

Victualling-Office, Jan. 19, 1745.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, to such Persons as are possess'd of Bills carrying Interest, register'd in the Months of May and June last, and payable on the Course of the Victualling, that they may, on bringing the said Bills to the Victualling Office, have the Interest that may be due thereon added to the Principal, and the Bills assigned: And on carrying the same to the Treasurer of the Navy in Broad-street, on or before the 3d of February now next ensuing, have Tallies and Orders on the Land Tax 1746, carrying Interest at the Rate of Four per Cent. per Annum, to the Amount and in Discharge of what shall be due on their said Bills respectively.

Whereas the private Ship of War called the Ruby, (Robert Saunders. Commander) did in or about the Months of July and August, 1744. take and seize three French Vessels, called Le St. Francois de Paule, (Antoine Martin, Master,) Le Postillon de Salonique, (Antoine Fougasse, Master) and Le St. Laurent, (Jean Jacques Maffer, Master) the first of which was carried into Malta, the second into Rhodes, and the third into Zant. And whereas the said three French Vessels, together with the several Goods, Wares and Merchandizes, therein laden, and therewith taken and seized, were on the sixth Day of December, 1744, condemn'd in the High Court of Admiralty of England as the Ships and Goods of Enemies, and as good and lawful Prize to the Captors: Now this is to give Notice to all and every the Officers and Mariners then on board, and in the Service of the said private Ship of War the Ruby, Robert Saunders Commander, that the Owners thereof, do intend to make a Distribution of the Produce of the said Prizes, according to the Terms of the Agreement entered into by the said Officers and Mariners, and that the said Owners will meet at the Cross Keys in Cornhill, on Wednesday the 26th Day of February next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, in order to pay to the said Officers and Mariners of the said private Ship of War the Ruby, Robert Saunders, Commander, their several and respective Shares and Proportions of the said French Prizes; at which Time and Place they are desired to attend in order to receive the same.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of his Majesty's Ship Sapphire, who were on board at the taking a French Prize call'd La Talante, that they may receive their several Shares of the said Prize, on Wednesday the 5th Day of February next, at the Baptist Head Tavern, the Corner of Aldermanbury; and that the Shares which are not then demanded, may be received at the same Place the first Wednesday in every Month till they are all paid.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of the Saltash and Warren Galley Privateers, Captain Christopher and John Huddy, who were present at the retaking of the Ship Grand Duke, and the taking of the St. Jaques, and are by the Articles entitled to Prize Money, that they may receive a further Dividend on their Shares in the said Prizes, on Wednesday the 29th Instant, from Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon till Two, at the King's Arms Tavern in Lombard-street, and so to continue every last Wednesday in the Month, at the same Place, from Ten to Twelve in the Forenoon, till the Whole be paid.

Whereas the Saltash Privateer lately retook the Ship St. Joseph, ——— Emmett, Master, bound from Oporto to London, and brought her into Falmouth; and it appearing that the Cargo on board may suffer great Damages by laying in the said Port of Falmouth, Part being new Wines and subject to fret, and other Part Fruit liable to rot, Application hath been made to the Judge of the Admiralty, for Leave to bring her to London, and a Commission hath been decreed accordingly. This therefore is to acquaint the Owners, and all others who are concerned herein, that the said Ship will be brought round forthwith. For further Particulars apply to Mr. Banks, Merchant, in Ironmonger Lane.

South-Sea-House, London, Jan. 23, 1745.

At a General Court of the South Sea Company held this Day, the following Question was put, viz.

That this Court doth agree, That the Dividend on the Trading Capital Stock, for the Half Year ended at Christmas last, be One and three Quarters per Cent.

And the said Question being carried by the Hands, a Ballot was demanded for determining the same; which Ballot was agreed to be taken on Tuesday the 28th Instant, at the said Company's House in Threadneedle-street.

The Court of Directors do therefore give Notice, that the said Ballot will be taken on the said Day, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning, and Five in the Afternoon, when the same will be closed.

The Court of Directors of the Governour and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Wednesday next the 29th Instant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, upon special Affairs.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.
