AT the Court at St. Kensington, the 28th Day of May, 1746.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq; Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, was, by his Majesty's Command, sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Whereas there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Dr. Henry Plumptre, President of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Physick in London, setting forth, that the said President and College have, with great Care, Pains and Industry, revised, corrected and reformed a Book by them formerly published, intituled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, prescribing and directing the Manner of preparing all Sorts of Medicines therein contained, together with the true Weights and Measures by which they ought to be made: Which Book is now perfected, and ready to be published, and is made more extensive and beneficial to the Publick than the former, and, it is conceived, will contribute to the Good of his Majesty's Subjects, by preventing all Deceits, Differences and Incertainties in the making or compounding of Medicines, if, for the Future, the Manner and Forms prescribed therein, should be practised by Apothecaries and others in their Compositions of Medicines, &c. The Memorialist therefore most humbly prays, that his Majesty will be graciously pleased to enforce the Observance thereof in such a Manner as to his Majesty shall seem meet: — His Majesty this Day took the said Memorial into his Royal Consideration, and being desirous to provide in all Cases for the common Good of his People, and being persuaded that the Establishing the general Use of the said Book may tend to the Prevention of such Deceits in the making and compounding Medicines, wherein the Lives and Health of his Majesty's Subjects are so highly concerned, hath therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Privy-Council, hereby to notify to all Apothecaries and others concerned, to the Intent they may not pretend Ignorance thereof, that the said Book called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published: And his Majesty doth therefore strictly require, charge and command all and singular Apothecaries and others, whose Business it is to compound Medicines, or distil Oyls or Waters, or make other Extracts within any Part of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, that they, and every of them, immediately after the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis shall be printed and published, do not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinable Receipt or Prescription, or distil any Oyl or Waters, or make other Extracts that are or shall be in the said Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned or named, in any other Manner or Form than is or shall be directed, prescribed, and set down by the said Book, and according to the Weights and Measures that are or shall be therein limited, except it shall be by the special Direction or Prescription of some learned Physician in that Behalf. And his Majesty doth hereby declare, that the Offenders to the contrary shall not only incur his Majesty's just Displeasure, but be proceeded against for such their Contempt and Offences, according to the utmost Severity of Law.

William Sharpe.

Whitehall, May 29.

This Day arrived an Express from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices Inverness, May 19, and 22.

The Hessians are by this Time encamped at Burnt Island, and all possible Dispatch is making for the Transports to receive them on Board. Those here have only waited for a fair Wind for some Time, and the whole will be ready very soon. Brigadier Mordaunt is already at Perth, with the Royal's, Pulteney's, and Sempil's Regiments, to replace the Hessians; and he expects all the M'Phersons there to surrender surrender their Arms to him immediately. The Escape of the Pretender's Son does not seem as yet to be absolutely certain. He was in the North of the Island of Lewis some Time ago; but failing of a Vessel there to carry him off, he went to Barra at the South End of it; and we have a Report since, that he had missed the two French Ships, and was returned to Moydart. Major General Blakeney is arrived, and is to command the Forces which will be left here. Major General Bland is sent forward with three Battalions to Fort Augustus; for which Place his Royal Highness proposes to begin his March To-morrow, and hopes to be there in two Days. Brigadier Fleming's Battalion will march the same Day to Aberdeen, and Major M'Kenzie through the Hills to Strathbogie, with Lord Loudoun's Battalion, his Lordship being himself employ'd at the Head of the Independent Companies, and Colonel Campbell gone to serve under his Father the Major General, who is at the Head of the Argyllshire Men.

Major Grant, Deputy Governor of Fort George, has been tried by a General Court Martial, for abandoning the same to the Rebels, and has been adjudged to be dismissed from his Majesty's Service, and rendered incapable of ever holding any military Office or Employment under his Majesty.

Inverness, May 23. His Royal Highness is just setting out for Fort Augustus.

Whitehall, May 29.

This Day an Express arrived from Major General Campbell with the following Accounts.

Appin, May 21.

Upon the 13th Instant Alexander M'Donald of Glenco surrendered his Arms, and those of all his People who were at Glenco, to Major General Campbell, submitting himself to his Majesty's Mercy: Appin's People who were at Home, have also followed his Example, and both he and Glenco have given Notice thereof to such of their Men as are absent, ordering them to return to their own Country.

