THIS Day an Express arrived from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Fort Augustus, June 5. Lord George Sackville and Major Wilson are marched to the Barrack of Bernera with 500 Foot, from whence they are to proceed Southward along the Coast, till they come over-against the Head of Loch-Arkek, where Lieutenant Colonel Cornwallis is with another Body of 300 Men. From thence the two Corps are to proceed Southwards through the Countries of the Mac Donalds of Moidart and Knoidart, whilst Captain Scot, with the old Garrison of Fort William, which was relieved two Days ago by Brigadier General Houghton's Regiment, will advance from the South to meet them; and Major General Campbell, or the Officer commanding the Argyllshire Militia in his Absence, is to scout the Country about Mingary Castle. It is to be hoped this Force will disperse the small Remains of the Rebels, if any of them should be got together. His Royal Highness proposes to wait here the Return of this Detachment, and that will prevent his marching from hence so soon as he otherwise would have done. By this Time all the Rebel Prisoners are sailed for Newcastle. His Royal Highness has authentick Intelligence, that the Pretender's Son embarked in a small Boat three or four Days after the Action of Culloden for Long Island, from whence he was dodging backwards and forwards in a small Vessel, even some Time after the French Ships were off the Coast. There are also confirm'd Accounts received from several Parts, that the Rebels are now totally dispersed, and that that there are not, in any Part, 50 of them together.

At the same Time the following Advices were received by Express from Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, June 8. The Embarkation of the Hessian Troops will be finished this Night, so that they will be ready to sail To-morrow.

By Letters from Inverary we are informed, that on the 27th of last Month General Campbell sailed with 1000 choice Argyllshire Men from Dunstaffnage, and that Night anchored in Tabermory Bay in Mull, and next Day arrived at Stronhan, the Heart of Lochiel's Clan, where Mr. Cameron of Dungallon brought in his Men and Arms to Major General Campbell, and with them surrendered to the King's Mercy. The Inhabitants of Morvern and Ardnamurchan are doing the same. Lochiel with his Uncle Ludowick, Murray the Secretary, and some others, are on the North Side of Lochiel with no great Attendance, and must soon quit their Quarters.

Kensington, June 14.

The following Address of the Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of London, has been presented to his Majesty by Peter Burrell, Esq; attended by a Committee of Merchants appointed for that Purpose.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and others, of your City of London, with Hearts warmed with the sincerest Joy, beg Leave to approach your sacred Throne, and, amidst the general Satisfaction of a truly grateful People, to present our particular Congratulations upon the late happy Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the Suppressing a most wicked and unnatural Rebellion.

The fatal Blow thereby attempted to be given to the Trade and publick Credit of this Nation, gave us the greatest Concern; And it is with equal Pleasure we find that Blow averted, and Trade and publick Credit (which has so long flourished under your Majesty's auspicious (spicious Government) again restored and secured to us.

We are highly sensible of the glorious Consequences, which will redound to this Kingdom from this great Event; and when we consider the heroick Part his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland has acted in it, we promise ourselves, that latest Posterity will enjoy the Fruits of this signal Victory, and a lasting Happiness be entailed upon your People, by a long Succession of your Royal Progeny.

May your Majesty's invaluable Life be long preserved — May your Councils be prospered, to the full Detection of the traitorous Designs of your Enemies, and the Strengthening of our common Security — And may the Crown flourish in your Majesty's Royal House till Time shall be no more.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for the repeated Marks of your Zeal and Affection for my Person and Government. Your Congratulations on the Success of my Arms, under the Command of my Son the Duke, against the Rebels, are very agreeable to me; and you may be assured, I shall always have at Heart the Welfare and Prosperity of the Trade of my Kingdoms.

The following Address of the Bishop, Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham, having been transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Durham, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Lord Lieutenant, the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, and the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Durham,

Humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the late most important and glorious Victory, obtained by his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, over your Majesty's most perfidious and rebellious Subjects, influenced and supported by the united Malice of the House of Bourbon, the avowed Enemies of Liberty; and for that Reason only, the constant Enemies of your Majesty and your Kingdoms; without whose Ruin and Destruction they can never hope to impose their detested Yoke of universal Bondage.

