AT the Court at Kenſington, the 28th Day of May, 1746.

The King's moſt Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas there was this Day read at the Board, the humble Memorial of Dr. Henry Plumtre, Preſident of the College or Commonalty of the Faculty of Phyſick in London, ſetting forth, that the ſaid Preſident and College have, with great Care, Pains and Industry, reviſed, corrected and reformed a Book by them formerly published, intituled, Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, preſcribing and directing the Manner of preparing all Sorts of Medicines therein contained, together with the true Weights and Meaſures by which they ought to be made: Which Book is now perfected, and ready to be published, and is made more extenſive and beneficial to the Publick than the former, and, it is conceived, will contribute to the Good of his Majesty's Subjects, by preventing all Deceits, Differences and Incertainties in the making or compounding of Medicines, if, for the Future, the Manner and Forms preſcribed therein, ſhould be practiſed by Apothecaries and others in their Compoſitions of Medicines, &c. The Memorialiſt therefore moſt humbly prays, that his Majesty will be graciously pleaſed to enforce the Obſervance thereof in ſuch Manner as to his Majesty ſhall ſeem meet: — His Majesty this Day took the ſaid Memorial into his Royal Conſideration, and being deſirous to provide in all Caſes for the common Good of his People, and being perſuaded that the Eſtabliſhing the general Uſe of the ſaid Book may tend to the Prevention of ſuch Deceits in the making and compounding Medicines, wherein the Lives and Health of his Majesty's Subjects are ſo highly concerned, hath therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Privy-Council, hereby to notify to all Apothecaries and others concerned, to the Intent they may not pretend Ignorance thereof, that the ſaid Book called Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis, is perfected and ready to be published: And his Majesty doth therefore ſtrictly require, charge and command all and ſingular Apothecaries and others, whoſe Buſineſs it is to compound Medicines, or diſtil Oyls or Waters, or make other Extracts within any Part of his Majesty's Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, that they, and every of them, immediately after the ſaid Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis ſhall be printed and published, do not compound or make any Medicine or Medicinable Receipt or Preſcription, or diſtil any Oyl or Waters, or make other Extracts that are or ſhall be in the ſaid Pharmacopœia Collegii Regalis Medicorum Londinensis mentioned or named, in any other Manner or Form than is or ſhall be directed, preſcribed, and ſet down by the ſaid Book, and according to the Weights and Meaſures that are or ſhall be therein limited, except it ſhall be by the ſpecial Direction or Preſcription of ſome learned Phyſician in that Behalf. And his Majesty doth hereby declare, that the Offenders to the contrary ſhall not only incur his Majesty's juſt Diſpleaſure, but be proceeded againſt for ſuch their Contempt and Offences, according to the utmoſt Severity of Law.

William Sharpe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerſet, having been tranſmitted by the Right Honourable the Earl Powlett to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majesty: Which Addreſs his Majesty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majesty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgwater, in the County of Somerſet.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes, Burgesses, and principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Bridgwater, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with our most sincere Congratulations on the late signal Victory, obtained (through the Blessing of God) by your Majesty's Forces over the Rebels, under the auspicious Command and Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke; an Event that has not only entirely dispelled the gloomy Prospect of all the Horrors of Popery, of abject and ignominious Slavery, of Tyranny and arbitrary Power, but has also effectually secured to us the free Profession and open Exercise of our most pure and holy Religion, the undisturbed Possession of our Properties, and the full Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties.

Happy are the People who are blest'd with such invaluable Privileges, and happy ever be the Prince, who thinks them deserving of his Care and Protection.

To you therefore, Great Sir, are the united Thanks of all Englishmen due, for that eminent Instance of your Affection to them, in inspiring your Army with the inimitable Example and Courage of our illustrious Hero, your Royal Son, who, superior to all Difficulties, and dismayed by no Dangers, with his usual Intrepidity, hazarded his Life in the Cause of his Country, has broken the Neck of Rebellion, and has been the glorious Instrument of preserving our most excellent Constitution.

That he may always continue the peculiar Care, and live the Favourite of Heaven; that your Majesty may be blessed with a long and happy Reign over a free and obedient People; and that your Royal Progeny may govern these Kingdoms to latest Posterity, are the ardent Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects.

