Whitehall, June 11.

THIS Day an Express arrived from his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, with the following Advices.

Fort Augustus, June 5. Lord George Sackville and Major Wilson are marched to the Barrack of Bernera with 500 Foot, from whence they are to proceed Southward along the Coast, till they come over-against the Head of Loch-Arkek, where Lieutenant Colonel Cornwallis is with another Body of 300 Men. From thence the two Corps are to proceed Southwards through the Countries of the Mac Donalds of Moidart and Knoidart, whilst Captain Scot, with the old Garrison of Fort William, which was relieved two Days ago by Brigadier General Houghton's Regiment, will advance from the South to meet them; and Major General Campbell, or the Officer commanding the Argyllshire Militia in his Absence, is to scout the Country about Mingary Castle. It is to be hoped this Force will disperse the small Remains of the Rebels, if any of them should be got together. His Royal Highness proposes to wait here the Return of this Detachment, and that will prevent his marching from hence so soon as he otherwise would have done. By this Time all the Rebel Prisoners are sailed for Newcastle. His Royal Highness has authentick Intelligence, that the Pretender's Son embarked in a small Boat three or four Days after the Action of Culloden for Long Island, from whence he was dodging backwards and forwards in a small Vessel, even some Time after the French Ships were off the Coast. There are also confirm'd Accounts received from several Parts, that the Rebels are now totally dispersed, and that that there are not, in any Part, 50 of them together.

At the same Time the following Advices were received by Express from Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, June 8. The Embarkation of the Hessian Troops will be finished this Night, so that they will be ready to sail To-morrow.

By Letters from Inverary we are informed, that on the 27th of last Month General Campbell sailed with 1000 choice Argyllshire Men from Dunstaffnage, and that Night anchored in Tabermory Bay in Mull, and next Day arrived at Stronhan, the Heart of Lochiel's Clan, where Mr. Cameron of Dungallon brought in his Men and Arms to Major General Campbell, and with them surrendered to the King's Mercy. The Inhabitants of Morvern and Ardnamurchan are doing the same. Lochiel with his Uncle Ludowick, Murray the Secretary, and some others, are on the North Side of Lochiel with no great Attendance, and must soon quit their Quarters.

Kensington, June 14.

The following Address of the Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of London, has been presented to his Majesty by Peter Burrell, Esq; attended by a Committee of Merchants appointed for that Purpose.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Traders, and others, of the City of London.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and others, of your City of London, with Hearts warmed with the sincerest Joy, beg Leave to approach your sacred Throne, and, amidst the general Satisfaction of a truly grateful People, to present our particular Congratulations upon the late happy Success of your Majesty's Arms, in the Suppressing a most wicked and unnatural Rebellion.

The fatal Blow thereby attempted to be given to the Trade and publick Credit of this Nation, gave us the greatest Concern; And it is with equal Pleasure we find that Blow averted, and Trade and publick Credit (which has so long flourished under your Majesty's auspicious
