St. James's, December 3:

THE following Address of the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Ely, having been transmitted by the Reverend Dr. Allix, Dean of Ely, to His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

† May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Prebendaries of your Cathedral Church of Ely, (now assembled at our General Chapter) beg leave to express our just Indignation and Resentment at the unnatural Rebellion now carrying on in Favour of a Popish Pretender to your Majesty's Imperial Crown of these Realms, countenanced and supported by France and Spain, with an Intent to dethrone your sacred Person, and thereby deprive us of all that is dear and valuable to us as a Protestant and free People.

We are too sensible of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most mild and gentle Administration, not to be desirous of taking all Opportunities to express our Gratitude for them, and should think ourselves inexcusable, if we did not renew the solemn and cheerful Assurances we have given of our faithful and true Allegiance, at a Time when many of your Subjects, insensible of their Happiness, and regardless of their Oaths, are engaged in an unnatural Rebellion against your Majesty's Person and Government.

As we ourselves are thoroughly convinced that you, Sir, have an indisputable Right to the Crown of these Realms, and that we are engaged by all the strongest Ties of Interest as well as Duty to support and maintain it; so will we use our utmost Endeavours to confirm and establish the same Sentiments in all those who are under our Care and Inspection; and, as much as in us lies, to discourage all Attempts that may be made by wicked and designing Men to seduce them at once from their Loyalty and their Happiness.

May the Great God, who stilleth the Raging of the Sea and the Madness of the People, bless and direct your Majesty's Councils and Arms, and enable you to chastise the Insolence of your Rebellious Subjects, to confound the Devices of all your secret Enemies, and to humble the Pride and curb the Ambition of your open and inveterate Ones; and may that same good Providence, which has hitherto watched over and preserved your sacred Person, long continue your Majesty to be the Glory and Happiness of this Nation, and preserve to your Illustrious Family the uninterrupted Succession to the Crown of those Realms thro' all future Generations.

Given under our Common Seal this 25th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1745.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Murray, having been transmitted to the most Honourable the Marquess of Tweeddale, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Murray, animated with unfeigned Loyalty, humbly beg Leave to declare, in the strongest Manner, the just Indignation and Abhorrence we have of the unnatural Rebellion at this Time carried on against your Majesty's Person and Government, in Favours of an abjurd and Popish Pretender. This wicked and daring daring Attempt must appear to all the true Lovers of the Protestant Religion and of the Liberties of Britain, the most base and ungrateful; a Rebellion big with every Evil which can undo a free Protestant People, aggravated with every Circumstance which can excite the utmost Detestation in the Breasts of true Protestants and Britons; a Rebellion, which should it prove successful (which God forbid) must have a manifest Tendency to destroy the Protestant Interest, and sacrifice the Religion, Freedom and Happiness of Britain, to the enslaving and pernicious Views of our natural and implacable Enemies.

With Pleasure we reflect, that very few of the People who hold Communion with us, have join'd with these Enemies of your Majesty's Crown and Government; And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that no Fear, either of open Violence, or of secret wicked Attempts, shall, through the Blessing of God, be able to divert us from an unshaken Loyalty to your Majesty, and a firm Attachment to our happy Constitution in Church and State; and that we shall constantly endeavour, as well by our own Example, as by our Labours with our People, to recommend and enforce upon all Occasions, and especially at this Time, the most zealous Loyalty and Regard to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government.

We earnestly pray and hope, that the same good Providence which has often broken the Measures, and baffled the Attempts of the Enemies of your Majesty's Family and Government, and of the Protestant Succession in your illustrious House, will likewise at this Time direct your Councils, and crown your Arms with Success against them.

That a gracious God may long preserve your Majesty for the Protection of this Church, and the Comfort of all other Protestant Churches; and that he may transmit in your August and Royal House to latest Posterity, the many great and invaluable Blessings of your Majesty's happy Reign, is the hearty Wish and sincere Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful, most dutiful, most obedient and most humble Subjects.

Sign'd in our Presence, in our Name, and by our Appointment, by Elgin, Oct. 1 Alexander Chalmers, Moderator.