The following Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, having been transmitted by Matthew Ridley, Esq; their Governor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor, Assistants, Wardens and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Governor, Assistants, Wardens, and Fellowship of Merchant Adventurers of Newcastle upon Tyne, beg Leave most humbly to present to your Majesty, our sincere and fervent Congratulations on the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms against an insatuated Number of your rebellious Subjects; aided and supported by the inveterate Enemies to the Protestant Religion, and to the Peace of these Nations, with a View to establish Popery, with its constant Attendants, arbitrary Power and Slavery.

When we look back on the imminent Danger that threatened us, we have great Reason to be thankful to Almighty God, who hath so signally interposed and preserved us; and in a particular Manner are we bounden to express our thankful Acknowledgements to your Majesty for your paternal Care of your People, in sending his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland to command your Troops, a Testimony to the whole World, that the Interests of your Majesty and of your Subjects are interwoven and inseparable.

The Valour, Prudence, and Activity of his Royal Highness have so manifestly appeared, that all true Britons must confess, that the Preservation and Establishment of the valuable Privileges they now enjoy, wholly depend on your Majesty and your Royal Off-spring being their Defenders. And we most earnestly hope, that this Rebellion, which has thrown your Kingdoms into great Confusion, will in the End prove their Advantage, by fixing the Wavering, convincing the deluded Part of your Majesty's Subjects, and destroying all future Attempts of the Enemies of your Majesty and the British People, in their Endeavours to impose a popish Pretender upon these Nations.

We pray, that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts and Affections of your Subjects; that your Majesty's Arms may be victorious in the noble Cause in which you are now engaged, in asserting and defending the Liberties of Europe; and that the Crown of these Realms may for ever continue on the Head of your sacred Majesty, and those descended from your Royal House.

Given under our common Seal the 31st Day of May, 1746.

Matthew Ridley, Governor.

The following Address of the Justices of Peace, Barrons and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Barrons and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Barrons and and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright, most humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, and to offer our most hearty and sincere Congratulations on the glorious and compleat Victory obtained over the Rebels, inveterate and irreconcilable Enemies to your Majesty's Person and Government, and to our happy Constitution in Church and State, by your Majesty's Forces, under the Command of that incomparable Prince and General his Royal Highness William Duke of Cumberland, our Deliverer (under God and your Majesty) from Oppression and Slavery.

His Royal Highness's distinguished Behaviour and Conduct upon this great Occasion, must afford your Majesty, and all the Friends to our happy Constitution, the truest Satisfaction, as it is the just and natural Effect of your Royal Example and Instructions; and gives the most pleasing Assurance of what great Things may be farther expected from his Royal Highness upon all Occasions, where the Honour and Interest of this Nation, and the Cause of Liberty and Religion, are concerned.

We have, and always will retain, a deep and indeleble Sense of the happy Effects and Consequences which must follow from this glorious Victory, a perfect Deliverance from our Fears of Popery and arbitrary Power, and their inseparable Concomitants, Ignorance, Cruelty and Slavery, besides becoming a Province to, and receiving Laws and Model of Government from our natural and irreconcilable Enemy the French King.

We have also a just and no less lasting Sense of the great and singular Happiness and Security which we enjoy under your Majesty's most wise and merciful Administration; our Religion, Laws, Liberty and Property, not only undisturbed and uninvaded, but with the utmost Care and Diligence supported and preserved to us, Blessings we scarcely ever tasted before the happy Revolution under King William, of immortal Memory, which, among many other inestimable Blessings, conveyed unto us that of the Succession of your Majesty's illustrious House.

As we are confident, that by your Majesty's Wisdom, and that of your loyal Parliament, proper and effectual Measures will be taken for rooting out the Seeds of our late Disturbances, and securing us against their springing up in Time coming; so we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully contribute, as far as in us lies, to attain such desirable Purposes, and to support your Majesty's Government, as the best and surest Way of expressing our Gratitude to you, and securing the Religion and Liberty of our Country.