We have Advices from Mingary Castle of the 19th Instant, that the two French Men of War which were some Time ago at Arisaig, had, besides Stores, Ammunition, &c. landed the Sum of 40,000 L. That the Captains of those Ships having, upon Account of the bad Situation of the Pretender's Son's Affairs since the Battle of Culloden, refused to deliver up the said Money, the Rebels, by Threats and Violence, had forced it from them: That Murray the Secretary had taken Possession of it, and had ordered it to be sent to Locharkaig: That the Pretender's Son went off in an open Boat eight Days before the French Ships arrived, and landed in the Isle of Lewis, with Colonel O Sullivan, and Angus M'Donald, Brother to Kenloch Moydart, and only two Servants; and that they proposed to take a Vessel from Lewis to France: That the Person called Duke of Perth embarked on board one of the said French Ships, in so bad a State of Health, that his Life was despaired of: That there had been frequent Meetings of the Chiefs of the Rebels, and a considerable Number of their Followers, near the Braes of Lochabar, who were supposed to have assembled in order to the making of a Distribution of the 40,000 l. above-mentioned.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from Captain Duff, of the Terror Bomb, dated off Coll, May 19.

The Day after our Engagement with the two French Men of War off Loch Nouay, the Raven Sloop joined us, and having, in the best Manner we could, repaired the Damage done us in our Masts and Rigging, upon the 6th, at Four in the Morning, we sailed from Arras. About Noon we were in Loch Nouay, but not finding the French Ships there, we proceeded to Cannay, to endeavour to get Intelligence of them: At Cannay we were informed that they passed by that Island upon the 4th in the Afternoon, steering towards Barra; thereupon we proceeded towards that Place, and searched the Harbours on that Coast, but not finding them there, we went out to Stornway. Upon the 13th Instant near Cape Wriath we were joined by the Scarborough and Glasgow Men of War, each of 20 Guns, and the Tryal and Happy Jennet Sloops. Having Intelligence of a French Sloop of eight Guns being upon that Coast, I was ordered to search the Lochs on the Main from Loch Brim to Ardnamurchan, which I have accordingly done, but can get no other Accounts of her, than that such a Vessel was seen off the Mouth of Loch Brim on the 9th. Upon the 17th Instant I joined the Furnace off Glenaly. Yesterday we went into Loch Nouay, and sent a Party of Men on Shore to search for Arms and Ammunition landed from the French Men of War. We found 20 Barrels of Powder, and about 80 Musquets, which we brought off. Captain Fergusson of the Furnace, has seized 800 Stands of Arms at M'Donald of Barraisdale's House in the Isle of Rasay.

Kensington, May 31.

The following Address of the People called Quakers, has been presented to his Majesty by Mr. Daniel Vandewall.

To George the Second, King of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the People called Quakers, from their General Annual Assembly in London.

May it please the King,

WE humbly beg Leave to approach thy Royal Presence with united Hearts, to congratulate thee upon the Deliverance of these Kingdoms

Kingdoms from the late impending Dangers, with a Joy as sincere as the Occasion is signal.

We beheld with Grief and Detestation an ungrateful and deluded People, combined against their own Happiness, and desperately engaged in open Rebellion against thy Person and Government, wickedly attempting to subject a free People to the Miseries of a popish and arbitrary Power.

As none among all thy Protestant Subjects exceed us in an Aversion to the Tyranny, Idolatry and Superstition of the Church of Rome; so none lie under more just Apprehensions of immediate Danger from their destructive Consequences, or have greater Cause to be thankful to the Almighty, for the Interposition of his Providence in our Preservation.

A Preservation so remarkable makes it our indispensable Duty also to acknowledge the King's paternal Care for the Safety of his People, of which he hath given the most assured Pledge, in permitting one of his Royal Offspring to expose himself to the greatest of Dangers for their Security.

May we, and all thy faithful Subjects, demonstrate the Sincerity of our Gratitude for this signal Instance of the Divine Favour, by the deepest Humiliation, and by turning every one of us from the Evil of our Ways: And may those who are placed in Authority over us, by the Influence of their own Example, add Vigour to the Laws, enacted for the general Suppression of Vice and Immorality; so may we have an assured Ground of Hope and Confidence in God, that he who hath hitherto helped, will never withdraw his Mercies from us.

We earnestly beseech him, by whom Kings reign, and Princes decree Justice, that his Providence may ever attend thy Royal Person and Family, and make even the Efforts of thine Enemies conducive to the Establishment of thy Throne in perfect Peace; give Success to thy Endeavours for settling the General Tranquillity of Europe on a lasting Foundation, and grant, that an uninterrupted Race of Kings of thy Royal Progeny, may perpetuate the Blessings of thy Reign to our Posterity.