The following Association of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Surry, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Onslow, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, &c. being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

And his Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Peter Thompson, Esq; High Sheriff of the said County.

WHEREAS, in Aid of our inveterate Enemies, and expecting Succour from them, a Part of his Majesty's Subjects have most traiterously levied War against him, intending to set a popish Pretender upon the Throne, and thereby to subvert the Religion, Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom; We the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and others of the County of Surry, do by this Instrument of Association oblige ourselves, jointly and severally, to assist his Majesty, and each other, in Defence of his Person and Government, and in Maintenance of our happy Constitution in Church and State; and to that End, by Force of Arms and otherwise, to resist, oppose and pursue the said popish Pretender and his Adherents, not doubting, but that the same Zeal which inspired our Ancestors to contend for Religious and Civil Freedom, will excite in us an English Resolution to preserve it; and that we shall be enabled, by the Blessing of God, in Conjunction with the rest of his Majesty's faithful Subjects, to assert and secure the inseparable Interests of him and his People.

Done at Kingston upon Thames, in the said County, this Ninth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and forty five, and in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of our most gracious Sovereign King George the Second.

The following Association of the Mayor and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Jacob Bouverie, their Recorder and Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The Association of the Mayor and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, enter'd into at the Common Council Chamber in the said City, the 11th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord • 1745.

WE the Mayor and Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of the City of New Sarum, at the Common Council Chamber assembled, being moved with a just Abhorrence of the present sent wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which has been fomented and carried on by a great Number of Papists and other traitorous Persons, countenanced and supported by the Courts of Rome, Paris, and Madrid, in Favour of a popish and abjur'd Pretender, to the great Hazard of his Majesty's Royal Person, and of our Religion, Laws and Liberties: And being filled with a due Sense of his Majesty's paternal Care and Regard for the Welfare and Prosperity of his People, and the Preservation of our present happy Establishment in Church and State, do heartily, sincerely, and solemnly promise, and engage to unite, associate, and stand by one another, and to assist each other, to the utmost of our Power, in Defence of his Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, and the Protestant Succession in his Royal House, against the Pretender and all his Adherents.

And in Testimony of our Sincerity, and Confirmation of this our necessary Resolution, we have already enter'd into a Subscription, in order to raise a Body of Men to be incorporated into his Majesty's Forces, for the better maintaining the publick Tranquillity, and the more speedy Extinguishing the Rebellion, if it shall please his Majesty to approve of our farther Proceedings therein.

The following Association of the Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Bampton in the County of Devon, and Parishes adjacent, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Orford, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To his most sacred Majesty George the Second,
King of Great Britain, France and Ireland,
&c.

WE your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Bampton, in the County of Devon, and Parishes adjacent, taking into Consideration the imminent Dangers which your Majesty's Person and Kingdoms, and our Religion, Liberties and Properties are exposed to from the present unnatural Rebellion in the Northern Parts of this Island, and the Probability of a Foreign Invasion in the Support of it; in order to prevent, as far as in us lies, the mischievous Consequences which must inevitably from thence ensue, unless seasonably prevented, do hereby severally promise and agree to support, maintain and defend your Majesty's Person and undoubted Right to the Crown of these Kingdoms, and our present happy Constitution as by Law establish'd, against all traitorous, and treasonable Attempts whatsoever, to the utmost of our Power; and for that Purpose to raise and pay the Number of Men affixed to our several and respective Names; And we humbly beseech your Majesty to impower us so to do, and to appoint and supply us with proper Officers, Arms and Accoutrements for effecting the same.

Dated at Bampton the Sixth of November, 1745.

The following Association of the Town and Parish of Cullompton in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Orford, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Clergy, Gentlemen, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Cullompton, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the following Association, as our bounden Duty and Affection to your Majesty's Royal Person, and happy Government in Church and State.