That Almighty God, King of Kings, may still protect your Majesty; and that the same good Success may always attend your Arms by Sea and Land, till you see the Liberties of Europe in general, and the Peace and Happiness of your Kingdoms settled upon a firm and lasting

Foundation; and that these Kingdoms may never want one of your Royal House to sway their Sceptre, and another to lead their Armies to Victory and Renown; and that our young Hero, his Royal Highness the Duke, may continue to be the Terror of Rebels, and the Scourge of Tyrants, are the most ardent and sincere Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of Peace, Barrons and Freeholders in the Stewartry of Kirkcudbright. Subscribed in their Presence, and at their Appointment, by David Maxwell of Bardrochwood, their Preses.

The following Address of the Governour and Members of his Majesty's Council of Barbados, having been transmitted by Sir Thomas Robinson, Bart. their Governor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governour and the Members of his Majesty's Council of Barbados, in Council, on the Eighteenth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and forty five.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour and Members of your Majesty's Council, beg Leave to offer up to the Throne our sincere Acknowledgments for all those Indulgencies of Government which have from time to time assisted the declining Manufactures of this Island, and still continue to preserve them from greater Difficulties, by propitiously securing our Trade and Correspondence, as far as human Vigilance can, from the Dangers of the present War. Accept, Dread Sir, our peculiar Thanks for that signal Mark of Bounty, by which your Majesty, in your Royal Condescension to our Prayer, has been pleased so early and so graciously to succour these your remoter Colonies, at a Crisis when the Powers of France had surrounded, and seem'd to threaten our Lives and Fortunes: So imminent a Danger, obviated by so effectual an Interposition, must from deep Conviction teach the British Subject, that your Majesty's Cares are extended far and wide as your Dominions.

The Distress, which the Enemy now sustains from the total Destruction of their trading Fleet, by the Activity of Vice Admiral Townshend in these Southern Seas, consider'd with the

the late Reduction of Cape Breton in North America, affords us at once the Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the double Success of your Arms; an Interruption so fatal to their Commerce, and so important an Acquisition to our own, gives us full Assurance, that while Trade and Navigation remain Characteristics of the English Name, so copious a Nursery of both will descend an unalienable Member of her Dominions: To a People animated with this Confidence, the Event has communicated such Transport as would have been unknown to the Royal Breast, had not your Majesty from your most early Relation to the Crown of Great Britain, adopted all those Passions for the true Interest of the Subject, which Nature has implanted in the Subject for his own.

Possess'd with these Sentiments of your Royal Heart, and spirited with repeated Experience of your Love to the British Name and Constitution, permit us, most gracious Sovereign, with Horror and Amazement, to resent the unnatural Rebellion so impiously kindled against the Father of his People: To the glorious Revolution our Fathers ow'd their Deliverance from Bondage both in Church and State; from that Period they, as well as their Sons, have enjoy'd those Liberties in the one, as have been limited by the Laws and Maxims of a free Government; and that Profession in the other, as has been conformable to the Principles and Tenets of the most pure Religion: With how deep Design then has the execrable Plan been concerted to strip our Posterity of both, by rebelliously seeking to turn back the Privileges which have revolv'd from that auspicious Æra, and by traiterously conspiring to exterminate those sacred Blessings which must end with the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant and illustrious House of Hanover.

May the same Divine Providence that hitherto has watched over the civil and religious Rights of Britain, preserve your Majesty, as the present Defender of our Faith and Freedom: May it in Mercy to these Kingdoms continue down its Protection with your Royal Line, that this Nation may in future never want an hereditary Guardian, while it may in future be distracted by an hereditary Rebellion, as often as the Councils of France shall instigate the Treason, or the Superstitions of Rome inflame the Traytor.

To confirm these Rights, and to secure to ourselves and Posterity these invaluable Blessings, give us Leave, with Hearts full of the most cordial Duty, to assure your Majesty, that we have not only with our Lips unfeignedly abjured all foreign Claims to your Throne, but we shall be ever ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to assert the undoubted Title of our Sovereign and his Successors; not more firmly establish'd by the Laws, than the Affections of the People: And that we may shew forth the Stability and Attachment of this your Majesty's Island, we will, on all Occasions, convince the foreign and domestick Enemies of your Crown, that those Ties of Conscience and Allegiance which connect the Subject to their Sovereign, are on both Sides so closely riveted, that they must in vain expect a Revulsion of the one without the other.