When therefore we reflect upon a Rebellion founded in the Ambition of those Powers, and big with all the Mischiefs which Popery and Slavery can bring upon a Free and Protestant Nation, we are deeply sensible of our great Deliverance from the Dangers which threatened us, and approach your sacred Person with the most sincere Expressions of Joy and Gratitude: We thankfully acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness and early Care in sending an Army under the Command of Marshal Wade for our Security; but your tender Regard for your People, in hazarding the precious Life of your Son for their Safety, raises in us the highest Emotions of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, not only as our King, but as our common Father.

Permit us, on this Occasion also, to rejoice in the rising Glory of your Majesty's Arms, under the wise and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highness; From the happy Defeat of Rebellious Insolence we presage greater Things; and doubt not but, under the Protection of Heaven, as he has already been a Terror to Rebels at Home, he will prove the Scourge of your Majesty's Enemies Abroad, and the Avenger of Violence and Oppression.

May intestine Divisions and Commotions never interrupt or obstruct your Majesty's Designs for the publick Good; and may Success attend your unwearied Endeavours to restore the Blessings of a solid and lasting Peace to these Nations, and to all Europe. The Experience of the Justice and Clemency of your Majesty's Government sufficiently justifies the Wisdom of our Ancestors in the Settlement of the Crown of these Realms upon your illustrious House. May your Majesty long wear it to your own Glory, and the Happiness of your Subjects; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Blood to fill your Majesty's Throne with equal Justice and Virtue, to defend the Faith and Liberties of your People, and to vindicate the Rights of Mankind.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, having been transmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of Durham, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen,

Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Durham, in Common Council assembled, humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late happy and glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, against your rebellious Subjects in Scotland, assisted by your most inveterate Enemies to our happy Constitution.

It is with Hearts full of the sincerest Gratitude, that we acknowledge your Majesty's Paternal Regard for the Good of your dutiful Subjects, in the appointing of his Royal Highness the Duke to take the Command of your Majesty's Arms at so critical a Juncture; whose inimitable Expedition to that important Service, surmounting all Difficulties to come at your Enemies, displaying the General by his Prudence and Conduct, and demonstrating his Courage and Bravery, in the Time of the greatest Danger, has, by the Blessing of the Almighty, obtained a compleat Victory, which cannot fail of rendering him amiable to all your Majesty's Subjects, and in a particular Manner to us, who are thereby deliver'd from the terrible Apprehensions of Rapine and Plunder.

This Attempt of your Enemies, how wickedly soever contrived and intended to shake your Majesty's Throne, will, we hope, be the Means to establish it the more firmly in your Majesty's Royal House.

May the Divine Providence guard and protect your Majesty's precious Life to reign long over us, give Success to your Councils and Arms against all your Enemies; and may there never be wanting a Prince of your Majesty's Blood to vindicate the Right to your British Throne, and maintain the Liberty of your Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Poole, has been presented to his Majesty by Joseph Gulston, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Great Sir,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of your ancient and ever loyal Town and County of Poole, beg Leave to throw ourselves at your sacred Feet, with the sincerest Congratulations, on the Success of your Majesty's Forces, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, against your Rebellious Subjects; though assisted by two great Powers, who are sensible they cannot prevail against us, nor enslave Europe but by dividing us.

We beg Leave likewise, Royal Sir, to congratulate you on the great and signal Blessing with which Providence favour'd your righteous Cause, on that glorious and memorable Day, in the Preservation of his Royal Highness, (though always in the Heat of Battle) to be a Terror to all desperate and unnatural Rebels and Enemies to your sacred Majesty and our happy Constitution.

May that same Providence still continue to watch over your sacred Majesty; may it prosper your Arms Abroad as it has at Home; and when late, very late, you shall be taken to a more glorious and eternal Kingdom, may there never be wanting a Prince in your August Family to sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms, which you have so gloriously and triumphantly preserved from Popish Slavery, and to transmit down our Liberties to all succeeding Generations.

