau, Nov. 5, N. S.

October 31. THE Left Wing being Yesterday near Turnau, has pursued its March To-day into the Quarters of Cantonment in the Neighbourhood of Liebenau, where Prince Lobcowitz has established his Head Quarters.

Nov. 1. The Quarters of Cantonment were regulated for the Right Wing, it being ordered at the Parole, that we should march the next Day.

In the Afternoon his Highness Prince Charles went to the Camp of Baron Trenk, to see his Regiment exercised. He had formed only one Battalion of about 800 Men, and two Field Pieces at each Wing. They begun by exercising their Arms; after which they fired in Platoons, half and whole Divisions, which was also performed in advancing and in retreating, accompanied with the Fire of the Cannon at each Discharge, the whole in Imitation of the Prussians. The Prince assured the Colonel he was very well satisfied, and one could not expect more from an irregular Troop, form'd into a Regiment but six Months ago.

The 2d, at Seven in the Morning, the Right Wing began to march, and each Regiment went from the Camp directly to the Village appointed for it to canton in, the Court Quarters being at Turnau.

Frankfort, Nov. 11. It is expected that the Congress of Directorial Ministers will be open'd To-morrow, notwithstanding the Absence of those of Austria and Bavaria, who are expected in a little Time.

Frankfort, Nov. 14. The Congress of Directorial Ministers was open'd here on the 12th Instant, by a Proposition, on the Part of the Elector of Mentz, wherein his Highness return'd his Thanks to the several Princes, Directors of the Circles of the Upper-Rhine, Franconia, and Swabia, for sending their Ministers hither upon his Invitation, and exhorted them to take the State of the Empire into their Consideration, and to provide for its Defence and the Support of its Neutrality.

Frankfort, Nov. 14. Marshal Traun has dispatch'd Officers to the several Princes in whose Territories the Austrians must be lodged, to demand Quarters, and to desire that Commissaries may be immediately sent to provide Subsistence for the Troops, and regulate the Prices of the Rations and Forage. M. Palm is gone this Morning to Ratisbon, and will be succeeded here by Baron Ranschwach, as Minister from the Emperor to the Circles. The French are retired from Worms and Spiers, within their own Limits, but nevertheless their Army receives considerable Reinforcements, and 17 or 18000 Men are in March from the Side of the Netherlands for the Moselle and the Saâr.

Copenhagen, Nov. 13, N. S. His Danish Majesty has remitted his Thirds of a Ship which was stranded some time ago upon the Coast of Holstein, and belonged to M. Dingley, a Merchant of the Russia Company. Preparations are making for the Reception of the Court in Town next Tuesday the 16th Instant. The Margrave of Culmbach, Stadholder of Sleswick Holstein, is hourly expected with the Margravine, at Fridericksberg. The trading Fleet from the Baltick sailed for England on the 8th instant, under the Convoy of the Pool, and the Hound Sloop, and had a very fair Wind for passing the Categar.

Copenhagen, Nov. 16, N. S. The Danish Courts continue still in the Country, but every Thing is now ready for their Reception in Town. The Margrave who arrived the 13th Instant at Fridericksberg, went on the same Day to Hirschholm. The Duke of Sunderburg is expected here very soon.

Dresden, Nov. 14, N. S. Lieutenant General Grun arrived here the 12th, and proposes to return To-night to his Corps now quartered on the Territories belonging to the Counts of Reussen, but dependant on the Kingdom of Bohemia, so that the said Detachment seems as yet not to have touched the Saxon Dominion. Count Rutowski retarded his Return to Euleberg to confer with the said Austrian General.

Berlin, Nov. 16. On the 14th Instant, the Regiment of Wurtemberg marched from hence for Magdeburg, whither all the Regiments that have been encamped near Halle, are going, in order to form an Army of 24000 Men upon the Saxon Frontiers there. The Day before Yesterday Ten Pieces of Cannon, 12 Pounders and Six 24 Pounders, were embarked and sent down the Elbe to the said Town; as was also a large Boat loaded with Gunpowder. This Morning the Reigning Prince of Anhalt retaking the Command of that Army, set out for Magdeburg. The Regiment of Bredow re-entred Yesterday to keep Garrison here. From Silesia we hear, that on the 4th Instant, Prince Leopold of Dessau, upon Advice that the Austrian Troops intended to penetrate through Upper Lusatia into Silesia, and had posted themselves selves for that Purpose at Friedland, order'd the whole Army to march towards Hirsberg, and the adjacent Places, to prevent the Execution of that Design; General du Moulin only being left at Landshut and Schweidnitz with nine Battalions, five Squadrons of Rochau, and ten Squadrons Hussars of Ruesli. As the King of Prussia proposes to head his Army again, so his Majesty, the Prince of Prussia, Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and all the Generals who have been here, set out very early this Morning for Silesia. General Buddenbrock is left behind, as is Marshal Schmettau, and Margrave Charles, who continues to be consumptive. The Corps under Colonel Franquini is said to have been attacked near Libzu in Silesia, and to be dispersed.

Westminster, November 14.

The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to,

An Act to raise the Militia of that Part of Great Britain called England, altho' the Month's Pay, formerly advanced, hath not yet been repaid; and to raise such Part of the said Militia, as shall be judged most proper, ready, and convenient.

Whitehall, November 18.

Letters from Marshal Wade of the 15th Instant mention, that upon the News received by him of the Resolution of the Rebels to return from Brampton, in order to make an Attempt upon Carlisle, it had been determined, in a Council of War held the same Day thereupon, to march on Saturday Morning the 16th Instant, by Hexham towards Carlisle.

Letters of the 14th Instant from Penrith mention, that it was affirmed by great Numbers of Persons who were come thither from the Villages on the South and West Sides of Carlisle, that the whole Rebel Army were endeavouring to surround that City. That they shot at every Body that fled from them, and that one Person had been killed, and that they were actually putting the Country under Military Execution.

That they seized all able bodied Men, Horses and Carriages, and declared that they would force them to carry their Ladders to the Walls of Carlisle. That the Cannon of Carlisle were firing that Morning very briskly; that they had taken the four Light Horsemen upon their Return from Newcastle, who had been sent to conduct the Quarter Master of the Rebels taken Prisoner near Carlisle, to Marshal Wade. Letters of the same Date from Penrith at Nine o'Clock at Night mention, that the Rebels had approached so near Carlisle, that the Garrison had thrown Granadoes at them, and that the Rebels had broke Ground about 300 Yards from the Cittadel, and at Spring Garden, near the Horse Race Ground; and that they had been obliged to fetch Provisions as far as Heckett, about five Miles from Carlisle.

Whitehall, November 18.

Letters dated the 15th of November from Penrith, give an Account, that a Person sent from the Governor of Carlisle to Marshal Wade, reported, that it was agreed that the Town should be delivered up to the Rebels, but did not know the Conditions. The Governor was determined to defend the Castle to the last Extremity, and had prepared every Thing for that Purpose. It was supposed that he will be able to hold out Eight Days.

Whitehall, November 18.

That the Magistrates had quartered the Foot and Part of the Horse in that City. That the Rebels in the Shire of Perth were augmented to 700. Lieutenant General Handasyd had left Brigadier Fleming to command at Berwick.