We are, Dread Sir,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Address of the Grand Jury for the Island of Barbados, having been transmitted by Sir Thomas Robinson, Bart. their Governor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grand Jury for the Island of Barbados, at a Court of Grand Sessions, Oyer and Terminer, General Goal Delivery, and General Sessions of the Peace held for the Body of the said Island, in the Town of St. Michael, on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 10th and 11th of December, in the Year of our Lord 1745.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHILE the Hearts and Hands of your Majesty's Subjects of this Island in general are employed in those Prayers and Offices, which at this Juncture become the most dutiful and loyal of Men; We the Grand Inquest beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, and thus impannell'd in the Service of our Country, jointly to pour forth those Sentiments of Duty and Obedience, in our publick Station, which as Individuals, we shall endeavour to practise in our private Lives and Example.

With most profound Gratitude we acknowledge the large Share we enjoy in the Blessings of your Majesty's auspicious Reign; which as it has hitherto preserv'd, so may it long continue in the same illustrious Succession, still to preserve to us and our Posterity, both our civil and religious Liberties.

It is with Consternation we have heard of the most daring Attempt that is form'd against your Majesty's Crown and Kingdoms; and however distant it is our Fortune to be remov'd from the Scene of Rebellion, yet our incorrupted Loyalty brings every Danger near us, that in your Majesty's Person and Family threatens the Protestant Cause, and the Liberty of the Nation; We therefore take this Occasion to renew to your Majesty the Assurances of our inviolable

Fidelity,

Fidelity, to which not only our Inclination and Interest, but the sacred Ties of Conscience and Allegiance oblige us.

Was any Obligation yet wanting to enforce a Duty so incumbent, the Supplications of this Island so lately offer'd, and so early attended to by your Majesty, in sending to the Succour of your People a strong Squadron, under the Command of Vice Admiral Townshend, would call for the most sincere Acknowledgements, that Subjects, truly conscious of their Sovereign's paternal Care, could presume to offer; these therefore we again implore your most sacred Majesty to receive, and at the same Time to have such Confidence in the Inhabitants of this Island, as to believe that we shall be ready to assert the Rights of our Sovereign, with those Lives and Fortunes which we owe to his Royal Protection.

We congratulate your Majesty on the Reduction of Cape Breton; the Joy it inspires in us, is equal to the Mortification it gives your Enemies: A Place of such Importance to the Support, Trade and Navigation of the Kingdom, thus added to the British Dominions, gives the American Colonies, as Partakers in the Success of your Arms, Room to presume and hope, that the one, as a permanent Member of the other, will descend together to your Majesty's remotest Posterity.

May Divine Providence, that has placed your Majesty, not only at the Head of the Protestant Interest, but first in the glorious Cause of Liberty, give your Majesty the early Satisfaction of seeing both more firmly established than ever, by the Influence of your Councils, and the Success of your Arms. We are,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal, and most obedient Subjects and Servants:

The following Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Jamaica, having been transmitted by Edward Trelawny, Esq; Governor of the said Island, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleas'd to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of the Island of Jamaica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Assembly of this your Majesty's Island of Jamaica, having experienced the many Blessings flowing from the Wisdom and Justice of your Majesty's Government, should be wanting in Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty, and in Regard to ourselves, did we not embrace this the earliest Opportunity at our Meeting, to express our Horror and Detestation of the unnatural Rebellion rais'd in Scotland against your Majesty's Crown and Dignity, and the Peace and Tranquillity of your Kingdoms, in favour of a popish Pretender, for introducing a Civil as well as an Ecclesiastical Tyranny, by the Subversion of our Laws and Religion, the best calculated of any to support the true Greatness of Kings, and promote the real Happiness of the Subject.