Dated in London the 22d of the third Month called May, 1746.

The above Address was signed by 266 Persons.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this Address of Congratulation. The just Concern you have shewn therein for me, and my Family, is very agreeable to me; and you may always depend upon my Protection.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Borough of Leicester, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Harborough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Leicester.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Leicester, being truly sensible of the great Danger our happy Constitution has been lately in, from Popery and Foreign Arbitrary Power, beg Leave, to the utmost of our Abilities, to express our Gratitude to your Majesty for our late great and signal Deliverance.

Your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Care for these Kingdoms was never more conspicuous than in your sending your Son his Royal Highness the Duke, to curb the restless Spirits of your Majesty's and the Nation's Enemies; who has been the happy Instrument, under God, and your Majesty, of restoring and securing to us, our Laws, Trades, Liberties and Religion; and we are at a Loss to know, whether we ought most to admire his Royal Highness's profound Judgment, in the Disposition he made of your Majesty's Forces at the late Battle of Culloden, or his intrepid Courage, and Contempt of Death and Danger, in the Course of that glorious Day.

As the late Rebellion was the first Interruption any of your Majesty's Subjects ever received, during your auspicious Reign, in the Enjoyment of their Civil Rights and Liberties, so by the late Victory we look upon ourselves as fully restored to the Possession of those inestimable Blessings; and trust and are firmly satisfied, that we shall continue to enjoy them as long as your Majesty or any of your Royal Family shall sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms; which we pray may be to the latest Generations.

Given under our Common Seal this Sixteenth Day of May 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Stafford, in the County of Stafford, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord

Lord Viscount Chetwynd and William Chetwynd, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the Borough of Stafford in the County of Stafford, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, of the Borough of Stafford, in Common Council assembled, most humbly beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the late glorious Defeat of the Rebels by your Majesty's Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland ; a Victory which we shall most gratefully remember.

Your Majesty's Conduct and Concern for our Interest, peculiarly appears in your Choice of his Royal Highness the Duke to this Command ; to whose Conduct and Valour (under God) we stand indebted for this happy Success of your Majesty's Arms.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as we look upon ourselves to be bound by Duty and Interest ; so we shall, upon all Occasions, be willing and ready to exert ourselves, to the utmost of our Power, in the Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government ; and that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and the Crown of these Kingdoms descend to your Royal Issue, are the earnest Prayers of your Majesty's most loyal, dutiful, and most faithful Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the twenty-first Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders and other Landholders of the County of Selkirk, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Stair, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, and other Landholders of the County of Selkirk, met at Selkirk the Seventeenth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and forty six Years, in order to proportion the Land Tax for the current Year.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, and other Landholders of the County of Selkirk, do most humbly beg Liberty to approach your sacred Person with our sincerest Congratulations on the late important Victory, with which it has pleased Almighty God to bless your Majesty's Arms, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, against the Pretender's Son and his rebellious Followers, which Success, we are overjoy'd to find attended with the most happy Consequences of totally suppressing that unnatural Rebellion, which had too long ravaged the Northern Part of this Kingdom, and relieving the Minds of your faithful Subjects from their Terrors and Apprehensions of these lawless Oppressors : And permit us, Great Sir, with Hearts full of Respect and Gratitude, to offer our Acknowledgments of your Majesty's paternal Care of your People, in putting the young Prince your Son at the Head of your Armies, at this critical Juncture ; for of a Certain, under God and your Majesty's wise Direction, it is to his prudent Conduct and singular Courage, these princely Virtues which he Inherits from his illustrious Ancestors, that we owe these singular Successes, that at first check'd the Progress of the unnatural Rebellion, and have now totally subdued it.

We likewise most humbly beg Liberty, with great Joy, to lay hold of this Opportunity of declaring our outmost Abhorrence of this unnatural Rebellion, for which not the least Colour of Provocation hath been given, which fills us with the highest Indignation against those ungrateful desperate Rebels, whose pernicious Principles, desperate Fortunes, private Discontent and Disappointments, have engaged them to involve their Country in Blood and Confusion.

We your most loyal Subjects, with Hearts full of a due Sense of the invaluable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's most auspicious Government, most cheerfully offer our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your undoubted Title to the Crown, in Support of the Protestant Religion, and in Maintenance of the Liberty and Property of the Subject, which, as they were happily preserved to us by the Accession of your Majesty's most illustrious Family to the Throne, can only be secured to Posterity by the Eye of Heaven watching over and guarding your Sacred Person and your Royal Family.

