Kensington, June 25.

THIS Day was presented to his Majesty by the Reverend Mr. Samuel Chandler, attended by several of his Brethren, the humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Protestant Dissenting Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Presence, to offer our sincerest and warmest Congratulations for the happy Suppression of that impious and unnatural Rebellion, which hath been excited and carried on by ungrateful and perjured Men, in Favour of an outlaw'd, abjured, and popish Pretender.

How just were our Fears at the unexpected Progress of this wicked Attempt; and to what substantial Miseries must we have been reduced, had God, for our Sins, permitted it finally to prosper! Your Majesty's just and equitable Government, and in this every dear and valuable Interest belonging to us as Men, Christians, and Protestants, were the sacred Objects immediately struck at, and the Sacrifices intended to be made to the Ambition and Perfidy of France, the Superstition and Cruelty of Rome, and the presumptuous Claims of the desperate and worthless Invader of your Majesty's Dominions.

The seasonable and entire Victory with which God has blessed your Majesty's Arms, is attended with so many happy Consequences not only to these Kingdoms, but to the Protestant Religion and the Liberties of Europe, as will never be forgotten, whilst we know how to value the inestimable Blessings it hath secured; and well deserves all the most grateful and publick Acknowledgments to Almighty God, that a People doomed to Ruin, and saved by him from Destruction, is capable of returning.

The Choice of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, to be at the Head of your Majesty's Forces on this important Occasion, is the noblest Demonstration of your Majesty's high Regard for the National Welfare, and that in your Royal Breast the private Affection of a Father is taught to give Way to the publick Good; and will transmit the Remembrance of your Majesty to all future Ages, under the most honourable Character that a King can bear, the Friend, the Father of your People. And how distinguished is your Majesty's Happiness, that the Freeing these Kingdoms from Outrage, Sedition, and Rebellion, was by Providence reserved for this illustrious Royal Youth, early treading the Paths of Glory, and formed under your great Example, to be a Scourge to your Majesty's and his Country's Enemies, and a general Blessing to these favour'd Kingdoms.

That your Majesty may long live, beloved and honour'd by all your Subjects, feared and submitted to by all your Enemies, and be, under God, continued the Guardian of Liberty, and the Protector of true Religion: That all your Majesty's Blessings may be hereditary, your Honours descend to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, and the Succession to your Imperial Crown never fail in your August Family. These, Sir, are our fervent Prayers, and of all who wish well to themselves, or have any just Concern for the Safety and Happiness of their Posterity.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer.

I THANK you for your Congratulations on the Success of my Arms, under the Command of my Son the Duke, against the Rebels. I am truly sensible of the Zeal which you have shewed, upon all Occasions, for the Support of my Government: And you may depend upon the Continuance of my Protection.

And they had all the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the Governor, Council, and Burgeses of the Colony of Virginia, having been transmitted by William Gooch, Esq; Lieutenant Governor of the said Colony, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, was by him presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Governor, Council, and Burgeses, now met in General Assembly, at the City of Williamsburgh, the twenty-first Day of February; in the Nineteenth Year of your Majesty's most glorious and gracious Reign.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit us, your ever faithful People, to present your Majesty with our most fervent Vows for the lasting Prosperity of your Royal Person and Family; and also, with our unanimous Association, entered into this Day, to devote our Lives and Fortunes to that important Purpose

United by every Tie which can bind a People, the Efforts of whose Gratitude cannot equal its Ardour, we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we are among the most zealous of our Fellow-Subjects in your Royal Cause, although, through our remote Situation we could not be among the foremost to profess our Loyalty; and that we are ready to oppose ourselves to every Danger, which can affect the Safety of your Majesty's Sacred Person and Family, the surest Defence, under God, of British Freedom and Religious Truth.

May the Great Lord of Hosts go forth with your Majesty's Armies, break the Bow, and keep the Spear in sunder, which are impiously lifted up against His Anointed: May Heaven direct and prosper all your Majesty's Councils; and may the King of Kings so hear the Prayers of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, that your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and happy; and in Succession, that of your Royal House, to the last Moment of Time.

The Association.