Our Rights and Liberties, asserted at the Revolution, and secured by our Deliverer King William the Third, of ever glorious and immortal Memory, confirm'd by establishing the Crown in your illustrious House, and continued to us by the Succession of your Royal Father, and your Majesty, must ever be esteemed the most distinguishing Blessings of the British People, as we are highly sensible that these can be perpetuated to us and our Posterity, by no other human Means, than that of preserving the Throne to your Majesty and Family; and that to unsettle the one, is the surest and speediest Method to destroy the other. We beg Leave to assure your Majesty with the sincerest Hearts, full of Duty and Loyalty, of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Royal Line. For the Defence of these, with whose Welfare and Prosperity every thing we hold valuable is so inseparably link'd, we should have been as ready as any of your Majesty's Subjects, to have risked our Lives and Fortunes, had not our great Distance from the Scene of Action made it impossible for us to bear a personal Share in Vindication of so glorious a Cause.

It is with the greatest Pleasure, we observe your Majesty so well guarded by the Wisdom of your Councils, and so firmly seated in the Affections of your People, that the Strength and Policy of our natural and most inveterate Enemy, France, and the intriguing Machinations of the Court of Rome, aided by the Zeal and Bigotry of Spain, combin'd together, could incite, by their execrable Devices to this long contriv'd Rebellion, but some few of the weak and wicked of your Subjects, whose Ignorance had render'd them liable to be deluded into the worst Designs; whose want of Property hinder'd their being sensible of your Majesty's Protection, of one of the greatest Blessings of Life, and whose Use to Violence and Plunder had subjected them to the Correction of those Laws of which their Idleness and Pride had made them incapable of enjoying the Benefit.

That all wicked and traitorous Attempts against your Majesty may be blasted and disappointed by that great Being who Protects and Rewards just and righteous Kings; and that you may long reign beloved by your Subjects, and dreaded by your Enemies, we offer up our most sincere and fervent Prayers; and when your Majesty shall be taken from us,

, may there never be wanting one of your illustrious Line to succeed to your Throne.

Accept, most gracious Sovereign, these only Marks we can send of our Loyalty and Gratitude, from a Colony, which though distant from your Person, is equally sensible with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects, of the happy Influence of your Royal Virtues.

The following Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Success of your Arms, in suppressing the impious and desperate Rebellion, which hath for some Time raged in North Britain, and disturbed, or threatened, the Peace of these Kingdoms.

An Event of such Concernment, which secures to us the Enjoyment of all that can be most dear to Men, our Religion, Liberty and Laws, Blessings inseparable from your Majesty's just Government over us, and to be preserved only by supporting it, must fill the Breast of every true Protestant, and Lover of his Country, with the sincerest Joy.

The grievous Oppressions endured by our Protestant Ancestors of this Kingdom, and yet fresh in the Memory of some amongst us; unavoidable Effects of popish Bigotry, armed with arbitrary Power, must convince us of the great Importance of this Success, by the Terror of those Evils, from the Apprehension of which, it hath delivered us.

Our Joy on this happy Event, receives still new Addition, from the glorious Instrument of it, his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland; whom, from his early Virtues, deliberate Valour, and indefatigable Activity, we justly look upon, as raised up by Providence, to be a Defender of your Majesty's Throne, and an Assertor of the British Honour, and military Glory.

May all the Enemies of your Majesty be in like Manner defeated and confounded; and may that pure Religion, and those Arts, which we are in a peculiar Manner instituted to defend and cultivate, flourish, under the Protection of your most sacred Majesty, and your Royal Line.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Chesterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious and important Victory obtained over the Rebels by your Majesty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

The Violence and Ravages of that detestable Rebellion did not reach us, however we severely felt the Consequences of it, in the Decay of Credit, and Stagnation of Trade; but our Concern for the sacred Person of your Majesty, and for the Welfare of Great Britain, more nearly affected us.

If the Abettors of the Pretender to your Majesty's Crown had succeeded in their unnatural Attempt, nothing less could be expected than a total Subversion of our religious and civil Rights.

We should fail in our Duty, if we did not, in the most grateful Manner, acknowledge the timely Care and Precautions taken by your Majesty towards the Extinguishment of that intestine War, and particularly, as your Majesty was pleased to appoint his Royal Highness the Duke to lead the Army, destined for the Suppression of it; the early Proof which he has given of his Courage and Conduct in this glorious Achievement, as it must be pleasing to your Majesty, so it increases our Joy on this happy Occasion, that the Liberty of Great Britain, and of this Kingdom, and of a great Part of Europe, is owing to a Prince descended from your Majesty.