We heartily pray Almighty God, that as your Majesty has been enabled to put an End to this unnatural Rebellion, you may likewise confound and extinguish for ever all Hopes of the Pretender, Pretender, his open and secret Abettors, and secure the future Peace and Tranquillity of your Kingdoms; that under your Majesty, and your latest Posterity, this Nation may long continue to be a Protestant and a free People.

This Address being unanimously approved of by the Meeting, was appointed by them to be signed by John Pringle, of Haining, one of the Senators of the College of Justice, as their Preses, in their Name, and ordained to be inserted in the Books of Supply of the Shire.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted, by the Earl of Leven, High Commissioner, &c. to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, met at Edinburgh, May 19, 1746.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, beg Leave to approach your Throne, with sincere Expressions of our utmost Detestation of the present wicked and unnatural Rebellion, to testify our unfeigned Thanks to the Almighty, and to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Success of your Arms, by which we have the greatest Hopes of seeing a solid and lasting Peace quickly re-established in your Kingdoms, and your loyal Subjects restored to the full Enjoyment of all their just Rights and Privileges.

The gloomy Prospect lately set before our Eyes, by the ungrateful Disturbers of your Majesty's mild and just Government, makes us reflect with Horror on the pernicious Plot contrived by the Policy, and fomented by the Power and Interest of the avowed Enemies of our Country, its Religion, Laws and Liberties, and of the Balance of Power in Europe.

It raises our Astonishment and Indignation, that any, who have tasted of the manifold Blessings of your indulgent Administration, should have attempted to exchange their Religion and Liberty for Tyranny and lawless Power, Superstition and Slavery, and by violating the most solemn Obligations of Oaths and Ties of Gratitude, become Tools to the declared Enemies of their native Country.

Now that we are, by the good Providence of God, shelter'd under the Protection of your auspicious Government, from the Storm that threaten'd our happy Constitution, we behold with Pleasure the remarkable Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the wise Conduct, and by the intrepid Valour of your heroick Son the Duke, dispelling the Cloud, and defeating the Rebels, who, hopeless of escaping the Vengeance of your victorious Arms, sink under their Confusion.

Great Sir, it affords us the highest Satisfaction to observe, That notwithstanding the Calamities of our Country, and the traitorous Practices of too many of our infatuated Countrymen, the Ministers of this Church, have, by Divine Grace, manifested a firm and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government: And as it is our Duty, so it is our unalterable Resolution, to persevere in our Loyalty to your Majesty, and steady Adherence to the Protestant Succession in your Royal Family: And it shall be our constant Prayer to God, that he may unite the Minds of all your Subjects into a just Sense of the Happiness they enjoy under the best of Kings.

May the same Providence, that has hitherto preserved your sacred Person, and protected your Dominions, continue to watch over your Majesty, and your Royal Family, for a Blessing to all Protestant Churches, and the peculiar Happiness of your Subjects.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Jo. Lumfden,
Moderator.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Barrington, and Thomas Watson, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, with Hearts overflowing with Joy and Gratitude, beg Leave to offer our real and unfeigned Congratulations upon the entire Victory obtained by your Majesty's Army over that of your rebellious Subjects; a Victory of so great Importance to the Nation, we chiefly attribute to the Army's being animated by the Example, and directed by the prudent Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke.
B in

Permit us, Royal Sir, upon this happy Occasion, to express the high Sense we have of your Majesty's paternal Care of and Goodness to your People, in complying with their universal Wishes, by appointing his Royal Highness to command your Army, under whose auspicious Conduct we flatter'd ourselves with the most assured Hopes of Victory, and the great Event since sufficiently shews how justly those were founded. The Success of your Majesty's Arms will be the highest Demonstration to the World, how vain and destructive it must prove, in the End, to any of your Majesty's infatuated Subjects, though assisted by two of the greatest Powers on the Continent, foolishly to attempt to deprive your Majesty of your Crown, and what we look upon to be the immediate and necessary Consequence of it, to effect the utter Overthrow and Destruction of a Constitution, which is productive of the greatest Happiness to Prince and People: But your Majesty's undoubted Right to the Crown of these Realms being supported by Law and the Concurrence of the zealous Affections as well as the united Force of all your Majesty's Subjects, who have the least Sense of the Blessings of Liberty, give us the greatest Ground to hope, that your Majesty and your Royal Descendants will, for the Future, continue in the peaceable and undisturbed Possession of the Throne to the latest Posterity.