Poole, June 4, 1746.

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Ross, having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Argyll, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most Gracious Sovereign;

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Ross, met in Synod, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our warmest Congratulations on the happy Occasion of suppressing the late unnatural Rebellion, by the Blessing of God on your Majesty's Arms, under the Heroick Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, so illustrious a Branch of your August House.

Sensible of our own and the Nation's Happiness, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign and indulgent Government; with what Horror and Surprize did we look on the audacious and ungrateful Attempt of those who were so infatuate as to concur in a Rebellion against such a Government, in Favours of a popish Pretender, supported by France, and other popish Powers.

As Members of a Church, under the strongest Obligations to distinguish herself by a firm and zealous Adherence to the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Family, our Duty, our Principles, our most valuable Interests, determined us to exert ourselves in testifying against so horrid an Insurrection, and warning our Congregations of the Sin and Danger of it, at our utmost Peril: And though, with deep Regret, we observe too many in our Bounds concurring in it, and some of them of considerable Rank in the Country; yet with Pleasure we can assure your Majesty, that few of them were of our Communion; that, on the contrary, many Families of greatest Power amongst us opposed it to the utmost; some of the oldest Families in the Country, no less eminent for their untainted Loyalty than steady Adherence to Revolution Principles, have suffered deeply both in their Lives and Fortunes in so good a Cause; and many of inferior Rank cheerfully took Arms in Defence of your Majesty's Person and Government, the great Bulwark, under God, of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and underwent the greatest Hardships by the Cruelty and Ravage of lawless Men, by which they are reduced to the most calamitous Condition.

That our Gracious God, who has set your Majesty at the Head of a Protestant Interest, and so remarkably protected your Majesty's Person hitherto, may continue to multiply his Blessings on your Majesty's Sacred Person and Royal House, direct your Councils, give Success to your Arms, against all Enemies foreign and domestick: That all their wicked Attempts to shake your Majesty's Throne, and disturb the Peace of your Kingdoms, may prove vain and abortive, and issue in the further Establishment of the one, and greater Repose and Tranquillity of the other: That He, by whom Kings reign, may make your Reign long and prosperous in His Fear, and to His Glory, over a brave, free and loyal People, and perpetuate the Happiness of it to these Nations in your August Family, is and shall be the most fervent Prayer of,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Ross, assembled at Cromertie this Twenty third Day of April 1746.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by Joseph Munro, Moderator.

The following Address of the Barons, Freeholders and other Gentlemen of the County of Elgin and Torres in North Britain, has been presented to his Majesty by Ludowick Grant, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauchberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Barons, Freeholders, and other Gentlemen of the County of Elgin and Torres in North Britain, now assembled in a County Meeting, for the first Time since the Rise of the present unnatural and ungrateful Rebellion, humbly beg Leave to declare our utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of that wicked and daring Attempt in Favour of a Popish Pretender, solemnly renounced and abjured by this Nation; an Attempt that is big with every Evil which can undo a free People, and subvert our inestimable Privileges both Civil and Sacred.

At the same Time we, with Hearts full of Joy, congratulate your Majesty upon the signal Victory, so lately obtain'd by your Majesty's Arms under the Command and Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, over these unnatural Rebels: A Victory so cheap to your Majesty's Forces, so seasonable to your oppressed Subjects, and so compleat over these audacious Rebels, that it cannot but perpetuate the Glory of his Royal Highness, as, under your Majesty, the Deliverer of our Country, and Defender of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

It is with the greatest Pleasure that we can assure your Majesty, that there has not one Freeholder or Gentleman of Distinction in this our County joined in this Rebellious Insurrection; and that our unshaken Loyalty and firm Adherence to your Majesty's Person and Government, has exposed us to the Violence and Rage of the Rebels, and made our County suffer as much as any County in North-Britain.