Id

In the most humble Manner we take Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall always, to the utmost of our Abilities, exert ourselves in the Support of your Majesty's most undoubted Right to the Crown; and of the Protestant Succession in your most illustrious House.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereto affixed the 13th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, 1746.

Florence, May 24, N. S. The Courier that arrived from Vienna on the 20th, brought Orders to the Regency to send to Pisa 1500 Men out of the Regiment of Guards, as many out of the second Regiment, and 800 Horse Militia, with a proper Train of Artillery, either to canton or encamp there as the commanding Officer shall judge most proper.

Whitehall, June 4.

Yesterday an Express arrived from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland with the following Intelligence.

Fort Augustus, May 27. We arrived here the 24th, with 11 battalions of Foot, and the Duke of Kingston's Horse. His Royal Highness proposes next Thursday to send Houghton's Battalion half Way to Fort William, to take Possession of the Road, and to go thither himself the same Day, and to return the next; and on Saturday that Battalion is to go into Fort William, to relieve the Remains of Guise's Lord Loudoun was with his Royal Highness Yesterday, by whom we learn, that having marched with the Highlanders under his Command, and some regular Troops, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Howard, and Major Lockart, against the Camerons and M'Donalds, who were assembled to the Number of 300, for the Security of Lochiel and Barrisdale, they immediately dispersed on the Appearance of his advanced Parties, Lochiel ordering every one to shift for himself: Upon their Dispersion, the Camerons sent a Person to desire they might be admitted to bring in their Arms, and submit themselves to the King's Mercy. Lord Loudoun is now gone into Badenoch for two or three Days, to disarm the Rebels there, and it is thought they will immediately submit, as the M'Phersons have already in great Measure done, to Brigadier General Mordaunt, in his Passage through their Country to Perth. As the Rebels are at present in a Manner dispersed, his Royal Highness does not propose to stay here above a Week longer, except any thing extraordinary should happen, but will march South by the King's Road to Crief.

The following Advices were also received upon the 3d Instant from Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, May 30. We do not hear at present that there is any considerable Body of Rebels together any where, the Generality having submitted to the King's Mercy. Colonel Campbell came to Fort William upon the 24th, and upon the 25th join'd General Campbell at Appin. Upon the 27th they were to embark at Dunstaffnage, in order to take Possession of Stronhan, where it is reported that some few of the Rebels still continue in Arms. The Transports from Newcastle arrived at Leith on Wednesday, as did the Transports from Inverness the Night before. As Provisions and Forage for the Whole came by those from Newcastle, they are making the proper Distribution; and taking in Water, &c. and will be ready to sail with the Hessians in eight or ten Days.

Admiralty Office, June 7.

In Pursuance of his Majesty's Pleasure, the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have appointed Richard Lestock, Esq; Admiral of the Blue.

Captain Rodney, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Eagle, on the 24th past, fell in with and took, in the Latitude of 49° 30', the Esperance, a Spanish Privateer from St. Sebastian, of 16 Guns, and 136 Men, commanded by Don Francisco Bonocili, and has carried her into Kinsale.

Whitehall, May 30, 1746.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on Wednesday the 14th of May, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, John Milles, Esq; was attacked in David-street, between Grosvenor-street and Mount-street, by four Foot-pads armed with Pistols, one of whom kept the said John Milles's Mouth, another of them held his Hands over his Eyes, whilst the others holding him fast, and threatening to murder him if he made the least Noise or Resistance, rifled his Pockets, and took from him a Silk Purse with some Guineas in it, a Gold Watch, with a Steel Chain, and two Seals set in Gold, besides several Keys and other Things: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders who shall discover his Accomplices, or Accomplices, so as he, they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Gentlemen the Vestry of the Parish of St. George Hanover-Square, do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds for such Discovery, to be paid on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Simon Parry, their Vestry Clerk, at his House in Conduit Street.

J. Parry.