WHEREAS, there is an horrid and unnatural Rebellion formed and carried on in Scotland, excited by popish Treason, to deprive us of our Religion, Liberty and Properties, by dethroning (which God forbid) his Sacred Majesty King George, our only lawful and rightful King; and by bringing in, to rule us with the Iron Rod of Cruelty and Usurpation, an abjured Pretender, the abject Deserter on the Bigotry of Rome, and the Tyranny of Spain and France;

We the Governor, Council, and Burgeses of Virginia, now met in General Assembly, in Behalf of ourselves, and of all the good People of this his Majesty's most ancient Colony and Dominion, being unalterably determined to oppose and prevent, to our utmost, every Treason against the Person and Family of his most Sacred Majesty King George, and any Subversion of our most excellent Establishment in Church or State; in Gratitude to his Majesty, and Love to our Country; do voluntarily and willingly bind ourselves, every one of us to the other, jointly and severally, in the Band of one firm and loyal Society; and do hereby promise, that with our whole Powers, Bodies, Lives, and Estates, we and every of us, will stand by and assist each other in the Support of his Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and will withstand, offend, and pursue, as well by Force of Arms, as by all other Means, the said Popish Pretender and Traytors; and also all Manner of Persons, of whatsoever State they be, and their Abettors, that shall attempt, act, counsel, or consent, to any Thing that shall tend to the Harm of his Majesty King George, or his Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, or any of their Issue, or to the Subversion of His Majesty's Government. And we do, by this Instrument, declare, that no one of us shall, for any Respect of Person or Causes, or for Fear or Reward, separate ourselves from this Association, or fail in the Prosecution thereof, during our Lives.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Barnet staple, in the County of Devon, having been presented to the King, his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Barnet staple in the County of Devon, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgeses, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Arms in North Britain; under the Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke.

Possessed of a Spirit ever attached to Liberty, and of a Courage and Resolution derived from your Majesty, in whom those Virtues are so eminently conspicuous, he was eager to approve himself himself worthy of his Royal Father; he flew to our Assistance when our Liberties were in Danger, and by his Prudence, his Valour and his Humanity, has convinced the deluded Favourers of a foreign Family, that your's, Sir, only is fit to govern.

May it ever, under the Protection of the Almighty, be Guardian of the Liberties of Europe and of your People; may this glorious Event be attended by the like Successes Abroad, and an honourable Peace with the Possession of Cape Breton, the Reward of your earnest Endeavours: May Riches flow into the Nation, and render your People happy, and your Majesty the Comptroller of Europe; and may your People, ever free and ever happy, sensible of your Majesty's Royal Wisdom and Goodness, unanimously reject all Dependence and Regard for those who are Abroad, and join in universal Obedience to the greatest and best of Kings.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the 19th Day of June, in the Twentieth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Corporation of Tenby in the County of Pembroke, having been transmitted by William Owen, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Town of Pembroke, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries at State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Corporation of Tenby in the County of Pembroke.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's said most dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly sensible of the late Danger which threatened our Constitution, and that our Religion and Liberty, with whatever else is dear and valuable to a Protestant Country, are, under Divine Providence, best preserved and secured to us by the Continuance of the Crown in your Majesty's most illustrious House, beg Leave to join with the rest of our Fellow-Subjects, in the most unfeigned Congratulations for the compleat Victory obtained over the Rebels by the Valour and Conduct of your Royal Son.

As our Apprehensions about the Issue of the detestable Rebellion were dark and gloomy, so at the News of its Defeat, our Hearts overflow with the sincerest Joy: And every Briton must stand convinced of your Majesty's perternal Care and Concern for your Subjects, from this among other Instances, that you was pleased to make Choice of the Duke for that Service, who by exposing his Royal Person to the most manifest Hazards, from the Fury of a merciless and bloody Rabble, and by putting our Enemies to utter Rout and Confusion, has frustrated the Schemes of Popery and Ambition, rescued our Constitution from impending Ruin, approv'd himself the true Offspring of so heroick a Father, and thereby for ever endeared himself to the People of these Nations.

That the Almighty would vouchsafe to cover his Head in all Dangers, and grant your Majesty long to reign over the Hearts and Affections of a free and a happy People: That all the Disturbers of your Person and Government may so prosper as these Traitors have done; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Line to sway the Sceptre of these Kingdoms, is our constant and most earnest Prayer.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, in Common Council assembled, the 14th Day of June 1746.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley in the County of York, having been transmitted by Charles Pelham, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said Town, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley in the County of York.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Town of Beverley in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, think it our indispensable Duty to present to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the wise and valiant Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, in the North.