But, sensible that those invaluable Blessings which we have hitherto enjoy'd under your Majesty's auspicious Government, can only be secured to us by the Stability of your Throne, and of the Protestant Succession in your Royal House, we are firmly resolved to concur in every Measure conducive to these great Ends, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

That the Almighty may bless and preserve your Person, prosper your Councils, give Success to your Arms, restore Tranquillity to your Realms, establish your Throne on the firmest Foundations, and perpetuate to latest Posterities our present Blessings, by a never-failing Succession in your Royal Line, is and ever must be the ardent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed in our Presence, in our County Meeting in Elgin, this 17th Day of May 1746, by our Preses.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, has been presented to his Majesty by Lewis Stucley, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and principal Inhabitants of Bideford.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and principal Inhabitants of Bideford, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, against the Rebels in Scotland.

Without this Success, Britain might have had no other Security for the free Exercise of the Protestant Religion, but the Indulgence of Rome; and no other Security of her Trade and her ancient Rights and Liberties, but the Arbitrary Power of France; so that without this Success, our Church might have been reduced under the Dominion of a Vicar General of Rome, and our State and Civil Government under a French Vice-roy: But your Majesty, in abundant Goodness to your People, hath been pleased, by Means of a Royal Branch of your own illustrious Family, to deliver us from all these Dangers which threaten'd us.

May all Officers of this Realm, however dignified or distinguished, imitate the great and heroic Example of the Duke.—May they, with true Loyalty to your Majesty, and Duty to their Country, in their several Stations, behave as they ought to do.—And that your Majesty may long reign, for the Glory and Protection of Britain, and of all our just Rights and Liberties; and that all our Posterity may be blessed with a perpetual Succession of Royal Branches of your illustrious Family to the Crown of this Kingdom, for the Security of our glorious and happy Constitution, is our hearty and united Prayer.

The following Address of the Bailiff, Recorder, Bailiff's Peers and Burgeses of the Corporation of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, has been presented to his Majesty by Isaac Hawkins Brown and Brook Forrester, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Bailiff, Recorder, Bailiff's Peers and Burgeses of your ancient and loyal Corporation of Wenlock, in the County of Salop, at our Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to join in the general Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms against the Rebels: An Event which cannot but give the highest Satisfaction to all who know the Value of being a Protestant and a Free People.

It was indeed astonishing to find, that any who call themselves Protestants, could be so far infatuated, as to renounce your Majesty's mild and gracious Protection, in Exchange for the worst of Calamities, Popery, and a Foreign Yoke.

But we promise ourselves, that the late Dangers to which we were exposed, will have no other Effect, than that of uniting your Majesty's faithful Subjects more strongly, if possible, in Support of their present Happiness; and that your Majesty's Government (far from being weakened by the Consequences of this intestine Mischief) will derive new Strength and Stability from those very Means that were used to subvert it.

Permit us, Sir, to acknowledge your Goodness, in appointing his Royal Highness the Duke to put in Force those Measures which your Majesty's Wisdom had formed for the publick Safety.

And though it could not be doubted but that this Rebellion would end in the Confusion of those engaged in it; yet the putting so speedy and so seasonable an End to it, was a Task worthy of his Royal Highness to undertake, and to be expected only from his distinguished Vigilance, Courage and Conduct.

May your Majesty and your Royal Progeny continue to reign over these Kingdoms till Time shall be no more.

And may there never be wanting to your Majesty's Successors a Descendant of your Royal House to go forth with their Armies, and to be at once an Ornament to their Throne, and a Defence to their People.

Given under the Common Seal of our said Corporation, the sixth Day of June, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chipping Wycombe in the County of Bucks, has been presented to his Majesty by Edmund Waller, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeses and principal Inhabitants of the Corporation of Chepping Wycombe in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Success of your Arms, and the putting an End to the Rebellion by the Conduct and Bravery of his Royal Highness the Duke.

A Rebellion raised and supported by our Foreign Enemies for Views of their own, (in which they have been too successful) at the Expence of a deluded and infatuated People ; whose dear bought Experience, of trusting in the Support and being the Tools only of Foreign Powers, must the more firmly establish and confirm to us and our Posterity the Blessings of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty and your Royal Family ; and we are the more fully convinced of it, and Foreign Nations must be so, from that Zeal and Duty that has so manifestly appear'd in all your Subjects of this Part of your united Kingdom, and how vain any future Attempts must be against your Majesty, your Royal Family, and all that is dear and valuable to a Protestant and Free People.