We the Clergy, Gentlemen, Tradesmen, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Parish of Cullompton, being truly sensible of the great Blessings we enjoy under the auspicious Reign of his present Majesty, and having the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of the present wicked and unnatural Rebellion begun in Scotland, and threaten'd to be backed by an Invasion from Abroad, by the antient and inveterate Enemies of our Civil and Religious Rights, in Favour of a popish Pretender, educated in the Religion and Politicks of a French and Romish Court and Church, do hereby, in this critical Con-juncture, when all that is dear to us, either as Englishmen or Protestants, is at Stake, most solemnly, heartily and sincerely associate, unite, and bind ourselves jointly and to each other, and declare, that we will, at all Times, to the utmost of our several Powers, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, stand by, support and defend his Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in his Majesty's Family, against the present, or any future Attempts which may be made against it by Foreign or Domestick Enemies; and that we will use our utmost Endeavours, without Fear, Favour or Regard to any Person whatsoever, to discover and bring to their deserved Punishment, all (if such there should be amongst us, which God forbid!) who shall either openly carry carry on, encourage or abett any Practices or Designs destructive to our present most happy Establishment, under his Majesty King George.

And we mutually promise and engage to each other, that we will readily at all Times meet together, and enter into such proper and vigorous Measures, personally at our own Expence, for the carrying these our Resolutions into Execution, as shall Evidence to all the World, that our Hearts accompany our Words in this Association, and that we are equally affected with our present common Danger, and firmly determined to act on this important Occasion as becomes his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Association of the Gentlemen of the King's County in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

WE whose Names are hereunto subscribed, Gentlemen of the King's County, in his Majesty's loyal Kingdom of Ireland, being deeply affected with the most grateful Sense of the many Blessings we have enjoy'd under the just and gracious Government of his most sacred Majesty King George the Second; and being filled with the highest Detestation of the daring and execrable Attempts now carrying on in the Northern Parts of Great Britain, to subvert the Laws and Liberties of these so long free and happy Nations, and substitute in their Place the very worst of Slavery, Slavery under a popish Pretender, do associate ourselves in the most solemn Manner, and most sincerely promise and engage to stand by and support each other with our Lives and Fortunes, Power and Influence, in Defence of our most sacred Sovereign King George, his Government, and the Succession of the Royal House of Hanover, on which, under God, our Religion, happy Constitution and Liberty depend.

The following Address of the Sovereign, Burgeses, Clergy, Freemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale, having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sovereign, Burgeses, Clergy, Freemen, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Kinsale.

May it please your Majesty,

WE Sir, your most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgeses, Clergy, Freemen, and other principal Inhabitants of your Town of Kinsale, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to England.

We are fond at this Time to convince your Majesty of our Affection and unshaken Fidelity to your Royal Person and Government, when Traitors have dared to rebel against both, in the Cause of an abjur'd, popish Pretender.

So bold, so iniquitous an Attempt, must rouse up all who have either their King, their Country, or Religion at Heart, in Defence of these inestimable Blessings, which, as they are inseparably united, must stand or fall together.

We for our Parts are too sensible of our present Happiness under your Majesty's truly just and mild Administration, to endure a Thought of exchanging it for certain Misery, the unavoidable Consequence of Tyranny and Superstition.

And as we are engaged to your Majesty by all the Considerations of Duty, Interest and Affection, and by every Thing that is dear and valuable to us and our Posterity, so we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that it is our fixed, determined and unalterable Resolution to stand by and support your Majesty with our whole Power, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, against all your Majesty's Enemies.

Berlin, Dec. 4, N. S. The Day before Yesterday, in the Morning, a Courier arrived from the reigning Prince of Anhalt, and brought Advice, that on the 30th past the Prussians had made themselves Masters of Leipzig. It is generally assured, that the Saxon Army in those Parts, which consisted only of 10,000 Men, (the rest, and the Corps under General Grune having marched off towards Dresden) did not think proper to make any Resistance against a superior Enemy, and to expose by it the Suburbs of Leipzig and the Town itself to be plundered. That a Regiment under General Sibilski, covered the Retreat in a Redoubt, where it made a very gallant Defence, in which it is said the General was mortally wounded; and that afterwards it joined the said Corps without almost any Loss on its Side. The Prince of Anhalt designed to proceed as Yesterday on his March towards Dresden, whither his Prussian Majesty's Army is likewise moving; and as the Saxons have assembled all their Force in and about Dresden, den, it is thought we shall soon hear the News of a bloody Battle. They pretend here to have certain Advice, that his Polish Majesty and all the Royal Family have left Dresden and are gone to Prague, from whence it is said they are to repair to Warsaw, and as some think, to Vienna. His Prussian Majesty was expected in Town for some Days past; his Apartments having been cleaned and aired, and every Thing kept in Readiness to represent the new Opera upon the 6th Instant, but as yet his Majesty is not arrived here. The Princess of Zerbst returned on the 30th past to her Residence. The King of Prussia's Army is said to be at Raadbergat, six German Miles from Dresden.

