Whitehall, April 29.

THIS Day an Express arrived from Edinburgh, with the following Advices.

Edinburgh, April 26. The Victory obtained over the Rebels by his Royal Highness the Duke, appears every Day to be more and more compleat and decisive.

Thursday Morning about Three of the Clock, being the Day after the Battle, the Pretender's Son, with Sheridan and Sullivan, and no other Attendants or Servants, was seen passing Fort Augustus in his Way to Glengary. Fort Augustus is burnt and blown up, and there is neither Garrison nor Provisions there.

On Saturday the 19th, Lord Perth, and his Brother called Lord John Drummond, were at Garricmore, within 12 Miles of Fort Augustus, on their Way to Lochabar, attended only by their Servants. The latter order'd the French Horse of Fitz James's Regiment, who had followed the Pretender's Son and him out of the Battle, to return to Inverness, and surrender themselves Prisoners: And the general and last Order given by the Rebel Officers to their Men, was to shift for themselves.

The Macphersons were not at the Battle, but were that Day on their March to Inverness, and upon meeting the Rebels running away from the Action, they returned to their own Country.

Lord Elcho was at the Battle, and went off with the Pretender's Son, but afterwards they separated.

Orders are given along the Coast to prevent any of the Rebels from making their Escape by Sea.

The Illuminations and publick Rejoicing here, on Occasion of his Royal Highness's Victory, exceeded all that were ever seen in these Parts.

Venice, April 20, N. S. The continual hard Rains which have fallen lately, have probably retarded both the Operations of the Campaign, and our receiving Information from the Armies. A Report prevails, that the Spaniards have begun to withdraw their Cannon from Placentia, and that they are preparing to retreat themselves by Stradella towards the Genoese State; but as yet there is no authentick Confirmation of it.

Assurance Office, Serjeants Inn, April 26, 1746.

A General Quarterly Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance Office, will be held at their House in Serjeants-Inn, Fleet street, on Thursday the First of May next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, for the Election of Directors for the Year ensuing.