Given under our Hands and Common Seal of the said Corporation, the fifth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1746.

Petersbourg, May 10. On Thursday last, at the Summer Palace, General Bredlach had his Audience of her Imperial Majesty, as Ambassador from the Emperor and Empress Queen of Hungary.

Stockholm, May 23, O. S. The King is at present at Carlsberg, the Prince and Princess at Ulrickthal, and most of the Senators in the Country. Towards the latter End of last Week, the King and Senate issued a Proclamation, summoning the Diet to meet here at Stockholm upon the 15th of September next.

Vienna, June 8, N. S. The two Armies before Placentia continue to cannonade each other, but hitherto without any Effect. The Spaniards have passed the Po with a considerable Detachment, whereupon M. de Roth is retired to Pizzighitone, but with an Intention to return to his Post at Fiombio, as soon as the Enemy shall have retired over the Bridge at Placentia with whatever Booty they shall have found in that Corner of the Milanese. Prince Lichtenstein has in the mean Time intercepted two Spanish Couriers, by which he has been inform'd of the Streights M. de Gages is in for Want of Provisions ; which is so great, as to have obliged him to send away a great Part of his Cavalry ; and it is discover'd by the same Letters, that M. Maillebois remain'd exposed to the Piedmontese with only fourteen Battalions.

Berlin, June 4, N. S. Yesterday, very early in the Morning, young Count Podewils set out for Vienna, as did some Days before M. St. Saurin, the King's Aid de Camp, for the French Camp in Flanders.

Berlin, June 7, N. S. The King of Prussia is to leave Pymont upon the 8th Instant, and to be at Potsdam upon the 10th. Upon the 12th he comes hither, and will dine at the Queen Mother's. Upon the 4th Instant M. Rudiger, Counsellor to Count Promnitz did Homage here, in his Master's Name, for the Seignory of Plesse in Silesia, to Count Podewils, and the Minister of State M. Arnim, Representatives of his Prussian Majesty.

Berlin, June 11, N. S. The Prince of Prussia went upon the 9th Instant to Potsdam, in order to meet the King there the next Day. His Majesty is expected here the 14th or 15th.

Copenhagen, June 11, N. S. The last Post from Norway brings Advice from his Britannick Majesty's Consul at Bergen, that thirteen Persons had been seized upon the 24th of last Month, and were confined there upon Suspicion of having been concerned in the Rebellion in Scotland. Private Advices say, that after the Battle of Culloden they had seized upon a small Sloop belonging to Dundee ; and, by threatening to shoot the Master, James Weems, had forced him to set Sail with them for Gottenberg ; but the Wind turning contrary, they were obliged to put into the River of Bergen, where they were taken, and committed to the Castle.

Liege, June 10, N. S. Our Commissary, who has follow'd the French Army to before Mons with General D'Etres, confirms the Investiture of that Place. Upon the 7th the French advanced to within Cannon-shot of that Town. M. D'Etres narrowly escaped being killed by a Cannon Ball from the Ramparts. The French reckon'd they should be able to block up the Town by the 9th. The Garrison consists of about 5000 Men. The Prince of Conti, who is arrived at Maubeuge, was expected to command at the Siege.

Brussels, June 10, N. S. By Letters of the last Post from Rochelle, the Brest Squadron was detained at the Isles of Aic by contrary Winds. The French King is expected at Versailles upon the the 15th or 16th. We have Advices from Italy of the 28th of last Month, that the Army under Marshal Maillebois was entered into the Genoese Territory.