The Disappointment of our Enemies, in a Scheme calculated for the Destruction of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and the sudden and almost total Suppression of a rebellious Force, threatenig Devastation, Slavery and Oppression, exceed even the most ardent Expectations of a loyal and affectionate People, and fill us with Hopes, that your Majesty's prudent and mild Administration, your tender Care of your People, your steady Regard to our present Constitution in Church and State, and your your unshaken Resolution in maintaining the Protestant Cause, have firmly established your Throne, and endear'd you to your Subjects.

May you long reign over a loyal and obedient People; may Success ever attend your Councils and Arms; and may there never be wanting a Branch of your Royal House to defend the Rights and Liberties of your British Dominions.

Given under our Common Seal the 5th of June 1746.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Royal Borough of Perth in North Britain, has been presented to his Majesty by Colonel Leslie, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Royal Borough of Perth in North Britain.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Common Council of the Borough of Perth, now that in your Royal Clemency, we do again enjoy our Privileges as a Royal Borough, by your Majesty's Order in Council of the 28th of May last past, authorising us to elect Magistrates and Town Councillors, according to our ancient Constitution, of which we were deprived by the late horrid Rebellion, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Heaven, humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the blessed Event of the Crushing of that most wicked and audacious Attempt of Traitors against your Majesty's Crown and all that is valuable to your loyal Subjects.

When we reflect how these insatuated Rebels, whom no Oaths can bind, nor Mercy soften, were elated and their Numbers increased by their Success against some of your Majesty's Troops at Preston; how they impudently and impiously constructed of the tempestuous Winds and Rains, which prevented their total Overthrow by your Majesty's Troops at Falkirk, as the Interposition of Heaven in their Behalf; and when we reflect, how that great Multitude of Traitors, upon the Approach of our glorious Deliverer his Royal Highness the Duke on the Head of your Majesty's Troops, did retreat and fly before him, till in the near Neighbourhood of these barbarous Northern Parts of this Nation, where a Spirit of mad Disloyalty is chiefly cherished, he did find and defeat them in Battle, we cannot but, maugre the Atheism and Infidelity of this Age, observe the Hand of God in this awful Event, as thereby his Royal Highness, being in the Heart of that Rebellious Country, has it more in his Power to compleat our Deliverance from that wicked Rebellion, and to prevent our Fears of any after Attempts of these silly Tools of haughty France.

May the most High God, by whom Kings reign, continue graciously to preserve your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession to the Crown of Britain in your illustrious House to the latest Ages; for as the true Interest of your Majesty and your Royal Family, and that of the People of Britain and Ireland, are inseparable both as to Sacred and Civil Concerns, the Stability of your Throne must fill our most enlarged Wishes; and this shall ever be our Prayer to God.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the 10th Day of June, 1746, by

Stockholm, June 13, O. S. His Swedish Majesty has been very much indisposed these three Days past with a severe Attack of the Gravel. The Swedish French Officers at Gottenbourg have been told, that as many as are willing to repair to France at their own Expence, shall be employed in the Station and Rank they had been at first engaged to serve in; but such as would not, were at Liberty to return Home, or go where they pleased.

Vienna, June 25, N. S. Since the Arrival of Count Althan with the hasty Account of the Battle of Placentia, we have not received any Advices from Prince Lichtenstein, The Right Wing of the Enemy was repulsed three Times, and was not routed but by the timely falling in of the Austrian Cavalry under the Command of General Luchesi; whereas the Left Wing of the Enemy had repulsed the Austrians three Times before they met with the same Fate. Prince Lichtenstein has obtained great Reputation. He was every where in the Action, and himself, though much indisposed, order'd all the Dispositions which were to be made. Before Count Althan set out from the Army, he saw M. de Gages's Adjutant, who had been to the Austrian Camp to demand an Armistice for the burying of the Dead, and learnt from him, that several of the Enemy's General Officers were killed and wounded. M. Chevert and M. de Mirepoix were said to be dangerously wounded.