We take this Opportunity of assuring your Majesty, that we will take every Occasion of shewing, by our Actions, our zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government, and that we will cheerfully continue to exercise those Arms which we took up by your Majesty's Authority, at the first Commencement of this unnatural Rebellion, in Defence of your sacred Person and Government, and in Support of our happy Constitution, and until the implacable Enemies to both receive the Punishment due to Traitors.

The following Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven, having been transmitted to Sir James Lowther, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Cumberland; has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our unfeigned Congratulations upon the late important Success of your Majesty's Arms against the Rebels; whose desperate Attempts (aided and abetted by the avow'd Enemies of our Church and Nation) to deprive us of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, it has pleased Almighty God, in a most signal Manner, to defeat; and the more to endear your Majesty's Family, and the Deliverance itself to your faithful People, to reserve the Glory of it to a Prince of your Majesty's Royal Blood.

Next under Providence, we acknowledge our Thanks to be due to your Majesty's paternal Care of the Welfare of your People, in making Choice of a General to command the Forces designed for the Quelling of this unnatural Rebellion, so nearly allied to your Majesty, and not more distinguished by his illustrious Birth, than by his Martial Abilities, whose consummate Conduct and Courage, form'd upon the Plan of your Royal Example, at once struck a Terror into the Enemy, and inspired such an unparallel'd Ardour and Resolution into the Troops under his Command, as were happy Presages of his late Victory.

As this is an Event which must tend to restore and secure domestick Peace and Tranquillity to these Kingdoms, and to add Stability to the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, so it cannot be reflected upon by your faithful People without the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude. But the Means by which it was effected, must make it doubly grateful to us, whose particular Happiness it was to have been delivered, by his Royal Highness the Duke, from the imminent Dangers to which we were exposed, by the Reduction of the Rebel Garrison at Carlisle; at which Time we had the Satisfaction to find our Zeal for your Majesty's Service honour'd with the favourable Acceptance of his Royal Highness.

May your Majesty's Arms be as gloriously triumphant over your Foreign as over your Domestick Enemies; may you long reign in the Hearts and Affections of your People, the Father as well as Prince of your Country; and may there never be wanting in your Majesty's Family, a Prince to defend the Liberties and Constitution of Great Britain, and to transmit the same pure and entire to our remotest Posterity, is the hearty Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Right Honourable the Earl of Galloway, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wigtoun, has been presented to his Majesty by the Hon. Colonel James Stuart, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Right Hon. the the Earl of Galloway, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Wigtoun, met at Wigtoun the 6th of May 1746.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful, dutiful and loyal Subjects, with Hearts sincerely full of Joy, make bold, in the most humble Manner, to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious and compleat Victory obtain'd over the Rebels by his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, who, upon that Occasion (as upon every other) gave the greatest Proofs of heroick Courage, and the most prudent Conduct; to which, under God, we do believe the Compleatness of the Victory was chiefly owing. All your Majesty's Subjects have daily repeated Proofs of your Majesty's Royal and Paternal Care, in doing every Thing that can promote the real Good and Interest of all your People; but we, in this Part of your Majesty's Kingdoms, have lately felt it in the most sensible Manner, by your sending his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland to command your Armies amongst us. His Presence entirely intimidated the Rebels, and, in a great Measure, put an End to the Rebellion.

Pardon us humbly to inform your Majesty, that now and formerly, when too many of our deluded unthinking Countrymen were engaged in a most unnatural Rebellion, not one Man of our County, of either high or low Station, was ever concern'd in any Treason or Attempt against your Majesty's Royal Family, and our present happy Establishment. What we have been, we still are, and are determin'd ever to be. We take this Opportunity of most solemnly assuring your Majesty, that with our Lives and Fortunes we will, to the utmost of our Power, defend your Majesty's most sacred Person, Royal Family, and our happy Constitution in Church and State, against all Treasons or traiterous Conspiracies at Home, or Invasions from Abroad.

May God bless and give Success to your Majesty's Councils and Arms; may you be long preserved to reign over us, and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Line to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, is the ardent Prayer of, &c.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the said Hamlets: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, and Deputy Lieutenants of the Tower Hamlets, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with Hearts full of Joy and Gratitude to that good Providence which has so remarkably blessed your Majesty's Councils and Arms, in the Reduction of the late unnatural Rebellion, by the Bravery and Courage of your Majesty's Troops, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; a Rebellion! which threaten'd the total Subversion of those most valuable Blessings which we have for many Years enjoyed under your Majesty's Royal Protestant Predecessors, and have been continued to us by the mild, legal and just Administration of your Majesty:— And we should be wanting to ourselves if we did not, at the same Time, return your Majesty our unfeigned Thanks for your unparallel'd Wisdom and Goodness, in sending your Son on that important Service, to whom, under God, we owe the Success of that glorious Action.