Brussels, June 13, N. S. The Brest Squadron still continues in the Road of Aic near Rochelle. We have Advice from Italy, that the Sardinian Troops were preparing to invest Tortona; and we expect every Moment to hear of an Action between the Austrian and Spanish Armies near Placentia. We hear from Nantes, that on the 6th Instant N. S. the Mars and Bellona, two Ships which were some Time ago sent to Scotland with Supplies for the Pretender's Son, returned thither. They were attacked in the Bay of Loch Noway by an English Frigate and two English Sloops, which, after an Engagement of five Hours, were obliged to retire. Several Passengers arrived on Board the above Vessels, and amongst others, Lord John Drummond, Mess. Sheridan, Sullivan, and Lochiel jun. The Duke of Perth died in his Passage. They brought no News of the Pretender's Son. On Thursday last 105 Carriages for Ordnance arrived here from Antwerp by Land, and an equal Number of Cannon of the largest Bore came the next Day by Water. 'Tis believed that this Artillery is intended to be used in the Sieges of Charleroy and Namur, after the Taking of Mons, from whence there is a continual Fire on the Besiegers, who have drained the Waters, and begun to erect their Batteries. The French King set out from this Place for Versailles last Sunday Morning. The Army under Marshal Saxe is encamped with their Right three Leagues beyond Antwerp, and their Left extends above Liere.

Brussels, June 16. The French began to fire upon Mons the Day before Yesterday. The Army under the Prince of Conti is in full March to cover the Siege of that Town, and the Prince himself is to command the Siege. The French Garrison which is at Louvain is preparing to leave that Place, not being able to sustain the frequent Skirmishes they are exposed to from the Pandours and Hussars.

Brussels, June 20, N. S. It now appears, that the French lost above 400 Men upon the 14th Instant, in the Neighbourhood of Hoogstraten, their Avant Guard having been attacked with so much Fury by the Austrians, that the Grenadiers of the Regiment Royal Vaisseaux, the Uhlans, and the Dragoons of Saxe, were almost entirely cut to Pieces. A Corps of 3000 Austrian Light Troops having, upon Thursday last, advanced to the Gates of Louvain, the French Garrison, after a vigorous Defence of three Hours, was obliged to retire out of that Town. The French before Mons continue firing very briskly from three different Places upon that Town; and the Besieged defend themselves with great Resolution. All the Boats upon this Canal have been stopp'd, and are to be sent towards Antwerp, in order for building of Bridges over the Schelde. We have Advice from Paris of the 17th Instant, that the Brest Squadron remained off the Isles of Aic upon the 11th.

Campveer, June 11. About a Fortnight ago Commodore Mitchel chased on Shore near Gravelines a French Ship of 24 Guns bound for Dunkirk. Since that the Commodore has chased on Shore near Blankenberg a large French Cutter. She had been to Scotland with Officers and Money, and had landed her Money and three of the Officers; but being ordered farther North, was met with and chased.

Camp at Terhyde, June 14, N. S. We learn by our latest Advices, that the French Army is posted in the Lines near Antwerp, under the Command of Count Saxe, and that a Body of 40,000 Men has been detached from the same, under the Command of M. Lowendahl, who first seemed to intend to invest Charleroy, but has quitted that, and invested Mons. It is reported the French King was to leave the Army on Sunday last. The first Division of Hanoverians arrived in Camp on Sunday, and the 4th and last comes in To-morrow. Their Corps are very compleat, and in perfect good Order. The greatest Part of the Dutch Troops, that were taken Prisoners at Brussels, have found Means to escape, and are come back to several of the Dutch Garrisons. A very great Desertion continues from the French Army.

Camp at Terhyde, June 17, N. S. On the 14th Count Saxe advanced with a reconnoitring Party of 22 Companies of Grenadiers, and some Regiments of Horse towards Hoogstraten, and detached 1200 Uhlans, Part Horse and Part Foot, as his advanced Guard. Some advanced Parties of our Hussars, to the Number of about 400, having Intelligence of them, immediately attacked and pushed them, till they retired towards their main Body: They have killed a Major and three Lieutenants, and taken two Captains and 65 Men Prisoners, with little or no Loss on our Side. The Number of the Enemy killed and wounded amounts to about 300. The Command at Hoogstraten, under General Baronay, was Yesterday reinforced by a Major General with 1600 Foot and 600 Horse.