Berlin, June 28, N. S. The King of Prussia arrived at Charlottenburg from Potsdam on the 26th Instant, and came to Town the same Evening, accompanied by his Brothers, Margrave Charles, the Duke of Holstein, Prince Leopold of Dessau, Count Podewils, M. Rudenshiold the Swedish Minister, and several Generals. The King supped at the Queen Mother's, and afterwards returned to Charlottenburg, whither the Queen Mother followed Yesterday Noon. Great Diversions, as Concerts, Plays, Masquerades, and a Firework, are to be there.

there, as also at Oranienburg and Reitsberg, during four Days in each Place. His Majesty, it is said, is to go Silesia towards the latter End of August.

Camp at Terhyde, July 5. The Hessian Battalions arrived in Camp Yesterday, and they appear to be in good Order; their Cloathing and Recruits will join them soon.

Rotterdam, July 5, N. S. The Hessians joined the Allied Army Yesterday. The Vanguard of the Austrian Reinforcement from the Rhine, consisting of all their Light Horse, is arrived at Roermonde.

Hague, July 1. We hear that the Empress Queen of Hungary has nominated Marshal Bathiani to succeed Count Kaunitz in the Post of Minister Plenipotentiary for the Government of the Austrian Netherlands.

Hague, July 5, N. S. It is said here, that the 20,000 Austrians are to begin to pass the Rhine, as this Day, at Keysersworth, and it is supposed Marshal Bathiani may soon make a Motion towards his Left, to secure their Passage over the Meuse at Venlo, and their Junction with the Allied Army. That of France continues, according to our Advices, quiet in its old Post; and the Siege of Mons does not seem pushed on with any great Ardour. M. Vander Heim, the Pensionary of Holland, finds his Health so much impaired by the Fatigues of his Post, that he has demanded, and obtained Leave of his Masters to make a Tour for six Weeks to Spa, and proposes to set out To-morrow Se'nnight. The States of Holland have appointed M. Secretary Buys to manage in the mean Time, their Affairs in the Generality, and M. S. Gravemoer, as first Noble, will perform the Functions of Pensionary in their Assembly. By our Advices from Paris of the 1st Instant, N. S. the French lost 4000 Men in the late Engagement near Placentia. The Chevalier Broglio, Colonel of the Regiment of Poitou, was killed, as were several other Colonels, and the Marquis de Mirepoix was dangerously wounded. The French Court was in great Consternation, and Orders had been sent to all the Troops in Franche Comte to march forthwith towards Italy. The same Letters mention, that Post Chaises had been ordered to be ready upon the Roads for the Return of the French King to the Army in the Netherlands, which it was supposed would take Place immediately after the Dauphiness was brought to Bed; and that the Brest Squadron put to Sea from Rochelle the 22d past, N. S.

The following is a List of the said Squadron as we have received it from thence.

The Dutch Ships which are at Rochfort, Rochelle, and other Place, had been detained two Days after the Departure of the French Fleet, for Fear of their giving Intelligence to the English.

The King has been pleased to appoint Sir John Ligonier, Knight of the Bath, to be General and Commander in Chief of all his Majesty's British Forces, and of those in his Majesty's Pay in the Austrian Netherlands,

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday the 3d of July next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, being one of the Quarterly General Courts appointed by the Charter. Robert Lewin, Secretary.

Skinner's Hall, June 25. 1746.

Whereas the Prizes taken by the Prince Frederick and Duke Privateers cannot yet be sold and fully disposed of, several Claims being yet undetermined, neither can the Accounts relating thereto be yet made up or fully adjusted; Nevertheless the Agents for the Captains, Officers and Crews of the said Privateers, for the Convenience of them the said Captains, Officers and Crews, are willing to advance a further Sum upon each Share, on Wednesday the 6th Day of August next, to all such of them who have not sold their Shares against whose Shares there is no Claim, and who shall engage to refund in Case of being overpaid. Attendance will then be given at Skinners Hall for three Days, and on the first Wednesday in every Month afterwards.

General Post-Office, June 24, 1746.

These are to give Notice, That the Post will go every Night (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells and from Tunbridge Wells to London. To begin this Night, and to continue during the Summer Season, as usual.

By Command of the Post-Master General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

June 27, 1746.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Monmouth, that were on Board at the taking the St. Joachim Prize, that the last Dividend will be paid at the Navy Office Coffee-house in Crutched Fryars, on Thursday the 21st of August next, at Ten in the Morning: And such as do not receive their respective Shares then, may receive it at the said Coffee-house every First Thursday in the Month as usual.

Chelsea Hospital, June 28, 1746.