Dresden, Dec. 4, N. S. Orders came Yesterday from the Prussians to a Village near Pollnitz, about a German Mile from hence, to prepare for the coming of 6000 Men, and to mend the Roads for the Passing of Artillery; but at Twelve o'Clock Yesterday, none but small Parties were advanced on this Side Baudissen. Prince Anhalt has sent a large Detachment to Eulenburg and another to Wurtzen. General Renard arrives To-Day at Willsdorff, within two short German Miles of this Capital, and there all the Saxons and the Corps under General Grune will be united, but cantoned till the Prussians come nearer. This Town is put in a State not to be taken without Cannon, or by Surprise.

November 30.

The following is the Capitulation of Leipzig.

1. THE Keys of the City shall be deliver'd up.
2. The Gates shall be taken Possession of.
3. To-morrow Troops shall be quarter'd in the Town.
4. From hence forward all Revenues shall be for the King of Prussia.
5. All Civil Officers shall continue unmolested in their Posts, so long as they are quiet. Also
6. Shall perform their former Duties, till his Prussian Majesty orders otherwise.
7. But in Case the Castle of Pleissenburg fire a single Gun, the Articles of Capitulation shall be of no Force.

Willemstadt, Dec. 4. On Sunday Morning, the 28th past, began the Embarkation of the British Troops, which would have been by this Time finished, if the Weather had not prevented it. On Wednesday last there was such a violent Gale of Wind, that it drove the Ships from the Heads, as the Troops were embarking; every Ship in the Fleet drove. The Mermaid, which has 26 Horses on Board, is on Shore at high Water-Mark, as are the Jacob and Robert and Loyalty; and the Water was so high, that if there is not another very extraordinary high Tide, they cannot get off without being dug out. All possible Means are now taking to get them off, and small Vessels are order'd along Side the Mermaid, to take out the Horses. The Stage, which was made at the Head for Embarking, was all tore up by the Tide, and most of it washed away; but Carpenters were employ'd on Thursday and Yesterday Morning in Repairing it, and the Embarkation began again about Noon Yesterday, and it is hoped will be compleated To-morrow Noon.

Hague, Dec. 10, N. S. The Letters from France come in this Day, confirm the News of the late Duke of Ormond's Death at Avignon, and of M. Orry's Demission from the Charge of Comptroller General. They also take Notice of a second Inundation which reached from Lyons to Marseilles, occasioned by the overflowing of the Rivers, Isere, Durance, and the Rhone, which has done infinite Damage.

Whitehall, December 11.

By Letters from Newcastle of the 28th past there is Advice, that Captain Pittman, Commander of his Majesty's Sloop the Saltash, who was arriv'd there from Inverness, having seen a large Ship off Buccaness on Tuesday last, had come so near her, that he fired a Broadside at her, and drove her amongst the Rocks at Peterhead, but could not follow her, the Wind blowing very hard. That he had next Morning spoke with a Fishing Boat with four Men, who had been on board the said Ship, who told him that she had four Companies of Lord John Drummond's Regiment on board, all dress'd in Red, and spoke English; and that nine Sail more, all from France, with Soldiers, landed at Stonehije and Montrose upon the 2d.

Whitehall, December 2.