Camp at Terhyde, June 21. We have no certain Accounts of the Progress the French have made in their Attack upon Mons. They made an Attempt to take St. Guilain by Surprise, but were disappointed: The Garrison of that Place consists of about 400 Men; and we reckon the Garrison of Mons about 5000. The Inundations there are very high. The main Body of the French Army continues in the same Position Position between Lier and Antwerp, but Marshal Saxe has posted a Detachment between Antwerp and Bergen op Zoom. Upon the 18th the Enemy made a Forage towards Hoogstraten; and 8 or 9000 Men, with four Pieces of Cannon, were ordered to cover the Foragers. The Detachment under Colonel Franquin lost but 25 Men, the Remainder of the 100 that were missing having join'd them next Day.

Hague, June 14, N. S. The French King is returned for a short Time to Versailles. The French are said to have open'd the Trenches before Mons on the 9th Instant. Notwithstanding the Arrival of his Britannick Majesty's Hanoverian Troops, the last Division of which marches into Camp To-morrow, and the daily expected Return of the Hessian Infantry, whose Recruits and Cloathing are waiting for them at Boisleduc, Marshal Saxe dares still make considerable Detachments towards the Sambre and the Meuse; and he has, within these ten Days, foraged all the Country on this Side Brabant, with a View, as it is thought, of rendering it the more difficult for Marshal Bathiani to advance. The six Regiments of Infantry, belonging to the Austrian Reinforcements in March from the Empire, together with about 2000 Recruits, will embark on the 20th of this Month at Cologne; where Boats and Provisions are, as is said, all lying ready for them. For the more plentiful Supply of the Allied Army, whilst it lays upon the Republick's Territory, the States General have granted a general Franchise for all Sorts of Necessaries carried to it, and sold there.

Hague, June 17, N. S. The Siege of Mons is supposed to be carrying on, but no Particulars of its Progress are known here. On Wednesday a smart Skirmish happen'd in the Neighbourhood of Hoogstraten, between a Party of 3 or 400 Austrian Hussars, and a Detachment of 1000 Oulans, which was escorting Marshal Saxe on a reconnoitring Party. The latter are said to have been routed with a considerable Loss, and the Marshal to have had some Difficulty to disengage himself. The States General have named M. Hochepied, a Magistrate of Harlem, and a near Relation of their Consul at Smyrna, for their Ambassador at the Ottoman Porte. The Letters from the Armies in Italy, of the 3d Instant, bring nothing very material.

Hague, June 21, N. S. Nothing of Consequence has passed upon the Frontier lately, except a little Skirmish near Louvain between some advanced Parties of Hussars of the two Armies. The Corps of Austrians in March for the Rhine to join the Allied Army in the Netherland, was expected at Coblenz upon the 19th past. The Austrians in Italy have forced two Posts, called Ripalta and Montechiaro, which are represented as considerable.

Whitehall, June 14.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable John Earl of Stair, Field Marshal of his Majesty's Forces, to be General over all and singular the Marine Forces, employed or to be employed in his Majesty's Service.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Sir Jacob Acworth, Knight, and Joseph Allin, Esq; to be jointly and severally Surveyor of his Majesty's Navy and Ships.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Eyre, Esq; the Offices of Prothonotary and Clerk of the Crown of the Counties of Glamorgan, Brecknock, and Radnor.

Whitehall, May 30, 1746.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that on Wednesday the 24th of May, between the Hours of Eleven and Twelve at Night, John Milles, Esq; was attacked in David street, between Grosvenor-street and Mount-street, by four Foot-pads armed with Pistols, one of whom stop't the said John Milles's Mouth, another of them held his Hands over his Eyes, whilst the others holding him fast, and threatening to murder him if he made the least Noise or Resistance, rifled his Pockets, and took from him a Silk Purse with some Guineas in it, a Gold Watch, with a Steel Chain, and two Seals set in Gold, besides several Keys and other Things: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concern'd in the said Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of the Offenders who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, they, or any of them, be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Gentlemen of the Vestry of the Parish of St. George Hanover Square, do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds for such Discovery, to be paid on the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Simon Parry, their Vestry Clerk, at his House in Conduit Street.

J. Parry.