Permit us, Great Sir, to renew our Acknowledgments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty; and as we humbly hope you have already found your loyal Hamlets of the Tower ready, in the most dangerous Conjuncture, to exert themselves in your Majesty's Cause, against all traiterous Conspiracies whatsoever; so we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall deter us from being ever ready to support your Majesty against every Attack on your Person and Government.

May the Almighty Power still continue to bless your Majesty, and prosper your Arms to the humbling that Arbitrary Power which endeavours to enslave Europe; and may we never want a Protestant Prince of your Royal Line to fill the Throne, till Time shall be no more.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Miles Stapleton, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Leeds in the County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of your Majesty's said Borough of Leeds, with the utmost Pleasure approach the Throne, to congratulate your Majesty on the late happy Success of your Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke, against your rebellious Subjects, the inveterate Enemies of your Majesty's most sacred Person and Government, and of our Holy Religion, and whatever else is dear to us.

We rejoice in this great Event, the entire Defeat of the Rebel Army, as the Suppression of the present, and a more than propable Means of preventing any future Rebellion.

It adds greatly to our Joy, that this compleat Victory has been gain'd with the Loss of a very small Number of your Majesty's Forces; and that the great Slaughter has been of those who, infatuated by their Leaders, the despicable Tools of a popish Pretender, assured themselves of the Lawrels of the Day.

As these fell, so may all your Majesty's Enemies perish.

We should be greatly wanting to ourselves should we fail to observe, that the great Prudence and Valour of his Royal Highness the Duke, has, under God, been the immediate Instrument of our Delivery from the Terrors of our savage Enemies. Our utmost Gratitude is due to your Majesty, as for all other Blessings we have enjoyed during your auspicious Government, so for the Appointment of so consummate a Commander of your Majesty's Forces.

May the same Providence that hath hitherto been your Guard and Defence, continue to protect your Majesty from all your Enemies, and preserve you long long to reign over us; and may there never be wanting of your Majesty's Posterity a Prince to sit on the Throne of these your Majesty's Realms.

Given under our Common Seal this 22d Day of May, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign, &c.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord William Manners, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of your Borough and Town of Newark upon Trent, in the County of Nottingham, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty, in a full Sense of that Joy and Gratitude which must necessarily arise in the Hearts of all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, from the happy Suppression of the late detestable Rebellion.

It cannot be doubted the Design of it was to ruin and trample under Foot a Constitution the best established of any in the World to secure religious and civil Liberty; and we are sensible, the Defeat of this wicked and dangerous Attempt, is an Event chiefly owing, under God, to your Majesty's judicious Choice of his Royal Highness the Duke to command the Royal Army; a Choice evidencing to your faithful People the paternal Affection of Majesty towards them; a Choice ardently wished for by the whole British Nation, and justified by the Conduct, Bravery, and Success of this distinguished Hero.

Victory is seldom perfect, the Joy she inspires is often damped by too great a Loss of those brave Men she cannot always save. But in the late ever memorable Day, how compleatly did she triumph? And that his Royal Highness received no Hurt, though in the Front of Danger, we cannot but ascribe to that watchful Providence who governs Victory, and look upon as one of the greatest Blessings with which he was pleased to crown that important Day.

Besides the Joy we feel in common with your Majesty's Subjects on this interesting Occasion, we have a peculiar Pleasure in reflecting, that the Duke of Kingston's Regiment, raised in this County, behaved with a Courage and Resolution scarce to be expected from new-raised Men; many of whom imbibed in this loyal Town, the Place of their Nativity, that laudable and becoming Zeal for your Majesty's Government, which they exerted on that Day, and during the Course of this Rebellion.

The Influence of his Royal Highness's Victory must be very extensive; the Restoration of publick Tranquillity, the Preservation of British Rights, the strengthening that excellent Constitution Rebellion attempted to subvert, the adding new Vigour and Confidence to your Majesty's Allies against the common Enemy, are all of them Effects we have Reason to expect from it.

That all Europe may acknowledge his Royal Highness their common Benefactor (for we cannot