Letters from Inverness of the 14th of November bring Advice, that Lord Loudoun, having with him a considerable Force, consisting of Part of his own Regiment, and several of the Monro's, Lord Sutherland's, Mr Grant's, and Lord Rea's People, and 400 of the Mackleods from the Isle of Sky, and having received the Arms and Money brought by his Majesty's Sloop the Saltash, was preparing to set out to quell the Commotions in that Neighbourhood, to supply the Garrisons with such Necessaries as they might have Occasion for, and to prevent Lord Lewis Gordon, who was lately come from the North, from giving any further Disturbance. The said Letters add, that besides the Gentlemen above-named, the greatest Zeal had been shew'd for the Support of his Majesty's Government by the Lord Fortrose and Sir Alexander Macdonald.

Whitehall, December 1.

By Advices from Lancashire of the 29th the main Body of the Rebels lay at Wigan and Leigh upon the 28th. That Afternoon a Party of them came into Manchester, beat up for Volunteers for the Pretender, insisted several Papists and Nonjurors, and offer'd five Guineas a Man to any that would enter; Those who took the Money had white Cookades given them, and march'd about the Town with the Drum and the Serjeant. The Party above order'd Quarters to be prepared for 10,000 Men, who were to come thither the next Day. Upon the 29th the main Body moved towards Manchester. A Party of them arriv'd there at Ten in the Morning, examined the best Houses, and fix'd upon upon one for the Pretender's Son's Quarters. By their Order the Bellman went round the Town to give Notice to all Persons belonging to the Excise, Innkeepers, &c. forthwith to appear, to bring their last Acquittances and Rolls, and all the ready Cash they had in their Hands belonging to the Government, upon Pain of military Execution. About Two in the Afternoon, another Party arrived there with the Pretender's Son, who marched on Foot in a Highland Dress, surrounded by a Body of Highlanders, and was proclaimed. The Bellman went round the Town again to order the Houses to be illuminated. That Night some of them gave out that their Route was for Chester, and others reported that they should march to Knotsford, through Middlewich and Nantwich into Wales. The three Battalions of Guards which went last from hence, notwithstanding the excessive Badness of the Roads, were expected at Litchfield upon the 30th, or this Day at farthest.

Whitehall, December 2.

By Advices from Lancashire of the 30th past, the whole Body of the Rebels was in and about Manchester that Day, and their Artillery was expected. A Report prevailed strongly there, as if they would endeavour to slip through Derbyshire or Nottinghamshire, and to avoid the Duke of Cumberland's Army. The first Battalion of Guards arrived at Litchfield that Morning, without losing a Man, either by Sickness or any other Accident, and the two other Battalions were expected there the next Day. Handasyd's Regiment was to be at Tamworth the same Day. The Duke of Bedford's Regiment marched into Litchfield, Part on the 29th at Night, and Part the next Morning. Letters from Leeke in Staffordshire of the 30th take Notice, that they had not then heard of any advanced Parties of the Rebels being got on this Side Manchester.

Whitehall, December 3.

There are Letters received to Day, which mention that the main Body of the Rebel Army marched from Manchester on Sunday Morning last. That one Part of them had taken the Road to Stockport, and the other that to Knotsford; but that it was supposed they would join and go altogether the latter Road.

Whitehall, December 1.

An Express is arrived from Marshal Wade, with Letters of the 28th from Persbridge, where his Army was then encamped, with Advice, that he was upon his March through Yorkshire into Lancashire, and would be on Tuesday the 3d Instant at Wetherby.

Whitehall, December 11.

This Morning arrived in the River of Thames from Wylamstadt, the two remaining Troops of Lieutenant General Sir John Ligonier's Regiment of Horse, Lieutenant General Hawley's, and the Remains of Lieutenant General Sir Robert Rich's Regiment of Dragoons.

Whitehall, December 3.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint Edward Braddock, Esq; to be Lieutenant Colonel to the Second Regiment of Foot Guards;

Maurice Bockland, Esq; to be first Major to the said Regiment; And Charles Russell, Esq; to be second Major to the said Regiment.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Hon. James Earl of Lauderdale, to be Lieutenant Colonel to Lieutenant General Handasyd's Regiment of Foot.
